Scott:

we are excited about you coming to GSA at 1:30 today - as Jocelyn may have told you, we are meeting in room 5141.

Just a little note for you to think about for your talk with the team here - I think you could really help us out with morale issues by taking a second to give encouragement to our political team, especially the Administrator - Luxita Doan. she has been beat up pretty badly in the press because of internal leaks and the DC nasty games that are being played on the Hill and inside GSA career ranks, and some words of support and/or encouragement to her leadership from you would really go a long way... it looks to be a tough two years with the stakeholders on the hill, and would be good to hear some positive words from the WH -

See you in a few!
