Important Political Discourse, Fourstal De ba Jones Gorsan Brandt, J. Pakis, Nev. 7.-- (New York Herald Cable --Special to Trix Birn.]--At the monthly dimiter of the editors of this Journal Des Debuts, given to-night, Leon Say presourced an important political dis-course, which may be considered the programme of the mest mod-frate section of the republicat party. Say did not occupy himself about possible alli-stice between parlimentary cround. ances between parliamentary groups.

ances between purliamentary groups. "The days of the group poloy," he said, "are past. The moderate republicans bave neither to negotiate with the right nor the radicals. They must simply adhere to their principles. They do not see power, but henceforth they must have a clearly defined and firm policy and sustain it without compromise or weak-ness. In the late election the country put an

The electors mainfested no less clearly their districtors recepted a consideration of the interest and propertial consideration of the interest and proposed amendments in the sensio which had for their object the attenuation of the inderest of the laws with respect to aemi-interior of the laws with respect to aemi-interior of the laws with respect to aemi-interior in times of proces, and that in time of verts of the laws with respect to aemi-metric of the laws with respect to aemi-tised on that point. He still thins it usedes with the authorme cores and in information. He thunks also there is necessity to tem-putient it into soft proces, and that is time of that acabinet that would work with the majority of the moderates would ensity atiafy the public wish on these two noints and thus contribute to been religious quar-teria. It would be an act of wisdom to coase using of the financial situation fay agreed with the minimation is intation fay agreed with the minimation is intation for the subarces it is necessary to be annoted with good politics. He finances it is necessary to sence with good politics. He not dissimulate the fact that tate of France's finances would doubtess necessitate the creation of new re-sources, but it is not according to his idea that either an income tax or an increase of the land tax ought to be voted. The new chamber will have to adopt a more efficacious ethod of working than the last legislature modified in order to put an end to intolerable abuses, care must be taken not to suppress ensential guarantees, which have ever been considered as the safeguard of the liberty of ic press.

The ideas expressed by Leon Say constitute the programme of the moderate and liberal policy and are likely to rally all men Moran pointy and are intery to raily all men who are not engaged in the extrems parlies of the right and left. This dis-course replies to the false interpre-tation which had been given his interview. It was said that Leon Say would ally himself to the right and create a schiam in the republican party. His lices are quite different. Leven (iby wishes the motorato republicans to be very firm, as they have al-ways been, in defense of republican institu-tions, and that they should pursue at the same time a predent and conclinatory policy, around which all lovers of order may group illy himself to the right and create a schisu latest work, "Our Christian Horitage," will be issued to morrow. In it is found, among other things, an argu-ment to show that there is no conflict be-tween zelenes and religion. There is a chap-ter on labor. The book closes on the "dangers that threaten our American civil-mition." These, briedly summarized, are Mormonesm and alvorce, the imperied and victors system of education which under-mines the religion of the youth, the descere-tion of the christian Babbait, the gross and systematic election frauds, the unreasonable delay in carrying into effect the sentences of the criminal courts and the numerous subter-fines by which criminals evade the execu-tion of the law.

New YORK, NOV. 7.-The Aspresse court to-day hanted down a devision milirming the decision of Judge Barrett ordering the disso-lution of the North River Sugar Refining company. The court holds that although the trust agreement does not set forth as one of its objects the prevention of competition and the enactment of prizes, these objects may be judicially inferred from the facts in the case and from the ordinary motives of overraing men's actions. And even though outside com-petition might prevent the trust from realis-ing these objects, this accidental fact would not relieve the parties to the agreement from the responsibility of their illegal course. It is a confliction and when a corporation is allowed to be created and maintained that it shall exercise and use it franchises for the benefit of the public, and wheat it voluntarily declines to do that or places itself in a situa-tion in which that my be prevented as a consequence of its voluntary action under the attinte as will as by the decision of the courts, its charter may be assnilled at a shit of the attorney general.
