

This issue of the Monthly Energy Review is dedicated to the memory of Chuck Allen, whom we lost on February 27, 2002. Chuck served as Principal Analyst on the Monthly Energy Review for nearly two decades. His friends and colleagues at the Energy Information Administration treasure our memories of a man who loved the process of creating this report, cared about every number in it, and measured the success of his day by how many people he helped.