

At the request of the company, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. New information shows that worker separations have occurred at the subject firms' Jersey Shore and Woolrich, Pennsylvania locations. Workers at these facilities are engaged in cutting and production of fabrics used in the production of ladies; and men's shirts/blouses at Woolrich, Incorporated. The Woolrich, Pennsylvania location is also the Headquarters and administrative office for the subject firm. The workers provide administration and support function services to Woolrich's manufacturing facilities.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Woolrich, Incorporated adversely affected by increased imports.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-36,297 is hereby issued as follows:

"All workers of Woolrich, Incorporated, Soperton facility, Soperton, Georgia (TA-W-36,297), Jersey Shore, Pennsylvania (TA-W-36,297A), and headquarters and production facility, Woolrich, Pennsylvania (TA-W-36,297B) who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after May 21, 1998 through June 21, 2001 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974."

Signed at Washington DC this 30th day of September, 1999.

Grant D. Beale,

Program Manager, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

Employment Standards Administration

Proposed Collection; Comment Request

AGENCY: Notice.

SUMMARY: The Department of Labor, as part of its continuing effort to reduce paperwork and respondent burden, conducts a preclearance consultation program to provide the general public and Federal agencies with an opportunity to comment on proposed and/or continuing collections of information in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (PRA95) [44 U.S.C. 3506(c)(2)(A)]. This program helps to ensure that requested data can be provided in the desired format, reporting burden (time and financial resources) is minimized, collection instruments are clearly understood, and the impact of collection requirements on respondents can be properly assessed. Currently, the Employment Standards Administration is soliciting comments concerning the proposed extension collections of Final Regulations, 29 CFR Part 9, Executive Order 12933 of October 20, 1994; Nondisplacement of Qualified Workers under Certain Contracts. A copy of the proposed information collection request can be obtained by contacting the office listed below in the addressee section of this notice.

DATES: Written comments must be submitted to the office listed in the addressee section below on or before December 17, 1999.

ADDRESSEES: Ms. Patricia A. Forkel, U.S. Department of Labor, 200 Constitution Ave., NW, Room S-3201, Washington, DC 20210, telephone (202) 693-0339 (this is not a toll-free number), fax (202) 693-1451.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

On October 20, 1994, the President signed Executive Order 12933, Nondisplacement of Qualified Workers Under Certain Contracts. The Executive Order requires that workers on a service contract for maintenance of a public building be given the right of first refusal for employment in positions for which they were qualified with the successor contractor, if those employees would otherwise lose their jobs as a result of the termination of the predecessor contractor's contract.

II. Review Focus

The Department of Labor is particularly interested in comments which:

- Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;
- Evaluate the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;
- Enhance the quality, utility and clarity of the information to be collected; and
- Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submissions of responses.

III. Current Actions

The Department of Labor seeks the extension of approval to collect this information in order to carry out its obligation to determine compliance with the Executive Order and its regulations.
