

*Senator Jim Webb
& the George Mason University
Administration of Justice Department
Present*

Drugs in America: Trafficking, Policy, & Sentencing

Wednesday October 15th, 2008

8:00 am—12:00 pm

8:00am: Continental Breakfast

8:30am: Opening Remarks & Overview

Dr. Stephen Mastrofski, Chair, GMU Administration of Justice Department

Daniel Polsby, Dean, GMU Law School

Senator Jim Webb (D-VA)

8:45am: Panel 1: How do Drugs Get to the United States and How are They Distributed?

Panelists: Manuel Roig-Franzia, Washington Post Staff Writer
Richard Bohan, Special Agent, ATF
Sallie Casto, Intelligence Research Specialist, DEA
David Eisenberg, National Security Consultant

9:45am: Panel 2: Combating Drug Crime

Panelists: Professor Cynthia Lum, GMU Administration of Justice Dept.
Mark Kraft, Deputy Director, National Gang Targeting,
Enforcement & Coordination Center (ATF)
Sgt. Christopher Sakala, Supervisor Major, Narcotic
Offender & Conspiracy Unit, Montgomery County
Police Department

10:45am: Panel 3: What's Happening to Users?

Panelists: Marc Mauer, Executive Director, Sentencing Project
Professor Faye Taxman, GMU Administration of Justice Dept.
Judge Arthur Burnett, Director, Nat'l. African American
Drug Policy Coalition

11:40am: Wrap-Up

Senator Jim Webb will moderate each panel