

Internet Credit Card Module

On Monday, May 24, 2004, the U.S. Bankruptcy Court, Western District of Texas, will go live with the CM/ECF Internet Credit Card Module. This module allows Attorney filers to pay and track filing fees via the Internet to the U.S. Treasury. Using the Internet Credit Card module allows you to:

- Pay filing fees with your credit card over the Internet at any time.
- Review your Internet credit card transaction payment history to help reconcile monthly credit card statements.
- Review any outstanding payments due to the court.
- Avoid having to keep your credit card number on file at the Clerk's Office.

The Internet Credit Card Module is easy to use. You can learn how by viewing a short tutorial on the Court's Internet WEB site or just click

Try It Out In Training

You can also see how the Internet Credit Card Module works by using your training login and password to access the Court's CM/ECF Training Data Base and docketing a document with a filing fee, such as a motion for relief from stay. DO NOT enter your own credit card number! Use the VISA card number 411111111111 (four and fifteen one's); don't worry about the expiration date. You can access the training data base via the Court's Internet WEB site www.txwb.uscourts.gov ; and going into the User Training area. If you don't remember your training login and password, email David Williams at david\_h\_williams@txwb.uscourts.gov or tina\_warren@txwb.uscourts.gov and we'll get back to you as soon as we can!
