

Finished Trophies

"Finished trophies" of animal origin (those having undergone a complete taxidermy treatment) are not subject to animal quarantine in Japan, and do not require any animal health certificate or any other certificate from APHIS.

However CITES documentation may be required from the US Fish & Wildlife Service. The US Fish & Wildlife Service should be contacted for more detail on procedures for obtaining CITES documentation.