Therefore, environmental impact statements will not be prepared for these projects unless warranted by later developments.

5. The Corps of Engineers is soliciting comments from the public; Federal, state, and local agencies and officials; Indian Tribes; and other interested parties in order to consider and evaluate the impacts of this proposed activity. Any comments received will be considered by the Corps of Engineers to determine whether to issue, modify, condition or deny an extension. To make this decision, comments are used to assess impacts on endangered species, historic properties, water quality, general environmental effects, and the other public interest factors listed above. Statements should be submitted on or before the expiration date specified at the top of page 1. Statements should bear upon the adequacy of plans and suitability of locations and should, if appropriate, suggest and changes considered desirable.

6. The decision whether to issue each extension of time will be based on an evaluation of the probable impact of the proposed activity on the public interest. The decision will reflect the national concern for both protection and utilization of important resources. The benefit which reasonably may be expected to accrue from the proposal will be balanced against its reasonably foreseeable detriments. All factors which may be relevant to the proposal will be considered; among these are conservation, economics, aesthetics, general environmental concerns, historic values, fish and wildlife values, flood damage prevention, land use, navigation, recreation, water supply, water quality, energy needs, safety, food production, and, in general, the needs and welfare of the people. An EXTENSION OF TIME will be granted only if it is found that the action would not be contrary to public interest.
