

[Proposed class or classes of copyrighted work(s) to be exempted]= Computer games and software.

[Brief summary of the argument(s) in support of the exemption proposed above]= Copy Protection methods, such as SecurRom and StarForce often create problems with legitimate users installing and using games and programs, forcing them to use illegal methods to use their legally purchased products. A problem not shared by illegitimate users who pirate the products.