

100 Hours Agenda Passes With Bipartisan Support

“More important in terms of substantive future legislation, the ability of the Democrats to win over significant numbers of Republicans on most votes signals the slim but enticing possibility of Democratic mastery over a demoralized Republican Party — one that has thrived on polarized partisan warfare in recent years.” [Tom Edsall, New York Times, 1/18/07]

H.R.1 – Implementing 9/11 Commission Recommendations

Passed 299-128

68 Republicans

H.R.2 – Increasing the Minimum Wage

Passed 315-116

82 Republicans

H.R.3 – Expanding Stem Cell Research

Passed 253-174

37 Republicans

H.R.4 – Requiring HHS to Negotiate for Lower Prescription Drug Costs

Passed 255-170

24 Republicans

H.R.5 – College Student Relief Act

Passed 356-71

124 Republicans

H.R.6 – CLEAN Energy Act

Passed 264-163

36 Republicans

AVERAGE NUMBER OF REPUBLICANS: 62

“As last week progressed day by day... Congress was quietly accomplishing its daily policy objectives for America's people.” [Speaker Jim Wright, Fort Worth Star-Telegram, 1/14/07]