EXISTING PLANS TERMINATING THEIR HIGH DEDUCTIBLE HEALTH PLANS (HDHP) AND TERMINATING THEIR HDHP ENROLLMENT CODES

Enrollees in these enrollment codes who do not change health plans during Open Season will not have health benefits for 2009.

Enrollees who are active employees and want to continue enrollment in 2009 in a HDHP and receive or make additional contributions to the Health Savings Account (HSA), must change to another HDHP in the FEHB Program during Open Season. They need to contact their current 2008 HDHP HSA Fiduciary and the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) for any guidance and questions about their HSA, including tax considerations and penalties. If enrollees are interested in consolidating their HSA accounts, they also need to contact their upcoming 2009 HDHP HSA Fiduciary.

If enrollees do not want to continue in a HDHP, they must change to another health plan option during Open Season or they will not have health benefits for 2009. However, the enrollees must contact the HDHP HSA Fiduciary and IRS for any guidance and questions about the HSA concerning tax considerations and penalties.
