DFARS Transformation

The Department of Defense is conducting a major transformation initiative to identify dramatic improvements and reductions to procurement policies, procedures and processes in the Defense Federal Acquisition Regulation Supplement (DFARS).

Under the direction of Ms. Deidre Lee, the Director of Defense Procurement and Acquisition Policy, DoD established a team to consider bold changes and make proposal recommendations.

The Goals and Priorities of the team:

- ✓ Improve credibility and effectiveness of acquisition and logistics support processes
- ✓ Enhance higher priority activities and improve responsiveness and efficiency
- ✓ Shorten DoD Processes by 50%

Reduce DFARS by 40%

The Team Reviewed the Entire DFARS and Generated Proposals to -

- Reduce acquisition cost, cycle time, administrative burden
- Strengthen procurement processes, foster innovation and Improve clarity
- Provide measurable value in accomplishing DoD's mission
- Justify retaining existing DFARS requirements
- Recommend changes to Statutes, Executive Orders, FAR, and other regulations

The Comprehensive DFARS review was accomplished in 75 days

- 30 Full time participants
- 200+ Stakeholders participated
- Outreach to more than 1000 in acquisition community
- 253 proposals received from the web
- 83 significant proposal papers developed by team members
- Legislative and FAR changes included
- 700+ other proposal recommendations developed
