SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Pursuant to the Randolph-Sheppard Act (20 U.S.C. 107d-2(c)) (the Act), the Secretary publishes in the Federal Register a synopsis of each arbitration panel decision affecting the administration of vending facilities on Federal and other property.

Background

This dispute concerns the alleged improper denial by the North Carolina Department of Human Resources, Division of Services for the Blind (the State licensing agency (SLA)), of Mr. Donald R. Williams' request to acquire satellite vending machines at the Kinston Post Office. A summary of the facts is as follows: In September 1994, complainant Donald R. Williams, a blind vendor under the State's Randolph-Sheppard program, spoke with the SLA regarding his desire to have supplemental income in addition to managing a facility at the Caswell Center Canteen. Mr. Williams also informed the SLA that he would be looking for other sites within the city that would support a Randolph-Sheppard vending facility.

In October 1994, complainant contacted the postmaster at the Kinston Post Office concerning the possibility of establishing a Randolph-Sheppard vending facility at that location. The site was then under contract with a private concessionaire.

In April 1996, the concession contract at the Kinston Post Office expired, and the SLA became the new contract holder on July 15, 1996. Subsequently, the SLA determined that the location would be advertised as a separate facility and would not be added as an outside vending location to the Caswell Center Canteen.

Mr. Williams requested and received a State evidentiary fair hearing on this matter on March 3, 1997. On March 26, 1997, the hearing officer affirmed the SLA's decision to advertise and award the Kinston Post Office location to another vendor. The SLA adopted the hearing officer's decision as final agency action, and it is this decision that Mr. Williams sought to have reviewed by a Federal arbitration panel. A Federal arbitration hearing on this matter was held on April 23, 1998.

Arbitration Panel Decision

The issue before the arbitration panel was whether the North Carolina Department of Human Resources, Division of Services for the Blind, was correct in awarding the Kinston Post Office location to another vendor instead of adding it to Mr. Williams' facility.

The majority of the panel concluded that the SLA is charged with providing vending facility preference to blind persons in need of employment. Specifically, by awarding the Kinston Post Office facility to the current vendor, who was unemployed, the SLA acted in fulfillment of a specific requirement of the Act in 20 U.S.C. 107(a) and implementing regulations in 34 CFR 395.7(a), which states in relevant part that "the State licensing agency shall establish in writing and maintain objective criteria for licensing qualified applicants, including a provision for giving preference to blind persons who are in need of employment. * * *"

The majority of the panel further concluded that the SLA and not the complainant has the authority to locate and negotiate facilities at new sites. The SLA also has the inherent authority to determine if the site will be offered as a separate facility and not as a satellite location.

Therefore, the majority of the panel ruled that, upon a thorough review of the documents, testimony, and arguments presented at the hearing, the SLA acted properly in awarding the Kinston Post Office facility to the current vendor.

One panel member dissented.

Dated: June 10, 1999.

Acting Assistant Secretary for Special Education and Rehabilitative Services.
