Connecticut Lawsuit Statement

Arlington, Virginia, 31 August, 2005-- A temporary restraining order has been issued by a federal district court judge in Connecticut in a case naming the BRAC Commission and enjoining it from issuing its recommendation concerning the Bradley Air National Guard Station located in Windsor Locks, Connecticut. The order enjoins the BRAC Commission from making its recommendation until the Court rules on a motion for a preliminary injunction that has been brought by the Governor of Connecticut at a hearing that has been scheduled for September 7, 2005, in Hartford CT.
