

LIGHTING	Facilities must provide sufficient lighting. [3.2(c), 3.3(c), 3.5(c), 3.26(c), 3.51(c), 3.76(c), 3.77(c), 3.79(c), 3.126(c)]
Criteria	Sufficient lighting must: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• be uniformly distributed• be natural or artificial• permit routine inspection• permit proper cleaning• permit adequate observation of the animals• be appropriate to the species• provide for the animals' well-being Animals must be protected from excessive illumination.
Species Specific	Dogs & Cats Indoor Housing [3.2(c)] Animals must have a regular diurnal lighting cycle of either natural or artificial light. Sheltered Housing [3.3(c)] The indoor portion of the sheltered housing facility must have a regular diurnal lighting cycle of either natural or artificial light. Mobile/Traveling Housing [3.5(c)] Animals must have a regular diurnal lighting cycle of either natural or artificial light. Nonhuman Primates Indoor Housing [3.76(c)] Animals must have a regular diurnal lighting cycle of either natural or artificial light. Sheltered Housing [3.77(c)] The indoor portion of the sheltered housing facility must have a regular diurnal lighting cycle of either natural or artificial light.

Mobile/Traveling Housing [3.79(c)]
Animals must have a regular diurnal lighting cycle of either natural or artificial light.
