Camps acceptance requirements

Religious greeting...

Mujahid brother,

Religious greeting...

The following is a set of requirements and regulations we ask you to follow in order to obtain the best results at our camps:

1. You have to be healthy and free of any disease that can impede your training.
2. Fill out all New Recruits forms with pertinent information prior to joining camp.
3. Abide by the specified training period of (.....days). (Basic training course is two full months).
4. During basic training you are not allowed to leave camp under any excuse (to call, to shop...etc.) unless it is an extreme case decided by management.
5. Abide by the rules of the camp (religious, military, administrative) without fail.
6. Abide with the regulations at every level. Listen to and obey what could be a pleasant or unpleasant order unless it is an order to sin.
7. Leave all your valuables upon arrival at the guest house (passport, personal identification, money...etc.)
8. Leave all forbidden items (tape recorder, radio, photo or video camera)
9. Do not buy or prepare food or drink while at the camp.
10. Be studious and show willingness to learn.
11. Failure to abide by the camps' rules and schedule will have you scolded or discharged.
12. The administration has the right to discharge you from training for any reason.
13. The guesthouse management or the camp is not obligated to pay any monies for travel or transportation.

Note: Bringing training requirements (Sports shoe, military uniform, pens and notebooks) needs to be considered.

Pledge

I the undersigned.....from.....declare my acceptance of the aforementioned rules and regulations; may God help me to abide by it.

I also declare that I am willing to be responsible for not obeying any rule and accordance to the camp's regulation.
God is my witness.

Notice: your signature denotes your acceptance of all the mentioned rules and regulations and obligates you to follow it or suffer the consequences. God be with you.
