

The Daniel and Pamella DeVos Foundation

Thank you for your inquiry regarding The Daniel and Pamella DeVos Foundation. Because the foundation does not engage in solicitation of requests for funding, it does not produce an annual report for public distribution. We can, however, advise you that the Foundation provides funding on an ongoing basis.

Guidelines for Funding

The Daniel and Pamella DeVos Foundation seek to create a legacy of caring and stewardship through their support of projects that build a strong community. To demonstrate this commitment, they concentrate their funding in support of various initiatives that promote a healthier community, with a focus on the arts, health and children's causes. The Foundation does not allocate funds to individuals, for-profit organizations, or candidates for political office.

Application Process

If your proposal meets the above guidelines, you may direct a brief written request to the Foundation address noted below. In order for a proposal to be considered by the Daniel and Pamella DeVos Foundation, it should include the following:

- ★ Description of your ministry or service, including its mission, history, and the population it serves.
- ★ Short summary of ongoing programs, a list of Board members, and evidence of your tax exempt status as an IRS 501 (c)(3) public charity.
- ★ Description of your expected outcomes and how you propose to measure success if your goals for the grant are achieved.
- ★ Organization and project line item budgets for the fiscal year in which the proposed work will be undertaken and for the preceding fiscal year. The budget must also detail other funding sources either received or anticipated.
- ★ Specific amount of your request.
- ★ Please do not send tapes, CD's, DVD's or bound proposals.

Review Process

Requests for grants may be received any time throughout the year. Proposals are reviewed on a quarterly basis. Due to time constraints, only written grant requests are considered. Should a personal meeting be required, our Foundation Administrator will contact you.
