

INSS Staff Biography

LTC Robert E.
Henstrand
Managing Editor

202-685-2263
henstrandr@ndu.edu

LTC Robert E. Henstrand is the Managing Editor of NDU Press.

LTC Henstrand is a Strategic Plans and Policy officer who, prior to joining INSS, served as a Strategist in HQ, Multi-National Force – Iraq from March 2006 to March 2007.

LTC Henstrand began his career as a Military Intelligence officer and served in various tactical, operational, strategic and joint assignments including ten years of overseas service. He has accumulated extensive experience working in joint and combined environments. His assignments include:

- Assistant Brigade S2, 4th Bde, 3ID in Giebelstadt, Germany (1988-89)
- Ground Surveillance Radar Platoon Leader and XO, B Co., 103d MI Bn in Wuerzburg, Germany (1989-1990)
- S2, 4-3 ADA Bn in Kitzingen, Germany, 1990-1991
- Asst Bde S3, 111th MI Bde at Ft. Huachuca 1992-1993
- Strategic Intelligence Analyst in C/J/G-2 Estimates Branch, Combined Forces Command, Seoul, Korea, 1994-1995
- Company Commander, HHC, 501st MI Bde 1995-1996
- Strategic Intelligence Watch Officer assigned to G2, HQDA with duty in the National Military Joint Intelligence Center, 996-1998
- Deputy Mission Crew Commander on the Joint Surveillance Target Attack Radar System (J-STARS) at Robins Air Force Base in Georgia 1999-2000
- Chief, Military Cooperation Branch, J-5, AFSOUTH in Naples, Italy, 2000-2001
- Operational Planner for Albania and Macedonia, J-5, AFSOUTH 2002-2003
- Division Chief, G-3/7, HQDA, 2004-2006
- Strategist, HQ, MNF-I in Baghdad, Iraq, 2006-2007

His awards and decorations include the Bronze Star, Defense Meritorious Service Medal, five Meritorious Service Medals, the Army Commendation Medal, Joint Service Achievement Medal, and the Army Achievement Medal.