PREACHERSVILLE.

It is reported that Mr. Carman Robinson, who formerly lived here, is dead at his home in Indiana.

Our oldest inhabitants say that with one exception the March just ended was the prettiest ever seen.

Some one who loves to hear the bulldog's bark, fired off a pistol nearly a dozen times Saturday night. Our law-abiding citizens deplore such acts.

The Baptists and Methodists reorganized their respective Sunday schools Sunday morning. The Baptist school elected J. M. Cress superintendent and Miss Fannie Thompson secretary.

Born to the wife of John B. Anderson, a 10-pound boy. Mrs. Jesse Traylor is able to sit up. Mrs. John Pepples is sick. Born to the wife of John Cress, a fine girl. J. M. can't talk for smiling.

Misses Fannie Carpenter and Olga Cummins gave a very delightful party Thursday evening at the residence of S. D. Carpenter. A large crowd was in attendance and everybody evidently enjoyed himself, judging from the many compliments we heard passed on the occasion and the pleasure we experienced in being present.

At the residence of Mrs. Green on the evening of April 1st, Mr. Christopher Links and Miss Jennie Green were united in the holy bonds of wedlock. Rev. F. I. Rodgers, of Oklahoma, officiating. The groom is a clever, hard-working young man while the bride is the youngest daughter of the late J. F. Green. We extend our heartiest congratulations to the happy couple.

Miss Flossie May Sutton is visiting relatives at Buckeye. Mr. and Mrs. L. C. King, of Hubble, were visiting at Mrs. Louisa Holtzclaw's. Walter Pettus visited the homefolks. Remember also to bring your contribution for missions. All must be in by the 3rd Sunday. Let each do all possible for there have been more converts than any previous year. More missionaries have been sent out and the basis of operation has been on the basis of 25 per cent. increase for the year ending 1905. Encourage each other and the committee by helping. "God loveth a cheerful giver." Are you one that He loves? O. M. Huey, Pastor.

For a Weak Digestion.

No medicine can replace food but Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will help you to digest your food. It is not the quantity of food taken that gives strength and vigor to the system, but the amount digested and assimilated. If troubled with a weak digestion, don't fail to give these Tablets a trial. Thousands have been benefited by their use. They only cost a quarter. For sale by Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard.

These sage words of the poet
Keep constantly in view:
"Stick to your flannels, Willie,
Until they stick to you."

George Padgett traded his house and 10 acres of land near Kingsville, for a farm owned by John Leach, and will move to it shortly.

Gardening seems to be the order of the day. Mack Williams planted his potatoes Monday. He is expecting a record breaking crop.

The stork has been around. Triplets at the home of Mrs. Martha Leach—all girls. Mother and little ones doing as well as could be expected.

A movement is on foot to organize a base ball team here. With the good timber we have to draw from, other teams will have to go some to hold their own with us.

Mesdames W. L. McCarty and C. M. Thompson will go to Cincinnati next week to select their Spring and Summer millinery. On account of Easter coming so late this year, our milliners, notwithstanding the fine weather we have had, have deferred purchasing their goods until later than usual.

Manfred Chevolette made his regular visit to Highland Sunday. Keep it up Manfred.

Cheated Death.

Kidney trouble often ends fatally, but by choosing the right medicine, Mr. E. H. Wolfe, of Bear Grove, Ia., cheated death. He says: "Two years ago I had Kidney Trouble, which caused me great pain, suffering and anxiety, but I took Electric Bitters, which effected a complete cure. I have also found them of great benefit in general debility and nerve trouble and keep them constantly on hand, since I find they have no equal." G. L. Penny, Stanford, and Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard, druggists, guarantee them at 50 cents.

An eccentric Welshman, who with his wife lived a hermit life for half a century on the mountain at Garth, Llangollen, has died, and the quaint funeral arrangements that he drew up have been carried out. He requested that he be placed in his coffin dressed in his Sunday attire, including shoes, stockings and a clean linen collar. He also specified that his favorite seal skin cap should be placed on his head, and that by his side should be placed his pipe, tobacco and trusty walking stick.—London Chronicle.

Frightful Suffering Relieved.

Suffering frightfully from the virulent poisons of undigested food, C. G. Grayson, of Lula, Miss., took Dr. King's New Life Pills, "with the result," he writes, "that I was cured." All stomach and bowel disorders give way to their tonic, laxative properties. 25c at G. L. Penny's, Stanford, and Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard, druggists, guaranteed.

The Belgian creditors of Santo Domingo are not satisfied with the arrangement made for the collection and disposition of its revenues and demand the payment of $27,000 a month heretofore agreed upon. They hold over half the indebtedness of the island Republic.

Patient—But I thought your price for an appendicitis operation was only $300?
Specialist—Oh, that was yesterday's quotation. The market opened this morning at 325 and advanced briskly to 374!—Puck.

About Rheumatism.

There are few diseases that inflict more torture than rheumatism and there is probably no disease for which such a varied and useless lot of remedies have been suggested. To say that it can be cured is, therefore, a bold statement to make, but Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which enjoys an extensive sale, has met with great success in the treatment of this disease. One application of Pain Balm will relieve the pain, and hundreds of sufferers have testified to permanent cures by its use. Why suffer when Pain Balm affords such quick relief and costs but a trifle? For sale by Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard.
