

Agriculture and Natural Resources Extension

Jeffrey J. Sindelar

Extension Meat Specialist

Phone: 608-262-0555 FAX: 608-265-3110 email Jeff J. Sindelar jsindelar@wisc.edu
Meat Science & Muscle Biology Lab, 1805 Linden Drive, Madison, WI 53706

Extension Expertise

- Providing assistance to meat processors in the areas of product development, problem solving and regulatory compliance
- Serving as a liaison between academia, government and the meat industry
- Coordination of meat science workshops and training programs
- Providing involvement and support to youth meat science related activities

Research Interests

- Quality and sensory characteristics of processed meats
- Non-meat ingredient functionality in meat products
- Investigating intervention strategies to control pathogenic bacteria in meat products

Other Professional Experience

- Wisconsin Association of Meat Processors (WAMP)
- American Association of Meat Processors (AAMP)
- American Meat Science Association (AMSA)
- Institute of Food Technologists (IFT)

Education

- Doctor of Philosophy, Iowa State University: 2006
- Master of Science, Michigan State University: 2002
- Bachelor of Science, University of Nebraska-Lincoln: 1999

Website

- Jeff Sindelar website
<http://www.ansci.wisc.edu/facstaff/Faculty/pages/sindelar/index.html>
- Animal Sciences UW-Extension
<http://www.uwex.edu/ces/animalscience/meats/index.cfm>

University of Wisconsin-Extension, Cooperative Extension

updated 09/28/2007