

the handful of France, Germany, Spain and the United Kingdom will most likely gain more by 2020 more

8

France, Germany, Spain and the United Kingdom will most likely gain more jobs and investment than any other country. This is the main message of the report by the Council of Economic Advisors of the United States.

any investment in any state in the world. The proposal benefits European countries

