Financial Assistance

The CEC would appreciate it if participants and their institutions could assist with travel and accommodation costs. However, a limited amount of travel and accommodation assistance may be provided by the CEC in accordance with its "Framework for Public Participation in the Commission for Environmental Cooperation Activities," available at http://www.cec.org/files/pdf/publications/guide19_en.pdf.

Participants may apply for limited financial assistance to cover travel and accommodation by completing and returning the following request by 9 November 2007.

ONLY nonprofit organizations and individuals from Canada, Mexico or the United States may apply for financial assistance, on a limited basis. Government representatives are not eligible for financial assistance. Funding will be limited to one representative per organization.

- I, or the nonprofit organization I represent, wish to be considered for financial assistance. I have attached a one-page statement of interest demonstrating my expertise—or that of my organization—with the topic(s) to be addressed at the public meeting.
