Grand Jury Room No. 3
United States District Court
for the District of Columbia
3rd & Constitution, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20001
Tuesday, June 23, 1998

The testimony of DALE JOAN YOUNG was taken in the presence of a full quorum of Grand Jury 97-2, impaneled on September 19, 1997, commencing at 2:25 p.m., before:

MICHAEL EMMICK
MARY ANNE WIRTH
Associate Independent Counsel
Office of Independent Counsel
1001 Pennsylvania Avenue, Northwest
Suite 490 North
Washington, D.C. 20004

1 PROCEEDINGS
2 Whereupon,
3 DALE JOAN YOUNG
4 was called as a witness and, after having been duly sworn by
5 the Deputy Foreperson of the Grand Jury, was examined and
6 testified as follows:
7 EXAMINATION
8 BY MR. EMMICK:
9 Q Hello.
10 A Hi.
11 Q Ms. Young, I wonder if you could state your name
12 for the record and spell it.
13 A My name is Dale Joan Young, D-a-l-e J-o-a-n
14 Y-o-u-n-g. And I would prefer if you called me Dale, if it's 15 possible, please.
16 Q All right. We'll do our best in that regard.
17 A Thank you.
18 Q What I'd like to do in starting out is to give you
19 certain advisements about rights and obligations that you
20 have.
21 Let me start by saying this is a grand jury and,
22 as you look around you, you will see grand jurors. There's a
23 woman here at the table who is speaking into a sort of a
24 microphone. She's the court reporter, so she's taking down
25 all the things that we're saying here.

1 To my left is Mary Anne Wirth. You met her
2 earlier. My name is Mike Emmick. We're conducting an
3 investigation into suspected violations of federal criminal
4 law.
5 As all witnesses have before this grand jury, we 6 will give you certain advisements about your rights and
7 obligations. The first advisement is that you have a right
8 under the Fifth Amendment to refuse to answer any questions
9 that may tend to incriminate you. Let me explain a little
10 more what that means.
11 If I or Mary Anne Wirth or one of the grand jurors
12 were to ask you a question and you were to think to yourself,
13 "I know the answer to that but the answer shows that I have 14 committed a crime or links me to the commission of a crime,"
15 you could say, "I refuse to answer on grounds of the Fifth
16 Amendment."
17 A Okay.
18 Q Do you understand that right?
19 A Yes. Thank you.
20 Q Okay. You also have a right to have counsel.
21 Now, your attorney could not be here in the grand jury
22 room with you, but your attorney could be outside. Do
23 you have an attorney?
24 A Yes, I do.
25 Q Who is that?

|---|---|
| 1 A His name is John Verni. 2 Q And is he outside the grand jury room? 3 A Yes, he is. 4 Q Now, you understand that if you would like to speak 5 with your attorney about something that occurs to you in the 6 course of our questioning, all you have to do is raise your 7 hand or something similar and say, "I wonder if I could speak 8 to my attorney briefly," and we'll let you go outside. 9 A Okay. Thank you. 10 Q All right. You also have in addition to those two 11 rights, you have an obligation and your obligation is to tell 12 the truth. That obligation is imposed on you by virtue of 13 the fact that you've been placed under oath. 14 When you are under oath, if you were to lie, that 15 is, if you were to say something that's false that is 16 material and that you know to be false when you say it, that 17 might constitute perjury. Perjury is a federal felony that's 18 punishable by five years in prison. 19 Do you understand that you have an obligation to 20 tell the truth and that it relates to this crime of perjury? 21 A Yes, I do. Yes. 22 Q All right. Do you have any questions you might ask 23 of us before we begin with our questioning of you? 24 A No. Thank you. 25 Q All right. Then I think that most of the | 1 that you have in your possession that are responsive to that 2 subpoena? 3 A Yes, I did. 4 Q And I have in front of me a stack of materials. 5 I'm going to show them to you one by one and ask you if these 6 are items that you produced today in response to that 7 subpoena. All right? 8 I'm just going to ask you to identify them and tell 9 the grand jury if these are things you brought with you. 10 A I didn't bring the other items in response to the 11 subpoena. I brought them because my lawyer suggested that 12 I -- the only items you subpoenaed me to bring were the phone 13 records. 14 Q Okay. And these other things you brought on your 15 own. 16 A I just wanted to clarify that. Yes. 17 Q That's fine. Okay. All right. The first item 18 that I'm putting before you is a card, okay? A greeting 19 card. And it appears to be one of Ann Geddes', G-e-d-d-e-s, 20 right? 21 A Yes. 22 Q And I'm going to ask you to look at it and tell us 23 whether this is something that you brought and, if it is, 24 what is it. 25 A Monica stayed over at my house on Labor Day weekend  |
| 1 questioning will be conducted by Ms. Wirth. If you have no 2 questions, why don't we proceed to that? 3 A I do have a question. 4 Q All right. 5 A Surprise. If I have a question, if I'm not clear 6 about what you specifically want me to answer, may I ask you 7 to clarify it or may I ask questions? 8 Q Absolutely. In fact, we suggest very strongly that 9 you do that. We try to ask clear questions, but, as I'm sure 10 the grand jurors will attest, sometimes they're not as clear 11 as we'd like. 12 A Okay. Thank you. 13 Q And it's much better for you to get clear on what 14 we are asking about because if you were to answer a question 15 in a way that's not what we mean, then there may be some 16 confusion. 17 A Okay. Thank you. Thank you. 18 BY MS. WIRTH: 19 Q First off, you are present here today in response 20 to a subpoena. Is that correct? 21 A Yes, I am. 22 Q And that subpoena required you to bring certain 23 documents with you. Is that correct? 24 A Yes, it is. 25 Q And have you brought with you all the documents  | 1 1997 from Sunday night -- from Sunday afternoon until Monday 2 morning and she sent me a card thanking me. 3 Q Okay. And this is the card? 4 A Yes, it is. 5 Q Okay. And you've kept it since then? 6 A I kept it, yes. 7 Q All right. The next thing is what appears to be 8 a Xerox of an invitation with Marcia Lewis' name on the 9 top? 10 A It was a computer printout of an invitation. 11 The invitation was on fancy paper. I generated this from my 12 computer. I had a book signing party for Marcia Lewis at my 13 house shortly after The Private Lives of the Tree Tenors was 14 published. 15 Q And that was a benefit for what? 16 A It wasn't a benefit. What it was was I ran the 17 party for Marcia and she said to me that she would like to 18 donate some of the proceeds to my favorite charity and I have 19 two favorite charities and she said we could split it. 20 So there was $3.00 per book donated and $1.50 went 21 to Habitat for Humanity of Westchester and the other one went 22 to Bridges to Community, which is an organization that bu 23 schools and other projects in Nicaragua. 24 Q Okay. And for the record, Westchester is a county 25 in New York State. |

|---|--|
| 1 A Yes. Yes, it is. 2 Q And that's where you live. 3 A Yes. 4 Q Okay. All right. And, in fact, that party was 5 held -- 6 A At my house. 7 Q At your house. 8 A Yes. 9 Q Now, you've also brought with you this printout 10 from Washington City Paper? 11 A Yes, I did. 12 Q And can you tell the grand jury what this is and 13 how it came about? 14 A Yes. The name of the article is "I Dated Monica 15 Lewinsky." It was by Jake Tapper. And the end of February, 16 I spoke on the phone to Monica and I had told her my concern 17 about how she was treated by the media and I asked her if she 18 felt that any reporters or any press treated her fairly and 19 she told me -- I wrote down the name of the article and the 20 paper and I looked it up on the Internet. 21 Washington City Paper, she told me the date and -- 22 actually, I don't remember if she told me the date, she told 23 me the writer. Anyway, I found it on the Internet and I 24 printed it out after we were done speaking. 25 She told me that she wasn't -- it wasn't | 1 (Grand Jury Exhibit No. DY2 2 was marked for identification.) 3 MS. WIRTH: And now this latest thing, the 4 Washington City Paper article, I've marked DY-3. 5 THE WITNESS: Yes. 6 (Grand Jury Exhibit No. DY3 7 was marked for identification.) 8 BY MS. WIRTH: 9 Q Okay. All right. This next item is a printout of 10 a letter on Extra letterhead. Can you tell the grand jury 11 what that is? You brought this with you, too? 12 A Yes. What had happened was after the story broke 13 in mid to late January, I guess around January 20th or so, 14 I started getting a lot of calls from the press and what I 15 imagine is that they probably bought Monica and Marcia's 16 phone records and they -- I was asked repeatedly to make 17 comments about both Marcia and/or Monica. 18 And I was very -- I was very, very upset about the 19 way Monica was portrayed and I really would have liked to 20 have said something, but I just didn't trust the media. 21 I felt that there was enough wonderful material 22 about Monica to say good things without having to dredge up 23 every person in her past and what happened is that when Extra 24 asked me if I would speak and I said to them that I would 25 consider speaking provided that I had editorial rights and by |
| Page 10 1 necessarily a flattering portrayal, but she felt that it was 2 a very accurate portrayal of who she was. 3 Q Okay. And that was a telephone conversation you 4 had with her. 5 A Yes. 6 Q And do you remember approximately when that 7 conversation took place? 8 A Yes. 9 Q When was that? 10 A That was -- it was either February -- well, here. 11 I can tell from my computer printout. Thank you. February 12 28th, on or -- it was either February 28th or 27th. 13 MS. WIRTH: Okay. And just for the record, the 14 first item, the card that you mentioned, I've marked as 15 Grand Jury Exhibit DY, for your initials, 1. 16 (Grand Jury Exhibit No. DY-1 17 was marked for identification.) 18 THE WITNESS: Yes. And one thing that I did ask 19 you is that when the proceeding is over that you return the 20 card to me. 21 MS. WIRTH: And I told you we would. 22 THE WITNESS: Thank you. 23 MS. WIRTH: And the second item, the invitation, 24 I've marked with your initials DY-2, Grand Jury Exhibit. 25 THE WITNESS: Yes.    | Page 12 1 that what I meant was that I could look at what was said and 2 be able not to have anything aired that I felt wasn't 3 flattering or accurate. 4 I was very concerned that no matter how somebody 5 speaks about somebody, if you want to distort it, it could be 6 distorted, and so I just didn't have any trust. 7 So, anyway, the woman -- what's her name -- Vatana 8 said that she would talk to her producer about my concerns. 9 The producer -- and, at that time, she didn't even -- I 10 didn't give her my name, that's why there was no dear or 11 anything or maybe she had it, I don't even remember it 12 because she had both of my phone records, both of my phone 13 numbers and my name is on my machine on one number. 14 Anyway, so when she -- when I got the letter back 15 saying they wouldn't allow me to edit it, you know, I told 16 them that I wouldn't talk. 17 MS. WIRTH: Okay. And, for the record, this is a 18 letter dated January 30, 1998. I've marked it with Grand 19 Jury Exhibit DY-4. 20 (Grand Jury Exhibit No. DY-4 21 was marked for identification.) 22 BY MS. WIRTH: 23 Q Are those two things correct? 24 A Yes. 25 Q Okay. And it's signed or appears to be signed by   |

1 someone named Steve Lang and there's no addressee, which is
2 what you just pointed out.

3 A No. Right. Yes.

4 MS. WIRTH: Okay. Okay. All right. Now I'm
5 putting in front of you DY-5. Grand Jury Exhibit.

6 (Grand Jury Exhibit No. DY-5
7 was marked for identification.)

8 BY MS. WIRTH:

9 Q Can you tell the grand jury, is that something you
10 brought as well?

11 A Yes.

12 Q And what is this?

13 A Okay. What had happened was -- I was getting a lot
14 of calls. The New York Post, Debra Oren had called me and 15 they wanted -- they gave me the right to write a piece about
16 Monica on my own and I still -- I mean, I was very concerned,
17 I wanted -- if I were going to do anything, I wasn't going to
18 do anything without getting permission from Monica's
19 attorney, from Bill Ginsburg.

20 And, indeed, when the story broke, I had called
21 Ginsburg's office and left messages with him on the machine,
22 voice mail, I think his secretary's name, if I'm not
23 mistaken, was Rene. I don't know. Anyway, I left messages
24 saying if there's anything I can do to help, please call me
25 and I never got a call.

Page 14

1 Well, what happened is that Ginsburg went on the
2 Barbara Walters show and asked for her friends to come
3 forward.

4 Q Is this a copy of a transcript from that?

5 A This is a copy I got before it aired on the Barbara
6 Walters show where Ginsburg said, you know, imagine what it
7 was like for Monica to be sitting home day after day and to 8 have people say horrible things about her and he said where
9 are her friends, why aren't they coming forward.

10 And at that point, you know, I mean, you know, I
11 was sitting there saying "Doesn't the guy know that if you're 12 a friend, she's probably told the story?" I mean, I was 13 very, very uncomfortable because I felt that I -- I am her
14 friend and I really did want to say something and I didn't
15 know -- I'm not an attorney, I didn't know what would hurt
16 her or what wouldn't, so when I got this, I --

17 Debra Oren faxed it to me and then somebody from --
18 I can't remember, ABC or NBC called me up and said, "Ginsburg
19 said that he wants people to come forward. Now will you come
20 forward?" And I said, "I need to speak to Ginsburg first."
21 I said, "I can't do it."

22 So they gave me his beeper number. It was -- I
23 remember the beeper number because it was -- the last four
24 digits were Marcia's number, [REDACTED] or -- anyway, [REDACTED]
25 something or other.

1 And I beeped him and he called me back. And he
2 asked me if I was willing to go on CNN and say anything
3 positive about Monica and I said that -- I said, "I wou
4 love to, but --" and he said, "That's not an answer." I
5 said, "Well, you've got to listen to me. You know, you can't
6 just cut me off."

7 And I said, "I would love to, but you have to know
8 that I know the story up until Labor Day." So he said to me,
9 "If you know the story, I can't talk to you." And he tries
10 to rush me -- and I said, "Just please tell Monica that I
11 love her." So he said, "Fine."

12 And I get off the phone and I don't remember
13 whether it was NBC or ABC, I can't remember who it was,
14 called me back and said, "Can you come on?" And I said,
15 "I didn't get Ginsburg's permission." And then we hang up.
16 He calls them and says that I'm media shy. I don't have a
17 shy bone in my body.

18 So I felt really uncomfortable and, you know -- I
19 don't know. I mean -- so that's what this is.

20 Q Okay. And who is Debra Oren?

21 A Debra Oren was a reporter from the New York Post
22 who said to me -- she said that I could write my own piece
23 for the Post and I said, "Can I edit it? Can I make sure
24 that exactly what I --" You know, I just didn't have the 25 confidence --

Page 16

1 Q Okay. Your conversation with Mr. Ginsburg took
2 place approximately when?

3 A You can check my phone records because you have
4 them. It was --

5 Q Well, the date on this fax is January 30, 1998.
6 Is that correct?

7 A It was close to that.

8 Q Is that correct?

9 A Yes. That's the date on the fax. I would say it
10 was before February 10th, some time between the 30th and the 11 10th.

12 Q Of February 1998?

13 A Yes.

14 MS. WIRTH: Okay. All right.

15 THE WITNESS: That was No. 5?

16 MS. WIRTH: That was DY-5 and now Grand Jury
17 Exhibit DY-6.

18 (Grand Jury Exhibit No. DY-6
19 was marked for identification.)

20 BY MS. WIRTH:

21 Q Another document you produced, right?

22 A Yes.

23 Q Okay. And what is this one?

24 A All right. These are some of the people who had 25 contacted me from the media. I kept their names.

Page 17

1 Q Okay. And when did they contact you?
 2 A Around -- you know, late to mid January. John
 3 Huddy from Paramount, he's from Hard Copy. And he had left a
 4 message that there might be some money for me and they wanted
 5 a positive spin and blah, blah, blah. And I called him back
 6 and I told him that anybody who takes money isn't a friend of 7 Monica's.
 8 And I actually -- you know, I really was interested
 9 in getting information from the press, I was -- you know, and
 10 I actually got John Huddy to talk to me and he told me
 11 stories, I couldn't believe what he told me, but he told me a
 12 lot of stories.
 13 Q But in any event, did you give him an interview?
 14 A No. I didn't give anybody an interview until 15 June 1st.
 16 Q Okay. And we'll talk about that a little later.
 17 A Yes.
 18 Q This name here --
 19 A Laura Brownstein is either -- she's a reporter.
 20 She was from the press, I don't remember what she did in the 21 press. She was a former intern.
 22 Q At the White House?
 23 A Yes.
 24 Q Okay.
 25 A And she told me she -- you know, she asked me if I

Page 18

1 would speak to her and I kept her name. And then Tamara
 2 Lipper, I think her name is. Yes. Tamara Lipper or
 3 something -- I can't read that, but this is a copy --
 4 Q And that says ABC. It is a copy.
 5 A From ABC called. And, you know --
 6 Q Okay. To any of the three names on this page did
 7 you ever give an interview?
 8 A No. Everything I spoke to them was off the record,
 9 background, no direct attribution. I basically told them
 10 what -- there's something here that -- in addition, on 11 document number 3, there should be a document 3A because what
 12 happens is that I e-mailed -- after I read the article that 13 Monica felt was accurate, I e-mailed that newspaper a very 14 brief statement about how I felt about Monica based on the 15 information that was public, not on anything that I knew.
 16 Q Okay. And that was a document you sent to the 17 Washington Post.
 18 A I sent it to the Washington Post and I also sent it
 19 to the Washington paper.
 20 Q The Washington City Paper?
 21 A I'm sorry. The Washington --
 22 Q That's okay. That's the paper that published the 23 article that Monica told you about.
 24 A Yes. Yes.
 25 Q And what were you trying to say in this letter?

Page 19

1 A Can I read it? Do you want me to --
 2 Q You can read it.
 3 A Okay. And this is what I essentially said to the 4 press --
 5 MS. WIRTH: And by the way, I've marked it DY-3A.
 6 (Grand Jury Exhibit No. DY-3A
 7 was marked for identification.)
 8 MS. WIRTH: Go ahead.
 9 THE WITNESS: Thank you. All right.
 10 I wrote, "Monica Lewinsky is a young woman who was 11 betrayed by a woman she thought to be her friend. The moment
 12 of betrayal came in the midst of an FBI sting. Feeling
 13 completely helpless and as if her life was over," and that 14 was a quote that was in the papers, "she declined to accept
 15 her offer of immunity from prosecution if she offered her
 16 complete cooperation with Starr. She declined that offer in 17 order to protect the President. Rather than scouring the 18 depths of Monica's past to determine her character," I'm 19 sorry --
 20 (The witness begins to cry.)
 21 MR. EMMICK: Do you want to take two minutes?
 22 THE WITNESS: Can you read it for me?
 23 MS. WIRTH: Sure. For the record, I'll read it and 24 you can watch me. Where did you stop off?
 25 (The witness indicated on the document.)

1 MS. WIRTH: "Rather than scouring the depths of
 2 Monica's past to determine her character, I believe the above
 3 story speaks volumes about the lady. At what must have been
 4 one of her lowest moments, she refused to betray another for 5 her own benefit. Where are the headlines stating one of the 6 few deductions that can be drawn from the limited facts in 7 this circus? I for one would rather be friends with 8 Ms. Lewinsky than with anyone in this mess. She alone puts 9 others' interests above her own."
 10 BY MS. WIRTH:
 11 Q Is that an accurate reading of the document which
 12 is DY-3A?
 13 A Yes.
 14 Q And that's something that you sent to the 15 Washington Post and also to Washington City Paper?
 16 A Yes. I'm sorry.
 17 MS. WIRTH: All right. Thanks. All right.
 18 And the last piece of paper in this batch, DY-7, is 19 a fax cover sheet.
 20 (Grand Jury Exhibit No. DY-7
 21 was marked for identification.)
 22 BY MS. WIRTH:
 23 Q Does that go with another document? That goes with 24 DY-4. It's the fax cover sheet for DY-4, is that right?
 25 A Mm-hmm.

Page 21

1 Q Yes?
 2 A Mm-hmm. Yes. I'm sorry.
 3 MS. WIRTH: Okay. All right. And then lastly --
 4 (The witness continues crying.)
 5 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry.
 6 MS. WIRTH: That's all right. Take your time.
 7 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry.
 8 MS. WIRTH: You've brought with you several
 9 folders --
 10 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry.
 11 MS. WIRTH: Okay. That's all right.
 12 BY MS. WIRTH:
 13 Q You've brought with you several --
 14 A Phone records.
 15 Q -- manilla folders of phone records, right?
 16 A Yes.
 17 Q Yes? And these are in response to the subpoena,
 18 right?
 19 A Yes.
 20 Q Okay. And these are phone records that you had in 21 your home?
 22 A Yes.
 23 Q Okay. And they relate to your telephone numbers?
 24 A Yes.
 25 Q Okay. And for the record, can you just tell

Page 22

1 us what the two numbers are that these phone records relate
 2 to?
 3 A My home number.
 4 Q And tell us what that is.
 5 A It's [REDACTED].
 6 Q Area code [REDACTED]?
 7 A Yes. And that's listed by my daughter's middle
 8 name, it's Heidi Kaye.
 9 Q Kaye is spelled K-a-y-e?
 10 A K-a-y-e. Yes. So that I can tell when I'm getting
 11 a solicitation. And my other phone number is [REDACTED] -- area
 12 code [REDACTED] and that's listed as my corporate name,
 13 which is Property Tax Savers, Inc.
 14 Q And while we're on the subject, what do you do for 15 a living?
 16 A When businesses or individuals pay
 17 disproportionately high real estate taxes, they hire me to 18 make them equitable.
 19 Q And are you a lawyer?
 20 A No. I practice the one area of law in New York
 21 State that you can practice without being an attorney.
 22 MS. WIRTH: And what I've done now is marked
 23 these four folders that you turned over to us, each of 24 which contain numerous phone records with the following tabs:
 25 Grand Jury Exhibit DY-8, DY-9, DY-10 and DY-11.

 2 DY-9, DY-10 and DY-11 were marked

 4 BY MS. WIRTH:
 5 Q Is that right?
 6 A Yes.
 7 Q And these are the four folders you've produced
 8 today.
 9 A Yes.
 10 Q All right. I'm just going to ask you some general
 11 questions about yourself. You told us that you live in 12 New York State, right?
 13 A Yes. Westchester County.
 14 Q Okay. And how old are you?
 15 A Forty-seven.
 16 Q Okay. And are you married?
 17 A Yes.
 18 Q And do you have children?
 19 A I have three girls.
 20 Q And can you tell us where you were born?
 21 A In New York City.
 22 Q And can you tell us whether you know Marcia Lewis?
 23 A Yes, I do.
 24 Q How did you meet her?
 25 A I met her at a health spa in Hunter Mountain, New

Page 24

1 York.
 2 Q And where is Hunter Mountain?
 3 A It's about 45 minutes away from Woodstock. It's 4 near Ski Windom, Tannersville.
 5 Q Okay. And when were you there when you met Marcia?
 6 A In the summer of '95.
 7 Q And what were you doing there?
 8 A I was trying to lose weight.
 9 Q Okay. And you were there for what period of time?
 10 About how long?
 11 A Usually for a whole summer, almost. I would go --
 12 I think six or eight weeks and then I would go home for one
 13 or two days a week and my husband would come up for the 14 weekends. My children were in camp.
 15 Q Okay. And Marcia Lewis was also there at the 16 health spa?
 17 A Yes.
 18 Q Do you remember what month you met her in that
 19 summer?
 20 A It was either late July or -- I would guess July.
 21 Q How did you meet her?
 22 A In the dining room. She sat with some of my 23 friends.
 24 Q Okay. And can you describe for the grand jury what
 25 your relationship with her was on that trip?

1 A We became friends. She is an incredibly warm and
 2 wonderful person and she loves children. My children were
 3 there for a while, two of my children. She played cards with 4 one of them and we would walk sometimes. I spend most of my
 5 time alone, I like to hike and I just walk. We just became
 6 friends and she told me about a book that she was writing.
 7 She's just --
 8 Q Was that the book that you ultimately gave the 9 party for?
 10 A Yes.
 11 Q How long was Marcia Lewis at the spa? Less than 12 you or about the same as you?
 13 A Nobody was there as long as me. No. I don't
 14 remember how long she was there.
 15 Q Okay.
 16 A But we definitely clicked.
 17 Q Okay. And after she left the spa, did there come a
 18 time that summer when you met Monica Lewinsky?
 19 A Yes.
 20 Q And how did that come about?
 21 A I was sitting by myself reading and she came over
 22 and she paid me a complement. Monica --
 23 Q This was at the spa?
 24 A Yes.
 25 Q The same spa?

1 And then she had said to me that I was the woman
 2 who her mother really loved and that we had become friends.
 3 I mean, she just -- she engaged me. I -- you know, I didn't
 4 go up -- I have -- I know this going to sound obnoxious, but
 5 I have a lot of friends and I don't feel I'm a good enough
 6 friend to the friends I have, so I don't want to be making
 7 more friends, I try to stay by myself in every -- and I
 8 always make friends. But I don't --
 9 Q Okay. Do you remember anything that Monica told
 10 you about herself on that trip? Her work or schooling, her
 11 background or anything like that?
 12 A Yes. Yes.
 13 Q What did she tell you?
 14 A Well, we took a walk. Every day, I would take five
 15 and a half mile walks and seven and a half mile walks and I
 16 usually walked eleven or twelve miles every day and so -- I
 17 mean, we walked a lot. I remember the first time that we
 18 walked she told me about -- a little bit about Lewis & Clark,

1 A Yes. Monica -- I mean, she -- she might make me
 2 look shy in terms of how effusive she is. She's just --
 3 she's bubbly. I mean, Monica is just a bubbly, friendly,
 4 warm -- anybody who would meet Monica would love her and
 5 she's just wonderful.
 6 Q So tell us about your first conversation with her.
 7 A She came over and started talking to me and she
 8 asked me if she was bothering me because I was reading by 9 myself and she -- you know, when she knew what my name was,
 10 she realized that I was a person who her mother had become
 11 friends with and she said to me that she was Marcia's
 12 daughter.
 13 And I didn't -- it was just very bizarre to me
 14 because Marcia is very close to my age and the idea of 15 having Monica as a daughter was -- it made me feel very 16 old. And I'm very immature, so I don't think of myself as 17 very old. And, you know, the idea that I could have at 18 that time like a 21 or 22-year-old daughter was very 19 disconcerting. But I didn't -- I mean, I guess I could have,
 20 but I didn't.
 21 But, anyway, so I looked at Marcia and I
 22 couldn't -- I just didn't connect, even though she told me,
 23 I looked at Monica and I couldn't believe that she was 24 Marcia's daughter. And she said, "Will you please look at my 25 face and you'll see who I --" and then it occurred to me.

 12 [REDACTED]
 13 [REDACTED]
 14 Q Did she mention anything about going to work at the 15 White House?
 16 A She must have but I've blurred some of the 17 conversations. I mean, it's inconceivable to me that she
 18 didn't because of certain things I remember, but I don't 19 remember -- like I remember the -- you know, a talk about the 20 shutdown in the White House and how she was working there,
 21 but I don't remember when the conversation took place.
 22 Q But this was the summer of '95.
 23 A Yes.
 24 Q That this conversation took place.
 25 A Yes.

|---|--|
| 1 Q All right. And you were aware at that time that2 her mother lived in Washington. Is that correct?3 A Yes.4 Q Okay. Now, after that meeting with Monica at the5 spa, did you maintain contact with her and/or her mother6 after you left the spa?7 A Yes, both. Both.8 Q And what form did that contact take?9 A Telephone conversations, largely. Most of my phone10 conversations were with Marcia. I don't believe I called11 Monica more than a dozen times in three years. Monica and I12 have a very warm, closeness when we're together, but it was13 not a phone type of conversation.14 Marcia and I became very, very close and we would15 talk to each other, I would say, at least twice a week, but16 not always, but in general. In general, we would.17 And Marcia -- I'd say she called me or I called18 her -- if I could ask you for a favor in this, if I say she19 called me, I'm saying she called me or I called her20 interchangeably. I don't want to be pressed for perjury for21 saying she called me because I can't remember who called who.22 So --23 Q Just the best of your memory. Whatever you can24 remember.25 A I know, but I don't want to screw up. This is | 1 THE WITNESS: Okay. So if I say we spoke on the2 phone, that would make it easier. That way we don't have to3 worry about who called who.4 So Marcia and I spoke and she had told me that she5 was so glad -- you know, she told me in the way that both6 women are, I mean, they're both very effusive, and she told7 me that Monica loved me and that she really felt very close8 to me and that I was -- you know, that they both really9 wanted to maintain contact.10 And the next time I saw them, I actually saw them11 together for the first time, they came to New York and we had12 brunch in the city.13 BY MS. WIRTH:14 Q When was that?15 A That was in the fall of '95. And they wanted --16 you know, I mean, largely what we spoke about is getting me17 to commit to coming to Washington to see them there, which I18 did. I went down to -- I stayed in Georgetown Martin Luther19 King weekend of 1996.20 Q Okay. And that would be January of 1996?21 A Yes.22 Q And at that time, in January of 1996, did you see23 Monica as well?24 A Both of them.25 Q Okay. And at that time, did you have discussion-              |
| 1 scary stuff. I mean, you could press charges against me if I2 make a mistake.3 Q Just let me advise you, just testify to the best of4 your memory.5 A Right.6 Q If there's something that you don't remember --7 A I know, but I don't want to make a mistake, is what8 I'm telling you.9 Q Well, do the best you can with what you can10 remember.11 A Okay. All right.12 MR. EMMICK: Let me just also offer, we don't want13 you to make a mistake but also we don't want you to be so14 nerve racked by the prospect of our prosecuting you. Keep in15 mind that when we gave you the admonitions at the beginning16 it had to be a material fact, it had to be knowingly false,17 and so what that means is that -18 THE WITNESS: I'm not intending to deceive you.19 MR. EMMICK: Right. And so if you're not intending20 to deceive, if you don't know that it's false at the time you21 say it, then there couldn't be any perjury prosecution22 anyway.23 THE WITNESS: Okay.24 MR. EMMICK: So as long as you're trying your best,25 you don't have anything to worry about.   | 1 with Monica about her job at the White House?2 A I know I congratulated her.3 Q On what?4 A About her job at the White House.5 Q Okay. What job was that?6 A She was appointed to the Office of Legislative7 Affairs.8 Q Okay. And she told you that?9 A I don't remember whether she told me or Marcia told10 me or both of them told me. I don't remember.11 Q Okay. Do you remember at that time whether you had12 any discussions with Monica, this is in January of 1996,13 about the President?14 A Yes.15 Q What happened?16 A Well, we had -- oh, I knew it, I mean, I couldn't17 get away with this one. I'm sorry. I know that Monica18 thought he was very attractive and Monica is gorgeous and I19 know that she really admired the President and I always saw20 him as a womanizer and I was very scared about him having any21 proximity to somebody who was attracted to him.22 So the first words out of my mouth when I saw her,23 when I saw her with her mother for dinner on Martin Luther24 King weekend, and I was with my two younger daughters at the25 time, was "Congratulations on your new job, is the President |

|--|---|
| 1 good in bed?" As a joke. I mean, I -- and I didn't have any2 idea -- oh, God. I'm really sorry.  | 1 Q Not her mother?  |
| 3 This is how I talk, I mean, this is what I'm like,4 so I just want to apologize. I don't mean to offend anybody,5 but this is how I talk.   | 2 A No.3 Q And was it a chance encounter that you met Monica?4 A Yes.  |
| 6 And she laughed and she said, "I don't know, but I7 wish I could tell you." And I -- you know, I'm very maternal8 and I said to her, "Be very, very careful because if you want9 to tell me the next time I ask you, you might be able to."              | 5 Q So you had no prearranged plans to meet there?6 A No. No. Actually, wait a minute. There was a7 chance encounter that I met her, but I couldn't swear to the8 fact that I didn't know she was there. I mean, I wasn't9 going there because I planned to meet her, but I might have10 heard that she was going there. I can't remember that.   |
| 10 I said, "But understand that he would do you, your11 mother, your grandmother and my oldest daughter, too, so just12 be careful." So that's -- so -- oh, Lord. This pays me off13 for every dirty joke I've ever told in my whole life.                 | 11 Q Okay. And that was in May of '96?12 A Yes. And then I went back --13 Q Was it Memorial Day weekend?   |
| 14 Anyway, you know, she spoke about -- I'm sure she15 spoke about her job some and we spoke about -- a little bit16 about politics. I mean, you know, I told you about a quote17 that we tried to research, we went into a bookstore after18 dinner. | 14 A I believe the weekend that we went on our walk was15 Memorial Day weekend and if I'm not mistaken that was the16 weekend before Memorial Day.17 Q All right. So you first saw her the weekend before18 Memorial Day.  |
| 19 We went for dinner twice, two different Italian20 restaurants in Georgetown. And I spent the day with Marcia.21 We went to the Air &amp; Space part of the Smithsonian.  | 19 A Yes. I believe.20 Q All right. And when you saw her the weekend before21 Memorial Day, did you talk to her?   |
| 22 Q And during this trip, did you meet Monica's23 brother, Michael?   | 22 A Just gave her a hug and kiss and told her -- you23 know, I asked her when she was going to be back. I told her24 I was coming back the next weekend, she said she would.  |
| 24 A Yes, I did.25 Q And did you meet her aunt, Debra?   | 24 I was coming back the next weekend, she said she would.25 Q Okay. And in fact you took a walk on Memorial Day  |
| Page 34  | Page 36   |
| 1 A Yes, I did.   | 1 weekend.   |
| 2 Q And Debra's son?  | 2 A Yes.   |
| 3 A Alec or Alex? Yes.  | 3 Q With Monica.   |
| 4 Q Okay. All right. After this visit, did you5 continue to maintain contact with Marcia and Monica?   | 4 A A couple probably. They blur.5 Q And did you talk to her during those walks?6 A Yes.   |
| 6 A Yes, I did.   | 7 Q And what do you remember about those conversations?  |
| 7 Q And that was again primarily on the phone.  | 8 A Oh, God. Okay. You know, we're talking and9 she's -- you know, we're just talking girl talk and she's --10 she -- I can't remember how many different times -- I11 mean, she felt that Clinton was basically misunderstood12 and that if I had met him that we'd be friends and that13 I'd really like him and she was telling me how -- you know,14 that he really has very, very deep feelings for people in15 general and really wants to do good. And I basically didn't16 buy it.     |
| 8 A Yes. It was only on the phone until May of '96.   | 17 And, anyway, I reminded her of what I asked her in18 February. I said to her, "Can you answer the question now?"19 You know, about is the President good in bed. And she just20 stopped walking and she said to me, "I have to talk to you.21 I just have to tell you something."22 And she said to me, "I want you to promise me that23 you're not going to tell anyone." And I said, "Don't tell me24 anything you don't want my husband to know because I tell my25 husband everything." |
| 9 Q Okay. And in May of '96, did you have another10 personal meeting with either of them?  | 21 I just have to tell you something."22 And she said to me, "I want you to promise me that23 you're not going to tell anyone." And I said, "Don't tell me24 anything you don't want my husband to know because I tell my25 husband everything."   |
| 11 A Yes, I did.  | 25 husband everything."  |
| 12 Q Which one?   |   |
| 13 A Monica.  |   |
| 14 Q And where did that take place?   |   |
| 15 A In Hunter Mountain. Twice. I saw her on a weekend16 where I was just up at the spa, the spa had changed hands17 and --   |   |
| 18 Q This is the same spa that you'd been at the19 previous summer, but a new owner?   |   |
| 20 A Well, it changed hands so it's the same physical21 location.  |   |
| 22 Q The same physical location.  |   |
| 23 A It was a different spa, essentially.   |   |
| 24 Q Okay. And she was there? Monica was there?   |   |
| 25 A Yes.   |   |

1 And she said, "I don't want you to tell anyone."
 2 she said, "I don't want you to discuss this with my mother,
 3 my mother knows I'm involved with the President." And she
 4 started to tell me the relationship that she had with 5 President Clinton.
 6 And I want to go on record as saying that I never
 7 told anyone until after the story broke and the only reason
 8 I'm talking publicly is because I have to. You know.
 9 But anyway, so she told me -- you know -- and she 10 said, "To answer your question, I don't know if he's good in 11 bed." And I said, "What do you mean? You're involved with 12 him."
 13 And so she said to me, "Well, we had oral sex."
 14 And I said, "Is he good?" And she said he never did her.
 15 And I said, "Then how did you have oral sex?" Aye, aye, aye.
 16 So she said, "Well, we didn't really have oral
 17 sex." And I said, "Well, how do you not have really -- how 18 do you have it but not really have it?" Aye.
 19 And what she said to me was that -- well, because
 20 I couldn't understand it. You're going to be involved with a
 21 married man and, you know, you have very deep feelings -- I
 22 mean, I didn't understand why she wasn't having sex with him
 23 and she said to me that -- mind you, I think it's wrong to 24 have sex with a married man, but if you are, just -- things
 25 just weren't making sense to me.

Page 38

1 And I said to her, I said to her, "Why?" You
 2 know -- and she said to me that the President doesn't trust
 3 anyone. She said that people have come forward, people
 4 who -- women who he had been involved with have come forward.
 5 they've gone to the press, they've gone to their attorneys,
 6 and that by -- and he wouldn't even come.
 7 That's where it was -- they didn't really have oral
 8 sex. She said that he felt that if he didn't come that it
 9 wasn't really oral sex.
 10 So I said, "So you really didn't have oral sex?"
 11 She said, "No." I said, "This is unbelievable." It was a
 12 very bizarre conversation.
 13 Q Just so that the reporter -- what you're saying,
 14 basically you're saying that --
 15 A I'm sorry, to the grand jury.
 16 Q Basically what you're saying is that Monica
 17 performed oral sex on the President, but he did not
 18 ejaculate. Is that correct?
 19 A That's -- yes.
 20 Q Did Monica tell you whether the President ever
 21 performed oral sex on her?
 22 A No. She said that he didn't. See, I couldn't -- I
 23 guess I couldn't understand what was in it for her. I
 24 just -- it was --
 25 Q Did you believe her?

Page 39

1 A Yes, I believed her because -- I believed her
 2 because I would think that if you're going -- first of all,
 3 she knows I don't like Clinton, that's number one.
 4 Second of all, if you're involved in a relationship
 5 like this and you were trying to exaggerate, if you were 6 trying to impress somebody or show that you were important to 7 somebody, you'd exaggerate rather than minimize what you were
 8 doing and I felt that, you know -- I actually -- I told my 9 husband, you know, and he didn't believe it at first. He 10 didn't believe it.
 11 He said, "Why would you believe this?" You know,
 12 he said -- can I have privilege and not say what my husband
 13 said? Am I allowed to not say what my husband said?
 14 MR. EMMICK: Yes.
 15 MS. WIRTH: Yes.
 16 THE WITNESS: Okay. Thank you.
 17 MR. EMMICK: Yes. There's a privilege called the 18 marital communications privilege and so you can assert that.
 19 THE WITNESS: Thank you. Okay.
 20 BY MS. WIRTH:
 21 Q Okay. Basically, though, you were explaining to us
 22 why the story that Monica told you was something that you
 23 believed.
 24 A Yes.
 25 Q And can you elaborate on that a little bit more?

Page 40

1 A Yes. Well, I basically -- you know, I mean, I see
 2 the President as a womanizer. I don't like him, I don't
 3 trust him, I have very, very strong feelings about how people
 4 in positions of power should behave. And I just -- I don't
 5 feel that he met the criteria.
 6 And so -- you know, I mean, and she knew how I felt
 7 about him and I feel that if you're going to lie, if she was
 8 going to lie to me, she would have said to me, "Oh, he calls
 9 me all the time. He does wonderful things. He can't wait to 10 see me." Y
 11 ou know, I mean, she would have -- I would imagine
 12 that she would have embellished the story. You know, she 13 wouldn't be telling me "He told me he'd call me, I waited
 14 home all weekend and I didn't do anything and he didn't call
 15 and then he didn't call for two weeks."
 16 In other words, you know, like she was not happy
 17 about the situation and so it wouldn't have made any sense to 18 me at all for her to have wanted more and gotten less. So --
 19 you know -- besides, I mean, what would be the point in lying
 20 to somebody? Why would she lie to me?
 21 I mean, why have a conversation with somebody in
 22 which you're lying? I mean, it just -- it wouldn't have m:
 23 any sense to me.
 24 Q Okay. And during that conversation, did she
 25 express dissatisfaction like you just mentioned about waiting

|--|---|
| 1 home all weekend for calls and so on? 2 A Yes. Yes. 3 Q Okay. And did she express any dissatisfaction with 4 the physical nature of the relationship? 5 A She said that she would have liked to have had more 6 of an involvement. You know. I mean -- 7 Q Did you ever discuss the President with Monica on 8 the telephone? 9 A I brought him up, I think, a couple of times and 10 she wouldn't talk about him on the phone with me. 11 Q So the conversations that you have had with Monica 12 about the President have been confined to your personal 13 encounters with her? 14 A Yes, with one exception. 15 Q Okay. And what was that? 16 A This was not about her -- this was after she stayed 17 at my house on Labor Day weekend. 18 Q This is in 1997? 19 A Yes. 20 Q So we're jumping ahead just a little bit. 21 A Do you not want me to say this now? 22 Q No, that's okay. Go ahead. But just so the grand 23 jury understands, this is a subsequent visit. 24 A Okay. What had happened was I had told her about a 25 political fantasy that I had for years and she had told me   | 1 A I originally asked her to talk to him about it and 2 then when I thought about it, you know, I don't want to use 3 my friends for my own agenda. Otherwise, I would have leaked 4 the story to the press before the election and seen him -- I 5 mean, I would have loved to have done that, but, you know, 6 you can't use your friends. 7 Q Okay. Now, the original question was have you ever 8 talked to Monica on the phone about the President. Was this 9 a conversation that took place on the phone? 10 A Yes. On the phone. Either I called her or she 11 called me and I told her that I decided not to send the 12 letter. 13 Q And did you tell her why? 14 A Yes. 15 Q Okay. 16 A Yes. 17 Q And why was the reason you just expressed to us. 18 A Yes. 19 Q Okay. All right. Now, going back to May of '96, 20 this is the spa over Memorial Day weekend, when was the next 21 time you saw Monica in person? 22 A That was in September of '97. 23 Q So it's a whole year and several months later. 24 A Year and a couple of months later. Yes. 25 Q And in between, had you spoken to her on the phone?                           |
| Page 42 1 that she thought -- and I had actually asked her if she would 2 present it to Clinton and she thought he would love it, you 3 know, and she wanted me to write it up. 4 What it was was I always -- I always dreamed about 5 a secretary of volunteerism in the cabinet that would really 6 make volunteer work a national priority and I thought it 7 would be great if it was a volunteer position where somebody 8 like the man who founded Habitat for Humanity would take -- I 9 don't want to stray, I'm sorry, but in any event -- 10 Q It was an idea that you had that you presented to 11 Monica. 12 A Yes. Yes. And what happened is that at this point 13 she had told me that, you know, Clinton wanted to back off 14 from the relationship, he didn't want to be involved, he felt 15 embarrassed about his behavior, he wanted to be a better 16 husband and better father, he wanted Chelsea to be proud of 17 him, and so I reconsidered and I felt that I shouldn't give 18 her anything for her to have a reason to meet the President, 19 I didn't want to feel in any way, shape or form responsible 20 for doing something that would have her be around him. I was 21 glad, I wanted it over. 22 Q She had asked you in fact to write up a proposal 23 for the President. 24 A Yes. 25 Q And you declined or you decided not to do so. | Page 44 1 A A couple of times, yes. 2 Q And during any of those conversations, did you 3 discuss the President? 4 A Well, I know I asked her once or twice if she was 5 still involved with the President and she said she'll talk to 6 me when she sees me, but she didn't at that time anyway like 7 to talk about this or wasn't willing to talk about it on the 8 phone. I wouldn't press it. 9 Q Okay. Before we start talking about the Labor Day 10 time that you saw her which was over a year later, during any 11 of the conversations that you had with Monica, did she ever 12 tell you about any gifts that she gave the President? 13 A Yes. 14 Q What did she tell you? 15 A Well, you're talking about prior to Labor Day? 16 Q Well, if that's the case. Is that the case? Or in 17 any of the conversations that you had. 18 A Okay. All right. I don't remember when the gifts 19 were given. There are only three gifts that I do remember. 20 Q And what were they? 21 A There were two ties and one book. 22 Q Did she tell you how she got the ties to the 23 President? 24 A Through Betty Currie. 25 Q She said she -- |

|---|---|
| 1 A One tie I knew was through Betty Currie. And I2 don't remember if the second tie was through Betty Currie or3 if she gave it to him.4 Q And did she tell you whether the President had ever5 worn either of the ties?6 A Definitely one of them.7 Q What did she tell you about it?8 A She said that there was a picture in the New York9 Times where he was wearing her tie. And, you know, she did10 mention that there were several times where he had worn her11 tie.12 Q Okay. And what other gifts did she give him?13 A A book.14 Q And what do you know about the book?15 A What I know about the book is that there was an16 antique dealer -- he had told her that he went to a shop17 where there was an antique dealer --18 Q He, the President?19 A I'm sorry. Clinton said that he went to an20 antique shop and there were two books that he was interested21 in. I don't remember whether he said there were two books,22 okay?23 I know that he mentioned a book to her, she went24 to the shop, and she had told me the name -- she told me25 everything, I just can't remember. I'm really sorry. | 1 Vineyard. And she told me about a hat pin, a brooch, I can't2 remember.3 Q A hat pin and a brooch?4 A I think so. But she didn't -- she didn't show it5 to me or anything.6 Q You never saw any of the presents?7 A No. No.8 Q Okay. Did she ever tell you, Monica, any nicknames9 that she used for the President?10 A Handsome. She called him Handsome. I asked her11 what she called him. I said, "Do you call him Bill? You12 know, what do you call the guy?" And she said that she13 usually didn't call him anything. She would call him14 Handsome and she said he really liked that. And when she15 would get mad at him, she would call him the Big Creep or16 Creep.17 Q Do you know if she called him that name to his face18 or she talked about him that way?19 A If I did know, I don't remember. I don't remember.20 Q Did she ever tell you about any Valentine message21 that she had sent him?22 A Yes.23 Q What did she tell you?24 A It was published in a paper, in a personal ad in25 the paper, and she quoted from Romeo and Juliet. |
| Page 46 1 But she went to see him, she went to the shop and2 she explained that she was somehow connected to the3 President, I don't remember what she said, and she asked if4 the owner of the store could tell her which books the5 President looked at. Or not the owner, I don't know whether6 he was the owner, but the man who she spoke to -- this is7 where I get nervous about not making mistakes.8 In any event, so he told her which two books and9 she bought one of them. I remember that there were two10 books.11 Q And she told you --12 A It was a historical -- it was of a historical13 nature. Yes.14 Q And it was an old book?15 A Yes.16 Q And it was a book that she gave to him?17 A It was a used book. I don't know how old it was.18 Q And she gave it to the President.19 A Yes.20 Q All right. Did she ever tell you about any gifts21 the President gave to her?22 A Yes.23 Q What did she tell you?24 A She told me about T-shirts from some place in the25 northeast, I don't remember if it was Nantucket or Martha's   | Page 46 1 Q She told you about that in person?2 A Yes.3 Q Did she ever show you that ad?4 A I saw it, but she didn't show it to me, I saw it in5 the papers after the story broke.6 Q Did she ever tell you about any telephone7 conversations that she had with the President?8 A Yes.9 Q What did she tell you?10 A Well, she told me he would call late at night and11 he would -- I do believe that she recorded one or two of12 them.13 Q Did you ever hear any of those recordings?14 A I had no interest in it. No. I never asked her.15 BY MR. EMMICK:16 Q Could I ask just a clarification? When you say17 that she made reference to some telephone recordings of phone18 calls from the President, did you have an impression whether19 she was talking about a whole conversation that was recorded20 or whether there were simply messages that were left on her21 machine?22 A I got the impression that it was a phone23 conversation. That was my impression, but I couldn't -- I24 don't want to swear to it.25 MR. EMMICK: All right.   |

| 1 BY MS. WIRTH: 2 Q Does any particular time stick in your mind as a 3 time that she mentioned that he called? 4 A She said he would call late at night. When he -- 5 Q Go ahead. I was going to ask you did she tell you 6 where he was at the time that he called? 7 A Sometimes from the White House and sometimes when 8 he was traveling. 9 Q And where was she at the time that he called? 10 A In bed. 11 Q At home? 12 A In her house. Yes. Her phone, she said, was in 13 her bedroom. 14 Q Okay. You mentioned Betty Currie earlier in 15 connection with a tie that Monica gave to the President 16 through Betty Currie. Did Betty Currie's name ever come up 17 in any other context? 18 A Yes. 19 Q What-did she tell you? 20 A She told me that she had become friendly with 21 Betty. She told me that she had confided in Betty about her 22 relationship with the President. But what I want to clarify 23 is I didn't ask her what the details were that she told Betty 24 and I don't know. 25 Q Okay. Did Monica ever tell you where she would see                         | 1 THE FOREPERSON: Excuse me, Mr. Emmick, Ms. Wirth. 2 MS. Can I use the ladies' 7 room? 8 MS. WIRTH: Yes. Sure. Do you know where it is? 9 THE WITNESS: Yes. 10 MS. WIRTH: Okay. 11 THE WITNESS: Thank you. 12 MR. Thank you. And I'm 19 sorry -- 20 MS. WIRTH: You can leave -- 21 THE WITNESS: Can I just off the record say I'm 22 sorry, I'm very emotional, so I am sorry -- 23 MS. | 1 the President, meet with him? 2 A You're talking privately, not in the Rose Garden 3 and stuff like that? 4 Q Yes. Right. 5 A There's an office, she said, that was off of the 6 Oval Office that was his private room. 7 Q Okay. And is that where she told you her sexual 8 encounters took place with the President? 9 A Her not really sexual encounters. Yes. 10 Q The way she described them to you. 11 A Yes. 12 Q Was it your impression from talking to her that 13 there was more than one encounter of that nature? 14 A Yes. 15 BY MR. EMMICK: 16 Q Did you have an impression of how often? 17 A A few times, but I -- no. I'm sure if you could 18 hypnotize me and get me to go back over time I could -- I 19 probably know, but I don't remember. 20 Q You'd know because -- you would know how often she 21 referred to it? 22 A Monica is very, very -- when she tells a story, she 23 likes to go from beginning to end, she really likes to tell 24 details. So, you know -- and I guess I pressed for other 25 kinds of details and so that's how the stories come out. | 1 environment, so I would feel the same way in your shoes. 2 THE WITNESS: Are you the chairman of the grand 3 jury? 4 THE FOREPERSON: I'm the foreperson. 5 THE WITNESS: The foreman of the grand jury? 6 THE FOREPERSON: Yes. 7 THE WITNESS: Okay. Thank you. 8 (Witness excused. Witness recalled.) 9 THE FOREPERSON: Ms. Wirth, Mr. Emmick, we have a 10 quorum and there are no unauthorized people in the grand jury 11 room. 12 Ms. Young, you are still under oath. 13 THE WITNESS: Thank you. 14 MR. EMMICK: Ms. Young, before we get started, I 15 did want to convey a couple of ideas on behalf of the grand 16 jurors because they asked me to. The first is that you've 17 expressed some concern about your possibly being overly 18 emotional or that your character, your personality, is an 19 emotional character and personality. You should know that -- 20 don't worry about that. 21 THE WITNESS: Thank you. 22 MR. EMMICK: We have seen emotional people, this is 23 an emotional topic, and it seems to me you're just being 24 yourself and there's nothing wrong with that and the grand 25 jurors recognize that. |

| Page 53 1 Second, you've expressed some concern, maybe2 embarrassment, over the fact that you're talking in somewhat3 explicit terms about sexual, very personal matters.4 Again, the grand jurors want me to express the fact5 that they've heard other sexually explicit conversations, so6 this is not a shocking thing for them and it may cause you7 some embarrassment because we're largely strangers to you,8 but there's no reason for you to be distracted in your9 testimony because of that.10 THE WITNESS: Thank you.11 MR. EMMICK: And, finally, just along the same12 lines, you have expressed concern about, gosh, what if I make13 a mistake.14 Now, obviously, we want you to be as careful as you15 can, but, again, keep in mind that what we really want is16 for you to do the best you can in being as truthful as17 you can. If you were to make a mistake, a mistake is not18 the same thing as perjury. Perjury is limited to that19 category of circumstances where you know you're intentionally20 lying.21 So as long as you're not intentionally lying and22 you're doing the best you can, I think you can be confident23 that things will work out.24 THE WITNESS: Thank you.25 MR. EMMICK: Sure.  | Page 55 1 that?2 A I seem to remember, I just can't -- she told me3 that there was this lady who complained about her be-4 around the President, which I think you mentioned to me,5 Lieberman.6 Q I asked you if the name Evelyn --7 A If that name sounded familiar.8 Q I asked you if Evelyn Lieberman was familiar.9 A Yes. But she did tell me that there was concern --10 one of the reasons why she got transferred to the Pentagon11 was because she was around the President too much.12 Q And is the name Evelyn Lieberman familiar to you?13 A From you. The name sounds familiar, but I can't --14 I'm really sorry.15 Q Okay. For the record, I just asked you whether16 it's a name that sounds familiar.17 A Yes.18 Q Okay. And it is familiar from things you've read19 in the papers?20 A The name sounded familiar but I don't remember21 where. It's a name that I recognized.22 Q Okay. But it's not a name you can associate with23 this woman that you were just describing that Monica talked24 about?25 A I don't remember a specific woman. In other words  |
| Page 54 1 BY MS. WIRTH:2 Q All right. I'm going to ask you just a couple of3 questions that pertain somewhat to things that you've already4 testified about.5 When you first spoke to Monica about her6 relationship with the President or at any time after that,7 did she ever tell you how the relationship began?8 A Yes. I know that she did because of the way she9 tells stories, but I can't remember. I just can't. I'm10 really sorry.11 Q Is there anything about the government shutdown12 that rings a bell as to when the relationship began?13 A I know that he used to come into the room where she14 would be answering the phones during the government shutdown15 and I know that he would call her in the room where she was16 answering the phones, but I don't remember.17 Q Did she describe anything about her encounters with18 the President when he would come into the room where she was19 answering the phones?20 A She told me that she really felt that he was21 physically attracted to her. That's what she did tell me.22 Q Okay. All right. During any of your conversations23 with Monica about her relationship with the President, did24 she ever express to you any concerns about being caught or25 being seen or any precautions that were taken? Anything like | Page 50 1 it was a general feeling that she was around the President2 too much that I remember.3 Q Okay. Did Monica ever tell you in relation to4 Betty Currie whether she told Betty Currie whatever she told5 her about her relationship with the President in a special6 setting? Like outside the White House?7 A I don't know why I'm thinking -- a bar is coming to8 my mind, but I can't remember. I mean --9 Q Did she ever mention the Hay-Adams Hotel? Did10 Monica ever say that she --11 A That name sounds familiar, but I can't place it. I12 can't place --13 Q Okay. So you have some memory perhaps --14 A There's a Hayloft Hotel in Westchester, I know, but15 I can't -- I'm sorry.16 Q Okay. But you have some memory, perhaps, of Monica17 and Betty Currie meeting some place outside the White House?18 A It's not a jarring feeling to say yes, but I19 wouldn't swear on it.20 Q Okay. All right. Now, going back to Labor Day,21 okay? You testified earlier that you met Monica at the spa22 in May of '96 and then it was much later, in September of23 '97, that you saw Monica next. Is that correct?24 A I met her in the summer of '95 and then I saw her25 at the spa -- I mean, I originally met her -- |

 6 her was in September of '97. Yes. 6 asked me why and I said, "I don't know why, but he doesn't
 7 Q Okay. And where did you see her in September of 7 want you there."
 8 '97? 8 Q Did she ever mention the name of anyone at the 11 my car and drove over to my house. 11 A Well, in the card --

 12 Q And she stayed with you that weekend? 12 Q Which I have in my hands, which is Exhibit DY-1, 13 A No, that night. 13 would you read that for the grand jury? Is that a note from 14 Q That night. 14 Monica to you?
 15 A One night. And she left early, she left before I 15 A Yes.
 16 woke up the next morning. 16 Q And that's a note she wrote to you after that Labor
 17 Q All right. And that was over the Labor Day 17 Day weekend visit?
 18 weekend. 18 A Yes.
 19 A Yes. - 19 Q Could you read it to the grand jury?
 20 Q And did you speak to her during that weekend about 20 A Yes. "Dear Dale: I wanted to thank you for the 21 her relationship with the President? 21 kindness and friendship you extended to me last weekend.
 22 A Yes. 22 I really needed the friendly ear and good advice.
 23 Q And what did she tell you? 23 Unfortunately, I came back to D.C. only to learn that the

 2 wanted -- did I say this here? 2 end of this whole trauma is over." I couldn't tell if it was
 3 Q Continue. That's all right. 3 trauma or drama. "I just wish my heart didn't have to be
 4 A I'm sorry. I'm sorry. I can't remember. 4 broken in all of this. Well, I hope you and your family are
 5 Q You may have, but go ahead. 5 well. Again, Dale, thanks for being such a great friend.
 6 A Okay. I didn't want to be redundant, but he had 6 Love, Monica."
 7 told her -- he had told her that he didn't -- he wanted his 7 Q Okay. And did she ever tell you whether the Marsha
 8 daughter to be proud of him and he wanted to be a better 8 that she referred to in this letter was Marsha Scott?
 9 husband, he wanted to be a better father, and that he felt 9 A That name sounds awfully familiar. What she told
 10 guilty about the way he had behaved himself and he wanted to 10 me -- see, I don't remember if --
 11 stop behaving the way he did. And she was very upset. I 11 Q Can I ask you one question before you go any 12 mean, she had very strong feelings about him. I believe she 12 further? Did she tell you that -- was it your understanding
 13 told me that she loved him. 13 that the Marsha referred to in this note was someone who 14 Q Did she tell you anything about any discussions 14 worked at the White House?
 15 that she had with the President about her coming back to the 15 A Yes.
 16 White House to work? 16 Q Okay. And that was someone she had discussed with 17 A She -- yes. Yes, she did. She told me that he had 17 you during your Labor Day meeting?
 18 been trying to get her back in the White House and I said, 18 A Yes. She had told me that the President had her
 19 "He's full of shit." Excuse me. But I -- I said that 19 interview for a position, and I'm not sure if it's the same
 20 because I -- I told her that if he wants her back in the 20 person that she refers to in the letter, but a woman who the 21 White House, she'd be there. 21 President had had a relationship with previously from 22 I said, "Monica, he's the most powerful man in the 22 Arkansas and she felt a little bit awkward about it.
 23 world and you're going to tell me he wants you to be in the 23 Q Okay. All right. Now, when was the next time you
 24 White House and you're not there?" And she said, "Given his 24 spoke to Monica, either in person or on the phone, after that
 25 position of power, he can't just get me there or people will 25 Labor Day weekend encounter?"

1 A We spoke about the letter that I didn't send her,
 2 about the volunteer -- the position in the cabinet of
 3 secretary of volunteerism. And then I spoke to Marcia all
 4 the time, but I didn't speak to Monica frequently, probably
 5 less than three or four times between then and -- she called
 6 me on my birthday, she sang "Happy Birthday" to me on my
 7 office machine and I spoke to her the next day.
 8 Q And that was January of '98?
 9 A Yes.
 10 Q And your birthday is what day?
 11 A January 4th.
 12 Q And she called you on your birthday?
 13 A Yes.
 14 Q Did you have any conversations --
 15 A And then I spoke to her on the 28th or 27th of 16 February, which I told you about.
 17 Q Okay. We'll talk about that in a few minutes. Did
 18 you ever speak to Marcia --
 19 A Oh, yes.
 20 Q -- her mother about Monica's relationship with the 21 President?
 22 A I didn't speak about the relationship. We spoke 23 about what I would do if Monica were my daughter to --
 24 Q How did that conversation take place? What 25 happened and when did it happen?

1 don't know what she discussed with her mother about that.
 2 Q Okay. Did there come a time when you received a
 3 phone call from Marcia?
 4 A Yes. Yes.
 5 Q Can you tell the grand jury when that happened?
 6 A Yes. After Monica stayed in my house on Labor Day,
 7 I got a call -- and I'm pretty good, I can recognize people's
 8 voices on the phone, but, you know, Marcia had called me and
 9 it was obvious that she had been crying and she said to me
 10 that Monica had told her that she confided in me about her
 11 relationship with the President and she said to me that --
 12 well, she told me that -- I don't want to be self-serving, I
 13 mean, but she said to me that she was glad that she had told
 14 me because she felt that I would have given her similar
 15 advice that Marcia would have given her.
 16 And she said to me, "What would you do if it were 17 your daughter? How would you --" you know, because -- I
 18 mean, Marcia really did not -- was not happy. And I told her
 19 that what I would do is I would call Betty Currie and I would
 20 say to her, "If you ever let my daughter see the President
 21 again, I will leak it to the press that there was a
 22 relationship and that you basically allowed my daughter
 23 access."
 24 Q And did Marcia respond to that?
 25 A Yes. Marcia said -- Marcia was very, very

1 A After -- did I tell you here on record that Monica
 2 had asked me not to discuss her relationship with the
 3 President with her mother? Was that here or at your office?
 4 Q I believe you did say that today. And that was
 5 during your initial conversation in May of '96?
 6 A That was in May. Yes.
 7 Q And this is at the health spa when Monica told you
 8 for the first time about her relationship with the President.
 9 A Yes.
 10 Q And at that time, she asked you not to tell her
 11 mother about this.
 12 A Or anyone.
 13 Q Okay. Did she tell you at that time whether she 14 had told her mother about it?
 15 A Yes. Yes.
 16 Q She said that she had?
 17 A Yes. But I didn't --
 18 Q But she asked you not to discuss it with her
 19 mother.
 20 A Yes. But what I really need to be clear about,
 21 because I don't want to say anything that could hurt anybody,
 22 Betty Currie or Marcia or anyone, is that while she told me
 23 that she told her mother about the relationship, I didn't ask
 24 her "Did you tell her all the details?" And so I never
 25 discussed any of the sexual elements with her mother and I

1 [REDACTED]

 5 And I said to her, "You didn't ask me about
 6 maintaining your relationship with your daughter. I mean,
 7 you're talking about a tightrope. You asked me about how to
 8 get your daughter not to be involved with the President."
 9 And I said, you know, that I didn't see how to have it both
 10 ways. I didn't see -- it was -- it was not easy.
 11 And she told me that she did call Betty Currie.
 12 She told me -- you know, after -- after we had spoken about
 13 it, she told me that she did call Betty Currie and she said
 14 that Betty told her that she couldn't discuss anything with 15 Marcia, that Marcia had to understand her position.
 16 Q Did Marcia tell you what she said to Betty Currie
 17 when she called her?
 18 A No. No.
 19 Q Was it your understanding that Marcia said
 20 something similar to Betty Currie to what you suggested she 21 should say?
 22 A What I would have guessed, because I didn't -- you
 23 know, it's all speculative, what I would have guessed is that
 24 she explained that she was Monica's mother and that she
 25 wanted to talk to her and that Betty probably just cut it

|---|--|
| 1 off. 2 Q But what did Marcia tell you that Betty said? 3 A She said you have to appreciate my position and I 4 can't talk about this with you and she wouldn't talk to her. 5 Q Do you know when that call took place? 6 A No. 7 Q Do you remember Marcia told you about it? 8 A No. No. But what -- 9 Q Did Marcia say anything to Betty when Betty said 10 that, according to Marcia? Did she tell you? 11 A Not that I know of. What I told -- see, what I 12 told Marcia that I wouldn't have let her off the hook that 13 easily. 14 I said, "I wouldn't have cared if I sent her a 15 certified letter return receipt requested putting her on 16 notice you don't let me daughter in the office." 17 You know, I'm the type of person I'm your best 18 friend, I'm your worst enemy. You know, you don't mess 19 around with my family and that's how I would have -- you 20 know, I'm very -- I don't know. I don't know. I mean -- 21 Marcia -- it was very hard for her. 22 I also told her that I would move -- you know, I 23 would get out of there. 24 Q Out of there being Washington? 25 A Out of Washington. Yes.               | 1 Q Did Monica ever tell you whether anybody was 2 helping her get a job in New York? 3 A I don't know why I want to say the President, but I 4 never -- you asked me in the office if I heard of Vernon 5 Jordan helping and I never did hear of that. But I want to 6 say the President, but I can't be specific. I just can't -- 7 I can't say -- I just can't say it. 8 Q Because you have no definite memory of that? 9 A Yes. What I really want to say to you is that when 10 I have conversations with my friends, I mean, I never in a 11 million years expected to have to answer questions under oath 12 about a friend of mine and so I didn't go home and write 13 notes and I didn't -- you know -- 14 Q Did the subject of the Paula Jones case ever come 15 up -- 16 A No. 17 Q -- between you and Monica or you and Marcia? 18 A No. Wait a minute. I know I never discussed it 19 with Monica, I don't believe I ever discussed it with Marcia. 20 I know that in general I spoke about the Paula Jones case on 21 my own very, very frequently, so I can't say. 22 Q With them? 23 A No. No. What I'm saying is in general. 24 Q Did Monica ever tell you that she was on a witness 25 list in the Paula Jones case? |
| 1 Q And, in fact, Marcia did leave Washington, didn't 2 she? 3 A Yes. 4 Q And she moved to New York. Is that right? 5 A She has an apartment in New York. I don't know -- 6 you know, all of my calls were to Washington, straight 7 through to the end, I would always call -- 8 Q Call Marcia in Washington? 9 A Yes. 10 Q Okay. Did you ever hear from either Marcia or 11 Monica that Monica was intending to move to New York? 12 A Not that she was intending to, but that she would 13 like to. 14 Q Did you ever hear anything about any efforts on 15 Monica's part to find a job in New York? 16 A This is getting very difficult for me because this 17 is where I can't separate things. Like I know I read all of 18 this in the papers and I can't remember whether I knew about 19 individual aspects of jobs. 20 I remember hearing about the prospect of a job 21 with the U.N. from Marcia or Monica, but I didn't hear -- I 22 knew that Monica didn't want to work in the U.N. I also knew 23 that Marcia didn't want her to work in the U.N., but I 24 couldn't swear under oath who I heard it from. You know, I'm 25 sorry. | 1 A No. 2 Q Did she ever tell you that she had contacted a 3 lawyer in connection with representing her in the Paula Jones 4 case? 5 A Nothing about Paula Jones. 6 Q Did Monica ever tell you that she swore out an 7 affidavit in the Paula Jones case? 8 A No. Nothing. 9 Q Okay. Did Monica ever tell you about any desire on 10 her part to get a job in private industry in New York? 11 A Now, I remember -- I remember when I read about 12 Revlon that it didn't surprise me when I read it, but I 13 didn't have a recollection specifically. 14 Q Now, in between September and January when you got 15 your birthday call from Monica, did you speak to Monica on 16 the phone, aside from the one occasion when you called her 17 about the volunteer thing? About the fact that you weren't 18 going to send her the information for the President. 19 A I don't have a recollection of speaking to Monica. 20 I would talk to Marcia at least -- I can't say at least twice 21 a week. I'd say on the average at least twice a week. There 22 might be a week or two where I wouldn't talk to her, but 23 generally speaking, I spoke to her all the time. 24 Q To Marcia? 25 A Marcia is one of my best friends.        |

|--|---|
| 1 Q Now, when Monica called you on your birthday, which2 you said was January what?  | 1 finished them, was a man named Albert Podell. And I --2 anyway, I couldn't reach Marcia or Monica, I kept on calling  |
| 3 A The 4th.  | 3 and calling and calling.   |
| 4 Q The 4th? 1998. And sang "Happy Birthday." Did5 you have an occasion to speak to her after she left you that6 message?   | 4 I left a message on Debi Finerman's number because5 I had read that she lived in the Watergate, when I met her6 she wasn't living in the Watergate. And, you know, I7 couldn't reach my friends. I sent a letter to them. I8 didn't even sign my name because I wasn't sure whether or not9 her mail was being taken by the FBI or -- I was just very10 nervous, I didn't know what to do. |
| 7 A It was on my machine, on my voice mail, and the8 next day I called on her mother's line, they have two9 separate lines, and Monica was there, so I asked Marcia to10 put her on the phone for a second and she did and she said to11 me, "Did you get my message?" I said, "Yes, thank you."                                    | 11 All I could do -- I left a message, a couple of12 messages, on Ginsburg's line, he never called me back until I13 beeped him. And, you know, and I felt very, very helpless14 because here, you know, I saw what was happening to my15 friends and I couldn't reach them. You know. And I'm a firm16 believer that, you know, you have to be there in the hard17 times.                   |
| 12 And -- I mean, I remember reading in the papers13 after -- you know, I had known later that that was after she14 had signed the affidavit and I realized -- I couldn't believe15 that my friends would actually think to call me on my16 birthday when they must have been going through hell and I17 didn't know about it. | 18 Anyway, I couldn't reach them and I knew that this19 lawyer had a way of contacting Marcia. So I --  |
| 18 Q Okay. Did you have any further contact with Monica19 before this story became public on January 21, 1998?   | 20 Q And this lawyer is Mr. --   |
| 20 A I don't recall between January 5th and the 21st21 speaking to her. No.  | 21 A Albert Podell.  |
| 22 Q During any of your conversations with Monica, did23 the name Linda Tripp ever come up?  | 22 Q Podell. Okay.   |
| 24 A I remember she had talked -- it must have come up,25 but I didn't remember it coming up and the reason why it must  | 23 A Anyway, what I did was I asked -- he said to me --24 he said if Ken Starr does -- he asked me what I knew about25 the relationship anyway so I told him about my relationship   |
| 1 have come up is because she had told me that she had told --2 she told me that she had told a lot of people about the3 relationship with the President.   | 1 with both of them and he told me that if Ken Starr does his2 job, I'm going to get subpoenaed and that I'm going to need3 an attorney.   |
| 4 I mean, like, in different conversations, she's5 say, oh, I told this one or I told that one, and she told me6 that she told somebody who had gone forward and spoken to the7 press about somebody else and I kind of realized later that8 she was talking about Kathleen Willey and Linda Tripp.                                 | 4 And I had real problems -- I never committed a5 crime, so -- I mean, that's not true. I've sped and I have6 committed a crime, I don't want to say I haven't committed a7 crime -- that's what I mean. I don't want to -- you know, I8 mean, I commit crimes, but -- but what I mean is that --  |
| 9 And what I said to her, because this is what I say10 to my daughters, I'm sure I said that, I said to her, "You11 know, you have to understand the best indication of future12 behavior is past behavior. What in God's name would make you13 think if somebody told something about one person they14 wouldn't tell you?"   | 9 MR. EMMICK: Actually, that's an infraction rather10 than a crime.   |
| 15 And she spoke about trusting somebody and --16 anyway. So it must have -- you know, I can't imagine it not17 having been Linda Tripp who she was talking about.  | 11 THE WITNESS: Okay. I'm sorry.   |
| 18 Q After the story became public, did you have any19 contact with Monica or her mother?  | 12 MR. EMMICK: But we understand the concept.  |
| 20 A Yes.   | 13 THE WITNESS: Okay. But what I'm saying is14 I don't want to lie. And so -- I'm sorry. Okay.  |
| 21 Q What happened?   | 15 Anyway, but the point is that as far as this whole16 thing is concerned, I didn't commit a crime and I didn't17 understand why I would need an attorney and Albert -- anyway,18 so he said to me that -- I needed the press to get off my19 tail.   |
| 22 A What happened was -- aye, aye, aye. I -- when I23 was called a lot by the media, a friend of mine knew a lawyer24 who started doing the pre-nups for Marcia and Peter Straus.25 And the lawyer who started the pre-nups, I don't believe he   | 20 I mean, they were driving me crazy, as I expect21 they're going to for the next five years of my life, but they22 were on my tail and I needed them to leave me alone beca23 all the time -- they kept on calling and calling. Well, you24 know what it's like, I'm sure they hound you all the time in25 your office.   |

1 So in any event, what happened is that I -- Albert
2 said that he would write a letter to Marcia asking Marcia to
3 contact Ginsburg to get the press to leave me alone, which I
4 didn't know how it would work, but be it as it may, I said to
5 him, "I will hire you for one thing and one thing only. I do
6 not want to put you on retainer. How much will you charge me
7 to send the letter?"

8 So he charged me $200, he sent a letter and Marcia
9 contacted me and all she did was -- by phone and she said to
10 me, "I am so sorry."

11 And I said to her, "You have nothing to apologize
12 about." You know, I said, "It's not -- you didn't do
13 anything." I said, you know, I said, "Please understand the 14 reason I hired Albert was it was my way of saying I'm your 15 friend."

16 I figured here this woman had just been betrayed, I
17 didn't know -- you know, I didn't want to just hire any 18 lawyer because if they got -- you know, lawyers -- you know,
19 they're adversarial by nature so if you get a letter from a
20 lawyer, you're going to think that somebody's after you,
21 somebody's going to hurt you.

22 And if I couldn't reach her, I wanted her to know
23 I'm not turning on you, you're my friend. And so by 24 hiring -- I'm sorry --

25 A JUROR: Adversarial by nature. That just rang a

Page 74

1 bell.

2 THE WITNESS: Oh, okay.

3 A JUROR: I apologize.

4 THE WITNESS: So anyway, I retained Albert's
5 services for that as my way of saying I'm your friend, you
6 know, and I don't want to talk to the press. So she had
7 called me to tell me how sorry she was, you know, and I said,
8 "If there's anything I can do," she said, "There is nothing
9 you can do."

10 She said, "But she's seen the belly of the beast."
11 She said, "Dale, you wouldn't believe how ugly." And I said,
12 "Oh, I think I would believe how ugly this is." You know.
13 And, anyway, and she said that I had to understand why she
14 didn't call me and I really don't understand.

15 I mean, for the life of me, you know, Albert
16 advised me not to try and call Marcia and Monica and I was 17 sitting there saying, you know -- Albert was saying, "Well,
18 how will it look? How will it look?"

19 I said, "How the hell does it look if these are 20 my friends and I don't call them? You're like a piece of 21 garbage if you don't call your friends." And he said,
22 "No, but you don't understand."

23 Well, I don't understand. You know, I still
24 don't understand because if these are your friends and you
25 don't call them, you know, it basically looks like they're

Page 75

1 abandoned. I'm sorry. This whole thing really -- thank you.

2 Anyway -- anyway, so I -- you know, and Marcia only
3 spoke for a little while. She said that if we're only on the
4 phone for a brief period, you know, we obviously can't talk
5 about -- anyway --

6 And then I kept on trying to call and trying to
7 call, you know, and -- anyway, finally, I must have tried
8 almost every single day, the end of February, I called on 9 Marcia's line and Monica answered the phone. And it was very
10 early. I would call Marcia early and I called Monica -- I
11 always called Monica later because Monica's -- anyway, I
12 would call them.

13 And so Monica answered Marcia's phone and we spoke
14 for almost an hour and she wouldn't -- we couldn't -- she 15 felt that her phone was tapped and she wouldn't talk about 16 the case.

17 We spoke peripherally about the case. I asked her
18 what she thought about Ginsburg because I had very, very 19 serious reservations and, you know, I -- there were a lot of 20 things. I said to her, "You know, Monica, his job is to 21 protect you." I said, "What the hell is he talking about 22 Israel for?"

23 You know, I read an article where -- I don't know
24 if you have seen this or not, but I clipped this out, I had 25 it by the side of my bed to talk to Monica.

Page 76

1 He said, "I support Israel, Monica supports Israel,
2 we're both Jewish, we don't want to see the President --" I
3 said, "What --" I don't want to -- I said, "What the fuck
4 does it matter what he thinks about Israel?" I said, you
5 know, "It's not Ginsburg's place --"

6 And what Monica said to me is "What he said is 7 true, we both are Clinton supporters." She said, "But," she
8 said, "It did get played out poorly in the press," and she 9 said -- you know, she said that she feels very confident in 10 Ginsburg, she said, "But this is uncharted territory." She 11 said, "Who's an expert in this kind of situation?" She said,
12 "There's no precedent for it."

13 And so she said that, you know, she's learning and 14 she felt very -- I'm sorry. And she felt confident about his 15 representation.

16 Then I brought up the stupid thing he said to Bill
17 Saffire about Clinton being a misogynist or something -- I
18 don't remember what it was. And I said, "What the hell is he 19 asking Saffire about usage for?"

20 I said -- you know, I mean, I said, "Why is he 21 asking for your friends to come forward?" I said, "What is 22 wrong with this man? He's uncontrollable."

23 You know, he just -- I'm not an attorney and I
24 don't know what his strategy was, but I told her how I felt 25 about that.

Page 77

1 I asked her if I could see her and she said she
2 can't get past the press and I said, "I'll send you a blond
3 wig." I was kidding. And I wanted -- you know I really
4 wanted -- she said that she would love to see me but that she
5 really couldn't.

6 And I asked her how her mother was handling it and
7 she said to me that I should know better than anyone that she
8 can't talk about her mother. She said "My mother doesn't 9 like when people talk about her." And that's the truth. Her
10 mother, you know, she's very private.

11 I asked her -- I -- we spoke about trust. I spoke
12 to her about how upset I was -- I asked her how she felt
13 about how the President handled everything and she said that 14 only one thing really bothered her and she said he has to be 15 the way he is. She said he has to, he's the president of the 16 country.

17 I said, you know -- well, I don't know if I said it
18 to her, but I said to my friends, he could say something
19 novel like tell the truth. You know? He could say that to 20 Susan McDougal, tell the truth, something very simple. But,
21 again, I'm a lay person and -- anyway.

22 BY MR. EMMICK:

23 Q What did she say in response to that?

24 A She said to me that one thing that bothered her was
25 when he said he said he never had sex with "that woman."

1 She didn't like the way he said "that woman."

2 And I said, "Monica, what about the time when a
3 reporter asked him if there's anything you'd like to say
4 to Monica and he said, 'Well, that's a very good question.'"

5 I said, "Monica, he could have said 'Thank you.'
6 He could have just done anything instead of just laughed
7 it off." I said, "He's leaving you out to hang." I said --
8 the only reason, the only reason, you know, the spin
9 cycles haven't started was because she hasn't testified
10 against him.

11 You know, I mean, this to me has been stunning
12 because I know what they tried to do her, what Clinton's 13 office will try to do to her, if she ever did come here and 14 testify.

15 But in any event, you know, I asked her what she
16 had thought about that and I asked her -- I told her that I
17 was very concerned, that it would be hard for her to know who 18 to trust in the future. You know. She told me that she does
19 know who her friends are at this point. She said she really 20 does. And she told me that she was concerned about whether 21 or not her friends would want to stay her friends because of 22 what a mess this is.

23 I'm trying to think if there's anything else we 24 spoke about. I mean, we were on the phone for almost an 25 hour. She did tell me that she probably shouldn't talk to

Page 79

1 me. She told me that the FBI had her phone book and that I
2 might have been subpoenaed, you know, and -- I said to her,
3 "I really hope you don't go to jail. I really hope you don't
4 go to jail for that guy."

5 And she said she wasn't going to. She said that
6 she wasn't going to go to jail for her and I said, "Thank
7 God." You know. And I told her about the -- after she told
8 me about the article that she thought was fair, I had told
9 her about what I had written about her and how I felt.

10 BY MS. WIRTH:

11 Q And when you were talking about that, you were
12 referring to this letter that you wrote earlier which is DY
13 Exhibit 3A?

14 A Yes.

15 Q That you read, that I helped you read towards the 16 end?

17 A Yes. Yes.

18 Q Okay. All right. Did you have any further contact
19 with Monica after that phone call?

20 A What happened is that same night I called back
21 hoping to reach Marcia and I did and Marcia said to me,
22 "Monica is very naive and she doesn't understand, she 23 shouldn't have spoken to you." And she asked me please not 24 to call her again until this is over. And, you know, and 25 I -- you know, I had to respect her wishes.

Page 80

1 I called Peter Straus a couple of times to see how
2 she was doing and --

3 Q And Peter Straus is Marcia's husband?

4 A Yes. Yes. And I did send Marcia a letter and --
5 you know, the one good thing about being subpoenaed is now
6 after the Newsweek article comes out I can talk to Marcia
7 again.

8 Q Okay. Can you tell the grand jury what you're
9 referring to when you say the Newsweek article?

10 A What happened was the original attorney who I was 11 working with, Albert Podell, and I and my husband all spoke
12 and we did feel -- I don't want to be offensive, but I felt
13 that if I was going to be subpoenaed that my testimony is so
14 salacious and I couldn't imagine it not leaking out and I
15 just wanted very much to get the story out straight, I didn't
16 want to be in a defensive position if it came out, to then
17 have to explain myself.

18 I wanted to talk to one reporter, basically explain
19 my relationship and my feelings about both Monica and Marcia,
20 I wanted to tell the story and I didn't want a media circus.
21 The last thing in the world I wanted was a media circus.

22 And what happened is that the attorney I was
23 working with wanted me to talk to Isikoff and then --

24 Q That's Mr. Podell?

25 A Yes. Wanted me to talk to Mike Isikoff from

|--|---|
| 1 Newswweek and then he wanted me to have a press conference the2 day after Newswweek came out.3 Q Okay. And just so the record is clear, that was4 something that you never discussed with anyone in the Office5 of the Independent Counsel, is that correct?6 A No, I never did. No.7 Q Okay. Continue.8 A No. No. Please, don't ask me to do a press9 conference. I won't do it.10 Q No, going to Mr. Isikoff --11 A No. No, no, no, no, no.12 Q -- was something that you did not discuss with13 anyone from our office, is that right?14 A No. No, no, no, no, no. No.15 Q Go ahead.16 A Anyway, Albert wanted me to do the press conference17 and Albert felt that my testimony was very significant and I18 felt that I was very peripheral and I felt that this is not19 my story, this is Marcia and Monica's story, and I don't want20 the press conference.21 I feel that if after -- if the Newsweek article is22 accurate, then there's nothing else for me to say, I will23 have said everything I needed to say. If it's not accurate,24 and if Marcia and Monica want me to say something, they can't25 tell me what -- I don't think anybody can control me, I think | 1 THE WITNESS: You meaning your office. I'm sorry.2 I can't remember.3 BY MR. EMMICK:4 Q Was there any reference by her to a steward or5 someone who worked in the kitchen area of the Oval Office?6 A No. No. No. I remember -- these were questions7 you asked me earlier. It's starting to sound familiar, but8 it's familiar from you, it's not familiar from Monica.9 Q Did Monica ever express any concern about the10 Secret Service and the fact that the Secret Service is around11 so they are potential witnesses and might have seen anything?12 A I don't remember. I don't remember.13 Q I wanted to clarify one thing that I thought you14 might have mentioned earlier and I wasn't sure if you had15 said it here or not. You had mentioned a conversation that16 you had with Marcia Lewis where the two of you discussed the17 fact that Lewis now knows that you know --18 A Yes.19 Q -- about the relationship between Monica and the20 President.21 A Yes.22 Q And I thought I recalled that you earlier said that23 Marcia said something to you along the lines of "Well, were24 you ever going to tell me if I hadn't learned from Monica?"25 A Yes. She said to me, she said -- what she said to   |
| Page 82 1 that's fairly obvious, but if they feel that something would2 be necessary, if they say to me, "Could you please make a3 public statement?" I'll do whatever they want. But I don't4 want to be in that situation.5 Q Did you meet with Mr. Isikoff?6 A He came to my house on June 1st.7 Q And your house is in Westchester County?8 A Yes.9 Q Okay. And for approximately how long did you speak10 to him?11 A About four hours.12 Q And is there any understanding between him as to13 when this piece would be published?14 A It would not come out until after I testified. I15 did not want to be bombarded downstairs, you know.16 Q Okay. And is the first time you told anyone from17 our office about this piece today?18 A Today. Yes.19 BY MR. EMMICK:20 Q I have a few follow-up questions. I wanted to ask21 whether you've ever heard the name Nel used by Monica.22 A You asked me that before.23 MS. WIRTH: Actually, I did.24 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry.25 MS. WIRTH: That's all right.   | Page 84 1 me was "If I didn't know about the relationship or if you2 thought that I didn't know about it, would have ever told3 me?"4 And I said to her, "I'm glad I didn't have to5 consider that," because I would have felt -- I have quite a6 few relationships where I'm friends with a parent and a7 child. On Sunday, I had a father's day meal with my friend's8 daughter and her husband and it's common for me, but, you9 know, it's a little bit awkward when people tell you certain10 things and I'm a fairly open person, but since she's over 21,11 I probably wouldn't have told her.12 You know, I have told parents things that their13 kids have told me. Like when my daughters' friends, my14 daughters' friends tell me things, if I know the parents and15 I think it's dangerous, I'm going to tell. But if it's not a16 matter of life and death, I'm not going to.17 So I told -- you know, I told Marcia that I was18 glad that I didn't have to consider that. But what I don't19 know whether I said in here or in your office is that I knew20 that Marcia knew about the relationship, I don't know the21 details that Marcia knew.22 And I just have to be clear because I don't want to23 be in a situation where anybody says I said that Marcia knows24 that Monica had oral sex but not really with the President,25 because I don't know that. |

|---|--|
| 1 Q So when you say that you know that Marcia knew,2 what do you know that she knew?3 A Know that she knew?4 Q Right. I mean, there's details, there's a mid5 level and then there's very generalities.6 A Yes.7 Q What is it that --8 A What I knew is that she knew that there was an9 involvement with her daughter and the President. And10 that's -- you know, in other words, if my daughter, if my11 17-year-old daughter, if she were older and God forbid she12 was involved with a married man and she said to me, "Mommy,13 I'm involved with a married man," I would make my own14 assumptions, but I doubt that she would tell me what Monica15 had told me, for example. Even though my daughter and I are16 very, very close, she doesn't -- you know, she keeps certain17 areas of her life private.18 BY MS. WIRTH:19 Q Earlier we talked about Monica telling you that the20 President would call her late at night.21 A Yes.22 Q Did she ever tell you anything about what they23 would talk about?24 A I'm sure she did, but I can't remember25 specifically. I'm really sorry.  | 1 and she had bought me an angel pin that I always wore on one2 of my fanny packs until it broke and she knew that I liked3 toys and she and her mother sent me these little click4 type of toys that you can make necklaces with, you'd open5 them up and you'd reattach them. I mean, she's just very6 generous.7 She's very giving. She's a lot of fun. I mean,8 she's -- she has a great sense of humor, she loves to laugh.9 She doesn't hold anything back. You know, if she likes what10 you're wearing, if you have a nice smile, she's as warm as11 can be.12 She has lousy taste in men. You know, I think --13 and, you know, I think that that's fairly obviously from, you14 know, ██████████ and --15 I don't want to say anything bad, but I do feel16 that -- I feel that she doesn't have enough self-esteem or I17 don't think that she would have gotten into a situation with18 ██████████ or with the President or with married men in19 general, I think that -- I mean, I think -- she's bright --20 she can't spell, I mean, the papers present her as somebody21 who can't spell.22 My husband, who is one of the smartest men I've23 ever met in my life, has a sign on his typewriter, I think it24 was by Andrew Jackson that says, "It's a poor mind indeed25 that cannot think of at least one alternative spelling for   |
| Page 86 1 Q Okay. Did she ever tell you whether there was2 anything sexual in nature about those telephone3 conversations?4 A What I know I said in your office is that I felt --5 my recollection is that they were sexually charged in that6 when people are involved -- the same way when my husband7 would call me when I was dating him, all of our conversations8 whether they ever dealt with sex or not, they're sexually9 charged. There's that kind of anticipation and excitement in10 the air.11 So I felt whenever she would talk about her12 conversations -- I mean, whenever she would talk about13 Clinton, there was that kind of charge to it.14 BY MR. EMMICK:15 Q One of the things that some of the grand jurors16 have asked about in general is to have a fuller picture of17 Monica from Monica's friends and since you are one of her18 friends, I just want to ask you the open ended question what19 can you tell us about Monica that will help us understand her20 and her role in all of this?21 A That's a funny thing because I hadn't thought --22 I could tell you Monica is bubbly, Monica -- she's very23 helpful, she's very generous.24 I mean, she wasn't making -- she had told me what25 her salary was and it was under $30,000 and I love angel pins | Page 88 1 any given word." And all of my daughters, all my daughters2 have -- I call them genetic spelling deficiencies because3 they can't spell.4 And, you know, and you're much -- most of you are5 much younger than me, they don't teach spelling in schools6 the way they used to, it's not focused, and a lot of play has7 come out about Monica not spelling. For God's sakes, you8 know -- but she's very bright and she's very personable. And9 I couldn't imagine anybody not liking her.10 I remember I had taken her to a restaurant -- I11 like to match people. I mean, if I'm with somebody who's12 single and I know somebody else who's single, I do anything I13 can. I love matching people. And my friend owns this14 Italian restaurant and we brought her to an Italian15 restaurant and I called the owner out from the kitchen and I16 said, "I want you to meet my friend Monica, she's single and17 she's gorgeous." And Monica said, "Dale, please." You know.18 Like she tried -- you know, she doesn't like when19 people talk about her but she'd do that about you. If she20 had something nice to say about you, she wouldn't hold it21 back.22 I just think the girl is wonderful. And what I'd23 really like to say is that when I read -- you know, you take24 things out of context. I don't know if -- is the grand jury25 allowed to read the papers? There's a quote about Monica, |

|---|---|
| 1 Monica said "I lie all the time." Okay? She said that, she2 said that in the tapes. 3 Well, I remember sitting in court, you know, I go4 to small claims assessment review, and I sat there and I was5 sitting opposite an assessor and an appraiser and a judge and6 I mentioned to the judge I'm basically honest and the judge7 looked at me and said, "That's like being a little pregnant."8 And I said to him, "Your Honor, I lie every single day and9 I'm an honest person." He said, "Do you want to explain10 that?" 11 I said, "Are you a parent?" He says, "Yeah."12 "That's the best tie I've ever seen, I would buy that for13 myself. I can't believe how gorgeous that art work is. You14 could really be held up in the Metropolitan Museum." If15 you're a parent and you don't lie, you're a lousy parent. I16 don't care. 17 And so I -- and so the point is that if you take it18 out of context, if you take something that somebody says out19 of context -- and that's why I was afraid of the press --20 anybody can come off like a complete moron, like a dishonest21 person. 22 Yes, so Monica said she lies all the time. I'm23 telling the jury that I expect you to see me as honest and24 I'm going to tell you that I lie almost all the time to my25 kids.   | 1 Tripp tapes and the affidavit, when I read it, I was sitting2 there saying I didn't see the inconsistency, independently of3 the piece that she had told me about the President not4 coming, I didn't see the inconsistency, because I know on a5 personal level, on a very personal level, when Monica said6 she didn't have sex with the President and she said she had7 oral sex with Linda Tripp, when I talk about sex, I mean8 intercourse. 9 I have three daughters and when I gave birth to10 each of them and my gynecologist said to me no sex for six11 weeks, I wasn't going to call him up and say can I have oral12 sex. The doctor meant intercourse. 13 When I was a virgin -- you know, I'm talking14 to you openly as if you were all my friends because I really15 want you to understand how I feel about Monica -- but when16 I was a virgin, if somebody -- and I had had oral sex17 before I had intercourse -- if somebody said to me "Did18 you have sex?" I would have said no. And I wouldn't have19 been lying. I probably would have just volunteered, "No, I20 had oral sex." 21 And even now with my husband, if I have oral sex,22 and I was talking to one of my friends and she said to me,23 "Did you have sex last night?" And I had oral sex, I would24 say no. I personally use intercourse and sex25 interchangeably. I don't use oral sex.   |
| Page 90 1 So what I'm saying about Monica is you have no2 idea, everybody -- and one of the things that drives me crazy3 is my friends have said to me -- I mean, I have friends who4 say "How could you be friends with her?" I say, "Who the5 hell do you think you are judging her? You don't know her."6 And I can tell you, none of you know Monica7 Lewinsky. None of you. Because what you read in the press,8 you're reading media creations and you don't know the girl.9 And you don't know her mother. 10 I think you have a pretty good sense of me. I'm a11 pretty open person. Is there anybody here who thinks that if12 you're social climbing the way Marcia was portrayed in the13 papers, am I the type of person that you want to be friends14 with if you're a social climber? I'm a what you see is what15 you get type of person. You know. 16 I mean, I'll tell you a dirty joke, I'll take you17 on a Habitat for Humanity work-a-thon or something. I mean,18 I like -- I -- I would read articles in the paper and I19 didn't understand where the media was going. If I didn't20 know the names of these people and I had read the stories,21 other than knowing about Monica and the President, I wouldn't22 have known who I was reading about. 23 The other thing that I would say is that when I24 read -- and I thank you for giving me a chance to do this, I25 hope you don't regret it -- but when I read both the Linda | Page 92 1 And what I feel is that Monica -- I really believed2 that if you said to Monica, "Could you describe the intimate3 relationship with the President," and she signed an4 affidavit, I really believe that she would have told you more5 of what she had told me. I don't believe the girl lied. 6 I feel that she has suffered so much for so many7 months unnecessarily. I think she's a pawn. I think8 everybody is trying to get the President and I feel that if9 she had committed a minor crime, she wouldn't have had to go10 through the hell -- I mean, this girl's life has been turned11 upside down. It's been turned upside down. 12 And I think that any -- anything that could have13 happened in the tapes or in her affidavit, the punishment14 that she has is so out of proportion to anything she could15 have said or done that I hope -- I hope you have a better16 picture of her and treat her with compassion. I really do. 17 Thank you. Thank you. 18 MR. EMMICK: My suggestion is it's 4:20 now. Why19 don't we take a couple of minutes, ask you to leave the grand20 jury room, we'll talk over with the grand jurors any21 additional questions they may want to ask and then if there22 are additional questions, we'll ask you to come back in. 23 THE WITNESS: Thank you. 24 MR. EMMICK: Okay. Thank you. 25 THE WITNESS: Thank you for giving me a chance. |

3 MR. EMMICK: I just wanted to let you know that we
4 have asked the grand jurors whether there are any questions.
5 There are no other questions, so at this time you are

Dear Dale,

I wanted to thank you for the kindness and friendship you extended to me last weekend. I really needed the friendly ear and good advice.

Unfortunately, I came back to DC only to learn that the detailee slot in Marsha's office is no longer available. I had a long conversation with her and it is clear to me ~~be~~ now that I won't be able to come back any time soon.

I Dated Monica Lewinsky

Behind the tawdriest of headlines, there's a woman I wouldn't mind bring home to mom.

You tend not to spend too much time contemplating Tim Russert's innermost thoughts when you're feet under water, breathing through a narrow tube, soaring past the ocean wall in slow motion, staring at 200-year-old sea tortoises, parrot fish, and coral that have no concern for love or career. A week of news, no television -- nothing more than books and the company of a handful of divers and fishermen had no idea of the storm clouds brewing in D.C.; the weather in the Caymans was 80 and sunny, the diving was clear, and my tan was coming in even and had yet to peel.

It was while waiting for the first plane at the shack that passes for an airport in Little Cayman that I caught a glimpse of the AP wire story on the front page of the Caymanian Compass. I was playing with a pup at the airport office when I saw the headline; the Caymanian reading the paper quickly offered it to me. He clearly had more interest in it than he.

The world was beside itself about the latest presidential scandal, this one involving an affair with a then-21-year-old intern -- the juiciest story to break in my adult life, a salacious tale of alleged infidelity between the most powerful man in the Milky Way and a girl named Monica.

Monica Lewinsky.

A girl I'd gone out on a date with a few weeks before.

I hesitate here, because I have no desire to appear on Hard Copy or banter with MSNBCeebees, an essentially, I feel bad for poor Monica and feel unclean adding my feeble barnacle to her ship of fools. Although I will admit to an odd weave of loathing and envy when I watch the blabocracy breathless weighing in -- Hey, I think, they don't even know this chick. But I am not jumping in because one dinner with Monica enabled me to read her mind as she sits with friends and family at the Watergate, pondering her fate.

I write, clearly, because I want a piece of this story just like everybody else. That imperative distinguishes me not at all from every other journalist in Washington. But perhaps even more, I also want to point behind this particular bimbo eruption sits a young woman who is not a bimbo, who is a fairly sensible girl from what I saw, who was never going to be the one holding a press conference alongside a poster boy blowup of the Star with a back pocket full of the cash she got from selling out. She may be guilty of poor judgment, but she never asked for this.

That said, let the whoring begin.

It's still etched on my December calendar: the Saturday night of Joe and Danielle's going-away party at Stetson's on U Street NW. I walked in, checked out the crowd, and immediately headed for Doug, the owner. I chatted and drank with him, and, in an effort to make myself as unapproachable as possible, I started shooting pool with him. Soon enough, Doug was called back to his duties, and I had to start feeding the table quarters. Between my former colleague Maloni and me, we could only scrape together three of the requisite four quarters. I took that particular need and blended it with another one, stepped over to a group of three women who had been hovering near the table.

"Do any of you have a quarter?" I asked, and one of them, the one with the smile that seemed to be nothing in particular, dug into her purse and handed me one. I thanked her, introduced myself, and resumed hunting my target stripes.

"Am I drunk, or is she cute?" I asked Maloni.

"Which one?" he said.

"Monica," I said. "The one in the black."

"You're drunk," said Maloni, a rugby pretty boy. I overruled him. She was cute, if a little zaftig. And friendly. And nice.

I hovered around the coral reef of the pool table for hours that night, never coming up for air. It was paddling in my little eddy of indifference, waiting for others to approach me. Which Monica did. I was lining up a side shot when she stepped up and dropped three quarters onto the table, the smile now seemingly offered more specifically for my benefit.

"For the game?" I asked. "You got next?"

1318-DC-00000005

No, for you," she said. "Just some extra I had."

So, ignoring the usual coy mating rituals, Monica felt free to actually be nice. Just to be nice. Maybe she wanted to meet me or someone like me. Regardless, it was refreshing. A warm patch of water in an otherwise chilly ocean. The simple act of gifting me with a few quarters after knowing me but a few minutes disarmed me.

She didn't strike me as a classic climber—just a woman looking for a decent, challenging job and a happy life to go with it.

I was intrigued enough to approach Joe, who was the raison d'être for the going-away party. Upon inquiry, Joe told me that Monica was bad news, that she had left the White House because she had wandered into the Oval Office and inappropriately striking up conversations with the commander in

"Some weird shit, man," he said. "Stay away."

But Washington, in its own polite way, generates more trash talk than a Bulls game. People spread malicious buzz here -- at the gym, in bars, at lunch -- with no forethought, just to stay in shape, like around the block. So even though I like Joe just fine, I didn't put a lot of stock in his 12th-hand scuttle. Who knew what the truth was in the shark-infested White House waters? I've been "friends" with a lot of people who work at 1600 Pennsylvania and have seldom trusted anything they say.

Joe's misgivings aside, his girlfriend Danielle, ever the yenta, was eager to facilitate. "Jake," she called me as she stood with Monica. "Do you want Monica's number?"

"Sure," I said. And a scrap of paper went into my pocket. Home and work phone numbers -- a good

A few days later, I called her at that Pentagon job she was soon to leave. Busy, she needed to call me back. She did. The conversations were terse but friendly; we made plans to get together when she returned from a job interview in N.Y.C. I thought it odd that she was leaving the Pentagon job without a new one to go to, but she explained that she was anxious to leave D.C. and live with her mom in New York. Her long hours and international roadtrips while working as the personal assistant to the deputy Defense secretary precluded much of a social life, and she was anxious to move on to something less demanding.

After a few plans fell through -- about which she was unfailingly polite, understanding, and as far from aloof as you can get -- I picked her up at her mom's place at the Watergate. I'm 15 minutes late for everything, and I always get lost around the Kennedy Center, but she waited in front, no big deal, seemingly psyched. We hit Adams Morgan. Her job meant she wasn't getting out much, so any place sounded great to her. I took her to Roxanne's, a nice Tex-Mex place where I'd eaten a million times and my brother waited tables there.

This was Tuesday night, Dec. 23. Her last day at the Pentagon was rapidly approaching, for which she was grateful. Trapped for months in whatever tunnel she was in, she probably saw a glimmer of light when she thought she was still going to be able to extricate herself before the flood waters reached chin level. Her good mood and light manner indicated that she had no idea that in the matter of days she would become a chew-toy for Ken Starr.

Right off, Monica was different from the standard D.C. date: not a salad-picker, she joined me in appetizers and an actual entree of her own. She had a beer or two, while I drank bourbon. She even offered to buy me a drink for her share, a fairly rare offer I rejected but appreciated.

I got the same basic bio you did, though mine was spoken rather than in black and white in the Washington Post: raised in Los Angeles, a city she found fake because her "hair is brown and boots real." Parents divorced, dad a doctor, mom an author, seemed to be some family money floating around there, very close with her mom. Lewis and Clark College (huh?), liked Portland, Ore., just fine. White House internship, arranged through some random contact I didn't quite get but didn't push, Pentagon personal assistant.

I've had my share of dates with Really Important D.C. Career Women, and I've found it's easy to get skinny on anything that ever happened to a woman from meiosis 'til the leak she took before desse Monica wasn't like that, peppering her monologue with questions for me and actually listening with to the responses. She didn't strike me as a classic climber -- just a woman looking for a decent, challenging job and a happy life to go with it. We talked about some of her past relationships, though president's name did not come up. I didn't work her over for her opinions on Netanyahu, the emotive residue from her parents' split, any of that. It was a first date, one I wasn't sure would be followed by second, and how was I to know that the woman on the other side of the table would set the preside seismic rumblings?

She struck me as cheerful, open, a bit too much a resident of Planet Hap-Hap-Happy in my acerbic little bizarre in her almost childlike sweetness -- it was tough to juxtapose her almost giddy warmth gravity of the places she had visited, like Bosnia -- but she was from both L.A. and money, so her unusualness had a context. She mentioned, more by way of observation than complaint, that her transcribing duties for the DOD were massively challenging for someone who had more skill in communication than in typing -- a tidbit now used as bimbo ammo, though it seemed reasonable to the time.

Physically, she was pleasant without being overwhelming. She's a little chubby, but she's leaps and bounds prettier than that vacuous mug shot beamed all over the world. (You know how some photo yourself can make you cringe? Imagine if one of those became a new international icon. We should allowed to pick our own pictures at times like these.) A great dresser -- she wore some black '70s n kind of, but not in the slightest bit revealing or inappropriate. The reason D.C. quislings are hissing her "wacky" dress is because she has a sense of style, and this city, simply, does not.

So. A sweet girl. Nice.

Maybe we'll go out again, I thought.

She said as much: "Yeah, I'd really like to get together again. You're really easy to talk to."

And that was it. I was coming down with a cold, and she had to get up early the next day for her last work, so I dropped her off before midnight with a very innocent goodbye. As it happens, our second got lost amid New Year's, my vacation, and my setting up a new apartment -- in the cleaning of which I threw out her number.

And apparently, she was kind of busy, too.

Monica Lewinsky is a young woman who was betrayed by a woman she thought to be her friend. The moment of betrayal came in the midst of an FBI sting. Feeling completely helpless, and as if her "life was over", she declined to accept her offer of immunity from prosecution if she offered her complete cooperation with Starr. She declined that offer in order to protect the president.

Rather than the scouring the depths of Monica's past to determine her character, I believe the above story speaks volumes about the lady. At what must have been one of her lowest moments, she refused to betray another for her own benefit.

Where are the headlines stating one of the few deductions that can be drawn from the limited facts in this circus?

I for one, would rather be friends with Ms. Lewinsky than with anyone else in this mess. She alone put other's interest above her own.

Thank you for taking the time to consider an interview with EXTRA. First, a few words about this broadcast. We are a nationally syndicated news magazine show. In New York, you will be able to find our show on WNBC-TV at 7:00PM. We also can be seen in Los Angeles, Chicago, Philadelphia, San Francisco, Boston and nearly two hundred other markets in the United States.

Like many news organizations, we have been closely following the Monica Lewinsky story. However, unlike some, we have been disturbed at the lack of quality information concerning Monica. We do not understand why no one has come forward to speak on behalf of Monica. That is why we contacted you.

Our intention is to give you the opportunity to tell the country about the real Monica. Who is Monica Lewinsky? What is she like? Has she changed since this story made headlines? How have her friends rallied behind her? Does she have a support group?

I am aware you have requested a chance to see our script before broadcast. Unfortunately, that is against our editorial policies. However, am writing to assure you of our intentions. We will be fair and accurate. We will be caring and understanding to Monica's plight. We will work closely with you to make sure you are comfortable with our story. If you would like, an EXTRA correspondent will meet with you before the interview. He, or she can discuss your concerns, and answer any of your questions.

I hope you will agree to this interview. We think there is much more to this story. Your knowledge and information could prove invaluable.

We will try to contact you shortly. If you desire, you can call EXTRA at [REDACTED]. Please ask for Fantana Nawabi, she'll be happy to help facilitate this matter.

Sincerely,

Steve Lange
Executive Producer

BW: Do you still have hopes that you will reach an agreement?

WG: I have no hopes or expectations of any kind with respect to an agreement. If they offer it we will consider it. Our lines are open.

BW: Mr. Ginsburg, not too long ago Ms. Lewinski seems to have been a rather happy-go-lucky young woman with a great future ahead of her. I wonder how she feels when she hears all of these things said about her?

WG: She is devastated. She goes into an emotional fit when she hears these things and she wants to retaliate and she wants to speak and she wants some support. When one is frozen in their tracks in a situation like this and I ask your viewers to consider fear, the agony, the fright, being imprisoned practically in an apartment.. Oh, I know it's a nice apartment but you can't go out for a walk. You can't go out for an ice cream, you can't go out for anything. I ask you to consider how devastating it can be to sit around all day and watch five networks and a hundred local shows, all saying you are unreliable, you are terrible, and one person after another, coming up with bad stories. How about somebody coming forward and saying nice things about Monica? I've known Monica a long time and I know she has a lot of friends. Some of them should come forward. But you know what? The tabloid press, and that's the electronic media as well as the written media, they're not interested in people who want to say that Monica is a bright, affable, effusive young lady with tremendous skills. They're only interested in the prurient stories. And you know it makes me a little sick.
