CAPT Donald D. Mosser (USN, Ret) is the INSS Dean of Administration. An experienced Naval Aviator with significant operational experience across the spectrum of patrol aviation mission capabilities, he has operated in the Pacific, Indian Ocean, Atlantic, Caribbean, and Mediterranean theaters. His mission area expertise includes: anti-submarine and anti-surface warfare; counter-drug detection and monitoring operations; and surface surveillance, including over-land, electro-optical missions over the Former Yugoslavian Republics. Following his tour as Commanding Officer, Patrol Squadron TWENTY-SIX, CAPT Mosser served at the Defense Intelligence Agency as Chief of the HUMINT Collections, Requirements, and Reports branch. A distinguished graduate of the College of Command and Staff at Newport, Rhode Island, he holds masters degrees in General Management and National Security and Strategic Studies.
