Keep in mind that the Internal Revenue Service conducts an overseas taxpayer assistance program during the tax-filing season (January through mid-June). To find out if IRS personnel will be in your area, please contact the Consular Section at the nearest United States Embassy or Consulate.

IMPORTANT CHANGES TO NOTE:

- If an ITIN is being requested for a minor dependent, one of the supporting documents to prove "foreign status" and "identity" must be a "Birth Certificate", unless a Passport is submitted.
- 2. If requesting an ITIN under an Exception, you must also include the sub-section alphabetic letter and explanation, to identify the category under which you are applying. (i.e. Exception 2(a) wages, Exception 2(b) scholarship income tax treaty benefits).
- 3. Exception 5 has been added for those individuals who are required to comply with Treasury Directive 9363.
- 4. If you are applying for an ITIN under Exception 1(b) or 1 (c) the only document that will prove that you have met the criteria is a signed letter from your Bank or Financial Institution. This letter must be attached to your Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Tax identification Number.

REMINDER:

Each ITIN applicant must:

- Apply using the most current Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number or Form W-7(SP), Solicitud de Número de Identificación Personal del Contribuyente del Servicio de Impuestos Internos. All subsequent notices and correspondence will be sent to you in the language of the original Form W-7/W-7(SP) that you submit to IRS.
- 2. All ITIN applications (including those submitted by Acceptance Agents) must have an original valid U.S. Federal income tax return attached to Form W-7. ITINs will no longer be assigned prior to the taxpayer filing a valid U.S. income tax return (Form 1040, 1040A, 1040EZ, 1040NR, 1040NR-EZ), to pay or claim withheld taxes unless an "exception" to the tax return filing requirement is met (see "Exceptions" later in this publication).
- 3. Supply original proof of identity and foreign status documents or notarized/certified copies there are only 13 acceptable documents (see the "Supporting Documentation Table" later in this Publication). While the IRS will accept "original" documents, it is suggested that you submit certified or notarized copies. If you will need your documentation for any purpose within 60 days of submitting your ITIN application, you may wish to apply in person at an IRS TAC office where your documents will be reviewed and returned to you immediately.

- 4. First apply for a Social Security Number (SSN) if entering the U.S. with a green card or visa that permits you to obtain employment in the U.S. If the Social Security Administration (SSA) will not issue a SSN, a letter of denial must be obtained and attached to your Form W-7. This requirement remains the same if you are requesting an ITIN under an "Exception", or attaching in a U.S. Federal Income Tax Return. Refer to "Exceptions" for additional information for students, researchers and professors and individuals receiving honoraria payments.
- 5. Submit All Powers of Attorney to the IRS in English. Any POA's received in a foreign language will be considered invalid, unless accompanied by a certified English translation.
- 6. If you are a guardian or other legally responsible person, requesting an ITIN for your minor dependent, submit documentation along with Form W-7 to prove your relationship to the applicant. These documents can include adoption papers or court appointment papers showing legal guardianship. The dependent must be listed on the U.S. Federal income tax return that is attached to your Form W-7.
- 7. Mail Form W-7/W-7(SP), proof of identity documents, and a United States individual income tax return to:

Internal Revenue Service ITIN Operation P.O. Box 149342 Austin, TX 78714-9342

If you are using a courier service and need to provide a street address, send your Form W-7 package to:

Internal Revenue Service Submission Processing Center ITIN Operation Mail Stop 6090-AUSC 3651 S. Interregional, Hwy 35 Austin, TX 78741-0000

CAUTION: If you are attaching your tax return to the Form W-7. do not use the mailing address in the instructions for your tax return. Do not send a "copy" of the return to any other IRS office.

You can apply for an ITIN by mail, at any IRS Taxpayer Assistance Center in the United States and at IRS offices abroad.

You can also apply through an Acceptance Agent. (see "What are Acceptance Agents?" later in this publication).

The IRS will send your ITIN in the form of an authorization letter. An ITIN does not change your immigration status or grant your right to work in the United States. An ITIN is for tax purposes only.

GENERAL INFORMATION

What is an ITIN?

An ITIN is a tax processing number, issued by the Internal Revenue Service, for certain resident and nonresident aliens, their spouses, and their dependents. It is a nine-digit number beginning with the number "9", has a range of numbers from "70" to "88" for the fourth and fifth digits and is formatted like a SSN (i.e. 9XX-7X-XXXX).

The ITIN is only available to individuals who are required to have a taxpaver identification number for tax purposes but who do not have, and are not eligible to obtain a SSN from the Social Security Administration (SSA), Only individuals who have a valid filing requirement or are filing a tax return to claim a refund of over-withheld tax are eligible to receive an ITIN. Generally a U.S. Federal income tax return must accompany the ITIN application, unless the individual meets one of the "exceptions." (See "Exceptions"). Caution: Applications for individuals who are requesting an ITIN as a spouse or a dependent of a primary taxpaver, must attach a valid U.S. Federal income tax return to the Form W-7.

ITINs are issued regardless of immigration status because both resident and nonresident aliens may have United States tax return filing and payment responsibilities under the Internal Revenue Code.

What is the purpose of an ITIN?

ITINs are used for tax purposes only, and are not intended to serve any other purpose. IRS issues ITINs to help individuals comply with the U.S. tax laws, and to provide a means to efficiently process and account for tax returns and payments for those not eligible for Social Security Numbers.

An ITIN:

- Does not authorize work in the U.S. or provide eligibility for Social Security Benefits or the Earned Income Tax Credit.
- Is not valid for identification outside of the tax system.
- 3. Does not establish immigration status.

An applicant must enter his/her ITIN in the space provided for the SSN when completing and filing a Federal income tax return (Form 1040, 1040A, 1040EZ, 1040NR, 1040NR-EZ).

NOTE: When applying for an ITIN for the purpose of filing a valid tax return, the applicant is required to file the tax return with the Form W-7/W-7(SP) application unless specifically meeting an exception to the tax return requirement. (See "Exceptions").

When did IRS start issuing ITINs and why?

In 1996, the U.S. Department of the Treasury issued regulations that introduced the ITIN, and required foreign persons to use an ITIN as their unique identification number on Federal tax returns (T.D. 8671, 1996-1 C.B.314). The regulations were intended to address the concern by the IRS and the U.S. Department of the Treasury that, without a unique number, taxpayers could not be identified effectively and tax returns could not be processed efficiently.

Are ITINs valid for identification?

ITINs are not valid for identification outside of the tax system and should not be offered as identification for non-tax purposes. Since ITINs are strictly for tax processing, the IRS does not apply the same standards as agencies that provide genuine identity certification. ITIN applicants are not required to apply in person.

How do I know if I need an ITIN?

If you do not have a Social Security Number (SSN) and are not eligible to obtain a SSN, but you are required to furnish a Federal tax identification number to file a U.S. tax return, be claimed as a spouse or dependent on a U.S. tax return or are required to furnish a tax identification number for any other Federal tax purpose, you must apply for an ITIN. An alien individual cannot have both an ITIN and a SSN.

If you are eligible for a SSN, you must first apply for one. Persons eligible to receive a Social Security Number are not eligible to receive an ITIN. Treasury regulations governing Internal Revenue Code Section 6109 require a valid taxpayer identification number for each person listed on the tax return. If the Social Security Administration denies the applicant's request for a SSN they will issue a letter of denial. That letter must be attached to the Form W-7 when it is submitted to the IRS.

NOTE: Although most applicants are required to file their tax return by attaching it to Form W-7/W-7(SP), there are exceptions to this requirement. (See "Exceptions").

Who Must Apply?

Any individual who is not eligible to obtain a SSN but who must furnish a taxpayer identification number to the IRS must apply for an ITIN on Form W-7/W-7(SP).

Do not complete Form W-7/W-7(SP) if you have a SSN or if you are eligible to obtain a SSN (i.e., A United States citizen or person lawfully admitted for employment).

Applicants must have a valid filing requirement and file an original valid U.S. Federal income tax return with their ITIN applications, unless they meet one of the exceptions listed later in this publication.

NOTE: "Exceptions" relate to the "tax return filing requirement only". They do not relate to the "tax purpose". Therefore, all individuals must have a "tax purpose" for requesting an ITIN, whether or not a U.S. Federal income tax return is submitted to the IRS with Form W-7.

To determine if you have a filing requirement, see Publication 17, "Your Federal Income Tax" or Publication 519. "A United States Tax Guide for Aliens".

Examples of who needs an ITIN:

- A nonresident alien individual eligible to obtain the benefit of a reduced tax withholding rate under an income tax treaty. See Pub. 515, "Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities".
- A nonresident alien individual not eligible for a SSN who is required to file a U.S. tax return or who is filing a U.S. tax return only to claim a refund.
- A nonresident alien individual not eligible for a SSN who elects to file a joint U.S. tax return with a spouse who is a U.S. citizen or resident.

- A U.S. resident alien (based on the substantial presence test) who files a U.S. tax return but who is not eligible for a SSN. For information about the substantial presence test, see Pub. 519, U.S. Tax Guide for Aliens.
- An alien spouse, claimed as an exemption on a U.S. tax return, who is not eligible to obtain a SSN.
- An alien individual eligible to be claimed as a dependent on a U.S. tax return but who is not eligible to obtain a SSN. To determine if an alien individual is eligible to be claimed as a dependent on a United States tax return, see Pub. 501, "Exemptions, Standard Deductions, and Filing Information", and Pub. 519. "A United States Tax Guide for Aliens".
- A nonresident alien student, professor, or researcher who is required to file a United States tax return but who is not eligible for a SSN.

If you have an application for a SSN pending, do not file Form W-7/W-7(SP). Complete Form W-7/W-7(SP) only when the SSA notifies you that a SSN cannot be issued. Proof that the SSA denied your request for a SSN must be included with your submission of Form W-7/W-7(SP), whether you are attaching your federal tax return or requesting an ITIN under one of the "Exceptions".

To request a SSN, use Form SS-5, "Application for a Social Security Card, (Original, Replacement or Correction)". This form can be obtained from the SSA or downloaded from the IRS web site at http://www.irs.gov. To find out if you are eligible to obtain a SSN, contact you're nearest SSA Office.

IMPORTANT NOTE: If you are filing for an extension of time to file a United States income tax return (Form 4868 or Form 2688) or making an estimated payment with Forms 4868, 2688, or Form 1040-ES/1040-ES (NR), "Estimated Tax for Individuals/Estimated Tax for Nonresident Aliens" do not file the Form W-7/W-7(SP) with these forms. Write "ITIN TO BE REQUESTED" wherever the ITIN or SSN is requested. An ITIN will be issued only after you have filed a valid income tax return and have met all other requirements.

How do I apply for an ITIN?

You must complete Form W-7/W-7(SP) and attach a valid U.S. Federal income tax return, unless you qualify for an exception. Include your original, notarized or certified proof of identity documents along with the "letter of denial" from the SSA (if applicable). Because you are filing your tax return as an attachment to your ITIN application, you should not mail your return to the address listed in the Form 1040, 1040A or 1040EZ instructions. Instead, send your return, Form W-7/W-7(SP) and proof of identity documents to the address listed in the Form W-7 instructions:

Internal Revenue Service ITIN Operation P.O. Box 149342 Austin, TX 78714-9342

You may also apply using the services of an IRS-authorized Acceptance Agent or visit an IRS Taxpayer Assistance Center (TAC) in lieu of your mailing the information to the IRS. TACs in the United States provide help with ITIN applications on a walk-in basis. TACs are available to:

- Assist taxpayers in the preparation of the Form W-7/ W-7(SP).
- Answer questions about Form W-7/W-7(SP).
- Review and/or validate your identity documents.
- Forward your Form W-7/W-7(SP), and accompanying tax return, if applicable, to the IRS processing service center.

For overseas assistance contact one of the overseas IRS offices listed in the front of this publication.

Telephone assistance is also available by calling the IRS toll-free number at 1-800-829-1040 (inside the United States) for information and help in completing your Form W-7/W-7(SP) and your tax return.

International applicants may call 215-516-2000 (not a toll free number) for assistance. This number is not available for residents of the U.S.

REMINDER: Only the current edition of Form W-7/W-7(SP) will be accepted. All other versions of this form will be rejected and returned to you, which will result in processing delays.

Where Can I get a Form W-7/W-7(SP)?

Forms can be obtained by:

Calling 1-800-829-1040 within the continental United States only. Bulk quantities may also be ordered through this number.

- Using a personal computer to download Form W-7/W-7(SP) from our world wide web site at http://www.irs.gov
- Visiting the nearest IRS Taxpayer Assistance Center or Overseas IRS office.
- Writing to: Internal Revenue Service National Distribution Center 1201 N. Mitsubishi Motorway Bloomington, IL 61705-6613

What information must be included on Form W-7/W-7(SP)?

Form W-7/W-7(SP) will request the following type of information:

- Reason for applying
- Applicant's full name (and birth name if different)
- Applicant's foreign address
- Applicant's country of citizenship
- Applicant's mailing address
- Applicant's date and place of birth
- Information about a passport or visa
- The signature of the applicant, or if the applicant is a minor, it may be the signature of the parent, courtappointed guardian or Power of Attorney. (see "Signature" later in this Publication).

NOTE: In addition to completing the form you must also attach appropriate identification documents and a valid US Federal income tax return (unless an exception to the return filing requirement is met).

Where do I file my Form W-7/W-7(SP)?

By Mail: Mail your completed application, your original tax return and any other substantiating or supporting identification documents listed on the Supporting Documentation Table to:

Internal Revenue Service ITIN Operation P.O. Box 149342 Austin, TX 78714-9342

CAUTION: Do not use the mailing address in the instructions for your tax return; use the address above. Do not send a copy of the return to any other IRS office.

In Person: You can apply for an ITIN by bringing your completed forms and documentation to any IRS Taxpayer Assistance Center in the United States and most IRS offices abroad, where IRS personnel will verify your documentation and forward the application to the IRS processing center.

Through Acceptance Agents: You can also apply through an Acceptance Agent authorized by the IRS to facilitate the ITIN application process for you. To obtain a list of authorized Acceptance Agents in you area, visit the IRS website at http://www.irs.gov.

REMINDER: Keep a copy of your application for your records.

Where do I attach my Form W-7/W-7(SP)?

If you are required to file an U.S. Federal income tax return with this form, attach Form W-7/W-7(SP) to the front of your return. If you are applying for more than one ITIN for the same return (such as for a spouse or dependents) attach all Forms W-7/W-7(SP) in the order that the individuals are listed on the tax return.

What are Acceptance Agents?

Acceptance Agents (AAs) are persons (individuals or entities (colleges, financial institutions, accounting firms, etc.)) who have entered into formal agreements with the IRS that permit them to assist applicants in obtaining ITINs. Certifying Acceptance Agents (CAAs) are individuals or entities who assume a greater responsibility. They are also authorized to verify the applicant's claim of "identity" and "foreign status" through a review of appropriate documentation, as well as verifying the authenticity, accuracy and completeness of the supporting documentation. They will submit your Form W-7, attached Federal income tax return, and any supplemental documentation to the IRS on your behalf. In addition, once the ITIN is issued, the CAA receives the applicant's number directly from IRS.

IRS does not charge a fee to obtain an ITIN, however, a person acting as an AA/CAA may charge a fee for his/her services. A list of authorized Acceptance Agents is available on the IRS website at http://www.irs.gov.

NOTE: Even if you are utilizing the services of an Acceptance Agent, you must follow all procedures outlined in this Publication for obtaining an ITIN, (i.e. attaching Form W-7/W-7(SP) to your Federal income tax return, unless you meet one of the "exceptions" to the tax return filing requirement). Acceptance Agents only facilitate the application process and are not authorized to issue the ITIN directly.

Will I have to pay to get an ITIN?

The IRS does not require payment of a fee for issuing an ITIN. However, fees may apply if you choose to use the services of an Acceptance Agent.

When should I apply for my ITIN?

Complete Form W-7/W-7(SP) as soon as you are ready to file your U.S. Federal income tax return, since you must attach the return to your application. However if you meet one of the exceptions to the tax return filing requirement, submit your completed Form W-7/W-7(SP), along with your proof of "identity" and "foreign status" and the required supplemental documents to substantiate your qualification for the exception, as soon as possible after you determine you are covered by an exception. You can apply for an ITIN any time during the year; however, if the tax return you attach to Form W-7 is filed after the return's due date, you may owe interest and/or penalties. You should file your current year return by the prescribed due date to avoid this.

How long does it take to get an ITIN?

If you qualify for an ITIN and your application is complete, you will receive a letter from the IRS assigning your tax identification number usually within six weeks (8 to 10 weeks if requested during peak tax time (January 15 through April 30) or from abroad). Applications mailed from abroad may take considerably longer. If you have not received a response within the referenced time period, you may call 1-800-829-1040 (toll free within the United States) to request the status of your application. Taxpayers overseas can contact one of the IRS offices listed in the front of this publication or call 215-516-2000 (not a toll-free number).

Can I get an ITIN if I am an undocumented alien?

Yes, If you are required to file a U. S. Federal income tax return or qualify to be listed on another individual's tax return as a spouse or dependent, you must have either a valid SSN or an ITIN. If you are an undocumented alien and cannot get a SSN, you must get an ITIN for tax purposes. Remember, having an ITIN does not:

- Give you the right to work in the United States,
- Change your immigration status, or
- Entitle you to the Earned Income Tax Credit or Social Security benefits.

Is the Form W-7 available in any foreign language?

Yes, this form is available in Spanish as Form W-7(SP), Solicitud de Número de Identificación Personal del Contribuyente del Servicio de Impuestos Internos.

DOCUMENTATION

What are the documentation requirements when applying for an ITIN?

The Form W-7 Application must be accompanied by the following documentation when applying for an ITIN:

- 1. Your completed Form W-7/W-7(SP).
- Your original valid U.S. Federal income tax return for which the ITIN is needed along with the letter of denial from the SSA (if applicable). However if one of the exceptions to the tax return filing requirement applies, you must also attach the documentation that is required to support that exception.
- 3. The original documents, or certified or notarized copies of documents, that substantiate the information provided on the Form W-7/W-7(SP). The supporting documentation must be consistent with the applicant's information provided on Form W-7/W-7(SP). For example, the name, date of birth and country of citizenship must be the same as lines 1a, 4 and 6a of the Form W-7/W-7(SP).

NOTE: IRS will mail your passport back to you at the mailing address you entered on your Form W-7. If you plan to move, ensure that you use a mailing address where you will be able to receive your mail. By visiting an IRS TAC office to apply for an ITIN, an IRS employee can review your documentation and return it to you immediately. This alleviates any long delays waiting for your original documentation (passports, etc.) to be returned to you by mail.

The documentation you present must:

1. Verify your identity by containing your name and photograph and support your claim of foreign status. (see "Supporting Documentation Table" in the Exhibits).

- 2. Be an original document;
- 3. Be a copy of an original document if you do any of the following:
  - Have the copies certified by the issuing agency or official custodian of the original record.
  - Have the copies notarized by a U.S. notary public legally authorized within his or her local jurisdiction to certify that the document is a true copy of the original. To do this, the notary must see the valid unaltered original document and verify that the copy conforms to the original. Consular Officers at U.S. Embassies and Consulates overseas may not certify true copies of foreign public documents and will refer applicants to the foreign authority that issued the document.
  - Have the copies notarized by a foreign notary. However, foreign notaries are only acceptable from States that are party to the Hague Convention Abolishing the Requirement of Legalization for Foreign Public Documents. The Hague Convention provides for the simplified certification of public (including notarized) documents to be used in countries that have joined the Convention. A certification will be issued in the form of an "apostille" which will be attached to the copy of the document. If the document originates in a country that is not party to the Convention, applicants should have the document certified by the foreign authority that issued it.

NOTE: The apostille must stay attached to the copy of the document when it is sent to the IRS.

We recommend that original documents not be sent to IRS. IRS can not be held responsible for documents lost or misrouted in transit. Properly certified or notarized documents can be sent in lieu of originals.

- 4. Must be current, i.e. not expired. The definition of "current" for applying for an ITIN is as follows:
  - Birth certificates do not contain expiration dates and, therefore, will be considered current.
  - Passports and National Identification cards displaying an "expiration" date will be considered current only if the date displayed on the document has not expired prior to the date the Form W-7/ W-7(SP) is submitted.
  - School records and Medical records (used only for children under the age of 14; under the age of 18 if a student) will be considered current only if the date displayed on the records is not more than one (1) year prior to the date the Form W-7/W-7(SP) is sumitted.

"Original" documents you submit will be returned to you. You do not need to provide a return envelope. "Copies" of documents will not be returned. If your original documents are not returned within 60 days, you may call the IRS (see "Telephone Help") to inquire as to the status. Do not send original documents that you will need for other purposes within 60 days from the date that you submit your Form W-7.

What documents are acceptable as proof of identity and foreign status?

IRS has streamlined the number of documents the agency will accept as proof of identity and foreign status to obtain an ITIN. If you submit an original passport or a properly notarized or certified copy of a valid passport you do not need to submit any other documents from the list below. If you do not have a passport, you must provide a combination of current documents (at least two or more) that show your name and photograph and support your claim of identity and foreign status. With the exception of children under 14 years of age (under 18 years of age if a student), at least one document you present must contain a recent photograph. If you are requesting an ITIN as a "dependent", documentation to prove "foreign status" and "identity" should include a "Birth Certificate", unless a Passport is submitted.

NOTE: If you submit copies of original documents that display information on both sides (front and back), the copy that is submitted must also show the information from both sides of the document.

Listed below are the only documents that will be accepted by IRS:

- 1. Passport (stand alone document)
- 2. United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) photo identification
- 3. Visa issued by the US Department of State
- 4. United States driver's license
- 5. United States military identification card
- 6. Foreign driver's license
- 7. Foreign military identification card
- National identification card. The document must be current, and contain the individual's name, address, photograph, date of birth and expiration date (i.e. Mexican Matricula card).
- 9. U. S. State identification card
- 10. Foreign voter's registration card

- 11. Civil birth certificate *
- 12. Medical records (dependent's only under 14 years of age; under 18 years of age if a student) *
- 13. School Records (dependent's only under 14 years of age; under 18 years of age is a student) *

(*may be used to establish foreign status only if documents are foreign.)

NOTE: You may subsequently be requested to provide a certified translation of foreign language documents.

If you have applied for a Social Security Number, but the Social Security Administration has denied your request, your ITIN application must also contain an official letter, form, or other documentation from the SSA providing proof that your application was denied. (This pertains only to persons who have been issued a Visa from the US Department of State that enables them to obtain a SSN.) This proof must be attached to your Form W-7/W-7(SP) or your application for an ITIN will be rejected.

Students who enter the U.S. on an "F", "J", or "M" visa, but who will not be employed and are here only for the purpose of study, or person's present in the U.S. who are receiving only honoraria payments, do not have to go to the SSA to try and obtain a Social Security Number first. A letter from the Designated School Official (DSO), Responsible Officer (RO or Authorized School Official can be submitted in lieu of a letter from the SSA when a tax return is attached or when an Exception is being claimed. (See the Exception Chart at the end of this publication.)

What is a National Identification Card?

Some foreign governments issue identification cards to their citizens. IRS will accept these cards as proof of identity and foreign status in combination with other documents described above if the card is current (i.e. not expired) and contains the applicant's name, address, photograph, and date of birth.

EXCEPTIONS

What are the "exceptions" to the requirement to attach a U.S. Federal income tax return?

Although most ITIN applicants must attach a valid income tax return to their Form W-7 application, there are limited circumstances under which an ITIN will be issued without an attached return. If any of the four exceptions listed below apply to you, you will not need to attach a U.S. Federal income tax return to your W-7/W-7(SP).

These exceptions are explained in detail in the Exhibit section at end of this Publication. If you claim an exception to the requirement to submit a valid original U.S. income tax return with Form W-7/W-7(SP) you must submit proof of your claim in lieu of the tax return.

NOTE: Applicants with a VISA that is valid for employment, and who will be employed in the U.S., should first apply for a SSN with the Social Security Administration (SSA). If you are unable to obtain a SSN after completing Form SS-5, a denial letter from the SSA must be attached to your Form W-7/W-7(SP) or your application will be rejected. Remember, you are not eligible for an ITIN if you are eligible to obtain a SSN.

Exception 1. Third Party Withholding on Passive Income;

■ Third Party Withholding on Passive Income. IRS information reporting and/or tax withholding is required and apply to third parties (frequently banks and other financial institutions), who will request a TIN from you to enable them to comply with U.S. Treasury Regulations. To obtain an ITIN under this exception, you must include supporting documentation with your Form W-7/W-7(SP) showing that you own an asset that generates income subject to IRS information reporting and/or tax withholding requirements that will take place within the current tax year. A letter or signed statement from your bank or financial institution must be attached.

Exception 2. Wages, Salary, Compensation and Honoraria Payments with Tax Treaty Benefits Claimed; Scholarships, Fellowships and Grants with Tax Treaty Benefits Claimed; Scholarships, Fellowships and Grants – No Tax Treaty Benefits Claimed; or Gambling Winnings with Tax Treaty Benefits Claimed

- Wages, Salary or Compensation and Honoraria Payments* - Tax Treaty Benefits claimed. IRS information reporting and tax withholding is required by law and apply to third parties who will request a TIN from you to enable them to comply with U.S.Treasury Regulations. To obtain a TIN under this exception, you must attach a letter from the SSA denying your request for a Social Security Number.
  - * Individuals present in the U.S. who are receiving honoraria payments only, do not have to apply for a SSN or submit letter of denial from the SSA. A letter from the Authorized School Official who extended the invitation will suffice.

- Scholarship, Fellowship or Grant Income. IRS information reporting and/or tax withholding is required by law and apply to third parties who will request a TIN from you to enable them to comply with U.S. Treasury Regulations. Students on a F-1, J-1 or M-1 visa who will not be working while studying in the U.S., will not have to apply for a SSN. They will be permitted to provide a letter from their Designated School Official (DSO), or Responsible Officer (RO) stating that they will not be securing employment in the U.S. or receiving any type of income from personal services. This applies whether a tax return is attached to Form W-7 or Exception 2 is being claimed.
- Gambling Winnings Tax Treaty Benefits claimed. If you are a nonresident alien visitor with gambling winnings, your Form W-7/W-7(SP) will be processed under an exception (2) only if submitted through the appropriate gaming official serving as an authorized ITIN Acceptance Agent.

Exception 3. Thirty Party Reporting of Mortgage Interest

Under the Internal Revenue laws, most recipients (lenders) of home mortgage interest report the amount of interest they receive from the borrower to both the IRS and the borrower. This reporting is usually done on a Form 1098, Mortgage Interest Statement. First time filers who secure a home loan may seek an ITIN to provide to their lender.

Exception 4. Third Party Withholding – Disposition by a Foreign Person of United States Real Property Interest

A tax withholding obligation is generally imposed on a buyer or other transferee (withholding agent) when a United States real property interest is acquired from a foreign person. This withholding serves to collect the tax that may be owed by the foreign person. In some instances, the foreign person may apply for a withholding certificate to reduce or eliminate withholding on the disposition of the real property. An ITIN would be needed for this transaction.

Exception 5. TD-9363.

This exception may apply if you have an IRS reporting requirement under Treasury Directive 9363 and are submitting Form W-7, Form 13350, and supplemental documentaiton. See the Exceptions Tables for information on the requirements for claiming Exception 5.

DEPENDENCY/EXEMPTION ISSUES

(See IRS Publication 501 for who qualifies to be claimed as a dependent.)

What are the rules for dependents?

Residents of Mexico, Canada, or U.S. nationals must use the same rules as U.S. citizens to determine who is a dependent and for which dependents exemptions can be claimed. For residents of the Republic of Korea (South Korea) there are two additional requirements, and for students and business apprentices from India they must also be able to claim the benefits of the United States-India tax treaty. See publication 501 (Exemptions, Standard Deduction and Filing Information), for additional information and to determine who may qualify as a dependent.

The dependent for which the Form W-7 is being submitted must be listed on the attached tax return.

NOTE: If your request for an ATIN has been denied your dependent may be eligible for an ITIN. If you live abroad and are requesting an ITIN for a foreign child who has been adopted or legally placed in your home pending adoption, remember to include a copy of the legal documents evidencing your relationship to the child.

EMPLOYMENT ISSUES

Are ITINs valid for work purposes?

ITINs do not authorize individuals to work in the United States and are not valid for employment purposes. However, if you are required to file a U. S. Federal income tax return and are ineligible to receive a SSN, you must obtain an ITIN.

Which aliens are eligible to receive Social Security Numbers?

Certain aliens by virtue of their nonimmigrant status are authorized to work in the United States. Some of the individuals must apply to the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) for an Employment Authorization Document (EAD). Any nonresident alien holding an EAD, or who is already authorized to work in the United States, is eligible to receive a SSN.

If you have an EAD, do not complete a Form W-7/W-7(SP) application unless the SSA has rejected your request for a SSN. Supporting documentation from the SSA substantiating the denial must be attached to your application. For more information on who is eligible to receive a Social Security Number, refer to the Social Security Administration website at http://www.ssa.gov.

What student visas qualify for employment?

Students who enter the United States under certain U.S. visas may be eligible to work in the United States. For more information on who is eligible to work and who must apply for an EAD, refer to the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) web site at http://uscis.gov.

Which foreign students qualify for ITINs?

The employment rules for foreign students in the United States are set forth in appropriate United States Customs and Immigration Services (USCIS) laws and regulations. Information on these laws and regulations can be obtained from the nearest USCIS office, the USCIS website at http://uscis.gov. or the foreign students' office of the appropriate university or learning institution. Generally, foreign students eligible to work in the United States, and who will be employed, should apply for a SSN. However, if they are denied a SSN, they may be eligible to apply for an ITIN by attaching the documentation from the SSA, substantiating the denial, to their Form W-7. (See the Exception Chart in the back of this publication for additional information on F-1, J-1 and M-1 students).

GENERAL INFORMATION FOR COMPLETION OF FORM W-7/W-7(SP)

Line by Line Instructions for Completing Form W-7/W-7(SP).

Please ensure that each line on Form W-7 is completed. If any of the fields are left blank or the information is not valid, the Form W-7 application will be suspended or rejected for incomplete or missing information. Enter N/A on the lines that do not pertain to you.

NOTE: If you discover that you have made an error on a Form W-7 that has already been submitted to the IRS, please do not file another Form W-7 with the correct information. Instead, call the IRS taxpayer assistance number, (1-800-829-1040) and provide the IRS employee with the correct information.

Reason You Are Submitting Form W-7/W-7(SP):

You must check only one box to indicate the reason you are completing Form W-7/W-7(SP). If more than one box applies to you, check the box that best explains your reason for submitting the Form. Note: Exception: If you check box "a" or "f", then box "h" may also be checked. Treaty Country and Treaty Article must also be present, if applicable. Refer to IRS Publication 901, "Tax Treaties" if you need additional information.

Line 5 - Gender:

Check the appropriate box for your gender.

5	Male
	Female

Line 6 - Other Information:

L.6a. Country(ies) of Citizenship.

Enter the complete country name in which you are a citizen. Two (2) countries may be listed where dual citizenship applies. If two countries are listed, separate the countries with a slash (/). Enter the complete country name(s); do not abbreviate.

6a Country(ies) of citizenship Italy

L.6b. Foreign Tax Identification Number.

If your country of residence has issued you a tax identification number, enter that number on line 6b. For example, if you are a resident of Canada you would enter your Canadian Social Insurance Number.

6b Foreign tax I.D. number (if any)

L.6c. Type of U.S. Visa

Enter only U.S. nonimmigrant visa information. Include the USCIS classification, number of the visa, and the expiration date in month/day/year format. For example, if you have a J-1 visa that is numbered 111111111, and has an expiration date of June 13, 2008, you would enter it as "F-1", "No.111111111", "06/13/2008".

Individuals who checked reason box "f" (student, professor or researcher) must submit a passport evidencing a valid visa issued by the US Department of State.

6c Type of U.S. visa (if any), number, and expiration date F-1 No. 11111111 06/13/2008

Note: If the visa has been issued under a "duration of stay" label by USCIS, then enter "D/S" as the expiration date.

L.6d. Identification Documents.

Check the appropriate box. If the "other" box is checked, then write-in the type of documentation in the space provided. If the applicant presents a valid passport, then no other documents are necessary to prove "identity" and "foreign status". A passport is the only stand-alone document. If you do not have a passport, you must use the documents listed under the Supporting Documentation Table and you will be required to provide more than one current document to verify your identity and foreign status. With the exception of children under 14 years of age (under 18 years of age if a student), at least one document you present must contain a recent photograph. A birth certificate should be one of the documents used to prove "foreign status" and "identity" for a minor child.

REMINDER: If you are submitting multiple documents use only the information from one of those documents to complete Line 6d. Enter the information for the second document on a separate sheet of paper and attach to Form W-7/W-7(SP).

Enter the name of the State or Country or other issuer, the identification number (if any) appearing on the document(s), the expiration date, and the date on which you entered the United States. Dates must be entered in the month/day/year format. (i.e. October 4, 2008 would be entered as 10/04/2008) You may subsequently be requested to provide a certified translation of foreign language documents.

L.6e/6f. Previous Temporary TIN or EIN.

If you were ever issued a "Temporary Identification Number" (TIN or ITIN) or an Employer Identification Number (EIN) from IRS, check the "Yes" box, and enter the number on line 6f, along with the name under which it was issued. If more than one temporary number was issued or a temporary number and an EIN, attach a separate continuation sheet listing all of the previous numbers issued to you. If you never had a temporary TIN or an EIN, or you do not know your temporary TIN or EIN, check the "No/Do not know" box.

A temporary TIN is a nine-digit number issued by the IRS to persons who file a return or make a payment without providing a taxpayer identifying number. You would have been issued this number if you filed a U.S. tax return and did not have a Social Security Number. This temporary TIN will appear on any correspondence the IRS sent you concerning that return.

An EIN is a nine-digit number (for example, 12-XXXXXXX) assigned by the IRS to businesses.

SIGNATURE

Who can sign the Form W-7/W-7(SP)?

Generally, the applicant is required to sign Form W-7/W-7(SP). The following are exceptions to this requirement.

Who can sign the Form W-7/W-7(SP) if the applicant is a minor under 14 years of age?

If the applicant is under 14 years of age a parent, court appointed guardian or other legally responsible individual can sign for him or her if the child can not sign. Type or print your name in the space provided and check the appropriate box that indicates your relationship to the applicant.

If you are signing as a court appointed guardian or other legally responsible individual, documentation must also be submitted along with Form W-7 to prove your relationship to the applicant. These documents can include adoption papers or court appointment papers showing legal guardianship. The dependent must be listed on the U.S. Federal income tax return that is attached to your Form W-7.

Who can sign the Form W-7/W-7(SP) if the applicant is 14 years of age or older?

If the applicant is 14 years of age or older, the applicant may sign the form or appoint an authorized delegate or parent to sign on his or her behalf. The authorized person must print his or her name in the space provided for the name of the delegate, check "Power of Attorney" box and attach Form 2848 (Power of Attorney and Declaration of Representative). The POA must clearly state the purpose for which it is intended under the "tax matters" section. POA's received in a language other than English will be considered invalid unless accompanied by a certified English translation. Refer to the IRS web site at www.irs.gov for additional information on Power of Attorney (POA).

MAILING THE APPLICATION

Where should I mail my application?

Mail your Form W-7/W-7(SP) to the following address:

Internal Revenue Service ITIN Operation P.O. Box 149342 Austin, TX 78714-9342

If you are using a courier service and need to provide a street address, send your form W-7 package to:

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Where can I go to get help with my ITIN application?

You may call the IRS toll-free number at 1-800-829-1040 (inside of the United States) for information about where to go to get help in completing your Form W-7/W-7(SP) and tax return. International applicants may call 215-516-2000 (not a toll-free number) for assistance. (This number is not available for residents of the U.S.)

You may visit or make an appointment to visit your local* IRS Taxpayer Assistance Center (TAC), where IRS personnel are available to:

- Assist taxpayers in the preparation of the Form W-7/W-7(SP);
- Answer questions about Form W-7/W-7(SP);
- Review and/or validate your identity documents:
- Help you respond to an IRS notice regarding your application for an ITIN; and
- Forward your Form W-7/W-7(SP), and accompanying tax return if appropriate (see "Exceptions") to the Austin Service Center.
  - * To find a list of local IRS TACs, proceed to the IRS website at www.irs.gov.

Reminder: If you are planning to use the services of an overseas IRS TAC office, make sure to call or check their web site first to determine their office hours.

You may also use the services of an IRS-authorized Acceptance Agent.

Where can I obtain additional information to help me with my ITIN application?

For details on resident and nonresident alien status and the tests for residency (including the substantial presence test), see Publication 519.

For details on individuals who can be claimed as dependents and on obtaining a SSN for a dependent, see Publication 501 and Publication 519.

These publications are available free from the IRS. To order the publications:

- Inside the United States at 1-800-829-1040. Assistance provided to callers from Alaska and Hawaii will be based on the hours of operation in the Pacific Time zone.
- Outside the United States only, you may call 215-516-2000 (not a toll free number), or any of the overseas offices listed in the beginning of this publication.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

What are the documentation requirements when applying for an ITIN?

The applicant will need to submit documentation that is current (has not expired), and that proves both identity and foreign status (i.e. contains name, address, photograph and supports the foreign status claim.) For the definition of "current" for ITIN purposes, see "Documentation". A passport is the only document that can stand-alone and provide all of the information required. In all other circumstances the applicant will need to provide at least two identity documents in order to validate identity and foreign status, and, with the exception of children under 14 years of age (under 18 years of age if a student), at least one must include a recent photograph.

Does the "National Identity" card include the "Mexican Matricula" card as acceptable identification for applying for an ITIN?

The Matricula card is an acceptable form of identification when applying for an ITIN.

Can I send in a photocopy of my documentation?

You can send in photocopies of your original documentation, however, all photocopies must be either:

- Certified by the issuing agency;
- Certified/Notarized by a State Department employee (United States notaries at Embassies and Consulates worldwide) or a United States Military Judge Advocate General Officer; or
- Certified/Notarized by Foreign notaries authorized under the Hague Convention who will attach an Apostille. (Note: The Apostille must be kept attached to the documents submitted to the Internal Revenue Service); or
- Certified/Notarized by a U.S. notary public legally authorized within his/her jurisdiction (raised seal or stamp present).

What are the rules of the Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC) as they relate to an ITIN?

A taxpayer using an ITIN is not eligible for EITC. To claim the EITC the claimant must file a return as a citizen or legal resident of the United States on Form 1040. In addition, the claimant, spouse and qualifying child(ren) listed on the return must have valid

"work related" Social Security Numbers. If the claimant is married, he or she must file a return using the Married Filing Joint status (for the exception to this rule, see Publication 501, Martial Status – "Married Persons Living Apart").

What are the rules for the Child Tax Credit/ Additional Child Tax Credit (CTC) as they relate to an ITIN?

Although your child may be able to obtain an ITIN for purposes of being claimed as a dependent on your U.S. Federal tax return, your child must be a U.S. citizen, U.S. national or U.S. resident to be considered a "qualifying child" for purposes of the Child Tax Credit. Refer to IRS Publication 972 (Child Tax Credit) for additional information.

Can an ITIN be used to file a delinquent or amended return for prior years?

An ITIN can be used for any valid, delinquent or amended tax returns (income, estate, gift or refund claim). Furnishing an ITIN on a return does not eliminate your need to satisfy the eligibility standards for claiming specific exemptions, credits, etc. If the tax return you attach to Form W-7 is filed after the return's due date, you may owe interest and/or penalties. You should file your current year tax return by the prescribed due date.

Are ITINs valid for dependents if I file a delinquent tax return?

ITINs will be accepted for dependents on current and delinquent returns. Dependents can be claimed only when the dependency tests are met.

What steps do I have to take when I have an ITIN and become eligible for a Social Security Number?

Make proper application for a SSN and upon receipt advise the IRS ITIN Unit in writing of your new SSN. The new SSN will become the primary number and must be used for all future filing purposes. The IRS will void the ITIN. All prior tax information under the ITIN will be associated with the new SSN.

What do I do if I think I once had a SSN, but I'm not sure?

Check with the SSA before applying for an ITIN. The SSA website is located at http://www.ssa.gov.

What documentation will I need to advise the IRS that the Social Security Administration will not provide me with a SSN?

If you are eligible to obtain a SSN, the IRS will not issue you an ITIN unless you can document that the SSA denied your request for a SSN. Supporting documentation (such as a letter or statement) from the SSA substantiating the denial must be attached to your application. If you are a student on an F-1, J-1 or M-1 visa who will not be working while studying in the U.S., you will no longer have to apply for a SSN first. You will be permitted to provide a letter from your Designated School Official (DSO) or Responsible Officer (RO), stating that you will not be securing employment in the U.S. or receiving any type of income from personal services. Additionally, you will be permitted to provide a letter from your Authorized School Official stating that you have been invited to the United States for a specific presentation and will be receiving an honoraria payment.

What do I do if I think I once had an IRS temporary number?

If you had a temporary Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN), but are unsure or cannot recall the number, indicate on Form W-7/W-7(SP) that you might have previously had such a number(s) and the name under which you think the number was issued. IRS will perform research to locate your number as part of the processing of your W-7/W-7(SP).

What do I do if my name has changed since I received my ITIN?

If the change only affects your legal name, you will only need to request a name change by sending a letter directly to the IRS processing center that has jurisdiction for your location. Include an explanation of the circumstances leading to the change (marriage, divorce, etc.) and submit documentation to support your request. Examples include:

- A copy of a marriage license.
- A copy of a divorce certificate.
- An official court related document validating the name change.

What do I do if my address has changed since I received my ITIN?

If you change your street address or mailing address, you should complete a Form 8822 (Change of Address) and send it directly to the IRS address in that form's instructions.

Will the IRS issue ITINs to individuals that are experiencing delays in securing a SSN?

The IRS will not issue ITINs in such situations. If a person is entitled to a Social Security Number, then they are not eligible for an ITIN.

SUPPORTING DOCUMENTATION TABLE

An "X" in the "Foreign Status" and/or "Identity" column, indicates that the supporting documentation satisfies that category.

A passport is the only stand-alone document that will prove both identity and foreign status (i.e. if a passport is submitted, then the applicant does not need to submit any other supporting documentation). If a passport is not submitted then a combination of at least two other current documents displaying the applicants name and photograph, and supporting their claim of identity and foreign status must be provided. With the exception of children under 14 years of age (under 18 years of age if a student), at least one document submitted must contain a recent photograph.
