

Feb 21st 1969

Pursuant to an order of the Senate I had the privilege of ^{presenting} Washington Farewell Address, wherein he expressed his pride and appreciation for the opportunity of serving his country as the first President.

Although his formality is apparent in his remarks, there is a sense of humility very much in evidence.

His profound words brought forth the confidence he had in the future of our nation to endure in freedom.

Paul Fannin
U.S. Senate, Arizona