

Certificate Language

Most EU member countries require health certificates to be bilingual, in the languages of both the exporting country and the importing country.

The government of Denmark has indicated (for shipments where the port of entry into the EU and the destination of the shipment is in Denmark) that if certificates are in English- they do not have to be bilingual.

As always, the exporter should have their importer confirm prior to shipment that the endorsed certificate meets all requirements.