

REVOKED OR SUSPENDED
LICENSE

A person must not engage in regulated activities if his/her license is suspended or revoked. [2.10]

A person is in violation of the suspension or revocation if they conduct prohibited activities:

- involving any regulated animal
- during the time period of the suspension or revocation.

The prohibited activities include:

- buying
- selling
- transporting
- exhibiting
- delivering for transportation

If a person's license is suspended, a license will not be issued, i.e., renewed:

- for the time period of the suspension
- in his/her own name or in any other manner
- to any legal entity in which he/she has a substantial interest (financial or otherwise), such as:
  - partnership
  - firm
  - corporation
  - other legal entity

A person may apply for reinstatement of a suspended license:

- in writing
- to the appropriate Animal Care Regional Director

An inspection with no compliant items cited is required for a suspended license to be reinstated UNLESS the suspension:

- was a 21-day Summary Suspension
NOTE: The license is automatically reinstated after the 21 days.
- did not have a desist order requiring:
  - complete compliance, or
  - other specific requirements for reinstatement

If a person's license is revoked, a license will not be issued:

- in his/her own name or in any other manner
  - to any legal entity in which he/she has a substantial interest (financial or otherwise), such as:
    - partnership
    - firm
    - corporation
    - other legal entity
