

Agriculture and Natural Resources Extension

Laura Jull

Associate Professor
Woody Ornamental Extension Specialist

Phone: 608-262-1450 FAX: 608-262-4743 email Laura Jull lgjull@wisc.edu
Dept. of Horticulture, 1575 Linden Dr., University of Wisconsin-Madison, Madison, WI 53706

Extension Expertise

- Woody ornamental plants, including identification
- Tree and shrub culture, including proper tree and shrub planting techniques and pruning
- Coordinated 2002 Green Industry Economic Survey
- President of the Arboricultural Research and Education Academy, a professional affiliation of the International Society of Arboriculture
- Board member, University Representative, and Educational Advisor to numerous industry associations
- Presentations given to Green Industry professionals
- Publish extension bulletins, fact sheets, and other publications

Research Interests

- Fertilizer <sup>15</sup>N and remobilized N contribution to annual growth of landscape trees
- Protecting trees during construction: a cost/benefit analysis
- Rose rosette disease and its use in biological control for multiflora rose

Other Professional Experience

- Worked in a variety of horticulture businesses
- Teach courses at UW-Madison in horticulture in woody plant identification, culture and use as well as arboriculture and landscape maintenance

Education

- Ph.D. Horticultural Science, minor in Agricultural and Extension Education, North Carolina State University, Raleigh, NC, 1998
- M.S. Horticultural Science, North Carolina State University, Raleigh, NC, 1994
- B.S. Horticulture, Business emphasis, Michigan State University, E. Lansing, MI, 1991
- A.A.S. and A.A., Landscape Technology and Liberal Arts, Oakland Community College, Auburn Hills, MI, 1988

Website

- UW-Madison Horticulture Department website
<http://www.hort.wisc.edu/faculty/Jull/default.htm>

University of Wisconsin-Extension, Cooperative Extension

updated 9/28/2007