| 3 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Good morning. The |
| 4 | meeting will come to order. This is a meeting of the |
| 5 | U.S. Commission on Civil Rights at 624 Ninth Street, |
| 6 | N.W., Room 540, Washington, D.C. Commissioner Taylor |
| 7 | will not be able to participate in this meeting. |
| 8 | Commissioners Braceras and Melendez will participate |
| 9 | by telephone. All remaining commissioners are |
| 10 | physically present. |
| 11 | I. Approval of Agenda |
| 12 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: The first item on the |
| 13 | agenda is the approval of the agenda. May I have a |
| 14 | motion to approve the agenda? |
| 15 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: So moved. |
| 16 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: So moved. |
| 17 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Melendez, |
| 18 | I just need to confirm that you are on the line. |
| 19 | COMMISSIONER MELENDEZ: Yes, I'm here. |
| 20 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Thank you. |
| 21 | Okay. Discussion? |
| 22 | (No response.) |
| 23 | All in favor, say aye. |
| 24 | (A chorus of ayes.) |
| 25 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. The motion |

| 5 | Is there a second? |
| 6 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: Second. |
| 7 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Discussion? |
| 8 | (No response.) |
| 9 | All in favor, say aye. |
| 10 | (A chorus of ayes.) |
| 11 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: The motion passes |
| 12 | unanimously. |
| 13 | I also move to amend the agenda by |
| 14 | deleting discussion of these item labeled "Involvement |
| 15 | of Commissioners in Staff Activities." |
| 18 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Discussion? |
| 19 | (No response.) |
| 20 | All in favor, please say aye. |
| 21 | (A chorus of ayes.) |
| 22 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: I move to amend the |
| 23 | agenda to add the discussion of a briefing report |
| 24 | entitled "Racial Categorization in the 2010 Census" |
| 25 | under the item labeled "Program Planning." |

| 11 | III. Announcements |
| 12 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Next up are |
| 13 | announcements for the month of October. President |
| 14 | Bush and Congress have proclaimed the month of October |
| 15 | National Disability Employment Awareness Month. This |
| 16 | is an opportunity to recognize the contributions and |
| 17 | accomplishments of Americans with disabilities and to |
| 18 | underscore our nation's commitment to advancing |
| 19 | employment opportunities for all our citizens. |
| 20 | Landmark reforms, such as the Americans |
| 21 | with Disabilities Act of 1990, have helped ensure that |
| 22 | individuals with disabilities are better able to |
| 23 | engage in productive work and participate fully in the |
| 24 | life of the nation. |

| 1 | Thurgood Marshall. October 2 nd marked the fortieth |
| 2 | anniversary of the day that Thurgood Marshall was |
| 3 | sworn in as the first African-American Associate |
| 4 | Justice of the U.S. Supreme Court. He served on the |
| 5 | court until 1991. |
| 6 | Prior to his appointment to the Supreme |
| 7 | Court, Marshall served as Chief Counsel for the NAACP. |
| 8 | While in that position, he successfully argued the |
| 9 | case of Brown v. Board of Education of Topeka, in |
| 10 | which the Supreme Court ruled that separate but equal |
| 11 | public education was unconstitutional. |
| 12 | Marshall died of heart failure on January |
| 13 | 24, 1993. |
| 14 | IV. Staff Director's Report |
| 15 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: At this point, our |
| 16 | Staff Director will present his report. |
| 17 | STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: Thank you, Mr. |
| 18 | Chairman. Fiscal year 2007 closed on September 30 th . |
| 19 | As you all know, we did have remaining funds close to |
| 20 | the end of the year as a result of significant |
| 21 | attrition, during and prior to the year. |
| 22 | Thanks to the diligent efforts of many |
| 23 | hard working staff members, we were able to complete |
| 24 | many much needed acquisitions prior to the end of the |
| 25 | year using these attrition related funds. Some of the | larger purchases included a new telephone system, 1 2 software, performance management performance services and furniture for the 3 improvement new Commission Meeting conference room. 4 This money was obligated, although, of course, thing will be arriving 5 over the course of many months. 6

7 With respect to the telephone, you may be aware that the current telephone and voicemail systems 8 9 were installed in December of 1992, when the agency first moved into the building, and are outdated and 10 11 very difficult to service. Technicians seldom have knowledge about such outdated systems and it's hard to 12 13 find parts. Thought our new contract with Verizon, 14 we'll be getting --

15 COMMISSIONER YAKI: It's hard to find Mr.16 Bell to repair all those parts, right?

STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: That is exactlyright. That is exactly right.

Thanks to the new contract with Verizon, we'll have a new system, new headsets. It will be a smaller, more efficient system with new features like caller ID, etcetera, and greater backup data in the event of a power outage.

24 Second, we are purchasing significant new 25 project management software called PPM, Project NEAL R. GROSS COURT REPORTERS AND TIRANSCRIBERS

The purpose of the software is Portfolio Management. 1 2 to allow the agency to improve our ability to manage human and financial resources by tracking the work 3 4 done by the individual staff and linking them to the strategic and annual plans, as well as agency goals. 5 The software should be able to allow the agency to 6 7 better track agency-level performance by monitoring 8 goals by progress reports and accomplishments and milestones, while creating materials to better manage 9 and track project performance. 10 11 We are also in the process of purchasing new -- some new furniture for this conference room, 12 13 including conference table, а wood а new new conference table to replace this table and some new 14 15 chairs, including chairs for the commissioners and a 16 couple of smaller tables to go with them for the 17 conference room. 18 COMMISSIONER YAKI: The kind you get at Sharper image with the massage things built in? 19 20 STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: Exactly right. 21 You are exactly right. 22 In addition, we are in a process now to 23 improve various processes at the agency, for which we have contained consulting services. 24 Specifically we 25 have a Lean Six Sigma process to improve the quality NEAL R. GROSS COURT REPORTERS AND TIRANSCRIBERS 1323 RHODE ISLAND AVE., N.W. (202) 234-4433 WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701 (202) 234-4433

| 1 | and efficiency of SAC rechartering and nation report |
| 2 | production. In order to assist with that project, |
| 3 | we've awarded a contract to Booz Allen Hamilton. |
| 4 | They are working now with regional staff |
| 5 | to help assess the rechartering process and identify |
| 6 | steps in the process where greater efficiency can be |
| 7 | achieved. Consultants are also looking for ways to |
| 8 | enhance the quality of the work that is done, both on |
| 9 | the side of recruiting candidates for the State |
| 10 | Advisory Committees and also with respect to national |
| 11 | projects. |
| 12 | Those are the major purchases but there |
| 13 | are a number of other purchases we were able to make |
| 14 | as well ranging from computer purchases, such as a |
| 15 | number of new laptops to a number of new books for the |
| 16 | library. |
| 17 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Questions? |
| 18 | COMMISSIONER MELENDEZ: Yes. Commissioner |
| 19 | Melendez here. What was the total for all of these |
| 20 | purchases and is it within a budget line item, or is |
| 21 | this kind of unplanned expenditures? |
| 22 | I didn't know we had that much money. |
| 23 | STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: Yes, I have |
| 24 | reported from time to time that we had additional |
| 25 | money available as a result of attrition. These are |

| 1 | not items that we had money for in the budget, these |
| 2 | are items that we were able to purchase because we had |
| 3 | funds remaining as a result of attrition. |
| 4 | Some of the items are expensive, they are |
| 5 | of differing amounts. The phone system, it's $175,000 |
| 6 | for a complete new phone system and all the handsets. |
| 7 | The conference room, the tables were approximately |
| 8 | $25,000, approximately $10,000 for chairs. I don't |
| 9 | know if there are specific items that you are asking |
| 10 | about. Some of these are big ticket items that we |
| 11 | would not have been able to budget for because they |
| 12 | would have been inconsistent with having the full |
| 13 | staffing we felt we needed. Of course, during the |
| 14 | course of the last year, we were shorthanded in many |
| 15 | areas which caused various sorts of challenges for us, |
| 16 | but on the other hand it gave us the opportunity to |
| 17 | get stuff that we needed. |
| 18 | COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: Mr. Staff |
| 19 | Director, how much was left over due to attrition at |
| 20 | the end of the fiscal year? |
| 21 | STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: At the very end of |
| 22 | the fiscal year, after purchases were made |
| 23 | COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: Before purchases. |
| 24 | STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: Oh, well |
| 25 | COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: I don't know if |

| 2 | STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: I don't and it was |
| 3 | a different amount at different times, but there were |
| 4 | we had I'll find the data and provide it, but it |
| 5 | was a matter of hundreds of thousands of dollars. |
| 6 | COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: Okay. |
| 7 | STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: Which is why these |
| 8 | purchases amount to that. |
| 10 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Any additional |
| 11 | question? Commissioner Yaki? |
| 12 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: Are there any new |
| 13 | personnel actions going on? |
| 14 | STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: There are a number |
| 15 | of personnel actions that I've mentioned in the course |
| 16 | of the months that are in process. In terms of new |
| 17 | ones that have not been mentioned previously, let me |
| 18 | think for a moment. |
| 19 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: Well, let me be |
| 20 | specific. What's the progress on the OCRE position? |
| 21 | STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: I think we are |
| 22 | making good progress and I hope to have a person |
| 23 | selected and onboard within a matter of within a |
| 24 | matter of weeks. |
| 25 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Are the people who |

| 1 | are being considered, do you know that they are |
| 2 | available? |
| 3 | STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: I would say that |
| 4 | I'm optimistic that we will be able to have the |
| 5 | position filled and filled well fairly quickly. |
| 6 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: Is there more than |
| 7 | one candidate for that position? |
| 8 | STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: There have been a |
| 9 | number of candidates for that position. |
| 10 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: But as of right now |
| 11 | is there more than one candidate for the position? |
| 12 | STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: At this point, I |
| 13 | believe I have the person identified whom I would like |
| 14 | to have here. |
| 15 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: And when will we |
| 16 | learn of this person's name and qualifications? |
| 17 | STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: Well, depending on |
| 18 | our discussions with the candidate, I would expect and |
| 19 | hope it to be a matter of weeks, if not sooner. |
| 20 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. Questions? |
| 21 | (No response.) |
| 22 | V. Management and Operations |
| 23 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay, next up. I move |
| 24 | that the Commission adopt the Draft Strategic Plan for |
| 25 | 2008-2013, distributed that was distributed to |
| | NEAL R. GROSS COURT REPORTERS AND TIRANSCRIBERS 1323 RHODE ISLAND AVE., N.W. |

commissioners on October 5, 2007. This draft plan is 1 2 last identical the draft distributed to to commissioner on April 6, 2007, except that it now 3 4 extends to 2013. This change is the result of the fact that we are now approving the plan in 2008, 5 rather than 2007. 6 7 Commission staff sent this draft plan to congressional stakeholders in May 2007 and received no 8 9 changes to this draft, so at this point we are ready for -- ready to vote on this plan in its final form. 10 11 By approving the Strategic Plan, we will be able to inform OMB and Congress that our 2009 is 12 13 for the first time in several years, based, on established agency strategic goals and objections --14 15 objectives rather. 16 May I have a second? 17 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Second. 18 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Discussion? 19 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: I have some changes 20 on the document. They are not big. There is one that 21 I insist on, though, and that is on page 8, because this just drives me bananas. 22 23 Sorry, Ken. This is no personal offense to you, but this sentence about "under the leadership 24 25 Staff Director, the Commission has of the new NEAL R. GROSS COURT REPORTERS AND TIRANSCRIBERS undertaken the" blah, blah, blah. The staff director 1 2 does not lead the Commission. So, that has to be 3 changed to "under the leadership of the new staff 4 director, the staff" did something, or "with the assistance of the new staff director, the commission" 5 6 blah, blah, blah. 7 STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: I agree that 8 that's an accurate change. 9 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: I'm with happy either version of that, but not this version. So, 10 11 whatever makes you happy --12 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay, what was the 13 first --14 STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: Change 15 "Commission" to "staff." 16 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: It's probably that they were really talking about the Commission, so I 17 18 think it's "with the assistance of the new staff 19 director." 20 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. 21 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: That is certainly a change that comes from nice, careful reading. 22 23 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Any other changes? 24 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: I have lots more, but I will just leave them off. They are not big. 25 NEAL R. GROSS COURT REPORTERS AND TIRANSCRIBERS 1323 RHODE ISLAND AVE., N.W. (202) 234-4433 WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701 (202) 234-4433

| 1 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Other comments? |
| 2 | Questions? |
| 3 | COMMISSIONER MELENDEZ: Commissioner |
| 4 | Melendez here. |
| 5 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Yes. |
| 6 | COMMISSIONER MELENDEZ: On page 13, at the |
| 7 | top, it describes how results towards Goal I, |
| 8 | Reshaping the National Conversation on Civil Rights |
| 9 | will measured, and one of those ways that it states is |
| 10 | eliminating the backlog of the SACs with charters that |
| 11 | expired upon or before January 30, 2011. Now I |
| 12 | understand it's 2013? |
| 13 | I just don't feel that it's acceptable |
| 14 | that the agency takes another three years to meet its |
| 15 | statutory mandate to maintain all 51 SACs. |
| 16 | Again, on page 15, at the top, it |
| 17 | describes how results towards Goal II, Strategic |
| 18 | Partnerships With Federal Agencies will be measured, |
| 19 | and one of the ways it states is "cooperating and |
| 20 | coordinating with civil rights enforcement agencies |
| 21 | during times of national emergencies, such as |
| 22 | significant nature disasters and homeland security |
| 23 | emergencies to support the continuity of civil rights |
| 24 | protection and enforcement and I just think that that |
| 25 | would have been able to have a meaningful response to |

| 1 | something like Hurricane Katrina or something like |
| 2 | that. |
| 3 | And then, on page 12, the plan describes |
| 4 | how an addition to civil rights a conference in |
| 5 | 2009 the agency will engage in publishing a multi- |
| 6 | state report in FY 2009 that utilizes the advisory |
| 7 | committees to identify for policy-makers, researchers, |
| 8 | public, state and regional civil rights issues and |
| 9 | parities. |
| 10 | But yet, I believe the Staff Director said |
| 11 | that this will just be some type of a survey and not |
| 12 | involving original research or input by the SACs, and |
| 13 | I just don't think it really doesn't do that much |
| 14 | as far as the seriousness about SACs. |
| 15 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay, well let's start |
| 16 | on page 12. Ken, do you want to address his comment? |
| 17 | STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: Yes. In the ideal |
| 18 | world we would have every one of the SACs engaged in |
| 19 | meeting and significant fact-finding to determine |
| 20 | this. I don't know, though, that we would have the |
| 21 | budget or the staffing to realistically think that we |
| 22 | would be able to have, for every one of our State |
| 23 | Advisory Committees, that sort of in-depth analysis. |
| 24 | It sort of it would be very nice and it would be |
| 25 | great to have that funds. |

intent, I think, of the --The 1 as Ι 2 understand it, as the commissioners drafted this, was to have the best report we have from the states that 3 4 have State Advisory Committees. And the way that I believe, fairly confidently, that we should be able to 5 6 input from every one of our State Advisory get 7 Committees is to do something like a survey, which is to say ask a series of the same questions of every 8 9 single SAC and every SAC member to get a sense of what they think are the pressing issues. 10 11 Now, presumably, members of State Advisory Committees will be informed in their responses by all 12 13 the fact-finding that they are doing and have been But it is true that what is envisioned here is 14 done. 15 not original research by the SACs, to the extent that 16 they choose to do that and we have the funding and the 17 staffing for them to do original fact-finding or 18 research to support their answers, I think that that 19 would be terrific. 20 But my concern is to make sure, since this 21 is in the Strategic Plan that we are committing ourselves to things that are attainable within the 22 23 levels of funding that we have been receiving. 24 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Commissioner 25 Melendez, do you not think that that would be useful, NEAL R. GROSS COURT REPORTERS AND TIRANSCRIBERS 1323 RHODE ISLAND AVE., N.W. (202) 234-4433 WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701 (202) 234-4433 what is described here?

COMMISSIONER MELENDEZ: Well, I mean, the issue has to do with whether it's more effective putting more money out to the SACs to do their job, but yet we can spend a lot of extra money buying things. That's my main concern.

7 STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: Well, I would say that before we purchased these items at the end of the 8 9 year, one of the first directives I made was to indicate to the regional staff that we had additional 10 11 money available and that I would encourage SAC travel and I think that that came first. So there was never 12 13 question of SAC travel being sacrificed in order to 14 make any sort of purchases. But on an ongoing basis, 15 we can't assured of having that sort of money.

COMMISSIONER MELENDEZ: Right. And then my other concern on the SACs was that they were able to at least meet twice a year, in face-to-face meetings. Do you remember that discussion?

20 STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: My understanding 21 is that SACs did have twice a year meetings in the 22 past. That stopped before my tenure, though, and my 23 understanding is that that did not mean that there 24 were 51 SACs that would have two meeting per year. 25 Some of those meetings would be a meeting of the -- a

| 2 | no question that in prior years we had funding for a |
| 3 | lot of things that we don't have funding for now. |
| 4 | COMMISSIONER MELENDEZ: Or at least once a |
| 5 | year. |
| 6 | Okay, thank you. |
| 7 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay, Mr. Staff |
| 8 | Director, the issue that was identified on page 13, |
| 9 | the elimination of the backlog of SACs. Would you |
| 10 | care to respond? |
| 11 | STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: Oh, I don't think |
| 12 | that there was any intent to change the year 2011 to |
| 13 | 2013. My hope is to exceed this goal and to over- |
| 14 | deliver by chartering the SACs before that date. We |
| 15 | have some challenges, though, in terms of attrition, |
| 16 | recent loss of regional directors to retirement, and |
| 17 | so on and so forth. One of the reasons that I have |
| 18 | that we are involved in this management initiative |
| 19 | right now is to try to speed up the process for SAC |
| 20 | rechartering in the hopes that we will beat this, but |
| 21 | I do think it's important to have reasonable goals |
| 22 | here. |
| 23 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Mr. Staff Director |
| 24 | COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: I just don't |
| 25 | understand the question here. Where did the 2013 come |
| | NEAL R. GROSS COURT REPORTERS AND TIRANSCRIBERS 1323 RHODE ISLAND AVE., N.W. (202) 234-4433 WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701 (202) 234-4433 |

| 2 | STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: Well, my |
| 3 | understanding of Commissioner Melendez's question is |
| 4 | based on the fact that this Strategic Plan has just |
| 5 | been changed to extend out to 2013. |
| 6 | COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: Okay. |
| 7 | STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: And so I heard him |
| 8 | to ask whether by changing the period of the entire |
| 9 | plan to 2013, we intended to change the deadline for |
| 10 | this particular objective and the answer is no. |
| 11 | COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: Oh, okay, because |
| 12 | all I saw here was 2011. |
| 13 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Mr. Staff Director, |
| 14 | how long does it take to recharter a SAC? |
| 15 | STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: I'm not sure that |
| 16 | I can even answer that, but I guess I would say that |
| 17 | the SACs that we have been rechartering lately have |
| 18 | been in process, not just for months, but for well |
| 19 | over a year. |
| 20 | So it does take a significant amount of |
| 21 | time now. I don't have a date on it, but each time we |
| 22 | have a package, we work on that statement for well |
| 23 | over a year. |
| 24 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: I'm not familiar with |
| 25 | that process, but it seems I'm surprised that it |

takes so long.

2 STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: Well, the problem is that there are many of these improvements that are 3 4 going on simultaneously. It's not as if each one takes that amount of time, but they are being done 5 concurrently, and the staff, while 6 doing these 7 packages is simultaneously trying to have meetings and 8 fulfill their other requirements. And, of course, the 9 regional requirements have now become significantly steeper based on the new rule that our SAC members are 10 11 special government employees with creates various ethics and paperwork requirements that have the staff 12 13 time ramifications. 14 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Well, can we 14 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Well, can we 15 expect that in the future it's going to take a year to 16 recharter a SAC or is this a problem of what faced at 17 the start of this round?

18 STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: I think it's the 19 Now we have a different sort of challenge latter. 20 than what we'll have in a couple of years. Right now, we have a situation in which the term limits have 21 22 created a significant number of vacancies in most or 23 all of our SACs. We have some states that have few or 24 no members that are eligible for reappointment, so we 25 need to select 11 to 19 new people.

| 1 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: That's what happens |

| 3 | STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: Since |
| 4 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: I was waiting for |
| 5 | that. I'm surprised it took you C- what was that? |
| 6 | About seven seconds went by. |
| 7 | STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: Since we have so |
| 8 | many new members of the SAC |
| 9 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: It's the FCC delay |
| 10 | button. There were some other words that were muted |
| 11 | out. |
| 12 | STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: When the recently |
| 13 | chartered SACs are up for rechartering, there will |
| 14 | significantly fewer members eligible for ineligible |
| 15 | for reappointment based on term limits, so I would |
| 16 | expect that in future years the rechartering process |
| 17 | should become much quicker. |
| 18 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: And then, of course, |
| 19 | you have people like me who object to some of the |
| 20 | appointments on the SACs, which draws it out some |
| 21 | more, as well. |
| 22 | STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: Yes. That is true. |
| 23 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Any other questions on |
| 24 | that issue? |

| 2 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: Can I read this |

| 4 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay, what was the |
| 5 | last one? |
| 6 | COMMISSIONER MELENDEZ: Page 15. |
| 7 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Yes, second bullet |
| 8 | COMMISSIONER MELENDEZ: National |
| 9 | emergencies or something. |
| 10 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Well, I was at the |
| 11 | Department of Education on 9/11, and there was |
| 12 | coordination between the various civil rights agencies |
| 13 | to ensure that we didn't have a backlash again |
| 14 | Muslims, Arabs, Persian, so when I read this issue |
| 15 | that's the scenario, at least one of the scenarios |
| 16 | that came to mind. |
| 17 | STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: That's one of the |
| 18 | things, I understood, was not a staff generated issue. |
| 19 | Another issue that came to my mind as I interpret this |
| 20 | is that agencies out work together to see whether |
| 21 | there were best practices for dealing with persons |
| 22 | with disabilities after a crisis situation, like |
| 23 | Hurricane Katrina. That might be another crosscutting |
| 24 | intergovernmental civil rights issue. |
| 25 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: There is also the |
| | NEAL R. GROSSCOURT REPORTERS AND TIRANSCRIBERS1323 RHODE ISLAND AVE., N.W.(202) 234-4433WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701(202) 234-4433 |

| 1 | issue of language and access to emergency services. |
| 2 | It is actually a pretty big thing. When I was dealing |
| 3 | with the earthquake in San Francisco in `89, we sort |
| 4 | of had to invent this on the fly because we needed to |
| 5 | ensure that disabled individuals that the disaster |
| 6 | assistance center was wheelchair accessible. The |
| 7 | original site picked by the Army, was, of course, up |
| 8 | two flights of rickety stairs and we said, "No, you |
| 9 | can't do that." |
| 10 | We had to make sure there were people on |
| 11 | site who could speak Chinese dialects and Spanish in |
| 12 | order to answer questions for people seeking to apply |
| 13 | for the under the Stafford Act. |
| 14 | So it's actually quite important and I do |
| 15 | know that the Commission did take action after 9/11, |
| 16 | to create a hotline dealing with backlash against |
| 17 | anyone who might have looked like someone someone |
| 18 | wasn't going to like, so I think it is a very viable |
| 19 | and important part of what the Commission does, now |
| 20 | and in the future. |
| 21 | COMMISSIONER MELENDEZ: Okay, sounds fine. |
| 22 | I just didn't understand what it was all about. Thank |

| 11 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: We have briefings but |

| 14 | wondering if that can be a place holder for the |
| 15 | minority to put in a briefing. |
| 16 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: I'm sorry? |
| 17 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: June 2008. |
| 18 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Right. |

| 21 | that but I would like to do it in consultation with |
| 22 | Commissioner Melendez, since the number of briefings |
| 23 | has now dropped and we earlier had had understanding |
| 24 | that the minority on the committee would get at least |
| 25 | one or two briefings of its choosing. |

VICE CHAIRMAN EYNOLDS: That I don't know. 20 21 COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: I'm sorry, what's 22 your question? First, Commissioner Heriot proposed that 25 might conference commemorating we have а the NEAL R. GROSS COURT REPORTERS AND TIRANSCRIBERS 1323 RHODE ISLAND AVE., N.W. Commission and its work, sometime early in 2008. That could be conducted by Princeton, perhaps working with Georgetown University.

COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Princeton could hold this without our permission. They're thinking that they're doing this.

7 DIRECTOR STAFF MARCUS: Very good. 8 Second, the Commission could produce a series of 9 perhaps three to five new brief audio public service announcements, perhaps approximately 15 seconds. 10 And 11 again, this was based on an idea originally from Commissioner Heriot, that would include a brief 12 13 discussion of a little known, uncontroversial, but important fact about civil rights. 14

15 Commission staff could research 16 interesting civil rights facts, with input from 17 commissioners, then draft a text of these PSAs for 18 approval by the Commission.

The production costs incurred in producing new PSAs would be, we estimate, in the vicinity of $5,500. If we were to produce more than two or three PSAs, the marginal cost of production would likely increase by about $150 an hour for additional time spent editing and mixing.

COMMISSIONER YAKI: We're talking about

| 3 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: You're talking about |
| 4 | radio only for that option? |
| 5 | STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: This option is |
| 6 | radio only, yes. |
| 7 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: Okay. |
| 8 | STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: Production would |
| 9 | likely require the agency to undertake some |
| 10 | procurement action with respect to securing recording |
| 11 | studios, production services and encoding. |
| 12 | Distribution costs would likely total another $8,500, |
| 13 | at least, for the distribution, including purchasing |
| 14 | of mailing lists, and packaging up and mailing. |
| 15 | Although, it's possible that we could form some sort |
| 16 | of partnership with a private sector broadcaster |
| 17 | assuming that we could do it in a way that clears OGC |
| 18 | reviews, to keep the distribution costs down. |
| 19 | While we don't yet have appropriations, |
| 20 | this is an approach that looks like it could be |
| 21 | feasible, consistent with the budget. |
| 22 | A third idea that's been raised is for the |
| 23 | Commission is to produce a video public service |
| 24 | announcement for use on television. The production |
| 25 | costs incurred in producing a thirty second video |

public service announcement have been estimated to be 1 2 at least $100,000. Now, we have been advised that there be one or more broadcast network or satellite 3 4 network that would be willing help to us in distributing the PSA at no charge, so the distribution 5 costs would be at a minimum. If that were not the 6 7 case, would have substantial, additional we distribution costs. 8

CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Mr. Yaki?

COMMISSIONER YAKI: What is our ability 10 11 to use -- to lift the distribution rights? When I negotiated a lot of cable franchises, part of the deal 12 13 was essentially the creation of a community facility studio that could be used to -- that is used to create 14 15 community productions, community PSAs, etcetera, 16 etcetera. And there located pretty much in every big 17 franchise city in this county. Probably here as well. 18 New York, Boston, San Francisco, where the cost for 19 producing, you're often using student interns and 20 other kinds of folks who are learning the business. Ι think that would be a lot lower than $100,000, and I 21 would think that if you were going to do this in a --22 23 Well, let me start over. My idea on this

24 would be to do it similar to that, the radio PSAs. 25 Just have a rotating series if three or four, 15

| 1 | second, 20 second, video PSAs, but you know, if we |
| 2 | were able to avail ourselves of the community rate at |
| 3 | a lot of these facilities that exist throughout the |
| 4 | country, I think the cost would be a lot lower. |
| 5 | STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: We haven't looked |
| 6 | into that. We certainly could. There are facilities |
| 7 | like that in the D.C. metropolitan area through the |
| 8 | cable stations. |
| 9 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: Right. |
| 10 | STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: The trade off we |
| 11 | would have to look at is that if we did not use a high |
| 12 | production value professional video production, we |
| 13 | would end up with the low level quality and the |
| 14 | ramification of that is that the distribution will end |
| 15 | up being much more difficult because there are so many |
| 16 | more PSAs than there is time to put them in. |
| 17 | Generally speaking, the more professional the PSA, the |
| 18 | more likely it will get some air time. |
| 19 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: Right. Well, then |
| 20 | that goes to my next question, which is to what extent |
| 21 | are we allowed to partner with people who would do an |
| 22 | A-1 job at a substantially reduced fee? |
| 23 | I was just thinking of people who I know |
| 24 | in the industry, who I've worked with before on videos |

1 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay, and I would like 2 to add to Commissioner Yaki's question. Just put a 3 final point on it. What are the legal restraints for 4 our accepting --

STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: That's a delicate 5 6 I'm going to defer to the General Counsel question. 7 because we do have a statutory prohibition on 8 receiving uncompensated services. And that is а 9 concern that I would have to that sort of arrangement, but I'll defer to Mr. Blackwood, the General Counsel. 10

MR. BLACKWOOD: Unfortunately, the Staff Director is correct. I looked into the issue of can we receive discounted services or, in some cases, whether we can have somebody volunteer the services. We seem to be blocked in.

16 I've consulted also with other agencies 17 about how they have handled the development of PSAs. 18 In each case I've been told they had to pay full 19 freight.

Now, I'll continue to look into that issue. You talked about a community service, we might be able to work out some kind of a deal, but we pretty much prohibited from receiving any kind of free or discounted services.

CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Well on the production

| 1 | side, if you have a cable access station, and the |
| 2 | service is is the service is open to the public |
| 3 | and it's free, would be able to use those services? |
| 4 | MR. BLACKWOOD: That's an interesting |
| 5 | question. I would assume that if other people are |
| 6 | able to get it on a voluntary or free basis, that as |
| 7 | long as everybody is treated that way |
| 8 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Right. |
| 9 | MR. BLACKWOOD: that we could use the |
| 10 | service as well. But what wee cannot receive is |
| 11 | "free" services from somebody that everybody else has |
| 12 | to pay for. |
| 13 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: What about, say you |
| 14 | can get someone of some stature to narrate it, and |
| 15 | this person routinely volunteers his or her voice to |
| 16 | these kinds of things, is that something that would be |
| 17 | off the charts as well? |
| 18 | MR. BLACKWOOD: I think that's open to |
| 19 | that's problematic. I think we have a better chance |
| 20 | of that. I don't have a firm opinion on that one. We |
| 21 | did have, for example, several celebrity voices in the |
| 22 | PSAs that were done several years ago. I would |
| 23 | suspect that we did not have to pay full freight for |
| 24 | that because well, I'm not sure. Again, I would |
| 25 | have to probably talk to other agencies to see how |

| 6 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: I have a question |
| 7 | from pure ignorance. I'm not totally convinced that |
| 8 | the radio spots are, let's say, are terribly effective |
| 9 | in communicating the sense of the importance of the |
| 10 | Commission and its work. Do we know anything about |
| 11 | the tradeoffs in terms of effectiveness of one outlet |
| 12 | versus the other. |
| 13 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Are you talking |
| 14 | about radio versus TV or radio versus something else? |
| 15 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Or, for instance, |
| 16 | newspaper adds or adds in |
| 17 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: Nobody reads a |
| 18 | newspaper add. |
| 19 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Nobody read the |
| 20 | newspaper? |
| 21 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: It's done for shock |
| 22 | value, and to generate another news story that would |
| 23 | be read by the same people who read the newspaper, |
| 24 | which is about ten percent of the people who used to |
| 25 | read them ten years ago. Right? |

| | 47 |
|----|---|
| 1 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: That's correct. |
| 2 | Well, whatever, I mean there are a lot of forums on |
| 3 | the web which will reach people and I just |
| 4 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: I think what we have |
| 5 | to do is figure out what message we are trying to send |
| 6 | them in the first place. |
| 7 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: And that's the |
| 8 | second question I was going to |
| 9 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: One possible |
| 10 | alternative forum, you know, as far as I'm concerned, |
| 11 | would be educational packets to be sent to elementary |
| 12 | school students, junior high students, high school |
| 13 | students. We have to figure out what it is we're |
| 14 | trying to say. |
| 15 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Well, let's |
| 16 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Then we have to |
| 17 | figure out who we are trying to say it to, then we can |
| 18 | figure out |
| 19 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: That would be more |
| 20 | expensive. |
| 21 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: you know, |
| 22 | what's the best way to say what we want to say to the |
| 23 | people that we want to say it to. |
| 24 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Yes, and that was |
| 25 | the second question I was going to ask. What are |
| | NEAL R. GROSSCOURT REPORTERS AND TIRANSCRIBERS1323 RHODE ISLAND AVE., N.W.(202) 234-4433WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701(202) 234-4433 |

| 1 | these little know facts about civil rights? I mean |
| 2 | are they facts I don't know? Are they facts that the |
| 3 | kids don't know at a school, or what are they? |
| 4 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: I was thinking more |
| 5 | along the lines of something that a high school |
| 6 | student might not know, in which case maybe what we |
| 7 | should be doing is |
| 8 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: They don't know |
| 9 | anything, so |
| 10 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: That's I'm not |
| 11 | talking about stuff that is going to be a big shock to |
| 12 | you. Little things that can be communicated in thirty |
| 13 | seconds. But maybe the way to go is to think about |
| 14 | preparing materials for high school students. |
| 15 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: That appeals to me |
| 16 | much more, frankly, than |
| 17 | COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: Maybe the General |
| 18 | Counsel addressed this, but I wasn't zeroed in on it, |
| 19 | but in terms of receiving uncompensated services, does |
| 20 | that also include partnering with other agencies that |
| 21 | maybe more flushed with funds than we are. |
| 22 | For example, if we are going to do a PSA |
| 23 | or let's say we distribute education materials to |
| 24 | schools and the U.S. Department of Education assisted |
| 25 | us by picked the cost, or a portion of the cost of |

| 1 | distributing pamphlets to the schools nationwide or in |
| 2 | a specific area of the country? |
| 3 | MR. BLACKWOOD: Well, we did not look at |
| 4 | that question specifically, but I think that's much |
| 5 | less problematic, working with them, if we had an MOU |
| 6 | with a different agency about who does what, I don't |
| 7 | think it matters if they use in essence, we used or |
| 8 | benefit from the fact that they have a lot more power |
| 9 | to, you know, place the adds or produce them. |
| 10 | COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: We may want to |
| 11 | explore, either formally or informally based on our |
| 12 | contacts with Education and others to see whether or |
| 13 | not we can use there good offices in assisting us in |
| 14 | doing that. And to Commissioner Heriot's point, I |
| 15 | think it's much more effective to do what she is |
| 16 | suggesting as opposed to a transitory add on the radio |
| 17 | that someone is going to hear for five seconds |
| 18 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: I agree. |
| 19 | COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: and then forget |
| 20 | about once they get caught in traffic. |
| 21 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Yes. |
| 22 | COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: My personal |

| 10 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: What's the format? |
| 11 | Does anyone have a format in mind? What are we |
| 12 | talking about, a pamphlet, I heard. Anything else? |
| 13 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: Well I think if you |
| 14 | want to make it so that you're not busting the bank, |
| 15 | you basically create a downloadable PDF that you can |
| 16 | send out to schools and the teachers can download for |
| 17 | free a distribute that way, but otherwise, when you |
| 18 | start talking about pamphlets, you're talking a lot of |

their lesson plans, little units on civil rights of 1 2 sort or another, I'm sure teachers would be one delighted to have this kind of material. 3 4 COMMISSIONER YAKI: What I'm saying is that if you develop sort of a one week or two week 5 civil rights curricula, I would say that the tough 6 7 part is going to be developing it. I think the easy part would be to market it basically through our own 8 9 website and through cooperation with DOE and other people in terms of getting it out to teachers so that 10 11 they can just download it and go off with it. VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Well, I'm in total 12 13 agreement with Commissioner Kirsanow, five second 14 spots on the radio don't really do anything for me, 15 but this does, because it reaches not only the 16 students but the teachers. 17 COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: Should we develop 18 a curriculum or should it be something more --19 COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: Whoa, whoa, whoa, 20 whoa. Let me just butt in. There are a ton of civil 21 rights things, curriculum materials out there, and 22 some of them are fabulous and some of them are not so 23 I'm sure -- well, I'm not sure that we could great. 24 add value in that arena, but even if we could, as a 25 parent, my challenge has always been getting schools NEAL R. | 1 | to even use them because there's a real reluctance to |

| 3 | You may find that hard to believe but it's true. |
| 4 | So I don't think the Commission, you know, |
| 5 | that's biting off more than we can chew, first in |
| 6 | terms of our ability to add value and our ability to |
| 7 | actually have it used. |
| 8 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Well, Jennifer, is |
| 9 | there any sense, I mean, I understand what she's |
| 10 | saying, but is there do you have any sense of kind |
| 11 | of holes in the material that is already available to |
| 12 | school that they are or are not using? |
| 13 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: Well again, you |
| 14 | know, I said the biggest problem is that it's not |
| 15 | being taught. More, I think, at the high school level |
| 16 | than at the elementary school level. The elementary |
| 17 | school level, and I've done a bit of research on this, |
| 18 | as far as what's taught in our state and in other |
| 19 | states about civil rights, and a great many places |
| 20 | they don't even I mean, you'd be surprised, the | school administrators that it's an important part of the curriculum is the first battle and I don't know that we have a role to play in that or -- I'm not sure if we do or not, I mean it's something that I certainly work on personally. I don't know where you want to go with the sort of huge undertaking. And a valuable one, but --

Jennifer, 8 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: I'm 9 actually surprised at what you're saying because, you know, I don't have children that I have direct contact 10 11 with on this issue, but you know my friends' children seem to be studying civil rights a lot in school, and 12 13 if you're correct and their situation is special, then 14 I actually think that this is worth a briefing.

You know, what are schools teaching? What is the typical civil rights curriculum in elementary and junior high school? That's something that we ought to study and have a briefing, I mean, it worries me that there are students up in Massachusetts who don't know why they have Martin Luther King Day off.

21 COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: A lot of kids 22 don't, but you know what, I think that's a very good 23 point, I mean, I don't know how other people feel 24 about that but to me education, civil rights, and 25 remembering the past, you know, it's all intertwined.

|----|---|
| 1 | And, you know, if kids don't know about |
| 2 | the civil rights movement then we're lost, what can I |
| 3 | say. So, you know, as I said, there's more of it |
| 4 | going on at the high school level, but I find that |
| 5 | what is taught at the high school level tends to be ad |
| 6 | hoc and contemporary with very little emphasis on the |
| 7 | history of the movement, and the victories that have |
| 8 | been achieved. |
| 9 | Most of the courses look at current issues |
| 10 | and problems, without that greater context, so I think |
| 11 | it's a very big problem. I think a briefing about it |
| 12 | could be fascinating. |
| 13 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: But Jennifer, why |
| 14 | is it, what you are saying, and it squares with my own |
| 15 | experience of it as well, about the A) historicism of |
| 16 | the whole approach to contemporary race related and |
| 17 | ethnicity related issues, why doesn't that speak to |
| 18 | the Commission, in fact, trying to disseminate |
| 19 | materials which put the contemporary questions in some |
| 20 | sort of historical context? |
| 21 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: You know, I do |
| 22 | think the Commission could play a role in advocating |
| 23 | for civil rights education. That would be extremely |
| 24 | valuable, but I think the first step might be I |
| 25 | don't think we can create the curriculum because, |

first of all, in some ways that's outside of our abilities, both in terms of budget and skill set and other things, but also because there are so many out there.

I mean, so maybe, in other words, maybe 5 the role we can play is the same role that David 6 7 for example, in advocating for McCullough plays, history education. And without specifically saying --8 9 telling them what books they need to assign and what lessons they need to teach, we should just be out 10 11 there pointing out the fact that not enough is being taught and that it should be integrated into the 12 13 curriculum at a very young level.

You know, first grade is not too early to 14 15 talk about Martin Luther King Day. Or to talk about the Civil War, or to talk about, you know, the Civil 16 17 Rights Act of 1964. You know, you don't get into 18 statutory details, obviously, with first graders, but 19 it's not too early to start talking about those things 20 and so, I think we should certainly be advocates for 21 it, I just don't know that we can develop it and write 22 it. 23

23 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay, I think that 24 this is a very good suggestion, but it is slightly off 25 the mark in that we have a fiftieth anniversary and we

| 2 | it your position that the product that was offered is |
| 3 | inappropriate or something that we should not do? |
| 4 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Or alternatively, |
| 5 | what should we do? |
| 6 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: I was responding |
| 7 | to Pete Kirsanow's suggestion of passing out |
| 8 | curriculum. |
| 9 | COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: Right, it was my |
| 10 | suggestion. I just said, do we write a curriculum or |
| 11 | do we my idea was that we should do something much |
| 12 | less ambitious than that and keep focused on what the |
| 13 | whole purpose of this is and that is too commemorate |
| 14 | the fiftieth anniversary. |
| 15 | And second, how do we, in a cost effective |
| 16 | fashion, communicate the fact that it's the fiftieth |
| 17 | anniversary and also all that goes along with that in |
| 18 | terms of what the Commission has been responsible for |
| 19 | in terms of moving the civil rights debate along. |
| 20 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: I think the nail that |
| 21 | Peter just hit on the head is the Commission. |
| 22 | Obviously, I think I think Jennifer is right. I |
| 23 | think attempting a civil rights curriculum is way |
| 24 | beyond our ken. I also think that PBS did a |
| 25 | magnificent documentary on the civil rights movement, |

| 1 | "Eyes on the Prize." That's out there, that can be a |
| 2 | standard teaching fodder. |
| 3 | But in terms of the Commission itself, I |
| 4 | think there's a distinct and narrow focus that maybe, |
| 5 | if we think about it, we can find some way to target |
| 6 | it, whether it's out of school, whether it's whatever. |
| 7 | But I think that's how we should keep the focus. |
| 8 | Because if we expand |
| 9 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: I agree with that. |
| 10 | But I have a separate aside, since the conversation |
| 11 | has sort of gone down this path. I mean I do think if |
| 12 | the Commission goes forward that one way it can be |
| 13 | relevant and be really valuable in our society would |
| 14 | be to somehow find a way to advocate for civil rights |
| 15 | education. Whether that would be through testimony, |
| 16 | before boards of education, or briefings, or putting |
| 17 | out ads. I think that could be I'd never thought |
| 18 | about that before, but it seems to me that could be a |
| 19 | valuable and completely non-partisan way for us to all |
| 20 | come together as people who care about these issues |
| 21 | and be relevant. |
| 22 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Heriot? |

| 1 | could use would be to come up with a test with |
| 2 | questions to administer in cooperation with the |
| 3 | Department of Education to a randomly selected group |
| 4 | of classes at different levels around the country. |
| 5 | And then publish I think we could get a |
| 6 | lot of publicity for the issue to say okay, we've |
| 7 | administered this test and we've discovered that |
| 8 | students don't know X, and they don't know Y, and they |
| 9 | don't know Z. They do know this, they do know that, |
| 10 | but they don't know this. |
| 11 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: I would be |
| 12 | interested. I think that that's fabulous. I would be |
| 13 | interested in knowing if perhaps that may already have |
| 14 | been done. Because there are these national history |
| 15 | assessments that every once in a while you read, you |
| 16 | know, the vast majority of twelfth graders can't tell |
| 17 | you half century the Civil War took place in, right? |
| 18 | So there are you do see those sometimes. |
| 19 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: I'd like to see our |

VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Well, I like this discussion a lot and the way it's going. And I think that we need some time to talk about it further, obviously. Just to tie it in with an experience of my own, very briefly, when my husband and I published "America in Black and White" in 1997, and the first third of the book is really on the history up to the sixties.

9 An astonishing number of adults -- forget about schoolchildren -- an astonishing number of 10 11 adults said to us -- educated, highly educated adults -- we did not understand what the south was like 12 13 before -- we didn't understand what the Jim Crow south We didn't know, we thought this was some 14 was like. 15 kind of whine about how horrible the old days were. 16 So there is just massive ignorance -- basic history 17 of this country. And the landscape of American 18 Apartheid, and how far we've come since then, and so 19 forth.

20 I'd like to figure out a way of playing an 21 educative role. That's the bottom line. I think we 22 need to continue this conversation.

23 COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: No, I do too. And 24 I think Gail's suggestion is the perfect first step. 25 Because before we or anybody else starts advocating about what needs to be done, we need some sort of 1 objective assessment of the level of the problem. 2 And if we could -- if we could produce something like 3 4 that, that would generate some headlines, and focus the spotlight on an issue and then the Commission 5 could develop some sort of plan of where to take those 6 -- you know, what to do about those 7 -- what the Commission could do about those. 8 9 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. This has been a But in terms of action items, I qood discussion.

10 good discussion. But in terms of action items, I 11 guess I'll try to start with what I believe is the 12 easiest issue. Is there agreement to have David 13 Blackwood look into the legality of -- to accept 14 services offered by production companies.

15 COMMISSIONER YAKI: I would -- I would 16 instead suggest that perhaps in the grand fashion of 17 the Commission that we instead go to a subcommittee --18 appoint a subcommittee on this.

19CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Do you really want to20do this, Michael?

COMMISSIONER YAKI: Absolutely --

| 1 | that that's the most efficient vehicle. |
| 2 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Do we have that much |
| 3 | interest in a radio or TV spot anyway? |
| 4 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Quite frankly, the PSA |
| 5 | for television, I think that there are a lot of |
| 6 | complexities involved in it. And as Commissioner |
| 7 | Thernstrom has pointed out, I'm not sure what the |
| 8 | impact is going to be. |
| 9 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: But I think a |
| 10 | survey would have a big impact, and what if I mean. |
| 11 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: A survey that's |
| 12 | a separate question. |
| 13 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: But does it have to |
| 14 | be separate? I mean |
| 15 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Well, we can't do |
| 16 | it over the radio. |
| 17 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: We don't think |
| 18 | that. |
| 19 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Well, we're talking |
| 20 | about radio spots right now. |
| 21 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: Right, but what I'm |
| 22 | suggesting is, maybe we scrap that idea, because of |
| 23 | expense and complexity, and switch gears, and |
| 24 | participate in the conference, do a survey, bring the |
| 25 | results of the survey to the conference, you know, |

write op-eds about it. I mean, all of that is free 1 2 media, basically. The survey would cost, to some extent, but the publicity it would generate about 3 4 civil rights, about the Commission, about the history of the Commission, would be free. 5 COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: I think in terms of 6 7 action items, the question is, what does the survey look like and who prepares it, how is it distributed, 8 9 and with whose assistance, such as DOE -- I think that implicates general counsel taking a look at 10 the 11 legality of -- and I would be surprised if we couldn't partner with DOE to do this. 12 13 And clearly the survey is not going to be scientific, but will nonetheless give us some data 14 15 that we can point to in terms of op-eds and everything else as to where certain deficiencies are with respect 16 17 to civil rights education in the country. 18 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: On the table right now is what question? 19 20 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: We're trying to --21 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: No, no, but Ι thought you had a specific question. I thought you 22 23 were on the radio spots. 24 COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: Well, if it's a 25 question about whether or not to move forward with NEAL R. paid media, then I'm inclined at this point to vote 1 2 Because I think that in participating in a no. conference, we can generate free media that the people 3 4 who care about this stuff will pay more attention to than somebody sitting in traffic listening to talk 5 radio or listening to sports radio. 6 7 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Right. COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: -- paid media and 8 9 to take another approach. question here. Professor George is obviously a former 1 member of the US Commission on Civil Rights. 2 Who would be setting the agenda and deciding on who was 3 invited to such a conference? It seems to me your 4 comment assumes that he would be. 5 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Well my comment was 6 7 based on the fact that the email said it would be held at Princeton under the auspices of blah blah blah, 8 9 with Professor Robert George, who is part of the leadership of that particular school within Princeton. 10 11 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Right, but --COMMISSIONER 12 YAKI: Having read Mr. 13 George's views on certain things --14 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Well, look, at the 15 end of the day, the question is, is Robert George in 16 charge of this event, or are we? | 1 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: I did not |

could work with Robert George and others to help shape 1 2 this --COMMISSIONER YAKI: Ι work 3 with you, 4 Jennifer, so that's a start. 5 COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: That's my point. 6 If we were supported in that way -- if we were to join 7 them as full partners --STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: I would have to say 8 9 there may be legal ramifications --10 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Right. 11 STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: If we were to try to co-host something and they would pay for it. 12 We 13 would have to look into it, but it would certainly 14 raise questions. 15 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: So that's an 16 uncompensated contribution to the Commission, is what 17 you're saying. 18 STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: At first blush, it sounds like those issues are --19 COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: Well, what I think 20 21 makes most sense is to let the outside groups put on 22 conference their they're going to put on, 23 commissioners can participate as individuals, and it 24 would be my hope that commissioners from both sides of 25 the ideological, political aisle would participate, in NEAL R. | 22 | COMMISSIONER MELENDEZ: Since the |

| 1 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Kirsanow, |
| 2 | did you look into this as a possibility? |
| 3 | COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: Yes, I did consult |
| 4 | with folks at the White House. I have not heard back |
| 5 | from them. I don't know where it stands. I've tried |
| 6 | to follow up but have not gotten any definitive word |
| 7 | back. |
| 8 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. So we had looked |
| 9 | into the possibility of having some having a |
| 10 | ceremony at the White House, Commissioner Melendez. |
| 11 | But we haven't gotten any reactions from the White |
| 12 | House at this point. Okay. Are we in agreement that |
| 13 | options two and three are off the table? Two being |
| 14 | the radio ads, and option three being the PSAs that |
| 15 | would be distributed by a telecommunication company? |
| 16 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Yes, those are off |
| 17 | the table, and I would say that option one we've |
| 18 | got to discuss this at much greater length. I am not |
| 19 | willing to go along with an anniversary celebration in |
| 20 | which we are not united as a Commission behind. |
| 21 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Well whether you want |
| 22 | it as an anniversary celebration, it's not a question |
| 23 | of us being united behind it. That's their academic |
| 24 | conference that concerns the Commission. |
| 25 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Well, they can have |

| 1 | an academic conference. We don't have any control |
| 2 | over that. But then, if that's what ends up |
| 3 | happening, I do think we as a Commission need to find |
| 4 | a way of celebrating the anniversary. |
| 5 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Yaki, do |
| 6 | you have any suggestions? |
| 7 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: Other than cake? |
| 8 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: In addition to cake. |
| 9 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: What kind of cake? |
| 10 | Are we going to argue about that? |
| 11 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: Not at all. I'm very |
| 12 | agnostic about cake, as long as it's cake. |
| 13 | COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: I think we've |
| 14 | solved this problem. |
| 15 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: I think that I think |
| 16 | there's three options. One is, I think we should |
| 17 | aggressively pursue a White House strategy. Somewhat |
| 18 | because it was a Republican president fifty years ago |
| 19 | who put this together. And I think that there is |
| 20 | something to be said about having that symmetry fifty |
| 21 | years later. Secondly, I think that the idea that of |
| 22 | the celebration that Commissioner Thernstrom talks |
| 23 | about is something that I originally had thought would |
| 24 | sort of be the galvanizing point for the national |
| 25 | conference, but now that's pushed back to `09, if I'm |

| 1 | correct, right? |
| 2 | STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: I believe the |
| 3 | conference has always been scheduled for `09. |
| 4 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: I know, but when I |
| 5 | first started this idea, I was hooking it to the |
| 6 | fiftieth anniversary. |
| 7 | STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: We should probably |
| 8 | find a way of hooking it in, as a perhaps as a year |
| 9 | celebration. |
| 10 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: I think that I mean |
| 11 | you can either do this symbolically or you can do this |
| 12 | substantive. I think the symbolic would be a White |
| 13 | House gathering of all the existing, living |
| 14 | commissioners and staff directors or whoever, you |
| 15 | know, to gather to just look at that, and maybe |
| 16 | through that, develop a one day symposia retrospective |
| 17 | of the work the Commission has done over the years. I |
| 18 | mean, that would be, I think, the most ideal thing, |
| 19 | because that's how it all started. |
| 20 | I mean, it really started with that great, |
| 21 | big, wonderful `61 report that I've read top to bottom |
| 22 | and am just amazed by. That to me is really what I |
| 23 | would do. I would try and put it together in just one |
| 24 | corner, very simple thing. Low key. It could be a |
| 25 | stage, and you could have round tables with just |

| 1 | selected commissioners from the decades talking about |

| 4 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. So Commissioner |
| 5 | Kirsanow, would you follow up with the folks at the |
| 6 | White House and see if we can get them to focus on |
| 7 | this issue? |
| 8 | COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: I'll do that, and |
| 9 | actually, that was what Commissioner Yaki just |
| 10 | described is precisely what was being contemplated. |
| 11 | When I get back to my office, hopefully later this |
| 12 | afternoon, I'll see if I can make some contact, if |
| 13 | not, by sometime next week. |
| 14 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay, that was a part |
| 15 | of what you just discussed. The other piece being the |
| 16 | symposium. Ken, could you have some folks try to |
| 17 | reduce what we've been discussing to paper? |
| 18 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: But I think and just |
| 19 | adding to that that's also a great idea. If we |
| 20 | could develop even just a simple, ten question test. |
| 21 | Because I think about much time we could steal from |
| 22 | teachers. But I can imagine each one of us has pretty |
| 23 | good contacts with our own education systems, and |
| 24 | could probably ask three or four history teachers to |
| 25 | do some random tests. It wouldn't be scientific, it |

| 20 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: "Didn't he have |
| 21 | something to do with World War Two?" |
| 22 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: "Does he know Jay Z," |
| 23 | and that kind of stuff. |
| 24 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: I think we could | that we say, "Okay, this is our project." I'm sort of 1 2 behind on what the national conference is. I remember 3 that I've spoken to some of you about having an 4 anniversary, you know, hearing, maybe held on Capitol Hill, and somebody told me that's kind of like our 5 national conference idea. Tell me what the national 6 7 conference idea is. CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. Before we go 8 9 down that road, I want to tie this up. The four things that we are going to do. The survey, we're 10 11 going to try to a have a ceremony at the White House, 12 we're going to have а one-day symposium, and 13 commissioners in their individual capacities would be 14 free to participate in the event co-sponsored by 15 Princeton and Georgetown. 16 COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: And what's the one-17 day symposium? CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: That was just discussed 18 by Commissioner Yaki. 19 20 COMMISSIONER YAKI: That was something that 21 the White House could convene, just sort of a round table of --22 23 COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: Oh, so that's in 24 conjunction with the White House meeting. 25 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Yes. NEAL R. | 1 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Yes, I would assume |

| 4 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: Yes, that's what |

| 6 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: I would assume that |
| 7 | the White House is going to want to do something very |
| 8 | limited. |
| 9 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Yes, I agree. I think |
| 10 | that they want to do just a ceremony and get us out of |
| 11 | there. |
| 12 | COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: I think it would be |
| 13 | something that would be held in the East Room. |
| 14 | Possibly all living commissioners would at least be |
| 15 | invited. There might be a few words by the President |
| 16 | or his designee. Maybe prepare to across the hall for |
| 17 | some hor dourves. |
| 18 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: I mean, that |
| 19 | combined with the survey results would generate a lot |
| 20 | of publicity. |
| 21 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: It's not going to be |
| 22 | at the same time. The first one will be at the White |
| 23 | House's convenience, and it might be rather soon, I |
| 24 | would think. |
| 25 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: And the White House |

| 1 | events of this sort in the past, commemorating, for |
| 2 | instance, the `64 act, did not get a lot of publicity. |
| 3 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: And remember we've |
| 4 | got several anniversaries. We've got the anniversary |
| 5 | of the date, which is like in fifteen minutes, |
| 6 | unfortunately. We've got the anniversary of the date |
| 7 | that Eisenhower trotted out his nominees for the |
| 8 | Commission. And that's November. |
| 9 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: November 15 th , wasn't |
| 10 | it? |
| 11 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: something like that. |
| 12 | And then there's the anniversary of the first |
| 13 | Commission meeting, and that's January. And that's |
| 14 | why we can call all of 2008 that's our anniversary |
| 15 | year. And everything we do could be, you know, |
| 16 | related to this, could be our anniversary project, of |
| 17 | ensuring civil rights literacy among young Americans. |
| 18 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. So those are the |
| 19 | issues. We have a consensus. And you wanted further |
| 20 | discussion on the conference that will be held in |
| 21 | 2009. |
| 22 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Just tell me what the |
| 23 | national conference is so that I can figure out how |
| 24 | that fits in with what I want to do. |
| | NEAL R. GROSSCOURT REPORTERS AND TIRANSCRIBERS1323 RHODE ISLAND AVE., N.W.(202) 234-4433WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701(202) 234-4433 |

STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: Sure. There's a 1 2 brief description on page twelve of the strategic 3 plan, and it's short, so I'll just read it from the 4 third full paragraph. The Commission is planning to hold a national conference which endeavors to be a 5 significant convening of scholars, practitioners, 6 7 policy makers, and issue specialists, addressing broad 8 civil rights themes. The Commission will seek to draw 9 at least one hundred civil rights practitioners, experts, and others to the conference. 10 11 In addition to broad discussions of civil rights, sessions will be held on discrete topics drawn 12 13 from the responses of the SACs and pending matters The conference will result in a 14 before Congress. 15 report of findings entitled civil rights priorities for the 21st century. 16 17 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Yes, I've read that. 18 But that's the whole plan at this point? 19 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: That's about it. 20 STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: There's been things 21 that have been agreed to beyond that. I think at a 22 staff level we are working up various alternatives to how to flesh this out. 23 24 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: We just have a concept 25 right now. NEAL R. GROSS COURT REPORTERS AND TIRANSCRIBERS 1323 RHODE ISLAND AVE., N.W. (202) 234-4433 WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701 (202) 234-4433

| | 80 |
|----|---|
| 1 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Okay. So that's |
| 2 | 2009. |
| 3 | STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: Yes. |
| 4 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Okay. My idea that's |
| 5 | sort of overlapping was to have a hearing/briefing, |
| 6 | whatever it should be called I don't know that |
| 7 | simply is more elaborate than usual. Where we simply |
| 8 | hear from civil rights leaders, have them talk to us |
| 9 | for fifteen minutes each, perhaps, on their vision of |
| 10 | civil rights in the next half century, or civil rights |
| 11 | in the 21 st century, and hold that as our anniversary |
| 12 | event in January. Someplace where it would look nice |
| 13 | and we could say nice things about the anniversary. |
| 14 | STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: I'm sorry, how is |
| 15 | that different than the national conference? |
| 16 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: It's smaller. |
| 17 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: It's smaller and |
| 18 | more streamlined, but very similar. |
| 19 | STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: And of course, the |
| 20 | extent to which the 2009 conference is larger will |
| 21 | depend on the appropriations that we get. So it could |
| 22 | end up being large scale, or it could be something |
| 23 | somewhat similar to what you just described. |
| 24 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Yes, I'm just |
| 25 | thinking that we ought to have some event that is the |
| | NEAL R. GROSSCOURT REPORTERS AND TIRANSCRIBERS1323 RHODE ISLAND AVE., N.W.(202) 234-4433WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701(202) 234-4433 |

anniversary event, that occurs in 2008. 1 2 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Comments? STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: Maybe I missed 3 4 something, but Commissioner Yaki had the idea for the symposium involving commissioners. In the event that 5 the White House is not interested in doing that, 6 7 perhaps that's the sort of thing that we could do that 8 would be very different from the conference. 9 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Yes, I like that. CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Well, but your idea was 10 11 to have past commissioners and other folks involved with the Commission coming and talking about their 12 13 experience, versus what Commissioner Heriot's brought up, where people come in and talk about what civil 14 15 rights should be in the 21st century. is One 16 essentially looking at what's been done in the past, 17 and the other one is looking at what should be done 18 qoinq forward. So Ι don't see them as 19 interchangeable. COMMISSIONER YAKI: Well, I think in terms 20 of happy, I think the formal would lend itself to a 21 22 non-controversial day in which people from the past

24 that the forward is really what the national 25 conference is really more about. And what we fight could have an opportunity to talk about -- I think

2 COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: Despite that, the 3 symposium of former commissioners would necessarily 4 have some of them talking about what they expect civil 5 rights to look like in the next fifty years. But it 6 wouldn't be the focus of it.

7 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. Ken, please have 8 someone try to get this down in writing. We've 9 discussed various ideas, and I think it would be 10 useful if we all could actually -- you know, if we had 11 a document that we could read and edit.

STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: I'd be happy to.

CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay.

14COMMISSIONER HERIOT: This may be the sort15of thing we could schedule a teleconference on.

| 4 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Discussion? |
| 5 | COMMISSIONER MELENDEZ: Have there been |
| 6 | some changes to this document, and has it been fully |
| 7 | reviewed by the general counsel? |
| 8 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. Have we altered |
| 9 | the document since the last meeting? |
| 10 | STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: There have been no |
| 11 | changes since the last meeting, which was the meeting |
| 12 | at which this document was tabled. However, there |
| 13 | were changes made since the prior time at which the |
| 14 | Commission reviewed and voted on the document. And |
| 15 | the changes that have been made since that point |
| 16 | should be indicated in the red-lining through the |
| 17 | document. Generally speaking, the changes were made |
| 18 | as a result of OMB review. |
| 19 | OMB raised certain questions about whether |
| 20 | our guidelines were fully compliant and consistent |
| 21 | with federal policies. And so we've made just a few |
| 22 | changes to comply with that. I don't think that OMB's |

| 1 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: Thank you, Mr. Chair. |
| 2 | Has there been some change in the what qualifies |
| 3 | for OGC review? |
| 4 | STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: I believe that is |
| 5 | right. I'm going to have to find it, but I believe |
| 6 | that there is a change for OGC review, and it would |
| 7 | relate to testimony before Congress. Let me try to |
| 8 | flip through this. |
| 9 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: I was trying to find |
| 10 | it, and it's so |
| 11 | STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: Yes. I do recall |
| 12 | that there is testimony before Congress that would be |
| 13 | sponsored by the Commission, thank you, and that would |
| 14 | now require OGC review. |
| 15 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: Those are exemptions. |
| 16 | STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: Is Mr. Horn on the |

| 18 | MR. HORNE: I am. |
| 19 | STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: Is there a page |
| 20 | number that you can refer us to? Oh, is it on page |
| 21 | ten? |
| 22 | MR. HORNE: It's section four, page ten. |
| 23 | STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: Okay. Page ten |
| 24 | On section Roman numeral four, subsection 1G, we had |
| 25 | previously provided that testimony or comments of |
| | NEAL R. GROSSCOURT REPORTERS AND TIRANSCRIBERS1323 RHODE ISLAND AVE., N.W.(202) 234-4433WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701(202) 234-4433 |

Commission officials before courts and administrative 1 bodies, Congress, or the media, would not apply here 2 and would -- and because they would not be defined as 3 4 information, the review would not be required. OMB objected to that, indicating that there are some cases 5 in which Commission testimony before Congress 6 is 7 information of the sort that should be covered by 8 information quality guidelines.

9 So the new language indicates that Commission officials testimony of before 10 courts, 11 administrative bodies, Congress, or the media, is not covered information, unless the testimony contains new 12 13 substantive information not previously disseminated. 14 However, this information, testified to before 15 Congress, would apply to testimony that is sponsored 16 by the agency.

In other words, it refers to information that the agency, as the agency, is providing, as opposed to information that an individual commissioner is providing based on his opinion or her opinion.

21 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Why isn't that made 22 more clear?

23 STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: Well, I think it is 24 in here. Mr. Horne, is there a particular page that I 25 can point to?

MR. HORNE: Well, sure, it's the beginning 1 2 of section four, number one. It's the scope and 3 applicability of the guidelines is information and 4 dissemination. And dissemination is defined in 4.03. Which means Commission distribution of 5 sponsors information. Now what dissemination does not cover --6 7 OMB released guidelines 2002, in February, that 8 address exactly what it means when an agency responds 9 with information. And that means either -- we've either directed a third party to disseminate the 10 11 information, we are initiating the dissemination of the information, or we have the authority to review 12 13 and approve the information before release. half-cocked 14 COMMISSIONER YAKI: So my 15 opinions aren't covered? 16 MR. HORNE: That's correct. 17 STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: Okay. 18 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: You're free to share them with the world. 19 20 COMMISSIONER YAKI: That's all Ι care 21 about. 22 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Melendez, 23 do you have any additional questions? 24 COMMISSIONER MELENDEZ: Yes, going to page 25 the document says that administrative number seven, NEAL R. instruction 1-6, national project development and 1 2 implementation at section 15, provides that the staff director will appoint members of an editorial policy 3 4 board to release nation reports to determine the adequacy and accuracy of the substantial information 5 draft document. 6 in the However, per Chairman the staff director no 7 Reynolds' motion in April, 8 longer has to do an editorial review for briefing 9 reports. So the guidelines appear to be not correct. 10 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: I'm sorry. 11 STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: Ι think that Melendez is old 12 Commissioner referring to the 13 controversy as to whether A.I. 1-6 previously imposed 14 editorial review board review requirements on 15 briefing reports or not. And I believe, as I recall, 16 it Commissioner Melendez's view that the was 17 requirement did apply, and the view of other 18 commissioners that it did not apply. A few months 19 there was a vote on this issue and ago, it was 20 determined that it would not apply, except as the 21 staff director on a case by case basis determined that 22 it would be necessary. heard Commissioner Melendez's 23 So if I 24 comment correctly, he's indicating that he thinks that 25 there has been a change in the A.I. 1-6, in the sense that our current policy is not consistent with his 1 2 understanding of the former policy. Is that it, did I understand that correctly? 3 4 COMMISSIONER MELENDEZ: Right. I quess the question is -- did Chairman Reynolds make a motion in 5 April saying that staff director no longer has to do 6 7 an editorial review board briefing report. STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: No, I don't believe 8 9 there was ever such a motion that referred to "no longer required." As I recall, the motion was to what 10 11 the require would be going forward. | 4 | recent comments. Commissioner Melendez, would you |

| 5 | like to repeat what you've just said for the benefit |
| 6 | of the court reporter? |
| 7 | COMMISSIONER MELENDEZ: Yes, my main |
| 8 | concern was that I thought that Chairman Reynolds' |
| 9 | motion in April required that the staff director no |
| 10 | longer had to do an editorial review or briefing |
| 11 | report, so in essence, the guidelines as written are |
| 12 | currently not right. |
| 13 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. |
| 14 | STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: Just so I |
| 15 | understand, there may be disagreement among the |
| 16 | commissioners as to whether there was in fact a |
| 17 | change. The term "no longer" was not in the motion a |
| 18 | few months ago, and I don't believe that there is any |
| 19 | reference to briefing reports here in this document, |
| 20 | and I would read it as being consistent with the |
| 21 | historical understanding that national reports within |
| 22 | the meeting of this AI did not apply to briefing |
| 23 | reports. |
| 24 | But if Commissioner Melendez is suggesting |
| 25 | that we need some sort of clarification in this I'm |

| 12 | Mr. Yaki returns for the vote. |
| 13 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: I think we should |
| 14 | go ahead with the vote. He's on the phone, so we |
| 15 | don't know how long he'll take. Or we'll come back to |
| 16 | the vote. But we shouldn't just sit here until he |

| 16 | Got everything up to page |
| 17 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Up at footnote 68. I |
| 18 | don't have page numbers on this. Vice Chair |
| 19 | Thernstrom stated that a religious question is a |

| 9 | religious question, Commissioner Yaki posited that the |
| 10 | non-response rate would go up considerably if |
| 11 | questions on religion were included in the census, and |
| 12 | that religious briefs are so intrinsically personal |

| 15 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: I see it. I would |

| 17 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Yes, I suspected what |
| 18 | you said was whether the non-response rate would go up |
| 19 | is a testable proposition. |
| 20 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Right, right. I |
| 21 | would like to see the transcript. I don't like that |

| 9 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Yes. |
| 10 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: The first page of |
| 11 | the executive summary, "The following people offered |
| 12 | their expertise on one, two, three." Under number |
| 13 | two, shouldn't that say the usefulness of alternate |

| 16 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: I'm sorry, where's the |
| 17 | language located? |
| 18 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: It's in the |
| 19 | executive summary, number two. It lists sort of three |
| 20 | things that the panelists opined on. |
| 21 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Got you. |
| 22 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: And number two says |

know if anybody has any other ideas, but number one 1 2 the usefulness of current racial categories. says Maybe number two should say the possibility -- I'm 3 4 just thinking out loud. Proposed alternate? Forget usefulness it, Ι 5 the of quess, and just say alternative racial categories. I don't know, maybe 6 7 somebody can play with that. COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: Yes. That's 12 exactly what I'm saying. 13 14 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: I mean, you want --15 degree to which current racial categories in the 2010 census are useful. But usefulness is a terrible word. 16 17 COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: Should we just say 18 utility? 19 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: No. You could say 20 legitimacy. 21 COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: Legitimacy. 22 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: That has a different 23 meaning. | 7 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: Alternative |
| 8 | categories? |
| 9 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Alternative or the |

| 11 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: Okay, alternative |
| 12 | categories or the elimination. |
| 13 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: How about doing one, |
| 14 | two, three, instead of one, two on this? And then |
| 15 | just move the numbers. So the first one is |
| 16 | alternative racial categories, and the third is the |
| 17 | elimination of racial categories. |
| 18 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: Yes. I would say |
| 19 | proposed elimination. And proposed alternatives, |
| 20 | right? |
| 21 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Right. |
| 22 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: So they offered |

| 10 | Either one. |
| 11 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. |
| 12 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: I do think I |
| 13 | agree with Gail that it should be broken up, because |
| 14 | those are two separate things. One is recommending |
| 15 | changes to current categories, the other one is |
| 16 | eliminating categories. |
| 17 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: That's fine. |
| 18 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: I think it was |

| 21 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay, if we're finished |
| 22 | there, please flip to the page that has footnotes 32 |

| 5 | sentence. |
| 6 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Yes, that's an awful |
| 7 | sentence, top to bottom. |
| 8 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Yes. |
| 9 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay, would someone |
| 10 | like to author a fix? If the one that I put on the |
| 11 | table is not sufficient. |
| 12 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: Well, the question is |
| 13 | if it's verbatim from the speaker, do we have a |
| 14 | problem? |
| 15 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Well, if it's a quote, |
| 16 | then it should remain as is, in my view. I didn't |
| 17 | believe that this was I thought that this was a |
| 18 | summary. |
| 19 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: I hope so. |
| 20 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: What you're really |
| 21 | saying there is that eliminating the option of a |

| 3 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: I have a quick |
| 4 | question. Are these summaries reviewed by the |

| 6 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: They used to be, |
| 7 | always. |
| 8 | STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: The summaries are |
| 9 | not, typically reviewed. |
| 10 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Well, they really |

| 12 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: I thought they were. I |
| 13 | always thought they were. |
| 14 | STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: The transcript is |
| 15 | reviewed. |
| 16 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: The transcript is |
| 17 | reviewed, but just out of curiosity, because my |
| 18 | assumption had always been that they were reviewed by |
| 19 | the panel. |
| 20 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: In fact, I remember |
| 21 | asking one panelist on one item whether he or she had |
| 22 | reviewed their summary, and they said they had and |
| 23 | offered corrections. And so I presumed that that is |
| 24 | how it has followed since then. |
| 25 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: I have no |

| | 102 |
|----|---|
| 1 | recollection of seeing a summary when I testified |
| 2 | here. |
| 3 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: That raises another |
| 4 | question that I'm just sort of curious about, which |
| 5 | is, have any panelists ever after we've published a |
| 6 | report complained about the way their testimony was |
| 7 | described? |
| 8 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: Yes. |
| 9 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: And I've certainly |
| 10 | seen summaries that I've thought, "gee, I assume this |
| 11 | person has the opportunity to alter this summary, |
| 12 | because it certainly doesn't do the person justice." |
| 13 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: But I was under the |
| 14 | impression that the summary was sent as well. The one |
| 15 | person I remember talking to, because I said, does |
| 16 | this summary summarize what you said, and she said, |
| 17 | "Yes, it did okay. I sent in a few suggestions." |
| 18 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: I have to say I'm |
| 19 | surprised, because I'm not sure why I assumed that |
| 20 | they were, but I did assume that they were. And I |
| 21 | know if I were a panelist and my testimony was being |
| 22 | summarized and I didn't have a chance to eyeball it, |
| 23 | that would greatly concern me. |
| 24 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Yes, I agree with |
| 25 | that. |
| | NEAL R. GROSS COURT REPORTERS AND TIRANSCRIBERS 1323 RHODE ISLAND AVE., N.W. (202) 234-4433 WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701 (202) 234-4433 |

| | 103 |
|----|---|
| 1 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay, so as a change in |
| 2 | procedure, I believe we have consensus that summaries |
| 3 | of testimony will be shipped along with. |
| 4 | STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: Well, this raises |
| 5 | a broader question which the Commissioner informally |
| 6 | raised with me that I think probably is worth |
| 7 | considering and I'm not sure whether this is the right |
| 8 | time or not, which is the question as to whether it is |
| 9 | sufficiently valuable for us to provide summaries of |
| 10 | the testimony at all and when it was first raised to |
| 11 | me I was a little surprised but it does occur to me |
| 12 | that there are certainly arguments on both ends of it. |
| 13 | On the one I'm sorry. |
| 14 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: Well, of course, |
| 15 | we it seems to me a no-brainer that we would |
| 16 | summarize the testimony because nobody is going to |
| 17 | wade through the actual transcript, let's be |
| 18 | realistic. |
| 19 | STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: Well, I don't |
| 20 | thing it's |
| 21 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: And |
| 22 | STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: The reason that I |
| 23 | think it's a no-brainer is that we print the written |
| 24 | statement itself. |
| 25 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Which I think would |
| | NEAL R. GROSS COURT REPORTERS AND TIRANSCRIBERS 1323 RHODE ISLAND AVE., N.W. (202) 234-4433 WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701 (202) 234-4433 |

|----|--|
| 1 | tend to be better than the |
| 2 | STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: So the question is |
| 3 | whether it is unnecessarily redundant to provide both |
| 4 | the written statement and also a summary of the oral |
| 5 | statement. Now |
| 6 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: Right, but what it |
| 7 | does is it distracts the causeway between the |
| 8 | Commissioners and the Presenter. |
| 9 | STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: Well, that's a |
| 10 | separate question. The question is not whether we |
| 11 | should eliminate the summary of the dialogue that |
| 12 | ensues after the oral statements. The question is |
| 13 | whether we need to provide both a summary of the |
| 14 | witness' oral statement, plus a verbatim of the |
| 15 | written statement. |
| 16 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Especially when you |
| 17 | consider the witnesses are basically summarizing their |
| 18 | written statement anyway, so then you get a summary of |
| 19 | a summary. And it seems to me it's a lot of work for |
| 20 | nothing and |
| 21 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: Yeah, I agree. |
| 22 | Yeah, can't we just do the written statement and then |
| 23 | have a summary of |

| 5 | STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: I think we can. |
| 6 | Now, just for the purpose of hearing the pros and cons |
| 7 | out there, are some witnesses who do give very |
| 8 | different oral than written statements. |
| 9 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Yeah. |
| 10 | STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: And to the extent |
| 11 | that that ever happens, the dialogue with the |
| 12 | Commissioners can be based on the oral as opposed to |
| 13 | the written. |
| 14 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Yeah. |
| 15 | STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: There are some |
| 16 | times when the summary of the oral does make a |
| 17 | difference. On the other hand, that's seems to be a |
| 18 | rarity. |
| 19 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: And we've got the |

| 22 | STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: It seems to be a |

| 5 | STAFF DIRECTOR MARCUS: Do we want a |

| 7 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: But just to be clear, |
| 8 | we want to start that with this document as opposed to |
| 9 | that rule becoming effective with the next document. |
| 10 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: You know, I think |
| 11 | if we can, on a very short leash, people should be |
| 12 | able to look at what is being said about what they |
| 13 | testified. |
| 14 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Mr. Yaki? |
| 15 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: If I may add a fact I |
| 16 | was going to bring up at the next section, but which |
| 17 | may have some impact on whether we apply it to this or |
| 18 | not; the report does not indicate, at least it does |
| 19 | not seem to indicate nor does it include the fact that |
| 20 | the discussions about the panel testing that the |
| 21 | census was going to be doing, they talk about it in an |
| 22 | April 2006 oh, my God it was that long ago and |
| 23 | but they completed them and they had results and |
| 24 | they've been peer reviewed and gone through a number |
| 25 | of different steps to the point where the census has |

abandoned some of the statements that it was -- some of the possible conclusions it was making with regard to its testimony.

4 To be specific, on the proposed contract on race and Hispanic origin, some of the panel's panel 5 tested showed quite significant drops in responses for 6 7 Hispanic, Asian, Native Hawaiian and the Pacific 8 Islander groups such that the three question format 9 test that they were looking at that was eluded to in the testimony and shown in one of the slides was 10 11 deemed untenable at this point in time by the Census Bureau and I think that's something that probably 12 13 should be incorporated in the analysis if we're going to because it's otherwise we're really having a very 14 15 stale report. 16

COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: I agree with that. CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay, I think that the vote should be tabled. Is there a second?

COMMISSIONER YAKI: Second.

20 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay, and the idea is 21 that the document will be revised to incorporate the 22 changes that we discussed and in addition to update 23 the report to see if the statements and conclusions 24 reached at the briefing are still supported by the 25 panelists.

| 10 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Apparently I was |

VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: We're already too 1 2 late to effect the next census, so you know, you're right. 3 4 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: And there is an agreement that the documents should be circulated also 5 6 to the panelists so they can --7 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Yes, yes. | 9 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: That's correct. |
| 10 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Okay. |

| 19 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: I think that needs to |

| 21 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: I mean, the |

| 1 | the policy implications of that |
| 2 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: The policy |
| 3 | implications are for the distribution of government |
| 4 | programs and benefits. I mean, it's for gathering |
| 5 | data on all sorts of things that are relevant to |
| 6 | government programs. To say that it's to serve a |
| 7 | secondary purpose is to diminish the importance of |
| 8 | what these numbers mean to the Federal Government |
| 9 | because every agency in the Federal Government relies |
| 10 | heavily on the Census Bureau numbers for any number or |
| 11 | variety of its programs and I think that you know |
| 12 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: I also object to the |
| 13 | whole concept of that finding. I don't care what the |
| 14 | Census Bureau officials view this as, you know. Why |
| 15 | are we having a finding of what their view of it is? |
| 16 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: But also, I mean, |
| 17 | the public policy implications are secondary. The |
| 18 | first point of the census is to create a portrait of |
| 19 | changing America. |
| 20 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: You know, I don't |

| 7 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Yeah, but |
| 8 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: There are |
| 9 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: They want to be able |
| 10 | to know how many electoral votes and how many |
| 11 | congressional districts. |
| 12 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: But whatever. The |
| 13 | first statement to make is the point of the census is |
| 14 | to draw a portrait of America. |
| 15 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: No, that sounds like |
| 16 | it's sort of artistic. |
| 17 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: No. |
| 18 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: I'd like to know how |

| 20 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: I don't know if it's |

118 of discrimination." 1 2 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Wait, let's go back 3 here. 4 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Yeah, wait a minute. 5 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: I'm still upset 6 7 about the portrait thing. I would not be willing to 8 say something that the purpose of the census -- I'm 9 willing to say the census is a portrait, but I'm not going to tout, going to vote in favor of something 10 11 that says the purpose of it is. VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Well, it's in the 12 13 Constitution. 14 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: It's in the 15 Constitution in order to determine how many --16 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Okay, but it had a 17 secondary -- it has had a secondary --18 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: It's not our job to make a statement like that. It's just -- it's a 19 20 statement that's unnecessarily tendentious. Just say 21 it is a portrait. COMMISSIONER YAKI: Well, to the extent 22 23 that, you know, your recommendations that say the 24 Census Bureau shouldn't be in the business of 25 gathering racial statistics whatsoever, not saying NEAL R. | 1 | that you would do that but someone one of our |

| 3 | we think the Census Bureau should or should not be |
| 4 | doing in terms of how it gathers data, what it what |
| 5 | data it gathers and what it's used for. So |
| 6 | COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: It's lost by |
| 7 | adopting Commissioner Heriot's approach by saying |
| 8 | that's what it's used for, one of the things that it's |
| 9 | used for. |
| 10 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: I just asked what it |
| 11 | is. It's a portrait. It's also some other things but |
| 12 | it's far to say it is a portrait. It's the same |
| 13 | purpose, then you have to ask whose purpose. |
| 14 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Is there something |
| 15 | with that approach that |
| 16 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: No, I have no |
| 17 | objection to saying that the census as originally |
| 18 | conceived was a method of apportioning electors. |
| 19 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: We don't need to say |
| 20 | that. We don't need to say that. We don't need to |
| 21 | say that. |
| 22 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: I think we need to say |

| 2 | round we will have |
| 3 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: Amber waves of grain. |
| 4 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: We will try to reduce |
| 5 | this agreement to writing. Okay. |
| 6 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: But wait a minute, |
| 7 | before can we talk about what's here and then you |
| 8 | add your two |
| 10 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: additional |
| 11 | findings? So I've got a problem with the the |
| 12 | second bullet point here, "The 14^{th} Amendment mandated |
| 13 | the counting of the" |
| 14 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Wait, have we gotten |
| 15 | that far down yet? |
| 16 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Yeah. |
| 17 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Okay. |
| 18 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: We lost somebody. |
| 19 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Are you still here? |
| 20 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: Here. |
| 21 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Melendez? |
| 22 | COMMISSIONER MELENDEZ: Here. |
| 23 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Oh, okay. It must |
| 24 | have been Derek? |
| 25 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Derek? |

| 1 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Okay, so we're on |
| 2 | Number 3? |
| 3 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Yeah, "The treatment |
| 4 | of race in the census has evolved over its" |
| 5 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Okay. Number 1 is a |
| 6 | false statement. It is not true that the 1790 census |
| 7 | recognized three racial categories; White, Black and |
| 8 | Indian. It only recognized White. There was free |
| 9 | Whites. There were free non-Whites and there were |
| 10 | slaves. And there's nothing about the racial |
| 11 | composition of any category except for free Whites. |
| 12 | So I would just delete it. Who cares what the 1790 |
| 13 | census did? |
| 14 | Or you could say the 1790 census |
| 15 | recognized the category of free Whites, the category |
| 16 | of non-free Whites and the category of slaves. |
| 17 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Well, since we do |
| 18 | have we do have some historical statements in |
| 19 | bullet points |
| 20 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: This is a matter of |
| 21 | evolution, so start from the beginning. |
| 22 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Yeah, just so we |
| 23 | have a correct version of the 1790. |
| 24 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Yeah. |
| 25 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: Do we believe in |
| | NEAL R. GROSSCOURT REPORTERS AND TIRANSCRIBERS1323 RHODE ISLAND AVE., N.W.(202) 234-4433WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701(202) 234-4433 |

evolution here? 1 2 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: That's good. Okay, Commissioner Heriot, what's your --3 4 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: What's my fix? CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Yeah. 5 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: In 1790, the census 6 7 divided the population into the category of free 8 Whites -- that can't be right -- free White persons, 9 free non-White persons and slaves. And you can add, I think, if you want it, that the category of free 10 11 non-White persons would have included free Blacks and free Indians who paid taxes but not Indians who did 12 13 not pay taxes. 14 COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: I don't think 15 that's necessary. CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Any objection to that 16 The next bullet point reads, "The 14th 17 fix? Okay. 18 Amendment mandated the counting of, quote `the whole 19 number of persons', close quote. This change resulted 20 in making the census a true count of every person". Vice Chair Thernstrom? 21 22 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Well, to begin 23 with the change itself doesn't make any sense. It's a 24 true count of every person, not quite. It excluded 25 the Indians not taxed. But in the second place, what NEAL R. GROSS COURT REPORTERS AND TIRANSCRIBERS 1323 RHODE ISLAND AVE., N.W. |----|---|
| 1 | is this, "The $14^{ m th}$ Amendment mandated the counting of |
| 2 | the whole number of persons"? I mean, what the $14^{	ext{th}}$ |
| 3 | Amendment says is all persons born and naturalized in |
| 4 | the United States and subject to the jurisdiction |
| 5 | thereof, of citizens of the United States and of the |
| 6 | State wherein they reside". I just don't know where |
| 7 | that comes from, that |
| 8 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: Yeah, I have a |
| 9 | problem with that as well. It doesn't seem to be |
| 10 | precise. |
| 11 | COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: Wasn't there a |
| 12 | I'm trying to remember. There was a Supreme Court |
| 13 | case that I think is an extrapolation of that. |
| 14 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: Yeah. |
| 15 | COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: I think that's |
| 16 | where the court I remember this from constitutional |
| 17 | law 30 years ago but it will come to me. |
| 18 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: It wasn't the 14 th |
| 19 | Amendment in any I didn't know that case, but it |
| 20 | wasn't the 14 th Amendment that made any difference. |
| 21 | The three-fifths clause was null and void by the $13^{	ext{th}}$ |
| 22 | Amendment and so it's the 13^{th} Amendment that really |
| 23 | made a difference. |
| 24 | COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: Well, actually, |
| 25 | it's the Supreme Court interpreting the $14^{	ext{th}}$ Amendment. |
| | NEAL R. GROSSCOURT REPORTERS AND TIRANSCRIBERS1323 RHODE ISLAND AVE., N.W.(202) 234-4433WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701(202) 234-4433 |

| | 125 |
|----|---|
| 1 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Okay, but it is |
| 2 | the 13 th Amendment abolishing the three-fifths clause |
| 3 | in effect that changed the counting of Americans, not |
| 4 | the 14^{th} . I mean, the abolition of slavery and |
| 5 | therefore, the three-fifths |
| 6 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: Why don't we just send |
| 7 | this section back to be rewritten? |
| 8 | COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: Yeah, I think so, |
| 9 | it needs to be because I'm I don't know that that's |
| 10 | historically accurate and so we're going to have to be |
| 11 | more precise about this. |
| 12 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Which part? I |
| 13 | mean, is the once you get rid of the |
| 14 | COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: Whether it's the |
| 15 | 14^{th} Amendment or the 13^{th} Amendment, I think the whole |
| 16 | counting of persons is taken from and I wish I |
| 17 | could remember the name of the case. It was an 1890's |
| 18 | or something Supreme Court case. |
| 19 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Okay, look once |
| 20 | you abolish slavery, then former slaves become whole |
| 21 | persons. |
| 22 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: No, the census |
| 23 | always counted slaves as whole persons. It's the |
| 24 | for tabulating how many congressional districts you |
| 25 | get. So it's wasn't the |
| | NEAL R. GROSSCOURT REPORTERS AND TIRANSCRIBERS1323 RHODE ISLAND AVE., N.W.(202) 234-4433WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701(202) 234-4433 |

| 1 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Okay, okay, yeah, |
| 2 | yeah, you're right, you're right, you're right. |
| 3 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: So in that sense, |
| 4 | this is false. |
| 5 | COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: And that's what |
| 6 | needs to go back to be written. |
| 7 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay, so is everyone |
| 8 | comfortable with |
| 9 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: With that rewrite? |
| 10 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Yeah, permitting staff |
| 11 | to go over this, rub it, revise it, circulate it? |
| 12 | Hearing no objections. Okay, Number 4, "Prior to |
| 13 | implementing any change in its census forms, the |
| 14 | Census Bureau evaluates the proposed change and" |
| 15 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: We have another |
| 16 | bullet point. |
| 17 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Oh, I thought we were |
| 18 | sending this whole |
| 19 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Yeah, but the |
| 20 | problem is not on the they can fix it. I just have |
| 21 | a minor quibble with the third one, that 1890 in terms |
| 22 | of verb tense. "By 1890 several new race |
| 23 | classifications" |
| 24 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Had emerged. |
| 25 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: "had emerged", |
| | NEAL R. GROSS COURT REPORTERS AND TIRANSCRIBERS 1323 RHODE ISLAND AVE., N.W. (202) 234-4433 WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701 (202) 234-4433 |

| 1 | because in fact, they didn't occur in 1890. They |
| 2 | occurred earlier than that. |
| 3 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Right. |
| 4 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Because of the |
| 5 | Chinese. |
| 6 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. Anything else |
| 7 | with that bullet? |
| 8 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: You say the Chinese |
| 9 | race emerged about what? |
| 10 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: (Inaudible) |
| 11 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: About 100,000 years. |
| 12 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: And I don't know |
| 13 | why century and 20^{th} century is century is |
| 14 | capitalized, it shouldn't be. |
| 15 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Jennifer, Commissioner |
| 16 | Braceras, were you about to make a comment? |
| 17 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: I was just |
| 18 | commenting on the tense used had emerged. |
| 19 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: It's had emerged, |
| 20 | by 1890 had emerged. |
| 21 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Because they added |

| 8 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Had been adopted, |
| 9 | had been adopted. |
| 10 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: Right. |
| 11 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: Yes, adopted. I |
| 12 | frequently have this problem with some of the writing |
| 13 | in our reports is that inanimate objects and |
| 14 | categories and things are constantly being described |
| 15 | as |
| 16 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: As doing stuff. |
| 17 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: As doing things, |
| 18 | and I just and are we going to be mindful of that? |
| 19 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Right, yeah, you're |
| 20 | probably right. |
| 21 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay, next bullet, |
| 22 | "Throughout the 20 th century, racial" |
| 23 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Have been created, |

| 13 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: That's fine. |

| 17 | performing a comprehensive" |
| 18 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Why do we need |
| 19 | census forms, Census Bureau? "Any change in its forms |
| 20 | the Census Bureau evaluates". We don't need census |

| 22 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. "The Census |

| 8 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Other comments for |
| 9 | Number 4? Number 5, "The census began including a |

| 15 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: 15. |
| 16 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: It's a little low on |
| 17 | that and there's no space between budget and OMB and |
| 18 | there needs to be. |
| 19 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: "That directive has |
| 20 | been criticized as misleading on the grounds that it; |
| 21 | A, creates one amorphous non-Hispanic group that, in |

| 1 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Go on, Jennifer, |
| 2 | you were about to say something. |
| 3 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: Well, I agree that |
| 4 | it has been criticized from both those perspectives. |
| 5 | I'm not sure that gives a complete picture of the |
| 6 | various critiques of that category and my other |
| 7 | problem with that finding of fact is that it doesn't - |
| 8 | - it has the it has the critiques about noting that |
| 9 | there are people who think it's fine the way it is. |
| 10 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: Well, without noting |
| 11 | the reasons why people think it's fine the way it is. |
| 12 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: Say it again. |
| 13 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: Without noting the |
| 14 | reasons why people think it's fine the way it is, |
| 15 | because this thoroughly says others have been |
| 16 | supportive. |
| 17 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: Exactly. |
| 18 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: Yeah. |
| 19 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: It says they have |
| 20 | been supportive, but yeah, what does that mean? |
| 21 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: And would you say |
| 22 | the hundreds of ethnicities, comprises hundreds of |
| 23 | ethnicities is correct? I mean, I would prefer to |
| 24 | have something, many ethnicities. I think hundreds |
| 25 | we're we probably can't count hundreds. |
| | NEAL R. GROSSCOURT REPORTERS AND TIRANSCRIBERS1323 RHODE ISLAND AVE., N.W.(202) 234-4433WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701(202) 234-4433 |

| 3 | it's hundred non-Hispanics. |
| 4 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Oh, I see, I see. |
| 5 | Yes, okay. Sorry about that. |
| 6 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: It's been |
| 7 | criticized as misleading on two grounds. |
| 8 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Yeah, yeah, I'm |
| 9 | misreading it as Hispanics comprise hundreds but yeah, |
| 10 | okay, sorry. |
| 11 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: Well, in any |
| 12 | event, I tried to articulate this before but I'm a |
| 13 | little uncomfortable with the whole approach that this |
| 14 | report takes towards Hispanics, both in the findings |
| 15 | of fact and in the recommendations. I think it's |
| 16 | extremely complicated. I don't think that the |
| 17 | briefing focused specifically on that issue but to the |
| 18 | extent we're going to talk about it, our discussion of |
| 19 | it is, I would say, inadequate at best. |
| 20 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: I would agree with |
| 21 | Jennifer. As I saw how much of this was starting to |
| 22 | focus on that, I realized we had very little actual |
| 23 | discussion about this at the briefing itself. |
| 24 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Well, Jennifer, it |
| 25 | certainly is a huge issue for those who think about |
| | NEAL R. GROSSCOURT REPORTERS AND TIRANSCRIBERS1323 RHODE ISLAND AVE., N.W.(202) 234-4433WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701(202) 234-4433 |

1 the accuracy and the utility of the census, that 2 you've got these two -- only two ethnic groups, 3 Hispanic and non-Hispanic.

4 COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: That's fine and right, I agree with you, that is an issue. 5 But I mean, I don't even know where to start with this, 6 7 because I think it is so complex. I think it is so 8 complex the way we categorize Hispanics in this 9 country and I think, you know, to the extent that the census is, as you said before, what did you call it, 10 11 paints a picture?

12 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Portrait of 13 America.

14 COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: A portrait of 15 America, I think it's important to include Hispanics in that portrait in the original version of this 16 17 report which I think -- well, the original version of 18 this report recommended including Hispanic as а 19 discrete category, Black, White and Hispanic. This 20 version of the report has gone a completely opposite 21 direction and recommended basically not categorizing 22 Hispanics at all and asking some more of this open-23 ended question where some people would put, for example, Puerto Rican, other people would put Latino, 24 25 others would put Hispanic, others would put Spanish

| 2 | In fact, they could all be members of the |

| 4 | we've received have made completely opposite |
| 5 | recommendations. And neither of those |
| 6 | recommendations, in my view, are necessarily good ones |
| 7 | and certainly they would need to be brushed out and |

| 14 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: And why is that, just |

| 16 | of them. |
| 17 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: For which, where |
| 18 | do you want me to start? |
| 19 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: I guess let's just |

Different people from the same family could use different words to describe themselves and 5 mean the exact same thing and therefore, it would be 6 7 less accurate and more confusing than what we have 8 right? 13 However, I do believe you need to give people some choices because we do have a socially 14 15 constructed society and if you don't give people some defined choices, the answers will be so far all over 16 the map as to be useless in terms of quantifying data 17 18 and looking at patterns and trends. It will become So while I have no objection to allowing 19 useless. 20 people put other and describe if they feel that the 21 categories given to them are insufficient, or allow people to check more than one category to reflect the 22 23 fact that, you know, many of us in this country are of mixed race and we don't want people to have to choose 24 25 another, Ι understand all one race over those

| 2 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Well, but the |
| 3 | point is to get away from these get away entirely |
| 4 | from racial categories and go to ancestor categories |
| 5 | instead of perpetuating |
| 6 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: But that's a |
| 7 | different (inaudible) and I'm not sure that we agree |
| 8 | on that 100 percent, but if we're going to go strictly |
| 9 | to ethnic categories |
| 10 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: No, ancestor |
| 11 | categories. |
| 12 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: Fine, if we're |
| 13 | going to go to ancestor categories, there still needs |
| 14 | to be categories. In other words, what is your |
| 15 | ancestry open-ended with no choices is not accessible |
| 16 | because of the wildly diversion answers you're going |
| 17 | to get from people who mean the exact same thing. |
| 18 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: And instead we |
| 19 | stuff people into boxes that are very questionable. |
| 20 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: Yes. |
| 21 | CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay, okay. |
| 22 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: No, this is about |

| 1 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: No, but just let |
| 2 | me finish. I've talked about this before. All |
| 3 | categories are artificial. Some people will argue |
| 4 | that gender is a background and not a category. |
| 5 | Should we start putting on the census, what's your |
| 6 | gender and let people choose their points on the |
| 7 | spectrum. No, we ask people to fit themselves into a |
| 8 | category. Now |
| 9 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: It is meaningful |
| 10 | to know that somebody is Puerto Rican and not Cuban. |
| 11 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: That's fine. |
| 12 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: It is meaningful |
| 13 | to know somebody is Jamaican and not West African. |
| 14 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: Yes, I think where |
| 15 | we disagree is that I agree with you that a greater |
| 16 | level of specificity is good. I agree with that. |
| 17 | Where I disagree with you is allowing it to be open- |
| 18 | ended and not having consistency in the way in the |
| 19 | kinds of usage. We need to give people choices but we |
| 20 | also need to give them an opportunity to say, "I don't |
| 21 | fit any of the choices you've given me, here's what I |
| 22 | call myself", that's fine. But we can't just say, |
| 23 | "What are you", and leave it open. |

| 1 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: I mean, I agree with |
| 2 | Commissioner Braceras 100 percent and I think I'm |
| 3 | as the only Asian American member of the Commission, |
| 4 | for the Asian American community, the desire to have |
| 5 | more boxes on the census has been actually a struggle |
| 6 | for the past 30 years. It's not that we want to be |
| 7 | forced into a box, it's the fact that no one |
| 8 | recognizes that there actually for years that Asian |
| 9 | is not this monolithic category with specific and very |
| 10 | unique cultural and racial backgrounds and cultures. |
| 11 | I would say that like Jennifer, if you |
| 12 | would ask any of my family that my sister's family who |
| 13 | lives in Hawaii, she is, as I am, one-half Chinese, |
| 14 | 3/8 Japanese and possibly 1/8 Hawaiian. She married |
| 15 | someone who is full blood Chinese, but then if you ask |
| 16 | her kids what they identify themselves as in some |
| 17 | open-ended question, you're going to get three |
| 18 | different answers from her kids and I know that |
| 19 | because I kind of asked them one time what they were. |
| 20 | They're Hawaiians. |
| 21 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: That's an |
| 22 | incorrect response though. |
| 23 | COMMISSIONER YAKI: Well, I'll tell you |
| 24 | why it would become an incorrect response, when you |
| 25 | look, for example, at and this is why ultimately it |

1 2 different from the Hispanic community. For the Asian community when you look at the distinct differences in 3 education, in income, poverty levels, views in the 4 country, et cetera, there are vast differences between 5 the different nationalities of Asian immigrants who 6 7 have come to this country.

When you then get into even more discrete 8 9 categories, say Native Hawaiians where programs, the Hawaiian Homelands Commission, other programs run by 10 11 the Federal Government, the potential for what we call and have called for years the undercount in answers of 12 13 categories, has enormous impact on how programs are to be treated and administered for these different races. 14 15 And I think that it just -- I hold with Jennifer which 16 is if at some point someone wants to put other and I remember for the 1970 census, I put other, because 17 18 they did not have -- I said, I am Chinese, I'm 19 Japanese, I'm Hawaiian. I am not one category.

20 I probably screwed up my statistics, but 21 now I realize that I probably shouldn't have done that but instead we advocated through `80 and through `90 22 23 for putting more boxes and being able to do multiple different 24 checks in the boxes people could SO 25 understand where people come from.

COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: I think where we 1 2 all it Commissioner agree, seems to me where Thernstrom and Yaki and I all agree is it's our desire 3 4 to be more precise and more specific and more accurate but that doesn't mean disregarding culturally accepted 5 Right? Because the fact of the matter 6 categories. 7 is, you know, you can say that being Asian is a false construct or that Hispanic is a false construct but 8 9 certain cultural similarities there are amongst Hispanic groups as there are cultural differences, and 10 11 it's important to understand both the similarities and the differences and not to look fully at one or the 12 13 other. 14 So to lump everybody together as Hispanic 15 is incomplete but to ignore the fact that people from 16 the Dominican Republic and Cuba and Puerto Rico and 17 Mexico might have shared political interests or shared 18 cultural patterns or other things like that, would also be to lose sight of half the picture. 19 20 COMMISSIONER YAKI: And Jennifer, just for 21 you to know, that the Census Bureau when it started testing the more -- the less boxing questions versus 22 23 the control question, finds that the deviation between

24 the control group, more boxes and the new group, less 25 boxes, more open-ended, that the accuracy of the count

1 dropped significantly to the point where there was a 2 10-point deviation in the uncontrolled group and then 3 20 points in another. It's --

4 COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: Of course there 5 were and you want to know what, you want to know how many people just put American, gazillions, and maybe 6 7 that's something to watch because frankly, the concern really among some conservatives, myself partially 8 9 it's not this portion of America, included, the concern is what's done with the data, what's done with 10 11 the boxes. You know, whether certain groups are given privileges in society that other groups are not given 12 13 on the basis of these social constructs. That's the 14 real concern, and one that I, you know, in some 15 measures share.

But let's address the real concern because I want to have an accurate demographic picture of this country. I want to have a rich and fully fleshed out demographic picture of this country and you know, what politicians do with that information is not really my problem right now in terms of this report. That's a topic for another day.

23 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: But Jennifer, 24 that's one real concern, but the second real concern 25 would articulate is public that Ι that policy,

| 1 | including census categorizations, deliver messages. |
| 2 | These umbrella categories tell people how to think of |
| 3 | themselves. They tell American citizens how to think |
| 4 | of the demographic fabric of America and in my view, |
| 5 | they perpetuate unfortunate stay to the goal |
| 6 | categories. |
| 7 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: I don't think so |
| 8 | at all, because do you know what, if people do not |
| 9 | view themselves in ethnic terms, they're not going to |
| 10 | check those boxes. |
| 11 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: They are |
| 12 | encouraged to think of themselves within boxes. Those |
| 13 | boxes |
| 14 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: Well, do you know, |
| 15 | I guess that's where I part company with most |
| 16 | conservatives because what I say to that is, so what? |
| 17 | What's wrong with that? What's wrong with you |
| 18 | know, what's wrong with my kids thinking of themselves |
| 19 | as ethnically Hispanic? |
| 20 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: But that is not |
| 21 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: What's wrong with |

| 1 | first identity they choose for themselves, that's |

| 9 | Mexican if that's what they are? |
| 10 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: So much |
| 11 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: You should be able |
| 12 | to I agree with you that people shouldn't be forced |
| 13 | into boxes in the sense that they shouldn't be forced |
| 14 | to choose one portion of their identify over another |
| 15 | and so if they are mixed race, they should be able to |
| 16 | check all aspects of their identity. But that doesn't |
| 17 | mean no aspects of their identity. |
| 18 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: No, but we're |
| 19 | perpetuating to me these boxes are most |
| 20 | unfortunate. We're perpetuating this is a much |
| 21 | longer conversation than I can have and other people |
| 22 | have their hands raised. |

we're having this long conversation about a report 1 that's 16 months old and data that's stale that I'm 2 going to say this with all seriousness, which is, is 3 4 this a report at this point in time worth the Commission's time and effort to salvage or we have 5 6 other reports in the hopper that we need to go 7 through, we have other priorities that need to get 8 done and why should we be wasting our new fiscal year 9 on trying to fix what looks like a pretty bad tire on the car. Maybe we should just buy a new tire and get 10 11 a move on. COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: The bottom line is 12 13 I'll be gone in two months and you won't have to worry But to the extent that this is going 14 about my vote. 15 to be decided before I leave, I will tell you now that 16 I will never vote to support a report that -- hello? 17 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Yeah, we're listening 18 with baited breath, Jennifer. 19 COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: Sorry, I heard a click. 20 21 (Laughter) COMMISSIONER YAKI: 22 No, that was Jerry 23 tapping on the gavel. 24 COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: I will never vote 25 to support a report that either moves Hispanic into NEAL R. | 4 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: They can check |

| 10 | VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: But they're free |
| 11 | to check more than one box. |
| 12 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: I will never |

| 14 | will also never support a report that seeks to |
| 15 | eliminate racial categories. We had this discussion |
| 16 | when we talked years ago, when we had a briefing on |

| 18 | get some non-controversial issues that's something |
| 19 | that we can reach a consensus on. |
| 20 | COMMISSIONER HERIOT: I think step one, we |
| 21 | all kind of try to create bullet point recommendations |

| 5 | to be carried by individual commissioner statements. |
| 6 | COMMISSIONER BRACERAS: Yeah, that's fine. |
| 7 | I mean, just so you know where I'm coming from, I |
| 8 | think the problem with the current categorization is |
| 9 | that other ethnic groups do not have the opportunity |
| 10 | on that form of the census to write down the so |
| 11 | you're either all non-Hispanic or you're Hispanic. |
| 12 | That's my problem with it. |
| 13 | My problem is not at all with how the |
| 14 | Hispanic category is treated in terms of having an |
| 15 | opportunity to check it and check a race if you'd like |
| 16 | to do so. That's fine with me. So I don't want to |
| 17 | change how they treat Hispanic, other than maybe be |
| 18 | more specific and allow people to identify their |
| 19 | ancestry within Hispanic and to allow more ancestral |
| 20 | groups to be counted, but I do not want to change the |

154 else. 1 2 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Except involvement of Commissioners in -- yeah, we tabled that. Okay, 3 4 folks, it's been fun. 5 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Did we do agenda 6 items? 7 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: I'm afraid to open up 8 that door. 9 COMMISSIONER YAKI: One quick question. CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Yes. 10 11 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Any further -- well, 12 never mind. I'll say it off line. Let's go. 13 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: All right, folks, I'll 14 see you next month. 15 (Whereupon, at 12:39 p.m. the above-16 entitled matter concluded.) NEAL R.
