Workshop To Obtain Input for the Development of Habitat-Based Recovery Criteria for the Grizzly Bear (Ursus arctos horribilis)

AGENCY: U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, Interior.

ACTION: Notice of public workshop.

SUMMARY: The Fish and Wildlife Service gives notice that a public workshop will be held to begin the development of habitat-based recovery criteria for the grizzly bear (Ursus arctos horribilis), a threatened species in the 48 contiguous States. The workshop will allow scientists and other interested parties the opportunity to submit oral or written comments.

DATES: The public workshop will be held from 10 a.m. to 12 noon, 1 p.m. to 4 p.m., and 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. on June 17, 1997.

ADDRESSES: The public workshop will be held at the GranTree Inn, 1325 North 7th Avenue, Bozeman, Montana. Comments and materials concerning the workshop should be sent to the Grizzly Bear Recovery Coordinator, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, University Hall, Room 309, University of Montana, Missoula, Montana 59812. Comments and materials received will be available for inspection, by appointment, during normal business hours at the above Service address.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Dr. Christopher Servheen, Grizzly Bear Recovery Coordinator (see ADDRESSES above), at 406/243-4903, fax 406/329-3212, e-mail grizz@selway.umt.edu.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

The grizzly bear (Ursus arctos horribilis) is listed as a threatened species in the 48 contiguous States. The Endangered Species Act of 1973, as amended (16 U.S.C. 1531 et seq.), requires the development of recovery plans for listed species unless such a plan would not promote the conservation of a particular species. A revised Grizzly Bear Recovery Plan was approved by the Fish and Wildlife Service (Service) on September 10, 1993. The Bitterroot Ecosystem Recovery Plan Chapter was approved as a supplement to the Grizzly Bear Recovery Plan on September 11, 1996.

The Service will hold a public workshop seeking comments on objective, measurable habitat-based recovery criteria that the agency needs to develop and incorporate into the Grizzly Bear Recovery Plan. The criteria will be used to describe the characteristics of the habitat necessary to support a recovered population of grizzly bears. Once the habitat-based recovery criteria have been developed, specific, quantified habitat-based recovery criteria eventually will be developed for each recovery zone. These quantified criteria will then become part of the recovery goal for that particular grizzly bear population. At the workshop, the Service also wants to obtain information and comments on methods for monitoring the habitat-based recovery criteria. Emphasis of this workshop will be on the habitat needs of the Yellowstone ecosystem grizzly bear population, but comments on other grizzly bear populations and for grizzly bears anywhere in the lower 48 States are also welcome.

The Service seeks the input of scientists, the public, and interested organizations at the workshop. The workshop will be held in Bozeman, Montana, on June 17, 1997 (see ADDRESSES section). The workshop will be held from 10:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. with two breaks (see DATES section). Participants are invited to present information in oral and written form. All comments presented orally also should be submitted in writing at the workshop to facilitate review of these comments. Those wishing to present information or comments orally at the workshop are asked to contact Dr. Christopher Servheen, Grizzly Bear Recovery Coordinator (see FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT section) so that scheduling of oral presentations can be arranged in advance. Anyone wishing to provide information or comments, but unable to attend the workshop, should send the information or comments to Dr. Christopher Servheen (see ADDRESSES section). All information and comments previously or subsequently received will be considered during the development of the habitat-based recovery criteria.

Dated: April 16, 1997.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In order for irrigators to receive water deliveries, information is needed by the BIA to operate and maintain its irrigation projects and fulfill reporting requirements. Section 171.7 of 25 CFR part 171, [Irrigation] Operation and Maintenance, specifies the information collection requirement. Water users must apply for water delivery. The information to be collected includes: name; water delivery location; time and date of requested water delivery; duration of water delivery; rate of water flow; number of acres irrigated; crop statistics; and other operational information identified in the local administrative manuals. under an emergency approval by OMB (OMB Control Number 1076-0141). The BIA is proceeding with this public comment period as the first step in obtaining a normal information collection clearance from OMB.

All information is to be collected annually from each water user. Annual reporting and record keeping burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 40 minutes for each response for 10,300 respondents, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Thus, the total annual reporting and record keeping burden for this collection is estimated to be 6,867 hours.

The BIA solicits comments in order to:

- (i) Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the bureau, including whether the information will have practical utility;
- (ii) Evaluate the bureau's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;
- (iii) Enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and
