

[Proposed class or classes of copyrighted work(s) to be exempted]= Literary works distributed in electronic audio format by libraries

[Brief summary of the argument(s) in support of the exemption proposed above]= There exists substantial noninfringing uses of audio books that are needlessly restricted by the software used to control distribution of the audio books. Libraries should be able to make alternative formats available.