Region DVDs cause a financial hardship to me. If I want to buy and watch
"Anime" from Japan, then I should be able to watch it on my Region 1 DVD player. I should not have to 'chip' my DVD player, which voids my warranty. If I want to watch it in Linux, I should be able to also do that. I should not have to dual boot my laptop to watch movies. I am not "ripping the artist's off" or copying the DVDs or placing them online. I just want to watch my imported Anime. This does not even affect the MPAA or RIAA. It is a Japanese DVD! I should be able to watch my DVDs on any type of medium I want.
