Since 2004, Mr. Steven Goodwin has served as a Senior Policy Analyst for the National Strategic Gaming Center, developing political-military exercises for Members of Congress, U.S. and foreign military leaders, and NDU students.

From 1998 to 2004, Mr. Goodwin was Deputy Director of the Foreign Consequence Management Program at the Department of State, where he developed and implemented U.S. foreign policy on terrorism and managing the consequences of chemical, biological, and radiological/nuclear (CBRN) accidents and incidents. He led several interagency teams overseas, dealing with crises, including support for Operations Enduring Freedom and Iraqi Freedom. He has advised U.S. ambassadors, U.S. military commanders, and senior foreign officials on CBRN threats and response. From 1991 to 1998, Mr. Goodwin served as a Foreign Service Officer, in Syria, Turkey, Bosnia and in the Bureau of Political-Military Affairs in Washington, DC. Mr. Goodwin is the recipient of two Department of State Superior Honor and three Meritorious Honor Awards. Prior to joining the Foreign Service, he served four years in the U.S. Army with assignments in the 4th Infantry Division and the Southern European Task Force.

Mr. Goodwin received a BA in Liberal Arts in 1981, and an MBA in 1985, both from Arizona State University. He was a 1986 Honors Graduate at the U.S. Army Defense Language Institute. In 2004, he received a Master of Science degree in National Resourced Management from the Industrial College of the Armed Forces.
