

A Message from First Lady Laura Bush about HIV Testing

More than one million Americans have HIV and many don't even know it.

With improved treatment and care people are now living with HIV/AIDS.

But this life saving treatment never reaches people who don't know they are infected. Knowing your HIV status is the best way to help win the fight against AIDS. To find a testing site center near you, visit www.hivtest.org.

