

President Bush on Protecting Surplus

“To make sure the retirement savings of America’s seniors are not diverted to any other program, my budget protects all $2.6 trillion of the Social Security surplus for Social Security and for Social Security alone.”

— President George W. Bush
Speech to Joint Session of Congress
February 27, 2001