

Out-of-District Oaths

Attorneys who have been approved for admission to another district by oath and order may be sworn in at any Southern District divisional office.

Individuals should bring their out-of-district oath and order to the Clerk's office. They will be sworn in, and their paperwork will be forwarded to a District judge for signature. The signed order will be returned to the individual to forward to the admitting district.