

NEW MEXICO

INDICATOR NAME: Nondisclosure Indicator

SETTING CRITERIA: IV-D
Good Cause status (TANF)

IV-D & Non IV-D
Protective order
Self-report (except in cases with a court order for joint custody or unsupervised visitation)

ELIGIBLE PEOPLE: Person(s) Directly Protected Victim

Others Protected
All household members involved in the victim’s NM child support cases or orders with the abuser (Automatic)

IMPACT: Sends FV Indicator to the FCR
Results in CSED suppression of victim’s information without court order
Prompts marking of case file with a special color label

DURATION: Indefinite

REMOVAL CRITERIA: End of protection order
Court order (Revoking family violence status or ordering either joint custody or unsupervised visitation)
Victim request (Written)
Evidence of fraudulent family violence claim

OVERRIDE: In development/draft not yet available

Materials

New Mexico has developed several draft forms for use in conjunction with the FCR and the FV Indicator. Included below are sample court orders related to requests for FPLS locate data and the FV Indicator override process. (Note: For each sample, New Mexico has prepared one format for use when the IV-D agency is a party and one for strictly private matters.)

Proposed Locate Request Form Seeking Registry Information When The Child Support Enforcement Division is Not a Party to the Case

_____ JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT
STATE OF NEW MEXICO
COUNTY OF _____

JANE DOE,
Petitioner,

vs.

DR-xxxxxxxx

JOHN DOE,
Respondent.

LOCATE REQUEST FOR FEDERAL CHILD SUPPORT AND PATERNITY CASE REGISTRY INFORMATION FROM FEDERAL PARENT LOCATOR SERVICE

THIS matter comes to the Court’s attention as a result of the above-referenced cause of action involving an issue of child support. In order to effectively hear the matter and render its decision, the Court must review the information contained in the Federal Case Registry.

THEREFORE, this Locate Request is provided to the Human Services Department, in its role as overseer of the New Mexico State Parent Locator Service, in order that the Court, an entity authorized to receive such information, may obtain Federal Case Registry information on the above-referenced parties.

The following information is provided in order to effectuate the request (Please print legibly):

Petitioner’s Address: _____

Petitioner’s Social Security Number(s): _____

Petitioner’s Date of Birth (Day, Month, Year): _____

The Petitioner: is receiving, or has received / is not receiving, or has not received, any sort of welfare assistance, compensation or benefits. (Please circle appropriate selection.)

Respondent's Address: _____

Respondent's Social Security Number(s): _____

Respondent's Date of Birth (Day, Month, Year): _____

Information on Child or Children:

Name: _____
Social Security Number: _____
Date of Birth: _____
Address: _____

Name: _____
Social Security Number: _____
Date of Birth: _____
Address: _____

Name: _____
Social Security Number: _____
Date of Birth: _____
Address: _____

Name: _____
Social Security Number: _____
Date of Birth: _____
Address: _____

Name: _____
Social Security Number: _____
Date of Birth: _____
Address: _____

Name: _____
Social Security Number: _____
Date of Birth: _____
Address: _____

District Court Judge

Proposed Override Request Form For Use When Information Retrieval is Prohibited Due to Presence of a FVI in the Registry & When Child Support Division is not a Party

JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT
STATE OF NEW MEXICO
COUNTY OF _____

JANE DOE,
Petitioner,

vs.

DR-xxxxxxxx

JOHN DOE,
Respondent.

FAMILY VIOLENCE INDICATOR OVERRIDE REQUEST FOR FEDERAL CASE REGISTRY INFORMATION FROM FEDERAL PARENT LOCATOR SERVICE

THIS matter comes to the Court’s attention as a result of the above-referenced cause of action involving an issue of child support, the Court’s prior Locate Request and the federal response to that Request which informed the Court of the existence of an FVI.

In order to effectively hear the matter and render its decision, the Court must review the information contained in the Federal Case Registry. The Court is fully aware of the existence of the FVI and the importance of maintaining the security of sensitive Registry information, such as the physical location of the party, parties or child(ren) on whom the FVI has been placed.

THEREFORE, this Override Request is provided to the Human Services Department, as overseer of the New Mexico State Parent Locator Service, in order that the Court, an entity authorized to receive Registry information, can receive and review the information to assist it in resolving a support issue.

The following information is provided in order to effectuate the request (Please print legibly):

Petitioner's Address: _____

Petitioner's Social Security Number(s): _____

Petitioner's Date of Birth (Day, Month, Year): _____

Respondent's Address: _____

Respondent's Social Security Number(s): _____

Respondent's Date of Birth (Day, Month, Year): _____

Information on Child or Children:

Name: _____
Social Security Number: _____
Date of Birth: _____
Address: _____

Name: _____
Social Security Number: _____
Date of Birth: _____
Address: _____

Name: _____
Social Security Number: _____
Date of Birth: _____
Address: _____

Name: _____
Social Security Number: _____
Date of Birth: _____
Address: _____

Name: _____
Social Security Number: _____
Date of Birth: _____
Address: _____

Name: _____
Social Security Number: _____
Date of Birth: _____
Address: _____

District Court Judge

Proposed Locate Request Form Seeking Registry Information When The Child Support Enforcement Division is a Party to the Case

_____ JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT
STATE OF NEW MEXICO
COUNTY OF _____

JANE DOE,
Petitioner,

vs.

DR-xxxxxxxx

JOHN DOE,
Respondent.

LOCATE REQUEST ORDER FOR FEDERAL CHILD SUPPORT AND PATERNITY CASE REGISTRY INFORMATION FROM FEDERAL PARENT LOCATOR SERVICE

THIS matter comes to the Court's attention as a result of the above-referenced cause of action involving an issue of child support. In order to effectively hear the matter and render its decision, the Court must review the information contained in the Federal Case Registry.

THEREFORE, this Locate Request is provided to the Human Services Department, in its role as overseer of the New Mexico State Parent Locator Service, in order that the Court, an entity authorized to receive such information, may obtain Federal Case Registry information on the above-referenced parties.

The following information is provided in order to effectuate the request (Please print legibly):

Petitioner's Address: _____

Petitioner's Social Security Number(s): _____

Petitioner's Date of Birth (Day, Month, Year): _____

The Petitioner: is receiving, or has received / is not receiving, or has not received, any sort of welfare assistance, compensation or benefits. (Please circle appropriate selection.)

Respondent's Address: _____

Respondent's Social Security Number(s): _____

Respondent's Date of Birth (Day, Month, Year): _____

Information on Child or Children:

Name: _____
Social Security Number: _____
Date of Birth: _____
Address: _____

Name: _____
Social Security Number: _____
Date of Birth: _____
Address: _____

Name: _____
Social Security Number: _____
Date of Birth: _____
Address: _____

Name: _____
Social Security Number: _____
Date of Birth: _____
Address: _____

Name: _____
Social Security Number: _____
Date of Birth: _____
Address: _____

Name: _____
Social Security Number: _____
Date of Birth: _____
Address: _____

Child Support Enforcement Division is ORDERED to comply with this Locate Request in as expeditious a manner as possible.

District Court Judge

JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT
STATE OF NEW MEXICO
COUNTY OF _____

JANE DOE,
Petitioner,

NM CHILD SUPPORT ENFORCEMENT DIVISION

Party In Interest,

vs. DR-xxxxxxxx

JOHN DOE,
Respondent.

FAMILY VIOLENCE INDICATOR OVERRIDE REQUEST FOR FEDERAL CASE REGISTRY INFORMATION FROM FEDERAL PARENT LOCATOR SERVICE

THIS matter comes to the Court’s attention as a result of the above-referenced cause of action involving an issue of child support, the Court’s prior Locate Request and the federal response to that Request which informed the Court of the existence of an FVI.

In order to effectively hear the matter and render its decision, the Court must review the information contained in the Federal Case Registry. The Court is fully aware of the existence of the FVI and the importance of maintaining the security of sensitive Registry information, such as the physical location of the party, parties or child(ren) on whom the FVI has been placed.

THEREFORE, this Override Request is provided to the Human Services Department, as overseer of the New Mexico State Parent Locator Service, in order that the Court, an entity authorized to receive such information, can receive the information to assist it in resolving a support issue.

The following information is provided in order to effectuate the request (Please print legibly):

Petitioner’s Address: _____

Petitioner’s Social Security Number(s): _____

Petitioner's Date of Birth (Day, Month, Year): _____

Respondent's Address: _____

Respondent's Social Security Number(s): _____

Respondent's Date of Birth (Day, Month, Year): _____

Information on Child or Children:

Name: _____
Social Security Number: _____
Date of Birth: _____
Address: _____

Name: _____
Social Security Number: _____
Date of Birth: _____
Address: _____

Name: _____
Social Security Number: _____
Date of Birth: _____
Address: _____

Name: _____
Social Security Number: _____
Date of Birth: _____
Address: _____

Name: _____
Social Security Number: _____
Date of Birth: _____
Address: _____

Name: _____
Social Security Number: _____
Date of Birth: _____
Address: _____

District Court Judge

Child Support Enforcement Division is ORDERED to comply with this Override Order in as expeditious a manner as possible.

