Reservations: 800-EMBASSY

Dear Kentucky Fruit and Vegetable Grower:

The 2009 Fruit and Vegetable Conference and Trade Show will again be at the Embassy Suites Hotel, Lexington, KY, Monday and Tuesday, January 5 and 6, 2009. Highlights of this year's meeting will be a pre-conference Excel Spread Sheet Training, a Pesticide Certification Training and sessions on Farmers' Markets, Commercial Fruit and Vegetable Production, Small Fruit Production, Organic Farming and Gardening, the Grape and Wine Short Course, Winemaking, Marketing, Cucurbit Production and Greenhouse Management.

Special out-of-state speakers include: Dr. Robert Klein, Extension Cropping Systems Specialist, West Central Research & Extension Center, North Platte, NE; Dr. Ron Morse, Vegetable Crops Research, Virginia Tech, Blacksburg, VA; Dr. Ric Weinzierl, Extension Entomologist, University of Illinois, Urbana, IL; Dr. Maurus Brown, Viticulturist, Ohio State University South Centers, Piketon, OH; Dr. Joe Masabni, Extension Vegetable Specialist, Texas A & M University, College Station, TX; Dr. Annette Wszelaki, Commercial Vegetable Production Specialist, Department of Plant and Soil Science, University of Tennessee, Knoxville, TN; Tammy Algood, Extension Food Marketing Specialist, University of Tennessee, Nashville, TN; George Killgore, Extension Director, University of Tennessee Extension - Davidson County, Nashville, TN; and Dr. Dave Lockwood, Extension Fruit Specialist, University of Tennessee, Knoxville, TN.

The KVS will have an optional Celebration of Kentucky Wines featuring Kentucky wines prior to the banquet. Dr. Gary Palmer, Assistant Director for Agriculture and Natural Resources, UK College of Agriculture, Lexington, KY will speak on the College of Agriculture Vision for the Future and we will be entertained by the Pickin Time Bluegrass Band at the banquet.

We will have a Trading Post bulletin board to sell used equipment. If you are looking for equipment buyers, bring along a description containing your name, phone number and the equipment price.

PLEASE make your room reservations directly with the hotel. Our block of rooms will be held until Jan. 1, 2009. Be sure to let the hotel know that you will be staying for the Kentucky Fruit and Vegetable Conference to obtain our special suite room rate (they are all suites) of $109.00. This includes an evening managers reception with drinks and a full cooked-to-order breakfast daily. We encourage growers to stay at Embassy Suites Hotel to support meeting overhead expenses.

The $30 meeting registration fee includes a year's membership in the KVGA or KSHS and entrance into the Grape & Wine Short Course. Membership in the KVGA also allows growers to use pesticides that have received 24c registrations for Kentucky. Please see the registration form to become a member of the Kentucky Vineyard Society and to sign up for the meal functions and the Celebration of Kentucky Wines.

The enclosed registration form enables you to register in advance so your tickets and name tags will be ready for you when you arrive at the meeting. NOTE: WE STRONGLY URGE YOU TO PRE-REGISTER. BANQUET AND LUNCHEON TICKETS CAN ONLY BE PURCHASED BY ADVANCE REGISTRATION. NAME BADGES WILL BE REQUIRED TO ENTER MEETING ROOMS. PRE-REGISTRATION FORMS NEED TO BE IN OUR HANDS BY FRIDAY DECEMBER 19, 2008. If you would like to serve on the KVGA or KSHS boards of directors or would like to nominate another member, please designate this on your registration sheet.

If circumstances are such that you cannot attend the meeting, please complete and return the form to Ms. Mary Ann Kelley, Research & Education Center, P.O. Box 469, Princeton, KY 42445 to continue your association membership.

Sincerely,

Robert Stone, President
