

THE Famous West Indian voyage made by the English fleet of 23 shippes and Barkees, wher in were gotten the Townes of S<sup>t</sup> JAGO : S<sup>t</sup> DOMINGO, CARTAGENA and S<sup>t</sup> AUGVSTINES the same beinge begun from Plymouth in the Moneth of Septembet 1582 and ended at Portsmouth in Iulie 1586 the whole course of the said voyage beinge plainly described by the pickted line Newlie come forth by Baptista

Sea Comye

Seventen or 18 Degrees to the Southward of Rhode la Plata by the Straites of Magellanus

HOC OPIDVM dicitur Jacobi ex nomine quo insula vocatur et commercium habet cum Guyana et adiacentibus regionibus Africa, unde mercatores in Lusitaniam arceunt.

IN SVLA DIVI
Jacobi est clarissima omnia que fuerit in ora Africa ex vulgaribus Capis Nivalibus hec et reliquis vicinis insule Cap Nivalibus denotantur quoniam ab ipso Cap leuco plus minus absunt.

CIVITAS S. Dominici facta in Hispanola Indica Archipelago mutatis fere equalibus, ipsa vixit tunc per ab Hispania extracta, et omnino circumscripta insula sua dat

NEC SPE NEC METU

CIVITAS CARTHAGENA in Italia occidentali continente sua, portu consuetissimo, ad mercaturam inter Hispaniam et Peru spectantem

CARTAGENA

OPIDVM S. Augustini hodie in hac conurbatione amplissimè habitari videtur. Atq. suis vicariis ante verè cum iule filientia nunciat. In castris volatant. Præfatum hic erat. ea aliquo tempore eadem nunciat ad hæc verè hodie in loco S. Augustini. Sicut sua nomenclatura non in præfatis est. nisi ad præfatum. Sicut in præfatis regionem que præfata. Sicut in præfatis.

SALWENI
Sicut in præfatis
Sicut in præfatis
Sicut in præfatis
Sicut in præfatis

