The Honorable Byron L. Dorgan United States Senate

Subject: Independent Counsel: Advisory and Assistance Services Procured by the Office of Independent Counsel Kenneth W. Starr

Dear Senator Dorgan:

This letter responds to your December 18, 1998, request regarding advisory and assistance service contracts that the office of independent counsel Kenneth W. Starr procured. Specifically, you asked that we obtain information regarding (1) the number of such contracts entered into, (2) the expenditures made for each contract, and (3) the services provided under each contract.

Enclosure 1 contains information provided by the office of independent counsel for the three categories above. The information covers the 57 contractors the office used during the period from Mr. Starr's appointment on August 5, 1994, through May 13, 1999. As agreed with your office, we did not audit the information presented in the enclosure.

We provided a draft of this letter to officials in the office of independent counsel for their review and comment. The officials provided certain corrections to the information in the letter, which we incorporated. Further, in written comments included as enclosure 2, a Deputy Independent Counsel noted that the draft letter accurately represented the information provided by the office of independent counsel. We are sending copies of this letter to other interested parties. Please contact me on (202) 512-9489 if you or your staff have any questions about this letter.

Sincerely yours,

David L. Clark

Director, Audit Oversight and Liaison

Re: Draft Report to the Honorable Byron L. Dorgan:
Advisory and Assistance Services

Dear Sir:

Thank you for the opportunity to comment on the draft of your report to Senator Dorgan. We have a few brief comments on the draft report, in addition to the corrections which we made today during a meeting with Thomas Broderick and Hodge Herry.

The data presented in your report faithfully reproduces the data we provided to GAO upon its request. We would make the following additional points to supplement the data presented:

First, the Office of Independent Counsel has made no effort to formally audit the data provided to the General Accounting Office. The data we have provided for your use is derived from our internal accounting system and we make every attempt to insure its accuracy. However, the information is, nonetheless, unaudited data.

Second, we note that the General Accounting Office's semi-annual audits of our Office have been uniformly unremarkable. As the General Accounting Office has routinely concluded, "for the controls we [the General Accounting Office] tested, we found no material weaknesses in the internal control structure and [the Office of Independent Counsel's] operations." The General Accounting Office has also noted that "[o]ur audit tests for compliance with selected provisions of laws and regulations disclosed no instances of noncompliance that would be reportable under generally accepted government auditing standards." Though these conclusions do not, involve the particular expenditures described in the draft report, we are confident that the expenditures cataloged in the report were all consistent with applicable laws and regulations.

Third, 28 U.S.C. § 595(I)(1)(C) requires an independent counsel to comply with established Departmental policies regarding expenditures. Beyond our adherence to this requirement, we think it is significant to note that many of the expenditures on which you report were, in fact, expenditures under the auspices of the Department of Justice. For example, we pay for court reporting services as riders to an existing Department of Justice contract. Thus, in many instances, our expenditures were at rates identical to, and consistent with, those incurred by the Department of Justice.

Thank you for the opportunity to comment on the draft report.

Jay Apperson
Deputy Independent Counsel
