March 2005

Dear Customer:

In an effort to meet the needs of our customers and to improve our customer service, our Processing unit has created a guide for new hire paperwork. This guide is comprised of three sections: required forms, supplemental forms and obsolete forms, and includes completed samples and instructions. As revisions are made and/or forms become obsolete, we will inform you of those changes.

Please note that the name to be used on all forms is the employee's legal name. This is the name that appears on the employee's Social Security card, Drivers License, and/or Passport.

We hope this guide will make the new hire paperwork process easier for you. If you have any questions concerning this guide, please feel free to contact your servicing processing associate.

Sincerely,

Margaret McKinney, Section Chief
Processing, Human Resources Division

NEW RESTRICTIONS ON APPOINTMENT ACTIONS

Security issues are being addressed all over the nation as a result of the events that took place on September 11. The President issued a mandate to all Federal government agencies regarding the hiring of new employees. As a result, the Processing section can not enter an appointment action (Nature of Action Code's 100-199) without the receipt of the following fully completed forms:

SF-306, Declaration of Federal Employment
SF-61, Appointment Affidavit
I-9, Employment Eligibility Verification
SF-171, OF-612, or Resume

OF-306, DECLARATION FOR FEDERAL EMPLOYMENT
(REVISED JAN 2001)

(THIS FORM REPLACED THE SF-61-B, DECLARATION OF APPOINTEE)

This form is required for every appointment and conversion to appointment. The information found on the form is used to determine an applicant's suitability for Federal employment. It MUST BE completed before the personnel action is effective.

If the OF-306 is completed during the INTERVIEW process, the applicant should complete blocks 1-17A.

If the employee is selected, mail a photocopy of the form to Minneapolis with the application for employment. The original form should be retained by your office until the individual reports to duty.

At the time the new hire reports for duty, the form should be finalized as follows:

- The employee reviews blocks 1-17 and makes any necessary changes.
- The employee signs and dates the form again, in block 17B, as appointee.
- The appointing officer enters the date of appointment or conversion.

Forward the completed form to Minneapolis with the appointment paperwork.

PLEASE NOTE:

The form must either be typed or completed with dark ink and it is recommended that the employee keep a copy of the form for their records.

SF-256, SELF-IDENTIFICATION OF HANDICAP

This form is recommended for all appointments. The information is used to record whether or not an employee has a handicap. It is used for record purposes only and is kept confidential.

Employee should complete the form as follows:

- Name
- Date of birth
- Social Security Number
- Select appropriate handicap code and enter code in block in upper right hand corner of form.

Forward the completed form to Minneapolis with appointment paperwork. If form is not received, or handicap not identified, a default code of 05 is used.

PLEASE NOTE:

In the case of multiple impairments, choose the code which describes the impairment that would result in the most substantial limitation.

If the employee is being hired under a handicap appointment, this form is required in order to input the personnel action.

be reported are listed below (codes in bold numbers 13 through 94). In the case of multiple impairments, choose the code which describes the impairment that would result in the most substantial limitation.

TO THE EMPLOYEE: Self-identification of handicap status is essential for effective data collection and analysis. The information you provide will be used for statistical purposes only and will not in any way affect you individually. While self-identification is voluntary, your cooperation in providing accurate information is critical.

01 I do not wish to identify my handicap status. (Please read the employee note above and the reverse side of this form before using this code.) (Note: Your personnel officer may use this code if, in his or her judgment, you used an incorrect code.)

05 I do not have a handicap.

Privacy Act Statement

Ethnicity and race information is requested under the authority of 42 U.S.C. Section 2000e-16 and in compliance with the Office of Management and Budget's 1997 Revisions to the Standards for the Classification of Federal Data on Race and Ethnicity. Providing this information is voluntary and has no impact on your employment status, but in the instance of missing information, your employing agency will attempt to identify your race and ethnicity by visual observation.

This information is used as necessary to plan for equal employment opportunity throughout the Federal government. It is also used by the U. S. Office of Personnel Management or employing agency maintaining the records to locate individuals for personnel research or survey response and in the production of summary descriptive statistics and analytical studies in support of the function for which the records are collected and maintained, or for related workforce studies.

Social Security Number (SSN) is requested under the authority of Executive Order 9397, which requires SSN be used for the purpose of uniform, orderly administration of personnel records. Providing this information is voluntary and failure to do so will have no effect on your employment status. If SSN is not provided, however, other agency sources may be used to obtain it.

Specific Instructions: The two questions below are designed to identify your ethnicity and race. Regardless of your answer to question 1, go to question 2.

Question 1. Are You Hispanic or Latino? (A person of Cuban, Mexican, Puerto Rican, South or Central American, or other Spanish culture or origin, regardless of race.)
 Yes No

Question 2. Please select the racial category or categories with which you most closely identify by placing an "X" in the appropriate box. Check as many as apply.

According to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, no persons are required to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a valid OMB control number. The valid OMB control number for this information is 0505-0022. The time required to complete this collection of information is estimated to average .25 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed and completing and reviewing the form. (e) Agency Requirements.-Each agency that maintains a system of records shall- (1) maintain in its records only such information about an individual as is relevant and necessary to accomplish a purpose of the agency required to be accomplished by statute or by executive order of the President; (2) collect information to the greatest extent practicable directly from the subject individual when the information may result in adverse determinations about an individual's rights, benefits, and privileges under Federal programs; (3) inform each individual whom it asks to supply information, on the form which it uses to collect the information or on a separate form that can be retained by the individual- (A) the authority (whether granted by statute, or by executive order of the President) which authorizes the solicitation of the information and whether disclosure of such information is mandatory or voluntary; (B) the principal purpose or purposes for which the information is intended to be used; (C) the routine uses which may be made of the information, as published pursuant to paragraph (4)(D) of this subsection; and (D) the effects on him, if any, of not providing all or any part of the requested information.

PRIVACY ACT ROUTINE USE 1. To the Department of Justice when: (a) the agency or any component thereof, or (b) any employee of the agency in his or her official capacity; or (c) any employee of the agency in his or her individual capacity where the Department of Justice has agreed to represent the employee; or (d) the United States Government, is a party to litigation or has interest in such litigation, and by careful review, the agency determines that the records are both relevant and necessary to the litigation and the use of such records by the Department of Justice is therefore deemed by the agency to be for a purpose that is compatible with the purpose for which the agency collected the records. 2. To a court or adjudicative body in a proceeding when: (a) the agency or any component thereof, or (b) any employee of the agency in his or her official capacity; or (c) any employee of the agency in his or her individual capacity where the Department of Justice has agreed to represent the employee; or (d) the United States Government, is a party to litigation or has interest in such litigation, and by careful review, the agency determines that the records are both relevant and necessary to the litigation and the use of such records is therefore deemed by the agency to be for a purpose that is compatible with the purpose for which the agency collected the records. 3. Except as noted in question 24, when a record on its face, or in conjunction with other records, indicates a violation or potential violation of law, whether civil, criminal, or regulatory in nature, and whether arising by general statute, particular program statute, regulation, rule, or order issued pursuant thereto, the relevant records may be disclosed to the appropriate Federal, foreign, State, local, tribal, or other public authority responsible for enforcing, investigating or prosecuting such violation or charged with enforcing or implementing the statute, rule, regulation, or order. 4. To any source or potential source from which information is requested in the course of an investigation concerning the hiring or retention of an employee or other personnel action, or the issuing or retention of a security clearance, contract, grant, license, or other benefit, to the extent necessary to identify the individual, inform the source of the nature and purpose of the investigation, and to identify the type of information requested. 5. To a Federal, State, local, foreign, tribal, or other public authority the fact that this system of records contains information relevant to the retention of an employee, or the retention of a security clearance, contract, license, grant, or other benefit. The other agency or licensing organization may then make a request supported by written consent of the individual for the entire record if it so chooses. No disclosure will be made unless the information has been determined to be sufficiently reliable to support a referral to another office within the agency or to another Federal agency for criminal, civil, administrative, personnel, or regulatory action. 6. To contractors, grantees, experts, consultants, or volunteers when necessary to perform a function or service related to this record for which they have been engaged, such recipients shall be required to comply with the Privacy Act of 1974, as amended. 7. To the news media or the general public, factual information the disclosure of which would be in the public interest and which would not constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. 8. To a Federal, State, or local agency, or other appropriate entities or individuals, or through established liaison channels to selected foreign governments, in order to enable an intelligence agency to carry out its responsibilities under the National Security Act of 1947 as amended, the CIA Act of 1949 as amended, Executive Order 12333 or any successor order, applicable national security directives, or classified implementing procedures approved by the Attorney General and promulgated pursuant to such statutes, orders or directives. 9. To a Member of Congress or to a Congressional staff member in response to an inquiry of the Congressional office made at the written request of the constituent about whom the record is maintained. 10. To the National Archives and Records Administration for records management inspections conducted under 44 USC 2904 and 2906. 11. To the Office of Management and Budget when necessary to the review of private relief legislation.

W-4, EMPLOYEE'S WITHHOLDING ALLOWANCE CERTIFICATE

The employee completes blocks numbered 1 through 6; and, IF applicable, employee should complete block 7.

Please note:

If the employee completes block 7, no taxes will be withheld.

If the employee claims exempt status, a new W-4 must be submitted by February 15 of each calendar year that the exemption is claimed or the payroll system will default to "Single" and "no exemptions."

If the W-4 is not received or is received incomplete by Processing, the Processor uses the default code of "S00" or "Single, no exemptions."

I

Form W-4 (2004)

Purpose. Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct Federal income tax from your pay. Because your tax situation may change, you may want to refigure your withholding each year.

Exemption from withholding. If you are exempt, complete only lines 1, 2, 3, 4, and 7 and sign the form to validate it. Your exemption for 2004 expires February 16, 2005. See Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Note: You cannot claim exemption from withholding if: (a) your income exceeds $800 and includes more than $250 of unearned income (e.g., interest and dividends) and (b) another person can claim you as a dependent on their tax return.

Basic instructions. If you are not exempt, complete the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. The worksheets on page 2 adjust your withholding allowances based on itemized deductions, certain credits, adjustments to income, or two-earner/two-job situations. Complete all worksheets that apply. However, you may claim fewer (or zero) allowances.

Head of household. Generally, you may claim head of household filing status on your tax return only if you are unmarried and pay more than 50% of the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and your dependent(s) or other qualifying individuals. See line E below.

Tax credits. You can take projected tax credits into account in figuring your allowable number of withholding allowances. Credits for child or dependent care expenses and the child tax credit may be claimed using the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. See Pub. 919, How Do I Adjust My Tax Withholding? for information on converting your other credits into withholding allowances.

Nonwage income. If you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends, consider making estimated tax payments using Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals. Otherwise, you may owe additional tax.

Two earners/two jobs. If you have a working spouse or more than one job, figure the total number of allowances you are entitled to claim on all jobs using worksheets from only one Form W-4. Your withholding usually will be most accurate when all allowances are claimed on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job and zero allowances are claimed on the others.

Nonresident alien. If you are a nonresident alien, see the Instructions for Form 8233 before completing this Form W-4.

Check your withholding. After your Form W-4 takes effect, use Pub. 919 to see how the dollar amount you are having withheld compares to your projected total tax for 2004. See Pub. 919, especially if your earnings exceed $125,000 (Single) or $175,000 (Married).

Recent name change? If your name on line 1 differs from that shown on your social security card, call 1-800-772-1213 to initiate a name change and obtain a social security card showing your correct name.

Personal Allowances Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

A Enter "1" for yourself if no one else can claim you as a dependent A _____

B Enter "1" if:
 • You are single and have only one job; or
 • You are married, have only one job, and your spouse does not work; or
 • Your wages from a second job or your spouse's wages (or the total of both) are $1,000 or less. B _____

C Enter "1" for your spouse. But, you may choose to enter "-0-" if you are married and have either a working spouse or more than one job. (Entering "-0-" may help you avoid having too little tax withheld.) C _____

D Enter number of dependents (other than your spouse or yourself) you will claim on your tax return D _____

E Enter "1" if you will file as head of household on your tax return (see conditions under Head of household above) E _____

F Enter "1" if you have at least $1,500 of child or dependent care expenses for which you plan to claim a credit F _____

(Note: Do not include child support payments. See Pub. 503, Child and Dependent Care Expenses, for details.)

G Child Tax Credit (including additional child tax credit):
 • If your total income will be less than $52,000 ($77,000 if married), enter "2" for each eligible child.
 • If your total income will be between $52,000 and $84,000 ($77,000 and $119,000 if married), enter "1" for each eligible child plus "1" additional if you have four or more eligible children. G _____

H Add lines A through G and enter total here. Note: This may be different from the number of exemptions you claim on your tax return. H _____

For accuracy, complete all worksheets that apply.
 • If you plan to itemize or claim adjustments to income and want to reduce your withholding, see the Deductions and Adjustments Worksheet on page 2.
 • If you have more than one job or are married and you and your spouse both work and the combined earnings from all jobs exceed $35,000 ($25,000 if married) see the Two-Earner/Two-Job Worksheet on page 2 to avoid having too little tax withheld.
 • If neither of the above situations applies, stop here and enter the number from line H on line 5 of Form W-4 below.

Cut here and give Form W-4 to your employer. Keep the top part for your records.

PRIVACY ACT AND PUBLIC BURDEN STATEMENT.

The Veterans' Preference Act of 1944 authorizes the collection of this information. The information will be used, along with any accompanying documentation to determine whether you are entitled to 10-point veterans' preference. This information may be disclosed to: (1) the Department of Veterans Affairs, or the appropriate branch of the Armed Forces to verify your claim; (2) a court, or a Federal, State, or local agency for checking on law violations or for other related authorized purposes; (3) a Federal, State, or local government agency, if you are participating in a special employment assistance program; or (4) other Federal, State, or local government agencies, congressional offices, and international organizations for purposes of employment consideration, e.g., if you are on an Office of Personnel Management or other list of eligibles. Executive Order 9397 (November 22, 1943) authorizes Federal agencies to use an individual's Social Security Number (SSN) to identify individual records in Federal personnel records systems. Your SSN will be used to ensure accurate retention of records pertaining to you and may also be used to identify you to others from whom information about you is sought. Furnishing your SSN and the other information sought is voluntary. However, failure to provide any part of the information may result in a ruling that you are not eligible for 10-point veterans' preference or in delaying the processing of your application for employment.

Public burden reporting for this collection of information is estimated to take approximately 10 minutes per response, including time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding the burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to OPM Forms Officer, U.S. Office of Personnel Management, Washington, D.C. 20415; The OMB Number, 3206-0001, is currently valid. OPM may not collect this information and you are not required to respond, unless this number is displayed.

I certify that all of the statements made in this claim are true, complete, and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief and are made in good faith. (A false answer to any question may be grounds for not employing you, or for dismissing you after you begin work, and may be punishable by fine or imprisonment (U.S. Code, Title 18, Section 1001).) DOCUMENTATION REQUIRED - READ CAREFULLY

Please submit photocopies of documents because they will not be returned unless a certified copy is specified.

A. Documentation of Service and Separation under Honorable Conditions

Submit any of the documents listed below as documentation, provided they are dated on or after the day of separation from active duty military service:

1. Honorable or general discharge certificate.
2. Certificate of transfer to Navy Fleet Reserve, Marine Corps Fleet Reserve, or enlisted Reserve Corps.
3. Orders of transfer to retired list.
4. Report of separation from a branch of the Armed Forces.
5. Certificate of service or release from active duty, provided honorable separation is shown.
6. Official statement from a branch of the Armed Forces showing that honorable separation took place.
7. Notation by the Department of Veterans Affairs or a branch of the Armed Forces on an official statement, described in B or C below, that the veteran was honorably separated from military service.
8. Official statement from the Military personnel records center that official service records show that honorable separation took place.

B. Documentation of Service-Connected Disability (Non-Compensable, i.e., Less than 10%); Purple Heart; and Nonservice-Connected Disability Pension.

Submit one of the documents:

1. An official statement, dated 1991 or later, from the Department of Veterans Affairs or from a branch of the Armed Forces, certifying to the present existence of the veteran's service-connected disability of less than 10%.
2. An official citation, document, or discharge certificate, issued by a branch of the Armed Forces, showing the award to the veteran of the Purple Heart for wound or injuries received in action.
3. An official statement, dated 1991 or later, from the Department of Veterans Affairs, certifying that the veteran is receiving a nonservice-connected disability pension.

C. Documentation of Service-Connected Disability (Compensable, i.e., 10% or More).

If you checked Item 11 on the front of this form, submit one of the following documents:

1. An official statement, dated 1991 or later, from the Department of Veterans Affairs, or from a branch of the Armed Forces, certifying to the veteran's present receipt of compensation for service-connected disability or disability retired pay.
2. An official statement, dated 1991 or later, from the Department of Veterans Affairs, or from a branch of the Armed Forces, certifying that the veteran has a service-connected disability of 10% or more.

3. An official statement or retirement orders from a branch of the Armed Forces, showing that the retired serviceman was retired because of permanent service-connected disability or was transferred to the permanent disability retirement list. The statement or retirement orders must indicate that the disability is 10% or more.

For spouses and mothers of disabled veterans, who checked item 12 or 14, submit the following:

An official statement, dated 1991 or later, from the Department of Veterans Affairs, or from a branch of the Armed Forces, certifying:

- 1) the present existence of the veterans service-connected disability,
- 2) the percentage and nature of the service-connected disability or disabilities (including the combined percentage),
- 3) a notation as to whether or not the service-connected disability is rated as permanent and total.

Please Note: When a veteran dies on active duty, the family does not receive a DD Form 214; the family receives a DD Form 1300, Report of Casualty, on which there is no place to record the character of service. Thus, when a veteran dies on active duty, his or her service should be presumed to be under honorable conditions unless the military service specifically indicates otherwise.

D. Documentation of Veteran's Death

1. If on active military duty at time of death, submit official notice, from a branch of the Armed Forces, of death occurring under honorable conditions.
2. If death occurred while not on active military duty, submit certified copy of death certificate.

E. Documentation of Service or Death During a War, in a Campaign or Expedition for which a Campaign Badge is Authorized, or During the Period Authorized, or During the Period of April 28, 1952 through July 1, 1955.

Submit documentation of service or death during a war or during the period April 28, 1952, through July 1, 1955, or during a campaign or expedition for which a campaign badge is authorized.

F. Documentation of Deceased or Disabled Veteran's Mother's Claim for Preference because of Her Husband's Total and Permanent Disability.

Submit a statement from husband's physician showing the prognosis of his disease and percentage of his disability.

G. Documentation of Annulment of Remarriage by Widow or Widower of Veteran.

Submit either:

1. Certification from the Department of Veterans Affairs that entitlement to pension or compensation was restored due to annulment.
2. A certified copy of the court decree of annulment.

H. Documentation of Veteran's Inability to Work Because of a Service-Connected Disability.

Answer questions 1-7 below:

1. Is the veteran currently working? If No, go to Item 3.	2. If currently working, what is the veteran's present occupation?
<input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No
3. What was the veteran's occupation, if any, before military service?	4. What was the veteran's military occupation at the time of separation?
5. Has the veteran been employed, or is he/she now employed, by the Federal civil service or D.C. Government?
<input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No

PRIVACY ACT STATEMENT

Sections 3301 and 3304 of Title 5, U.S. Code, provide for the examination of individuals for employment; Executive Order 10450, Security Requirements for Government Employment, requires a suitability for employment determination for all employees; Section 8716 of Title 5, U.S. Code, provides for the Office of Personnel Management to regulate enrollment in the Government's Life Insurance program; and Executive Order 9397 authorizes use of the Social Security Number to identify individuals in personnel records. Thus, solicitation of this information is authorized by these statutes or Executive Orders. The information will be used primarily to determine your qualifications and suitability for employment, your eligibility for insurance coverage, and for identification purposes. Responses are voluntary, but failure to provide all information may result in a determination that you are not qualified or suitable for employment; or result in incorrect life insurance withholdings being made from your pay.

PUBLIC BURDEN STATEMENT

The public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 5 minutes per response, including time for reviewing instructions, searching existing sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to Reports and Forms Management Officer, U.S. Office of Personnel Management, 1900 E Street, N.W., Room 6410, Washington, D.C., 20415; and to the Office of Management and Budget, Paperwork Reduction Project (3206-0182) Washington, D.C., 20503

INSTRUCTIONS AND PRIVACY ACT INFORMATION FOR APPLICANT

Please read instructions for each section carefully before answering the questions. Type or print answers in ink. If additional details are required, use Section D. After completing this statement, be sure to sign your name and give the date in Section E. Your replies will be evaluated in terms of the particular position for which you are applying. (AT THE DISCRETION OF THE APPOINTING OFFICER, ADDITIONAL MEDICAL INFORMATION MAY BE REQUIRED.)

Solicitation of this information is authorized by Title 5 U.S.C. Section 3301, which provides for a determination as to an individual's fitness for employment with regard to age, health, and physical ability. The information will be used in determining your eligibility for employment and, to that end may be provided to appropriate sources in order to identify you and to obtain an evaluation of your fitness and ability to perform the duties of the position for which you are applying.

Under Executive Order 9397, Federal agencies were required to use the Social Security Number (SSN) as the means of identifying individuals in personnel record systems. Solicitation of your SSN is thus authorized by this executive order and will be used to ensure that the information you provide is accurately recorded as pertaining to you. Furnishing your SSN or any of the other data is voluntary, but failure to supply complete and accurate information may limit consideration or jeopardize eligibility for a Federal position.
