MICHIGAN HIGHLIGHTS

The Governor's Office of Community and Faith-Based Initiatives was formally established by Executive Order in March 2005.

The Office works in partnership with the Michigan Prisoner Reentry Initiative (MPRI) to engage faith-based and community organizations giving recently released prisoners the services and support necessary to successfully transition back into their communities, cutting the rates of crime and recidivism.

In 2006 alone, 2.43 million Michigan volunteers dedicated 328.7 million hours of service, according to the Corporation for National and Community Service Volunteering in America 2007.
