Corps of Engineers to hold information meeting at Belton and Stillhouse Hollow Lakes

FORT WORTH, Texas - The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers at Belton and Stillhouse Hollow Lakes will hold an information exchange meeting at 3 p.m., Friday, July 1st, at the Corps office at Belton Lake, 3740 FM 1670.

The meeting will be used to present an update on both lakes, including information on the various recreation programs, recent facility upgrades, and current park planning projects. Other areas of discussion will include the Corps' water safety efforts and plans for the coming year. Visitors to the lake, local residents, and business representatives are invited to attend.

For more information, call the Corps' office at 254-939-2461.
