

December 1997

HEALTH REQUIREMENTS OF CHILE FOR CANINE SEMEN EXPORTED FROM THE UNITED STATES

The semen must be accompanied by a health certificate issued and signed by a licensed veterinarian and endorsed by a Veterinary Services veterinarian showing the following information (the following bilingual health certificate may be used to export canine semen):

HEALTH CERTIFICATE FOR EXPORTING CANINE SEMEN TO CHILE

I. General Information

Información general

1. Donor/s identification

Identificación del o de los donadores

2. Date of collection

Fecha de recolección _____

3. Identification of the semen straws, ampules or tubes

Identificación de las ampollas, pajuelas o tubos de semen

4. Name and address of consignor

Nombre y dirección del consignatario

5. Name and address of consignee

Nombre y dirección del destinatario

Health Certificate No. _____
Valid only with USDA seal

II. Health certifications

Información Sanitaria

1. The donor animal was under the supervision of a veterinarian who certifies that at the time of collection and during the 30 days prior to collection, the animal did not show any clinical signs of infectious diseases.

El macho donador está controlado por un médico veterinario, el que certifica que en el momento de la extracción del semen y en los 30 días anteriores el animal no ha presentado signos de enfermedades infecciosas.

2. The donor animal did not show any clinical signs of rabies during the 15 days after the collection of the semen.

El donador no presentó signos clínicos de rabia en los 15 días posteriores a la colecta de semen.

Name of issuing Veterinarian

Name of Endorsing Federal Veterinarian

Signature and Date

Signature and Date