LEWIS C. FOX, White male, born October 23, 1943, Social Security Account Number [REDACTED], was interviewed at his residence, [REDACTED], telephone [REDACTED], at which time he was immediately advised of the identity of interviewers and the purpose of the interview. FOX provided the following information:

FOX retired from the Uniform Division of the U.S. Secret Service, White House Detail, on January 4, 1997, after 27 years and 3 months of service. FOX usually worked a normal shift from 4:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m., but frequently worked overtime until 6:30 p.m. some evenings. FOX worked many weekends. When the news services were mentioning the name of MONICA LEWINSKY almost constantly last week, FOX was asked by some of his friends, who gather at a restaurant in Waynesburg, whether he knew LEWINSKY. He replied that he did, and this apparently resulted in one of them notifying News Channel 11 in Pittsburgh, who requested an interview. FOX was interviewed at his home several days ago.

FOX received a call from First Name Unknown (FNU) JACKSON of the Bureau of Public Affairs, of the Secret Service in Washington, earlier in the day. FNU JACKSON inquired whether he was going to grant any more interviews and, after some kidding around, FOX replied that he was not. JACKSON advised him that as a result of the television interview he may get subpoenaed. FOX said that he had nothing to hide, and was willing to provide any information that did not affect the security of the President.

FOX first met MONICA LEWINSKY when he was on duty at the Control Point in the basement of the West Wing of the White House. LEWINSKY was wearing an "I" badge, indicating that she was a White House intern, and was accompanied by another young lady who was introduced as a friend from California. MONICA stated that she wanted to take her friend, who had a visitor's badge, upstairs for a limited tour of several rooms. FOX pointed out SUSAN LEVINE, of the Democratic National Committee, who was about to escort several persons from Arkansas on a private tour. LEVINE agreed to take MONICA's friend, and MONICA agreed to wait at the Control Point for her to return. A few minutes later the Vice President came downstairs and passed by, going across the street. Then the President passed by on his way to the Executive Office Building and waved at FOX, MONICA, and the other officers. The tour returned and the President stopped by on his return from EOB and shook their hands and had his photograph taken with the visitors from Arkansas. The President also took a photograph with MONICA, but it did not appear that he knew her at that time. FOX explained that MONICA could obtain an autographed copy of the photo by making a written request. This made MONICA very happy and she inquired, "LEW, do you like chocolates?" FOX replied that he did.

About one week later MONICA called him at his post from downstairs in the White House and came up to see him. MONICA thanked him for his helpfulness in obtaining the photograph with the President and gave him a box of Godiva chocolates. Thereafter, FOX's fellow workers would always refer to MONICA as "your girl" whenever she was seen in the West Wing. FOX explained that this was their way of kidding him, but that he had no social or outside relationship with LEWINSKY. After the chocolate affair, FOX would periodically see LEWINSKY in the Executive Office Building or in the halls and they would always speak to each other. Several weeks later MONICA said that she was getting a permanent pass to the West Wing, after she obtained a paying job in the Congressional Offices in the East Wing. FOX remarked that MONICA had obtained a job much quicker than most of the interns that he has known.

FOX soon started seeing MONICA carrying file folders from the Executive Office Building to BETTY CURRIE's office in the West Wing. FOX stopped by MONICA's office several times to say hello. MONICA always appeared to be very busy.

FOX stated that he was on duty outside the Oval Office on a Saturday or a Sunday, probably about 12:30 p.m. or 1:30 p.m., with a Secret Service Agent when the President opened the door and asked "Have you seen a young congressional staff member?" and he and the Agent replied that they had not. The President said, "I'm expecting one." FOX stated to the Agent, whose name he does not recall, "I'll bet it's MONICA." About ten minutes later MONICA LEWINSKY showed up with some letters for the President. Either FOX or the Agent knocked on the door of the Oval Office and the President said "Yes" and opened the door of the Oval Office. MONICA walked into the Oval Office and the President said "She'll be here awhile" and the door was closed. This occurred on a Saturday or a Sunday, month unrecalled. A nearby television set had a football game on, which they were intermittently watching. MONICA was in the office for an hour or more.

On one other occasion, on a Saturday or Sunday afternoon, FOX was down the hall from the Oval Office and observed LEWINSKY come out of the Oval Office, but he did not observe her enter. This occurred in the afternoon, time unknown. MONICA returned to the East Wing but did not see FOX.

Fellow officers began remarking that LEWINSKY was making regular appearances on weekends at the Oval Office. Some officers working the Oval Office Detail would say, "Your girl came here again." An officer senior to FOX said to him "There's something you might want to know" and the officer, GARY BYRNE, related that he had told a White House staff member that LEWINSKY was making a lot of trips to the Oval Office. Very soon thereafter, BYRNE was apparently called at home by EVELYN LIEBERMAN who wanted to talk to him right away. BYRNE agreed to meet with her at the beginning of his next regular shift and advised her of his observations. Within a week FOX saw MONICA with tears in her eyes in the hallway, and she said, "I don't work here anymore, I'm going to the Pentagon."

FOX saw LEWINSKY at the Oval Office or with the President on these three occasions. FOX cannot recall the dates of these sightings, and his personal diaries do not have notations of these events. The diaries for 1995 and 1996 do indicate the dates and hours that FOX worked. The scheduling department of the Secret Service at the White House would reflect the names of fellow workers on shift with FOX. MONICA did not have any real confidants or friends that FOX was aware of, as she was usually alone. FOX never observed any physical contact between MONICA and the President.

FOX observed HILLARY RODHAM CLINTON come to the Oval Office about three times, but she did not stay long. NANCY Last Name Unknown (LNU) controlled the flow and timing of the visitors to the Oval Office. BETTY CURRIE was always friendly, but did not visit with FOX until his final return before retirement.

FOX stated that the only person who would enter the Oval Office unannounced when the President was there would be the steward. This would occur because the President had requested coffee or something from the kitchen. FOX had occasion to go into the study behind the Oval Office, as this was a function of the guards before the President arrived at the office. The officers would inspect the room to insure that nothing had been disturbed. Sometimes they entered after the President departed to turn out the lights. The study contained a small sofa similar to a love seat, a small stand, and possibly a bookcase. FOX did not know for what purpose the President used the study, but some past Presidents took rest breaks there.

FOX recently learned of a story, from the media, that the President had been caught in a compromising position in the theater by a staff member. FOX had never heard this story and did not know if it had any validity.

The President only went into the theater to practice speeches or to watch movies. FOX never heard other Secret Service employees discuss any incident occurring in the projection room of the theater. Access to the theater would always be observed by at least one, and possibly two, of the guard force.

Whereupon,

LEWIS C. FOX

was called as a witness and, having been first duly sworn by the Foreperson of the Grand Jury, was examined and testified as follows:

EXAMINATION

BY MR. BITTMAN:

Q Can you please state your name?

A My name is Lewis C. Fox.

Q And where do you live, Mr. Fox?

A I live in Waynesburg, Pennsylvania, RD 3, Box 158.

Q And how long have you lived there?

A I retired on January the 4th, 1997. I was there on January the 3rd, 1997.

Q And from where did you retire?

A The United States Secret Service Uniformed

Division.

Q How long were you with the Secret Service?

A Twenty-seven years and three months.

Q Let me advise you of certain rights and obligations you have. You are appearing here today before this grand jury as a witness. You do, however, have certain obligations.

You have an obligation to tell the truth. If you

e or intentionally mislead this grand jury, you may be prosecuted for that. Do you understand that?

A Yes, sir, I do.

Q You also understand you have a right to have an attorney present with you today outside the grand jury room, and you may consult with that attorney at reasonable times.

Do you understand that?

A Yes, sir.

Q Do you have an attorney with you today?

A Yes, sir, Mr. Mike Leibig.

Q How do you spell his last name?

A Make sure it's right. (Examining) It's

L-e-i-b-i-g.

Q You also understand that if an answer to one of the questions I ask may incriminate you, you do not have to answer. You may assert your Fifth Amendment privileges and not answer the question. You understand that?

A Yes, sir.

Q Okay. As a member of the Secret Service, you and your attorney and I have spoken. You are going to testify today about certain matters, certain observations you made while a Secret Service Agent at the White House. Do you understand that?

A Yes.

Q Okay. This office -- I and others from my office have talked to the United States Secret Service, which is under the Department of the Treasury. We've also spoken to attorneys with the Department of Justice, and we have come to an agreement about your testimony today, and that is, that we will not ask any questions the answer to which would reveal the protective techniques or procedures of the Secret Service.

Page 5

A Yes, that's correct.

Q That's your understanding as well?

A Yes, sir.

Q Okay. So please do not reveal any protective techniques of the Secret Service, and this would include any armaments or other things of that nature. Do you understand that?

A Yes, sir.

Q Okay. You worked for the Secret Service for 27-and-some years.

A Twenty-seven years, three months.

Q Twenty-seven years, three months. What did you do for the Secret Service?A Well, I was an officer -- I was a training officer, which the new recruits would come in. I would give them three weeks of undivided attention as far as training of the White House area, again -- or the alarm systems, how to get people into the buildings.

And these would be anywhere from 12 to 15 people that would be my group of people I'd be working with. They would stay with me from the time that they came on. I'd work a week of day work with them, a week of afternoon, and then
-- then they would be turned over to the midnight training officer.So then I would come back and take midnight training people that had worked midnights and bring them under my wing and take them around the White House complex, explaining the operation of the White House and how things are run at the White House.

I also was an advance officer, which would deal with the metal detectors for protection of the president. I traveled to Australia, Singapore, and Japan with President

Bush. I was in Canada with President Reagan. I was in Austria -- or Australia -- not Australia, but Brasilia,

Brasilia and countries like that with other presidents.

Again, my responsibility was to go out, meet with the agents in charge. They would give me an area where the president was going to be. Our job was to set up the metal detectors, meet the officers that were coming in on military planes or commercial planes, get them to their hotels, get them in their rooms, transport them to and from the sites, and then take them -- when the detail ended, take them back to the plane, and then I'd tie up any loose ends that was in the event and go there.

Also, I did the Pope when he was in L.A. Coliseum, which was a big detail, so --Basically, I've traveled the country, doing metal detectors, training, and stuff like that.

Q Am I correct that the Secret Service is a law enforcement agency?

A I will say that the Uniformed Division, and we're talking about Uniformed Division, is a law enforcement division. They have the same power in the District of Columbia as the Metropolitan Police, the Park Police. They have the same arrest powers.

The Secret Service itself I would not basically say that they are a law enforcement. They're more of a protective type dealing with, again, the president, vice president, again, everybody who's counterfeiting. They come under the Treasury Department. And they're not really out there fighting crime, such as could happen in the Uniformed

Division.

Q Have you always worked at the White House in your 27 years?

A Twenty-seven years, yes.

Q Have you ever made any arrests?

A Yes.

Q How many?

12 five A Well, probably no more than five. No more than 13 Q Have you ever testified in court?
 14 A I've been called but never testified because the 15 case was dropped.
 16 Q Okay.
 17 (Grand Jury Exhibit No. LF-1 was 18 marked for identification.)
 19 BY MR. BITTMAN:
 20 Q Let me show you what's been marked as a grand jury
 21 exhibit. It's marked as LF-1. It was previously LP-1.
 22 Everyone, I understand, has their own copy of that.
 23 I'm handing you a red pen to mark the exhibit. Do
 24 you recognize the exhibit?
 25 A Yes, I do.
 26 Q What is it?
 27 A It is an outline of the West Wing of the White
 28 House, press area, swimming pool. I can't make out -- this 29 is kind of blurry here. I'm not sure what -- on the bottom
 30 here what --
 31 Q The bottom right --
 32 A Yeah, I can't -- it's blurry --
 33 Q -- where it says something Terrace?
 34 A Terrace. That would be on top of the West Wing, 35 press area, former pool area.

11 Q Are you familiar with the West Wing of the White
 12 House?
 13 A For 27 years I was familiar with it.
 14 Q Okay. Is this an accurate diagram? Does it appear
 15 to be an accurate diagram?
 16 A Yes, it appears to be an accurate diagram, except 17 the room numbers -- I could tell you what was in the rooms, 18 but as stated on here, the room numbers are not familiar with 19 me. I could tell you the offices. I never knew them as Room
 20 117, 118. I knew them as basically another -- an office.
 21 Q You continued to be a uniformed officer in the 22 Secret Service during President Clinton's presidency; is that 23 correct?
 24 A That's correct.
 25 Q Okay. How often would you be in the West Wing
 26 during President Clinton's presidency?
 27 A Well, we can talk about -- I was there quite a bit
 28 because at one time during his first -- first time, I was 29 unassigned, so I was at the mercy of the assignments office,
 30 which, if they needed me there, they'd put me in the West
 31 Wing.
 32 It was a basic -- I was unassigned Monday through 33 Friday, so I was -- I was just plugged in anywhere. I was a 34 utility player. As many of you might know in a baseball or 35 something like that, special teams player, I would be just

11 plugged in wherever there's a vacancy. Because of my 12 seniority, a lot of times I would be put into the West Wing.
 13 Q Did you have a regular assignment?
 14 A Well, my regular assignment -- I had a regular 15 assignment through a time where it was Monday through Friday,
 16 and then I got bumped out of that, went back to an unassigned
 17 assignment, where, again, I was at the mercy of the 18 assignments.
 19 But in 1995 I was unassigned until like October,
 20 when one of the officers was injured in New York City, and I
 21 took over his assignment, which was a permanent assignment,
 22 which I would go to the same assignment every day. And I
 23 held that assignment up until he came back like in March or 24 April of '96.
 25 Q And what was that normal assignment?
 26 A The normal assignment was ellipse parking behind
 27 the White House. If anybody knows where the national 28 Christmas tree is, it would be -- my job would be in there to 29 keep the tourists out, and any unauthorized person that was 30 not -- did not have a permit, I'd have to run them out, get 31 them out, you know.
 32 MR. BITTMAN: Please note for the record Mr. Binhak
 33 has reentered the grand jury room.
 34 BY MR. BITTMAN:
 35 Q Would you have occasion -- you said your normal

11 duty during that period of time was in the ellipse area
 12 obviously not in the White House. Would you have occasion, 13 however, during the period now of June 1995 through April of 14 1996 to work in the West Wing?
 15 A Yes.
 16 Q When would that come about?
 17 A Well, this would be on the weekends when the 18 permanent officers were off or they decided they didn't want
 19 to work their days off. I would be assigned in that area.
 20 Q And would this be in a fill-in type -- 21 A Yes, definitely a fill-in.
 22 Q Would you get overtime for working those weekends?
 23 A Yes.
 24 Q About how many times between June '95 and April of 25 '96 did you work weekends in the West Wing?
 26 A At least 15 -- 15 to 20. I mean, we could say 15
 27 to 20 that -- or maybe more. My work book only shows work,
 28 work, work. It doesn't give the assignment exactly where I
 29 worked, so I cannot really pinpoint an exact number.
 30 But I think we -- as we discussed, that from the 31 time --
 32 Q June '95 through April '96.
 33 A I would say 15 or more times, approximately.
 34 Q Okay. Let's go to the map, please --
 35 A Okay.

11 Q -- LF-1. As you can see, there's some handwriting
 12 on the map, on the diagram. There is Walkway No. 1 -- you 13 see Walkway No. 1, which is to the left of the Oval Office?
 14 A Yes.
 15 Q And then there's Walkway No. 2, which is in front
 16 of one of the doors to the Oval Office at about 11:00?
 17 A Yes, sir.
 18 Q And going now to the right, you have Reception Area
 19 No. 1.
 20 A Yes.
 21 Q And the desk identified as "BC," which would be 22 Betty Currie?
 23 A That's correct.
 24 Q Would you always -- in these times that you worked
 25 on the weekends in the West Wing, these 10 to 20 times you
 26 worked there on a weekends between June '95 and April '96,
 27 where would you be stationed?
 28 A Okay. If the president was not in the Oval Office,
 29 I would be stationed at Walkway No. 2, by -- in that area.
 30 That would be the post assignment, Walkway 2, which is in 31 front of the Oval Office.
 32 Q Okay. When he's not in the Oval Office?
 33 A When he's not in the Oval Office, okay, this would 34 be -- Monday through Friday I would be down in the vicinity
 35 of Walkway 1, which would be -- as you see, the Roosevelt

11 Room and C. I would be in that area from Walkway 1 -- 12 Again, I wouldn't stand there all the time because 13 it was like -- okay, you could move a little bit, go down to 14 the pantry and get a cup of water or a cup of coffee, et 15 cetera, you'd be offered a cup of coffee.
 16 So that would be during Monday through Friday, you
 17 would be in that area.
 18 Q Now, I thought you said that your regular 19 assignment was at the ellipse.
 20 A That's correct. But, again, Monday through Friday, 21 if a Uniformed Division officer was there, this was where he 22 would be, okay?
 23 Q Okay.
 24 A This is where he would be at that point. Or if I
 25 worked overtime, would happen to catch that assignment -- 26 like if they would ask me to work four hours over and I had 27 this assignment, and the president was in the Oval Office, I
 28 would be in Walkway 1 area.
 29 Q Okay. You testified that you worked weekends
 30 between June '95 and April '96 approximately 10 to 20 times.
 31 A In the West Wing assignment.
 32 Q In the West Wing assignment.
 33 A Yes.
 34 Q How many of those occasions did you work on Walkwa
 35 No. 1?

[1] A It would have to be between 10 and 20 times.
 [2] Q All those times.
 [3] A All those times. I thought we were referring to [4] the times that I worked in this assignment.
 [5] Q Okay. I'm probably confused here, but were they [6] always on weekends that you worked between June '95 and April
 [7] '96?
 [8] A Again, when I would work overtime, somebody was [9] off, I would be put into that position, okay? Say, the [10] assignments would want me to work four hours over, and they [11] say, "Well, we've got to give you, you know, again, this [12] assignment," which I would take, and I would work there --
 [13] you know, I worked there a lot of overtime, you know, from -- [14] starting at 2:30 to 6:30, you know, a four-hour block.
 [15] Q So you would fill in for people. Sometimes you [16] would work weekends. Sometimes you would work during the [17] week.
 [18] A On overtime at that assignment.
 [19] Q Okay. Is there a name for this assignment, to work
 [20] in Walkway No. 1?
 [21] A That would be called [redacted] and [redacted].
 [22] Q What's the difference between [redacted] and [redacted]?
 [23] A Two assignments, and when it's listed on the work
 [24] sheet, they'll have like two officers. They have -- one will [25] be -- generally -- they would rotate it every day, so one day

Page 17

[1] Q Who locks it?
 [2] A Well, again, it's -- when the president comes to
 [3] the Oval Office, he's surrounded by the Secret Service.
 [4] There's the lead agent on the detail would come in, and as [5] the president would come in the Oval Office, he would be the [6] person that would come through the Oval Office, physically
 [7] walk through the Oval Office, and as soon as the president
 [8] was in the Oval Office, he would pull the door shut.
 [9] Q And it's locked.
 [10] A It's locked.
 [11] Q What about the doors in the hallway to Walkway No.
 [12] 1?
 [13] A The doors in the hallway to Walkway No. 1? Okay, [14] the one door is the dining area. That is also a locked door.
 [15] Okay. The other door, which would be the pantry door, is -- [16] of course, if the steward's there, it's open. If he's not [17] there, it's locked.
 [18] Q How often does the steward go in and out while the [19] president is in the Oval Office?
 [20] A Well, I can tell you from my experiences being [21] there that the steward would -- if the president wanted
 [22] something, the president would buzz the steward. Whether it
 [23] was coffee, soda, or maybe lunch arrangements or something [24] like that, the steward would -- the steward would hang -- be [25] in that area most generally all the time that the president

[1] one officer would be [redacted] the permanent guys, the next day
 [2] it would be [redacted], and [redacted] would be the second person
 [3] to go out of the post, to go to the assignment.
 [4] [redacted] would be first officer to go, [redacted] [redacted]
 [5] would be second. It was a two-man post.
 [6] Q [redacted] would be the second?
 [7] A Yes, would be the second person to go?
 [8] Q Would there always then be two people in Walkway
 [9] No. 1?
 [10] A Only one person -- okay. The first guy would be [11] Echo 6, okay? He would go and he'd do his stand. Then he [12] would be relieved by the [redacted] gentleman, or officer. He [13] would be relieved by that [redacted].
 [14] Q Okay. So when you would work, Echo 6 would be the [15] first guy to go.
 [16] A Correct.
 [17] Q Then [redacted] would go.
 [18] A Correct.
 [19] Q [redacted]
 [20] A And then --
 [21] Q And then Echo 6-A leaves --
 [22] A And Echo 6 comes back.
 [23] Q Echo 6 comes back.
 [24] A Right.

[1] was in there, with the exception of when he went down to the [2] staff mess to get lunch or get -- you know, whatever the [3] president might want for lunch. He would go down, bring it
 [4] back, prepare it right in the little -- a little pantry area
 [5] there.
 [6] Q There appears to be a door between Walkway No. 1
 [7] and Walkway No. 2.
 [8] A Yes, that's -- that's a door, and it's always open.
 [9] Q When you were in either [redacted] or [redacted], do you
 [10] ever go down to Walkway No. 2?
 [11] A Yes. And that would be -- it would be basically on [12] the weekends. If the president's there, you'd come down,
 [13] you'd chat with the PPD agent, the president's protective [14] agent. You'd come down, and it's not a lot of people at the [15] White House on the weekends, basically, and especially in the [16] West Wing, and you'd -- you'd come down, you'd talk about [17] maybe football, baseball, or where the next trip was going to [18] be, things like that.
 [19] Q So I gather from your testimony it's a little [20] looser on the weekends, that you're freer to roam up and down
 [21] the hallways.
 [22] A Well, it's -- I would not say you're freer. I
 [23] mean, you're still in a secure mood, protective mode. It's [24] just that you know that -- that we're not -- see, I don't [25] want to say this.

[1] Q Okay. [redacted] Echo 6 leaves
 [2] again --
 [3] A Correct.
 [4] Q -- then [redacted] comes back.
 [5] A Yes, and you would --
 [6] Q Okay. So it's a [redacted] rotation.
 [7] A You would have a [redacted] stand each day.
 [8] Q So, obviously, two of those hours you would [9] actually be in the hallway.
 [10] A No, you would be in -- you would be there [redacted]
 [11] [redacted]
 [12] Q [redacted]
 [13] A Right.
 [14] Q Okay. Excuse me. I'll get this eventually.
 [15] A It's a complicated system.
 [16] Q Well, for someone like me, perhaps.
 [17] A Okay.
 [18] Q Let's return to the map, LF-1, and especially to [19] the Oval Office. The door at 11:00 --
 [20] A Okay.
 [21] Q -- is that door normally open or closed?
 [22] A Okay. During -- at the time the president's in the [23] Oval Office, the door is always secured.
 [24] Q Secured, meaning what?
 [25] A Locked.

[1] You'd say that it's not freer, it's just maybe just
 [2] a notch above being a little loose, then to go down and talk
 [3] to the, you know --
 [4] Q And that I suppose is because there are fewer [5] people around.
 [6] A Fewer people, that's correct.
 [7] Q Okay. Do you know Monica Lewinsky?
 [8] A Yes, I do.
 [9] Q How do you know her?
 [10] A Well, it's a long story, so -- I was working in the [11] West Basement of the White House in the summer -- or in -- it
 [12] was in the summer, and, again, I was working overtime on that [13] day, and I was at the control post, and it was in the [14] afternoon.
 [15] And at that time I did not know her name, but she [16] showed up with a friend, and she said -- I said, "Hi, how are [17] you doing?" She says, "I have to pick up some papers."
 [18] So I saw the intern pass, so I said, "Okay. You
 [19] know the routine. Here's the -- you know, use the phone.
 [20] Call." And she said to me, "Do you mind that if my friend
 [21] looks around at the pictures here in the West Basement?" And [22] I said, "No." I says, "As long as you don't go away from my [23] view," I says, "you can look at the pictures."
 [24] So Monica makes the call, and they look at the [25] pictures and -- so then they kind of walk back down, and as they're standing there, another White House -- okay, it's a -- she actually worked for the DNC. Her name was Susan Levine, and she had a White House pass, and it was an OGA pass, which means Other Government Agencies, but she had access to the White House.

And her and Monica, they kind of ran into each other, and Susan says -- they introduced themselves, et cetera, to the friend and all that. And Susan says to Monica, "Look, I'm going to give a White House tour here." She says, "Would you like your friend to go?" So Monica looks at her friend, they kind of look, and she says, "Well, yeah."

So the friend takes off with Susan, goes on the tour. So Monica's standing there, and I tell her, "If you'd like to sit down over here to my right and wait for your papers."

So at this time we formally became introduced as, "I'm Officer Fox. They call me Lew," and she told me that her name is Monica Lewinsky. So that's -- after all this, we're introduced to each other.

So we're sitting there and we're just talking. I asked her where she was from. She says California. And she said that -- I said, "Well, where did you go to school?" And she says, "I went to Lewis & Clark." I said, "Oh, in Oregon?" She says, "Yes." She says, "How do you know about can get a copy of that picture." I said, "All you need is today's date and the photographer's name." And I said, "Submit a memo to the photo office and," I said, "they'll probably get you a copy." And I said, "If you know anybody, you could probably get it autographed."

And she thanked me very good. She says -- she says to me, "You like chocolates?" And I said, "Well," I said, "everybody likes chocolates."

And by this time within the time Susan and her friend came back. So Monica and her friend leave and go to the Old Executive Office Building.

And I never really thought anything more about it and -- about the chocolates or anything like that. So I'm working again -- one evening I'm working overtime, and a direct line rings, and the officer at the control post -- I was in another assignment -- he says, "Lew?" I says, "Yes?" He says, "I have someone down here that has something for you." And I said, "Well" -- and, again, I said, "Is it ticking?" He kind of laughed, he says, "No." He says, "It's Monica." I said, "Well, can you send her up?"

I mean, she was still in the intern status. But, again, post to post observation is a common thing in the White House as far as people going from point A to point B. And -- so Monica walks up the steps, and I say, that?" I says, "Well, I follow some, you know, sports, watching ESPN, Lewis & Clark College, et cetera, and I do know it's in Oregon."

So by this time the papers had come down, so she says, "You don't mind if I sit here and wait on my friend?" And I says, "Well, you can sit here, but," I says, "Susan gives a long tour, so you could be here for a while." And at that time she says, "Well, not much is going on in my office right now. I'll just -- I'll just sit here."

So, again, we talked. I told her where I was from. And so then the vice president came down the hallway, and I knew he was coming, so I just kind of -- I said to her, I said, "The vice president's coming," and I stood up, again, out of respect for the office, and so I stood up. And, you know, the vice president walks by, and he gives a little nod.

So, again, the schedule -- I knew that the president was going across the street to the Old Executive Office Building. I think it was Room 450, for a speech.

So it was just small talk between her and I. So then I get the signal that the president's coming. So, again, I stand up, and I say to her, I said, "The president's coming."

So she stands up. The president walks by, and, again, same routine, is a nod, and he goes across the street to Room 450 in the Old Executive Office Building.

So after about 20, 25 minutes, the president comes back across the street into the West Basement, and, again, I stand up. There were two guests sitting on the couch in front of me, and I think that -- the best of my knowledge, they were waiting for Mack McLarty to -- for an appointment with him.

So the president walks in, and he immediately goes to these two people and they shake hands, and the White House photographer is behind him, and he takes pictures of the president shaking hands with the two guests that were there, visitors.

Then he turns and -- I'll say -- well, I call her Monica -- Ms. Lewinsky was standing again to my right. The president then turned and walked to Monica, shook hands, they turned, and a picture was taken with the president and Monica in the West Basement just, say, from here to that wall right there from me.

And the president then goes back to the Oval Office. And, you know, she was like, "Oh, my goodness, I got my picture taken with the president." She says, "You know, if it hadn't been for me sitting here talking to you, I wouldn't have seen the vice president, I wouldn't have seen the president and all. I got my picture taken."

And I said, "Well, Monica," I said, "you know you

"Hi, Monica," and, you know, "How are you doing," and all that. She says, "Here, I brought you your chocolates." And here was this box of Godiva chocolates, and I went, "Huh." I says, "Look, you didn't have to do that," you know. And she said, "Well, I really appreciate what you did for me," and all that stuff. And I says, "Well, thank you."

So she turns and goes -- goes back down the basement and out to the West Wing.

So I get a phone call from -- a direct line. It says, "Hey, what did you get?" And I says, "I got chocolates." He says, "You're going to share them with me?" And I says, "No, these are too rich for your blood." I says, "I'm going to keep them myself."

And within a period of five or ten minutes I had gotten like three phone calls from officers saying, "Hey, can we have some chocolate? Can we have some chocolate?" And, again, I said, "Too rich for your blood. I'm going to take them home."

So that was -- that was how I met Monica Lewinsky.

Q You mentioned a couple things I want to follow up on. The I pass, the intern pass, what is that?

A Okay. That's an intern pass. The "I" stands for "intern," okay? They have access -- basically, it will say in the computer -- if you put their name in, it will say, "EOB Access Only," which "EOB" means Old Executive Office

Building, or it will say, "EOB and White House, East Wing and West Wing."

So if that person showed up at your assignment, say -- say if she would show up in the West Basement, or any intern that would show up in the West Basement and say, "I'm here to work today," you would take a -- you would take their identification, you would put it in the computer, and it would tell you that -- I would just use a name, say, Joe Smith is authorized to be in the West Wing, and the office that he is assigned to.

So then what you do is then you call the -- you have them call the office. That office will come down and escort them to their office, okay? And that's how they would be in the system as far as working in the West Wing, where -- in EOB they would come in Monday through Friday. They would be allowed access to the Old Executive Office Building by being in the system, okay? If they came to the West Wing or the East Wing, it would have to definitely say West Wing or East Wing of the White House.

Q Does an I pass ever get you authority to go into to the West Wing?

A Yes, it gives you authority to come there. You have -- you can have an I pass, be an intern and work in the West Wing. But you have to be in the system to get in there, which would say West Wing, East Wing, et cetera.

Q Can you tell from the face of an I pass whether or not you have access to the West Wing without going into the computer?

A No. You have to go into the computer. The computer tells you everything.

Q Do you know whether Ms. Lewinsky had access with her I pass to get into the West Wing?

A Only if someone -- only if someone would have come down and escort her to an office. She would have to be escorted. She just wouldn't be allowed to walk in.

Q Okay. Given your first meeting of Ms. Lewinsky, did you see her after that?

A Yes. I would see her occasionally. It would be like -- it would be like seeing your neighbor. You might see your neighbor for two or three days. Then all of a sudden you wouldn't see your neighbor for maybe a week.

And I would see her in the Old Executive Office Building. Again, the idea of times, I cannot tell you. But I would see her -- again, it would be like seeing your neighbor, saying, you know, "Hi. How are you doing?" Then you might not see him for two or three or four days or whatever, then all of a sudden you'd run into him again. He may go on the same travel schedule, whatever. And I'd always talk to her, you know. "Hi. How are you doing?" "Fine."

And as -- the longer she stayed there, well, you

Page 29

A Yes.

Q Did Ms. Lewinsky ever have a blue pass, to your knowledge?

A She had a blue pass with a black-and-white picture --

Q Okay.

A -- which means temporary, which means temporary.

Still -- background still going on. You don't get your colored pass until your full background check has been made, okay? After your full background check has been made, then if you're going to stay with the administration, you're given a blue pass with a colored picture.

Q Can you tell us approximately how many times you would see Ms. Lewinsky in the White House, whether East Wing, West Wing, or wherever, between June '95 and April '96?

A Well, until she got her permanent pass, which -- or I mean her temporary pass -- I don't know exactly the month that she got it, okay? I have no idea. I just -- conversation, you know.

I would see her quite a bit. She would be, you know, coming to the West Wing. Sometimes she'd go down to the staff mess, maybe get some coffee or sodas or something like that. I would see her in our office in the East Wing when I'd work over. Her office was on the burn bag pickup, which is the security papers that they would want disposed know, I would see her, and I -- this one particular day I saw her, and I said, "Oh, hi. How are you doing?" She stood, she says, "I've landed a position with a congressional staff in the East Wing." And I said, "Oh, congratulations." And then I told her, I said, "There's a lot of work in that office over there." And she said, "Well, that's what I hear." She says, "That's what I'm here for, is to work."

And she stated -- at that time she said, "I'm going down and getting my picture taken for my pass," which would have been a White House temporary pass, which would give her access to -- she would not have to be waved into the complex.

Q How long was it after she told you that she had gotten a permanent job at the White House was it since you first met her, approximately?

A You know, as far as the time, it's really hard to say, because she really got a permanent pass really quick. I would say maybe a month, month-and-a-half, something like that. I'm sure that she did not finish her internship.

You know, the internship generally comes there like -- I think it's probably three months or something like that, and she may have been at the end of her internship. But what strikes me was that I'd never seen an intern come there and end up getting a -- in my time, you know, I've never seen an intern get a permanent position there so quick.

Q When do you think this first meeting with her was, of. You'd have to go in there and pick up the burn bags.

And I would see her in the East Wing office, and it was, again, like seeing your neighbors. You might see them two or three times, then you might not see them for a while.

So I can't really say the exact amount of times or anything like that.

Q Did you have a cordial relationship with her?

A It was a "Hi, Monica," "Hi, Lew" type thing. That was strictly it.

Q Did you ever go into more detail about -- other than your first meeting where you talked about where you were from and she at least talked about where she went to college.

did you ever follow up with her, like, "How do you like Washington?" or anything like that?

A Oh, basically, you know, she -- she told me she lived in the Watergate with her mother, and that was basically about it, I mean, as far as -- as far as that was concerned.

Q Would it be fair to say you saw her like on a weekly basis?

A As number of -- yes, probably so. I mean, it would probably be -- again, I might, you know, see her two or three days in a row, and then the next time I would see her maybe only one time.

Q You told us about one time you saw Ms. Lewinsky go when she was an intern?

A It would have had to have been in the summer of '95.

Q Then at some time after that she told you she got a permanent position.

A Right. This was -- it wasn't -- you know, I'd say -- I don't really think she finished her internship or whatever. I mean, she was looking for a permanent position, I think, when she came there.

Q Did you later see her with this permanent pass?

A Yes.

Q Do you know what pass she got?

A It was a White House temporary pass, which would have been a pass -- it would be black-and-white, not a -- and would have an expiration date on it.

Q And that would get her into the West Wing?

A That would get her anywhere in the White House that she wanted to go within, you know, security reasons. She wouldn't be allowed to go to the north grounds or south grounds to take pictures and stuff like that.

Q What is a blue pass?

A A blue pass -- okay, a blue pass with the colored picture means it's a permanent pass, okay? And that's a White House pass.

Q And that will get you anywhere in the White House.

into the Oval Office.

A That's correct.

Q Can you tell the grand jury about that, please?

A Okay. On this -- it was a weekend day, I was working at the Oval Office, and it was a quiet day, and I was glad the president was over there because it kept the private tours out of the West Wing.

Again, on the weekends the staff members would bring in guests to show the Oval Office, the Cabinet Room, the Roosevelt Room, pictures and like that, so I was kind of glad the president was there that day because there was no tours.

And I came on the assignment. I hadn't been there very long, and I was stationed in the Walkway 2 area, off to the -- I would be facing the Oval Office door, and I was stationed off to the -- actually, off to the right, just chatting with the agent.

And the Oval Office door was up, and the President of the United States came out, and he asked me, he says, "Have you seen any young congressional staff members here today?" I said, "No, sir." He said, "Well, I'm expecting one." He says, "Would you please let me know when they show up?" And I said, "Yes, sir."

So the agent was, again -- he was in Walkway 2, but he was to -- would be to my left, okay? I'm more down toward

[1] Walkway 1 and he's more back toward Walkway -- or Betty
 [2] Currie's office, but still in that area.
 [3] Q Why don't you, Mr. Fox -- why don't you identify --
 [4] A Okay.
 [5] Q -- on the document -- why don't you put an "LF"
 [6] where you were --
 [7] A Okay.
 [8] Q -- and then an "A" where the agent was when this [9] occurred?
 [10] (The witness marked the document.)
 [11] THE WITNESS: Okay, that's approximate.
 [12] BY MR. BITTMAN:
 [13] Q Okay. So, just for the record, the agent was in [14] the doorway -- approximately in the doorway between Walkway
 [15] No. 2 and Waiting Area No. 1.
 [16] A Yes, yes.
 [17] Q And you were right outside the door to the Oval
 [18] Office.
 [19] A Correct, but to the right, more -- to the right of [20] the door, okay?
 [21] Q Well, on the document, to the left of the door.
 [22] A Okay, okay.
 [23] Q To the right facing the door --
 [24] A Yes.
 [25] Q -- from the hallway.

Page 33

[1] A That's correct.
 [2] Q Okay. And when was this approximately? When did
 [3] it take place?
 [4] A Okay. It would have -- again, it would have to [5] have taken place between 12:30 and 2:30 that day.
 [6] Q Either a Saturday or a Sunday.
 [7] A Saturday or Sunday, yes, sir.
 [8] Q Do you know what month it occurred in?
 [9] A No, sir.
 [10] Q Do you know what time of year it was?
 [11] A I would say it was late fall.
 [12] Q Late fall of what year?
 [13] A '95.
 [14] Q '95.
 [15] A Yes.
 [16] Q Okay.
 [17] A The best of my -- my recollection of this.
 [18] Q Please continue what happened.
 [19] A Okay, well, the president goes back in the office,
 [20] and the agent comes to me and says, "Well, what's going on?"
 [21] I says, "Well," I says, "let me describe the person to you
 [22] and see if I'm right."
 [23] So I described Ms. Lewinsky, without mentioning the [24] name, in detail, dark hair -- you know, I gave a general
 [25] description of what she looked like.

[1] Q Physical description.
 [2] A Physical description. And he says, "Oh, okay."
 [3] So within ten minutes or so --
 [4] Q Can I stop you there?
 [5] A Yes.
 [6] Q When you said the agent said something to you to [7] the effect of, "What's going on" --
 [8] A Well, meaning, you know, who's coming. I mean, he [9] had heard the conversation from the president, saying that he
 [10] was expecting someone. I mean, he heard the conversation.
 [11] Q Did you get the impression from the president's [12] question to you that he was expecting one person or a group
 [13] of people?
 [14] A His statement was to me, "I'm expecting a young [15] lady, a young congressional staff member," okay? Now, he [16] said, "Would you please let me know when they show up?"
 [17] Q Okay. And you tell the agent this and give a [18] physical description --
 [19] A Physical description of Ms. Lewinsky.
 [20] Q Okay. And then what happened?
 [21] A Well, we're standing there, and within a period of [22] ten minutes or less, Ms. Lewinsky shows up carrying a folder
 [23] much, you know, like that's on the table here, something of [24] that description. And she immediately -- she comes to me
 [25] and, again, we exchange "Hi, Monica," "Hi, Lew," and she

Page 35

[1] says, "I have some papers here for the president." And I
 [2] says, "Okay."
 [3] So I look at the agent and the agent looks at me,
 [4] and he kind of gives me the okay to go ahead and open up the [5] door. So I go to the door and I access the security of the [6] door, and as I'm doing that, I'm knocking on the door,
 [7] holding onto the door knob, and I hear the president's voice,
 [8] "Yes?" The door swings open and -- the door swings open this [9] way, and I step back and Ms. Lewinsky steps into the -- goes
 [10] into the Oval Office.
 [11] And, again, it's an exchange between the president
 [12] and Monica. It's "Hi, Monica," "Hi, Mr. President." And I --
 [13] then I step back from the door in view of the Oval Office.
 [14] I step back. The agent then steps up to the rope line, which [15] is in the doorway of the Oval Office.
 [16] When I say "rope line," it's -- again, when the [17] Oval Office doors are open, there's a rope across the door
 [18] just so people can look in and, you know, keep them out.
 [19] He steps up to the rope line in a protective type [20] that he's trained to do, and the next thing I hear is the [21] president telling the agent, "You can close the door. She'll [22] be here for a while."
 [23] Q Was the agent at the rope line -- the rope was not [24] up, I assume.
 [25] A No, sir, no.

Page 36

[1] Q Okay. Was the agent looking into the Oval Office?
 [2] A Yes.
 [3] Q Okay. Do you know whether prior to Ms. Lewinsky
 [4] going into the Oval Office whether the president was in there
 [5] alone or not?
 [6] A I would say that he came to the Oval Office alone.
 [7] The best of my knowledge, he was there alone.
 [8] Q How would you know that?
 [9] A Well, if somebody would have been in there with [10] him, my relief would have told me there's someone in the Oval
 [11] Office.
 [12] Q And when Ms. Lewinsky went in, do you know whether [13] anyone else was in there other than the president and Ms.
 [14] Lewinsky?
 [15] A That's all I saw in the Oval Office.
 [16] Q Is there any system to alert you as to whether or [17] not there are other people in the Oval Office with the [18] president?
 [19] A Not in the Oval Office, no, there's no system to -- [20] the only way I would know is if somebody -- after the [21] president entered the Oval Office, if somebody came on that [22] day, they would have had to come through the door in Walkway
 [23] 2 or through the Colonnade C. An alarm would have been set [24] off, and that would mean somebody else would have come in.
 [25] Q What if somebody entered from Ms. Currie's area?

[1] A That would be -- that would be impossible because [2] the door was locked.
 [3] Q So you didn't see anyone else go in after Ms.
 [4] Lewinsky entered with the president.
 [5] A I did not.
 [6] Q And had someone entered from one of the other two
 [7] doors [REDACTED]
 [8] A That's correct.
 [9] Q And you would have known that someone was entering
 [10] A That's correct.
 [11] Q Okay. How long was Ms. Lewinsky in the Oval Office
 [12] with the president on that day?
 [13] A Okay. I would say approximately 40 minutes,
 [14] because of the time that -- the time the president came out
 [15] and was in the Oval Office, he came out and the time Ms.
 [16] Lewinsky -- it was probably 20 minutes into my stand up on [17] that time.
 [18] Q And then you left?
 [19] A Yes.
 [20] Q And by the time you left had Ms. Lewinsky left?
 [21] A No.
 [22] Q She was still in there by the time you left.
 [23] A Yes, correct.
 [24] Q If the president were to leave the Oval Office, [25] would you know that?

A Only if he went through the door in Walkway 2 or if he would have exited C, the colonnade door, I would have known that.

Q The door at 3:00.

A Yes.

Q What if the president were to go into the study area, would you know that?

A No, I would not know.

THE FOREPERSON: Excuse me, Mr. Bittman. It's time for the grand jurors to take a ten-minute break.

MR. BITTMAN: Okay. Let's take a ten-minute break.

THE WITNESS: Great.
(Witness excused. Witness recalled.)

THE FOREPERSON: Mr. Fox, I'd like to remind you that you're still under oath.

THE WITNESS: Yes, ma'am. I understand.

BY MR. BITTMAN:

Q Mr. Fox, you identified on LF-1 an area in the walkway that you wrote on, you have two red bars in the walkway?

A Yes.

Q What do those represent?

A Okay, that is the area during the time that the president would be in the Oval Office that the Uniformed Division officer would be basically required to stay in that area Monday through Friday, during normal business hours, at the White House.

Q What about on weekends?

A Weekends, a little more freer. We could maybe go down to the Walkway 2 area, chat with the agent there.

Q Is that then -- the area between those two red bars, is that known as [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]?

A Okay. Yes, that would be the assignment called [REDACTED], when the president's in the Oval Office.

Q The day that you just described for us when Ms. Lewinsky came in, went into the Oval Office, do you remember how she was dressed?

A Again, I -- I think she was wearing a dress, just a normal -- nothing elaborate. It was, again, weekend, like maybe a down -- nothing real -- you know, not a business type outfit or anything like that. I don't know. It was probably a dress.

Q Do you remember what pass she had at the time?

A It would have been -- it would have had to have been a temporary White House pass, a black-and-white picture.

Q Do you remember whether Betty Currie was in her office or in the West Wing that day?

A She was not.

Q Do you remember whether Nancy Hernreich was in the West Wing that day?

Page 40

A She was not.

Q Was anyone in that area where Mrs. Currie and Ms. Hernreich sit?

A That office was secured that day, so no one could have been in there.

Q Secured, you mean closed and locked?

A Closed and locked.

Q You described the rope line going into the Oval Office, that is, the door at the 11:00 area. What is the rope line? What do you mean by a rope line?

A Okay. It would be when the Oval Office is -- when the president's not in the Oval Office, okay, there's a rope, a blue velvet-covered rope that's put up there, that if you brought friends into the Oval Office, they could walk up to that area and look into the Oval Office. They're restricted from going beyond that rope, okay, into the Oval Office.

Q And that's like a tour situation?

A Yes. It would be staff members bringing in family, special guests, et cetera, coming in on the weekends and Saturdays after 1:00, Sundays anytime, you know, as long as the president's not in the Oval Office.

Q You also described that after Ms. Lewinsky entered the Oval Office, that the agent moved from his position between the walkways and then walked up to the blue line area looking into the Oval Office.

Page 41

A That's correct.

Q Is that common? Is that what the agents are supposed to do when someone enters the Oval Office?

A Well, generally, it's -- they're trained really for protection, so it's that they want to see what's going on. So that would be a common -- common thing for them to walk up and see, you know, what's going to happen.

Q Is it common or uncommon for then the president, after he receives the guest, to tell the agent to -- or ask the agent to shut the door?

A Well, you know, apparently the president had something he wanted to discuss with Ms. Lewinsky, and he wanted to -- you know, asked the agent to close the door.

Q Is that common or uncommon?

A Well, I would say that's -- it would be common to have the door closed when there's a guest in the Oval Office.

Q You also said that when the president first came out to you and the agent in the walkway and asked if you had seen a congressional staffer, that you then described Ms. Lewinsky to the agent --

A That's correct.

Q -- thinking that that was the person that the president was expecting.

A That's correct.

Q Why did you think that that was the person the president was expecting?

A Well, after she gave me -- after she gave me candy, she became my girl. I mean, that's police talk or whatever, that's Lew's girl, you know, hey, Lew's girl.

Q Quote, unquote.

A Quote, unquote. You know, nothing, but it was -- it became Lew's girl and --

Q To whom was she Lew's girl?

A To the officers in the West Wing, the officers that worked around there, because they knew the candy -- candy-giving.

And there was always a little talk that -- from the guys, and, again, it's talk and, "Hey, Lew, your girl was here to see the president this weekend." "Hey, Lew, you know, your girl's seeing the president a lot."

Again, this just conversation from one officer to another. It's not upsetting me or anything, it's -- but it was just a little -- just a little punch at me, you know, that -- that this was happening, you know.

Q How many different officers do you think told you, or did it get back to you that Ms. Lewinsky had been visiting the president in the West Wing?

A Well, the regular assigned officers that were there -- would be there. I mean, it was pretty commonly known that she did frequent the West Wing on the weekends throughout -- again, throughout the time up until she left.

Q Was there any other occasion that you personally saw Ms. Lewinsky in the West Wing?

A Yes.

Q Can you describe that for us, please?

A Well, again, her bringing papers over, her going to the staff mess to get sodas, et cetera.

One other time is, I was coming to the assignment. I saw her leave the Oval Office. Again, I have no idea of the amount of time she was in there. I was just coming on, and she came out the door and proceeded from -- to the right, which would have been Walkway 2 through Waiting Area, all the way over to Walking [4] 4, she proceeded that way.

Q Where were you when you saw her exit the Oval Office?

A Okay. I would have been down in Walkway 1, in view of the Oval Office door.

Q And where was she?

A Where was she? She would have been exiting C, okay, in Walkway 2.

Q Okay. There actually are a number of C's.

A Okay, the 11:00, the 11:00.

Q The 11:00 door.

A Yes.

Q Okay. You saw her exit that door?

Page 44

[1] A Yes.
 [2] Q And then she took a left and proceeded down the
 [3] hallway?
 [4] A She would go to the right, which would have been
 [5] Walkway 2, Waiting No. 1 --
 [6] Q Okay.
 [7] A Okay.
 [8] Q And you were coming from the other direction.
 [9] A Yes, sir.
 [10] Q You were coming from the left.
 [11] A That's correct.
 [12] Q Okay. Did you talk to her on that occasion?
 [13] A No, sir.
 [14] Q Do you know when that was relative to the incident
 [15] where Ms. Lewinsky went into the Oval Office that you
 [16] observed?
 [17] A Not really, no, sir.
 [18] Q Do you know whether it was before or after?
 [19] A I would say it was probably -- probably after.
 [20] Q Can you estimate whether it was within a couple of [21] months, within a couple of weeks?
 [22] A Probably within a month's time.
 [23] Q Okay. Do you remember what she was wearing on that [24] occasion?
 [25] A No, sir, I don't.

[1] Q And you were coming on to your shift?
 [2] A That's correct, on to the either E 6 or E 6-A
 [3] assignment.
 [4] Q Okay. You've already told us that when you come on [5] to your shift, the other officers indicate to you where the [6] president is and who he is with.
 [7] A That's correct.
 [8] Q Do you remember on that occasion when you saw Ms.
 [9] Lewinsky exit the Oval Office, you were coming on to your [10] shift, did the officer you were relieving, did he or she [11] indicate who was in the Oval Office?
 [12] A No.
 [13] Q Do you know whether the president was in there?
 [14] A Yes.
 [15] Q So he at least was in there.
 [16] A Yes.
 [17] Q Do you know whether anyone else was in there?
 [18] A No, not on that occasion.
 [19] Q Okay. Is it fair to say you just don't remember?
 [20] A That's -- basically, that's it. I mean, I saw her [21] exit the --
 [22] Q Okay. Because, I mean, it is your job to know
 [23] who's in there.
 [24] A Right. But, again, I think probably what happened
 [25] was, when I came, the officer had kind of turned and seen me

[1] coming, and he was in this area here, and he probably
 [2] walked -- you know, walked away, wanting to get out, you
 [3] know, take his break.
 [4] Q Can you give us the names of some of the officers
 [5] who have told you that they have seen Ms. Lewinsky go into [6] the Oval Office to see the president?
 [7] A Okay. That would be Officer Gary Byrne, and then,
 [8] again, the other officers that were post assigned there
 [9] were -- I think Sandy Verna might be one.
 [10] Q Sandy Verna?
 [11] A Verna.
 [12] Q How do you spell his last name?
 [13] A It's Sandy, it's a female. It's V-e-r-n-a.
 [14] The regular assigned guys would have been Bob
 [15] Almsy --
 [16] Q How do you spell Bob's last name?
 [17] A A-l-m-a-s-y. And another officer would have been [18] -- again, assigned at, would have seen, would have been Dan
 [19] Ordakowski, O-r-d-a-k-o-w-s-k-i.
 [20] And -- I mean, they was the regularly assigned, you
 [21] know, would kind of talk.
 [22] Q Do you remember Gary Byrne telling you that he had [23] seen Ms. Lewinsky go into the Oval Office with the president?
 [24] A Well, this was after the -- again, when Ms.
 [25] Lewinsky was basically told she was going to the Pentagon, I

[1] saw her on that day, and she was -- she was real teary-eyed,
 [2] and I said, "Monica," you know, "what's the matter?" I said,
 [3] "you know, "You're okay?"
 [4] And, you know, tears were rolling out, and she [5] says, "Well," you know, "they're trying to get me a job at [6] the Pentagon." She said, "I don't work here anymore." So I
 [7] said, "Well," you know, "take care of yourself." And she [8] left.
 [9] So within a day or so I was talking to Officer
 [10] Byrne. I said, "Well, I guess they shipped Monica out." He [11] kind of give me a little smile and he says, "Yeah." And so
 [12] he tells me the story that -- that he had went to Ms.
 [13] Lieberman's office to -- he was quite concerned about her
 [14] frequent visits to the West Wing, to the Oval Office area -- [15] Q Officer Byrne was.
 [16] A Yes, Officer Byrne was. And he went to Ms.
 [17] Lieberman, and apparently she was not in the office, so he [18] left his phone number. He said, "Have her call me tonight
 [19] when" -- or, "Have her call me."
 [20] So apparently Gary went home, and the phone rang, [21] and it was Ms. Lieberman, and she said she'd like to talk to [22] him and she'd like for him to come back in to town. And Gary [23] said, "Well, I live like 40 miles away." He said, "And I've [24] got plans tonight." He said, "I'll come in tomorrow."
 [25] And so apparently he went in the next day after

[1] that and talked to Ms. Lieberman about what was going on in [2] that situation, and within the next day or so, this is when
 [3] Ms. Lewinsky was sent off to the Pentagon.
 [4] Q What did Officer Byrne tell you he told Ms.
 [5] Lieberman?
 [6] A That Ms. Lewinsky was hanging out around the Oval
 [7] Office too much, in his opinion.
 [8] Q Is that something that uniformed officers typically [9] tell White House staffers about?
 [10] A Well, Officer Byrne is a very conscientious person,
 [11] and it was just something he thought that he had to tell Ms.
 [12] Lieberman about, about this situation.
 [13] Q Did Officer Byrne see Ms. Lewinsky around the [14] office, or did he see Ms. Lewinsky go into the office on [15] several occasions?
 [16] A His statement to me was, "She was hanging around
 [17] the Oval Office too much." Now, again, that's his statement
 [18] to me, that she was hanging around the Oval Office too much.
 [19] Q Did Officer Byrne indicate what Ms. Lieberman's
 [20] reaction was when Officer Byrne informed Ms. Lieberman?
 [21] A No.
 [22] Q But Officer Byrne told you it was a couple of days
 [23] before you had your conversation with Ms. Lewinsky about [24] being moved.
 [25] A Okay. Ms. Lewinsky, again, had, you know, told me

Page 49

[1] she was going to the Pentagon, and a couple days later -- a
 [2] day or so later I talked to Officer Byrne, I said, "Well, I
 [3] see Monica's going." And it was a day -- one or two days
 [4] after that.
 [5] And he stated to me -- that's what I stated to you,
 [6] that he had made this talk with Ms. Lieberman, the phone call
 [7] wanting him to come back in, he said he had plans with his [8] wife and would come in the first thing in the morning and [9] talk to her.
 [10] Q Was that the only occasion where Officer Byrne had [11] told you that he had seen Ms. Lewinsky around the Oval
 [12] Office?
 [13] A Yes, basically.
 [14] Q Tell us about the times Sandy Verna told you.
 [15] A That, again, was just -- I mean, I'm saying those [16] -- she did not tell me. Those were people that had worked [17] the assignment, that had -- that I had heard -- again, had [18] heard that she was there. She never -- Gary Byrne is the [19] only officer that actually told me about this.
 [20] The other officers had indicated -- you know, they [21] had not personally told me. That was Ordakowski, Almsy and [22] them. They were the regularly assigned officers, so they [23] would have more high contact with what's going on than what I
 [24] would have had.
 [25] Q I thought you testified that there was common talk

Page 50

[1] among the officers that Ms. Lewinsky was seen going in and
 [2] out of the Oval Office.
 [3] A That's correct.
 [4] Q Okay. Was the common talk about the officers, Gary
 [5] Byrne, Sandy Verna, Bob Almasy, Dan Ordakowski?
 [6] A Yes.
 [7] Q And others?
 [8] A Probably so, not -- they're not names that I would [9] not -- would not know.
 [10] Q And you heard this talk.
 [11] A Yeah.
 [12] Q And others heard it, too.
 [13] A I guess so.
 [14] Q Do you know Tom Owens?
 [15] A I've heard the name. I cannot place a -- cannot [16] place a face to the name. I cannot really -- he could walk
 [17] in here and if you show me a picture, I -- two or three [18] pictures, I might be able to point him out to you.
 [19] Q These are Secret Service uniformed officers, I
 [20] believe. William Cherry?
 [21] A Cherry does not ring a bell.
 [22] Q Mark Frantzen, F-r-a-n-t-z-e-n?
 [23] A Does not ring a bell.
 [24] Q You know Maurice Henderson?
 [25] A Henderson, yes. Either Maurice Henderson --

[1] reference to a door to what's marked as the Dining Room on [2] this map, LF-1, and it wasn't clear to me which door you were [3] talking about.
 [4] So I want to talk about the two doors from Waikway
 [5] 1 that enter into the Dining Room. okay? Are you with me?
 [6] A Yes.
 [7] Q Okay. First, the one that's marked C, to the left
 [8] of the Dining Room.
 [9] A Yes.
 [10] Q [REDACTED]
 [11] A [REDACTED]
 [12] Q All right. In terms of the doors around the West [13] Wing, that particular door is a pretty secure door?
 [14] A Yes, sir.
 [15] Q All right. That's not a door that somebody's just [16] going to go in and walk right in, typically?
 [17] A No.
 [18] Q Very unusual.
 [19] A They have to know how to get in.
 [20] Q Okay. There's a special way to get in?
 [21] A Yes.
 [22] Q All right. Do you need a key to get in?
 [23] A You can use a key.
 [24] BY MR. BITTMAN:
 [25] Q Who has keys?

Page 51

[1] Q Who's Maurice Henderson?
 [2] A Maurice Henderson is a Uniformed Division officer,
 [3] a black gentleman.
 [4] Q Do you know a woman named -- who used to work,
 [5] actually, was Ms. Lewinsky's boss, Jocelyn Jolly?
 [6] A No.
 [7] Q Did you ever know that Ms. Jolly was removed from [8] the White House at the same time that Ms. Lewinsky was?
 [9] A I did not know that.
 [10] Q Do you know a gentleman by the name of Carpenter [11] who was in charge of the protective detail between 1992 and [12] 1996?
 [13] A Yes. Dave Carpenter and I go back to the Carter
 [14] Administration.
 [15] Q Do you know him -- is he a friend of yours?
 [16] A Yes, I would say he's a friend.
 [17] Q Is he retired?
 [18] A I'm not sure. I'm not sure. I know he was [19] transferred off the detail to 1800 G Street. But, again, I [20] know his wife, and when I see her I say, "Hey, how's Dave [21] doing," you know.
 [22] Q Did his wife used to work at the White House?
 [23] A Yes. His wife was with the stenographers, which [24] anytime -- if there was a statement by the president made, it
 [25] would be in the -- much like we have here to my left. She

 [12] Q So a staffer would not typically have a key to this [13] door you've identified, the main door into the Dining Room,
 [14] correct?
 [15] A They would not have a key.
 [16] Q All right. Would they know any other way to get in [17] without a key?
 [18] A No.
 [19] Q Okay. Is there a way to get in without the key?
 [20] A Through this -- into the dining area?
 [21] Q Right.
 [22] A If you look back at the patio --
 [23] Q No, I meant through that door.
 [24] A Oh, through that door. No, they -- I believe they [25] could not get in.

[1] would be in making the statements -- or collecting those [2] statements and taking them to an office, typing them up, and
 [3] releasing them to the news agencies.
 [4] Q Did you ever see Eleanor Mondale? Do you know who [5] she is?
 [6] A I do.
 [7] Q Have you ever seen her go into the West Wing?
 [8] A No.
 [9] Q Okay. Have you ever known any Secret Service
 [10] officer to be reprimanded or demoted for letting people in [11] that shouldn't be let in?
 [12] A Yes.
 [13] Q During the current presidency, President Clinton's?
 [14] A Not -- I can't recall against -- not -- I can't [15] recall against his presidency.
 [16] Q Okay.
 [17] MR. BITTMAN: That's all I have.
 [18] BY MR. WISENBERG:
 [19] Q I'm going to go over to this position so I can get [20] a look at your map there.
 [21] A Okay.
 [22] Q We're looking at LF-1; is that correct, Mr. Fox?
 [23] Exhibit LF-1 over here?
 [24] A Yes.
 [25] Q Okay. You mentioned earlier a -- you made

Page 55

[1] Q Okay.
 [2] A I mean, it would be -- again, it's under a secure
 [3] system, okay?
 [4] Q And I take it from what you've told us, even if it
 [5] wasn't secure, typically, there is a uniformed guard who has [6] a view of that door at all times; is that correct?
 [7] A That's correct.
 [8] Q That's correct whether the president's in the Oval
 [9] Office or not.
 [10] A That's right. That door is always locked.
 [11] Q All right.
 [12] A It's always locked.
 [13] Q Right. But my question is -- you've told us that, [14] but whether that door is locked or not, isn't there always at [15] least a uniformed Secret Service person with a view of that [16] door?
 [17] A That's correct.
 [18] Q Whether or not the president is in the Oval Office.
 [19] A That's correct.
 [20] Q Okay. The other way to get in -- you've mentioned
 [21] there's a patio door into the Dining Room, correct?
 [22] A That's correct.
 [23] Q Is that typically kept [REDACTED]
 [24] A [REDACTED]
 [25] Q All right. Very unusual for anyone to enter in through there?

 A Basically, nobody -- I mean, again, we're talking security, that no one could actually get back there to get into that area.
 Q Okay. Then you mentioned the pantry door, which is marked with a "PD," not by you, but it's marked with a "PD" over on the right, is that correct?
 A That's correct.
 Q And I believe you testified that [redacted]
 A Yes.
 Q Is that correct?
 A Yes.
 Q And you're referring to -- I want to just make sure what you're referring to when you say that because on the pantry door, there are doors from the pantry out into Walkway 1 and from the pantry into the Dining Room, correct?
 A That's correct.
 Q So when you say [redacted], are you talking about from Walkway 1?
 A The outer door, yes, sir, Walkway 1.
 Q Okay. So no one's going to be able to come in there.
 A No.

would have both a view all the way down [redacted]
 A Yes.
 Q All right. Now, let's go to weekends. When the president is there on the weekends, if I understand you, the difference -- the only difference between the weekday is that you might [redacted]
 A Right.
 Q You might be allowed to [redacted]
 A That's correct.
 Q But you've still got the plainclothes Secret Service there.
 A That's correct.
 Q Weekends when the president isn't there, the plainclothes Service Servicemen go away.
 A That's correct.
 Q Where would you typically be stationed, or the uniformed person be stationed?
 A I would be at the [redacted] in that area.
 Q Okay, all right. You were talking about the first time you met Ms. Lewinsky when you were working in the West Basement in the summer, is that correct?
 A That's correct.
 Q That would be the summer of '95; is that correct?

Q And if they do, you're watching them, or whoever the uniformed guard out there is watching them, correct?
 A That's correct.
 Q All right. Is it fair to say that this is an area of the utmost security within the White House, the area we're describing, that walkway leading into the Dining Room, is that correct?
 A Yes.
 Q Does some kind of a secret alarm go off -- if a person were to open either one of the -- if a person were to try to get into the Dining Room, either through the main door or through the pantry door, does some kind of a silent alarm go off that alerts you guys?
 MR. BITTMAN: That gets into a security area.
 THE WITNESS: That's in a security question.
 BY MR. WISENBERG:
 Q Okay.
 A I just don't feel comfortable in answering --
 Q Okay.
 A -- in answering that question. That's a security question, okay?
 Q Okay. If I understand you, when the president is in the Oval Office on a weekday --
 A Monday through Friday.
 Q Okay, right. When he's in there, you're going to

A Yes, sir.
 Q All right. You mentioned that this fellow Carpenter that Mr. Bittman mentioned had been transferred, or Mr. Bittman mentioned it. Do you recall that, from the White House detail?
 A Yes.
 Q Do you know why he was transferred?
 A I have no idea. I thought it was a promotion, you know, he got another grade. It's basically what I heard.
 Q All right. You haven't heard anything unusual about the transfer, that --
 A Oh, no, no.
 Q Okay. You mentioned that the president said -- on the day that Ms. Lewinsky was in the Oval Office for, at least while you were there, about 40 minutes, approximately 40 minutes, you mentioned that he said that he was waiting for or expecting a young congressional staff member?
 A That's correct, they're his words.
 Q Did you interpret that to mean somebody from the White House who was in congressional staffing as opposed to somebody who was from the Congress, who worked for the Congress?
 A That I -- the White House.
 Q Okay. Because, obviously, a congressional always have plainclothes Secret Service somewhere in [redacted]

Page 58

 A That's correct.
 Q And you will have uniformed in [redacted], in the area within the red bars you have drawn.
 A That's correct.
 Q Okay. On the weekend -- okay, let's stop there. That's weekdays when the president's there, correct?
 A That's correct.
 Q Weekdays when the president is not there, the plainclothes Secret Service [redacted]
 A That's correct.
 Q Where would the uniformed guard be? Within the same bar area --
 A No.
 Q -- or would the uniformed guard move over to [redacted]
 A The uniformed officer would move over to [redacted] okay?
 Q Okay.
 A In the [redacted] okay?
 Q All right.
 A The door to the Oval Office would be [redacted]
 Q All right. And, I take it, that uniformed guard staffer --

 A Yeah.
 Q -- wouldn't be able to walk freely in the area of the West Wing.
 A No, they would not be allowed access.
 Q Okay.
 A From the Hill, that is.
 Q Right.
 BY MR. BITTMAN:
 Q Do you remember, Mr. Fox, the name of the agent who was present with you that day when Ms. Lewinsky entered the Oval Office that you saw?
 A Again, faces, names are very -- it's just one of those things. I'm not a great name person. I remember the face, but the name is --
 Q You would recognize his face then?
 A Well, I'd have -- you know, I'd have to look at some pictures. I mean, it's really a thing of where I -- again, the faces, but names -- I have a hard time with names of people, really.
 Q You'll certainly remember Mr. Wisenberg, though, won't you?
 A Oh, yeah, yeah.
 Q Okay. They all do.

BY MR. WISENBERG:

Q I want to go back to a question Mr. Bittman asked and let me re-ask it.

The statement that you told us about that Mr. Byrne, Gary Byrne told you he made to Evelyn Lieberman -- you recall talking about that?

A Yes.

Q Mr. Bittman asked you, how typical was that? I mean, in your experience -- let's just talk about the Clinton White House. Are you aware of any other type statement being made to Evelyn Lieberman by uniformed or plainclothes Secret Service?

A No.

Q Meaning no one told you, or you haven't heard of it?

A I haven't heard of any statement by anybody.

Q Okay. Does it strike you that that would not be a usual type statement, a usual type statement that a Secret Service -- he was uniformed, correct?

A That's correct.

Q Was he your supervisor?

A No, he was just an officer like myself.

Q Okay. That a uniformed officer would -- is that typical of a statement a uniformed officer would make to somebody in Ms. Lieberman's position?

agents who have talked to you about their knowledge of Ms. Lewinsky?

A No.

Q Your post, [redacted] you obviously would have good sight and knowledge of the stewards who used the pantry?

A That's correct.

Q Did you develop any relationship with any of the stewards?

A Both Nelvis and Glenn, yes.

Q Are you friends with both of them?

A As far as -- work friends, okay? It basically would be a work friend type relationship that we had.

Q Speaking football with Glenn, you know, we talked football and baseball, et cetera. He was a Colorado Rockies/Denver Broncos fan.

A Nelvis was -- more or less was not a sports-minded person. He was more into the nice lies, et cetera, and stuff like that we'd always talk about.

Q Speaking of work friends, is that how you would describe Ms. Lewinsky, as a work friend?

A Actually, I didn't work with her. It was a -- more of a "Hi, how are you doing" type thing. You really couldn't say we were friends. I mean, it was -- it was just she spoke to me and I spoke to her.

A Well, again, you have to know Officer Byrne to know where he's coming from. He's very conscious about the job. He takes the job in full -- he wants to do a good job. And apparently this had bothered him, her showing up there quite frequently.

Q Were you all under any kind of -- when I say you all, I mean, uniformed or nonuniformed Secret Service -- under any kind of implicit or explicit instructions from anybody to notify senior staff when incidents like this occurred?

A No.

Q That is to say, when I say incidents, people hanging around too close to the Oval Office.

A No.

Q All right. Mr. Bittman had asked you some questions about Secret Service. Doesn't Secret Service -- and I'm not necessarily talking about uniformed -- don't they investigate some counterfeiting offenses?

A That's correct.

Q And also don't they have jurisdiction to investigate some credit card fraud type cases?

A That's correct.

Q Okay. That's all I have right now.

MR. BITTMAN: Mr. Fox, if you would stand outside, I'm going to ask the grand jurors if they have any questions

Page 66

Q Did you ever see her outside of the White House grounds?

A No, sir.

Q Did you ever talk to her outside of the White House grounds?

A No, sir.

Q On the day that you observed Ms. Lewinsky enter the Oval Office and stay in there, you said, for the rest of your shift, which was approximately 40 minutes, you said that the president came out and asked a question about a congressional staffer.

A It was a young congressional staff member.

Q A young congressional staff member. Is that a term, congressional staffer, that is commonly used in the White House for someone who works in the Office of Legislative Affairs?

A I would say that it would be -- that they would be referred to as a congressional staff, East Wing congressional staff, okay?

Q There's East Wing congressional staff, and in the West Wing there's the congressional staff over there, the big boys, the heavy hitters.

Q So that's a term -- that is, congressional staff, congressional staffer, is a term commonly used for people who work in the White House who work in matters related to

for you.

(Witness excused. Witness recalled.)

THE FOREPERSON: Mr. Fox, I'd like to remind you that you're still under oath.

THE WITNESS: Yes, ma'am, I understand.

BY MR. BITTMAN:

Q Have you ever heard, Mr. Fox, Ms. Lewinsky being referred to as "The Stalker"?

A No.

Q Have you ever heard any rumors, other than from fellow uniformed officers, about Ms. Lewinsky hanging around the Oval Office?

A No.

Q The only people that ever told you about that were uniformed officers?

A That's correct.

Q How much did you associate with agents from the Secret Service?

A They're in their own little group, and the only way you would ever see them is maybe if you were at a restaurant or at the Outback or, say, one of the bars downtown, you might run into -- might run into somebody on the detail or stop by for a drink or something like that. Never really associated with any -- anybody.

Q In the last month have you talked to any other

Capitol Hill?

A That's correct.

Q Okay. You also said that you gave a description after the president came out and asked about the congressional staffer that he was expecting. When the president reentered the Oval Office and shut the door, that you then made a comment -- actually, the agent came up to you and said, "What is he talking about?" and then you gave some description to the agent.

To the best of your recollection, tell us what you told the agent.

A I said, "Well, she's dark-haired." I said -- and I kind of went -- I kind of went like this (indicating), and then I said --

Q Indicating for the --

A Indicating a full-figured breast, I mean, basically, you know. And then I said, "And it widens out at the hips with baby fat." That was -- that was the statement I made.

Q And you previously indicated that she had dark hair. Any other description that you remember?

A That was just basically how I described her to him.

MR. BITTMAN: Sol, do you have any other questions? Go ahead. BY MR. WISENBERG:

Page 68

[1] Q Did Nel, the steward Nel, did he ever discuss
 [2] Monica with you?
 [3] A Yes.
 [4] Q Tell us what he told you about Monica.
 [5] A Well, I was working over one night. It had to be [6] -- it was a Monday night. So I came up to the E 6 post, and [7] Nel at this time was kind of like -- I could see he was [8] uptight.
 [9] And I said, "Hey, Nel, how are you doing?" And he [10] kind of give me a head shake as if things weren't -- weren't [11] smooth. I don't know, again, whether it would have been [12] work-related or family-related. And he asked me, he said,
 [13] "Lew, did you work this weekend?" And I said, "Well, yeah."
 [14] I said, "I always work on the weekends."
 [15] He says, "Was Monica here?" I said, "I heard she [16] was here. I didn't see her, but I heard she was here." He [17] says, "I thought so."
 [18] And I didn't pry anymore. That was -- you know, I
 [19] could see that he was upset.
 [20] Q Okay. Did he ever have any other discussions with [21] you about Monica?
 [22] A Well, he had told me that she had called him in the [23] pantry, you know, a few times.
 [24] Q Did he tell you what she had called him about?
 [25] A No.

Page 69

[1] Q Any other conversations you remember with Nel about
 [2] Monica?
 [3] A No, just those.
 [4] Q You said that Nel liked ties, if I'm not mistaken.
 [5] Do you recall if he ever told you that Monica had given him
 [6] ties?
 [7] A No.
 [8] Q Do you remember him telling you that Monica had [9] ever given him gifts?
 [10] A No.
 [11] Q Do you -- and stop me if I'm breaching any [12] agreement you've reached with the Secret Service. But, [13] typically, if a person -- let's say you're at your post at [14] the 11:00 door, and a person were to come into the Oval
 [15] Office, whether or not the president's there, would you write
 [16] that down anywhere?
 [17] A The only people that would be -- that we would log
 [18] in a book would be the maintenance workers and the people
 [19] that would come over -- like Park Service employees who would [20] water the flowers, a radio address, the people that came over [21] to the Oval Office and removed the furniture, the White House
 [22] military people who would go in and make a phone check. On [23] every shift they would be logged in into that book.
 [24] It would only be people that were working -- I
 [25] mean, going in, as what I said, to water the plants, change

Page 70

[1] the flowers, to walk in checking the phones, or somebody that [2] would come in and take property out of the White House, which [3] you would log in the book and you'd have a little slip that [4] you would fill out that they removed six books or whatever.
 [5] I'm just saying --
 [6] Q Are you logging that in because they're removing [7] something, or just because of the kind of people they are [8] coming in?
 [9] A Well, workers, staff -- staff workers, resident [10] employees that would come over and do that.
 [11] Q Okay. So as far as you're concerned, your common
 [12] practice, that would not include an intern who might wander
 [13] in to the Oval Office, whether or not the president was [14] there, wander in to do some assigned work.
 [15] A Well, again, an intern would never get there [16] because of the fact that either Ms. Currie or Nancy would [17] have to be there.
 [18] Q Okay. But let's say in that situation you wouldn't [19] need to log them in. Is that what you're saying?
 [20] A That's correct. I wouldn't have to log them in.
 [21] Q You would not have to.
 [22] A No.
 [23] Q Okay.
 [24] MR. WISENBERG: I think that's all I've got.
 [25] MR. BINHAK: I just have a short question.

Page 71

[1] BY MR. BINHAK:
 [2] Q Did you know whether Nel and -- obviously, Nel, and
 [3] Monica knew each other because Nel referred to her by name to [4] you, correct?
 [5] A That's correct.
 [6] Q Do you know how Nel knew Monica?
 [7] A Not really, no. I mean, just in general
 [8] conversation, you know, he would tell me that -- again, after [9] she left there that she called back to the pantry, or the [10] other -- as I indicated, that he asked me if I'd worked that [11] weekend, and I told him yes. He wanted to know if Monica had [12] been there, and I said, "Well, I heard she was here," and he [13] said, "Well, I thought so."
 [14] And, you know, I didn't push him anymore because at [15] that point I could see he was upset.
 [16] Q When you said that she called the pantry, did she [17] come in person or did she call by phone?
 [18] A Called by phone.
 [19] Q Do you know how often Nel would have contact with [20] Monica?
 [21] A No, that's -- I have no idea.
 [22] Q Do you know any reason why Monica would know Nel?
 [23] A Only because he's the president's valet or, you
 [24] know --
 [25] Q Was it common for interns to know the president's

Page 72

[1] valet or stewards?
 [2] A Well, again, she wasn't an intern at -- you know,
 [3] she was a regular passholder, had the blue pass with a black-
 [4] and-white picture.
 [5] Q Was it common for junior level staff members with [6] blue passes to know the president's stewards or valets?
 [7] A Well, probably -- again, that if you spoke to them
 [8] and tried to get a relationship going or a friendship going,
 [9] yes, they would, you know, say, "Oh, I know that person,"
 [10] or -- or whatever.
 [11] Q Do many junior level staff members take the time to [12] speak to the president's valets and stewards?
 [13] A Well, again, when the president's there, they're in [14] this walkway, Walkway 1 area, pantry area, and it would be [15] nothing uncommon for some staff members or anybody, whether [16] -- probably to come down and ask for, "Hey, can you get me a [17] cup of ice," or, "Can you get me some presidential M&Ms," [18] stuff like that, because Nel had access to those.
 [19] Q Now, you said that Monica Lewinsky was working in [20] the Congressional Affairs Office, and I think you said she [21] was in the East Wing?
 [22] A That's correct.
 [23] Q So she wasn't stationed in the West Wing of the [24] White House, correct?
 [25] A That's correct.

Page 73

[1] Q So when you say that people who would be around to [2] get a glass of ice or a cup of coffee or maybe some [3] presidential M&Ms, I guess you're presupposing someone that [4] would have a certain amount of contact with those people, and [5] therefore a certain amount of access to that portion of the [6] White House; is that correct?
 [7] A Or to that area, yes. It would not necessarily --
 [8] it could have been, you know, anybody that would walk in, a [9] staff member or a person working there would say, "Can you
 [10] get me some presidential M&Ms," you know.
 [11] Q So does that assume -- well, would it be common for [12] someone who worked in the East Wing to have that kind of [13] access and that kind of relationship with these people?
 [14] A No, you would say they were like removed. I mean,
 [15] again, from what I gathered from Monica, she had no problems
 [16] making friends. I mean, she would -- she never refused --
 [17] when I spoke to her, she always spoke back, you know.
 [18] I never really put her in the category of whether [19] she was -- not unfriendly, okay? She was a friendly type [20] person.
 [21] BY MR. BITTMAN:
 [22] Q Mr. Fox, have you ever been in the study?
 [23] A Yes.
 [24] Q How many times?
 [25] A Enough to know what was in there.

Page 74

Q Have you been in the study during President Clinton's administration?
 A Yes.
 Q What occasions would you go to the study?
 A Just a lot of times just to -- just, you know -- a lot of times the lights would be left on, et cetera, and you know, you'd come on and you -- and you just like to walk around when you maybe go on duty, and you'd walk in just to make sure that the pictures were still on the walls and things like that, kind of telling yourself -- make sure everything was in the proper place and, you know, just a general security check of that.
 Q Did you ever look under the president's desk in the study?
 A No.
 Q Okay.
 MR. WISENBERG: I have a few questions.
 BY MR. WISENBERG:
 Q You mentioned when you were talking about Monica's calls to Nel, I think you mentioned the words, "She would call after she left there." I just want to make sure what you meant.
 Do you mean like after she left the White House?
 A After she left the White House and went to the Pentagon, yes.

Page 77

A No.
 MR. WISENBERG: That's all I've got.
 MR. BITTMAN: Mr. Fox, you're excused. Thank you. (The witness was excused.)
 (Whereupon, at 12:00 noon, the taking of the testimony in the presence of a full quorum of the Grand Jury was concluded.)
 * * * *

Q Okay. The weekend -- the incident that you've spoken about where Nel asked you, "Was Monica here over the weekend," was that during the time that she was still in Legislative Affairs, or had she gone over to the Pentagon?
 A No, she was still in Legislative Affairs.
 Q Okay. Can you pin a date on it beyond that?
 A It had to be -- probably had to be in like the spring of '96, in the late winter, early spring of '96.
 Q You mentioned that you would sometimes go into the study to make sure everything was okay?
 A Just a general security check.
 Q Okay. When you would do that, how would you go in? Where would you -- how would you gain entry?
 A Well, generally I'd go through the pantry door, through the two pantry doors, you know, go in, look in the dining area, just -- just a general check, come in, look in the study, general check, and then come out -- and then come out through the 11:00 door.
 Q All right. 11:00 Oval Office door, correct?
 A Yes, sir.
 Q You would do that when the president was not there?
 A Yeah, just generally you'd take over the assignment. Like of a morning, your morning shift, if you were there like on the weekend, you'd take that over.
 Q Okay. Would you ever go into the study if you knew the president was in the Oval Office area?

 A Would not even think about it.
 Q Okay. Because?
 A Well, if I would have went in there, I would have probably been transferred immediately.
 Q All right.
 A I would have been transferred out of the West Wing.
 Q Okay. So that would be a major no-no.
 A Oh, it would be a major no-no, yes.
 Q Okay. What would you consider to be, based on your knowledge, your experience in Secret Service, absolutely the most private -- the private room in the entire West Wing in terms of the sanctity of the president's privacy?
 A Well, from previous -- again, from previous presidents --
 Q Just from President Clinton.
 A Oh, okay. President Clinton, I would say the study.
 Q Mr. Bittman asked you things you had heard from other Secret Service personnel, and I asked you about Nel, and you told us about Nel.
 Did any other people in the White House -- stewards -- you know, you mentioned the other steward, Glenn.
 A Glenn.
 Q Did anybody else talk to you about Monica?
