

Name: Alan McCann

Class of works: I am writing in support of Class #3 (Unskippable DVD Advertising): Audiovisual works released on DVD that contain access control measures that interfere with the ability to control private performance, including the ability to skip promotional materials.

Summary:

Disc name: The Lion King, The Little Mermaid

I am requesting an exemption to the DCMA for the ability to skip promotional materials. We must watch several minutes of promotional material to get to the movie on many of my Disney DVDs, such as The Lion King or The Little Mermaid. Since we watch these movies often, this is an inconvenience to myself and my kids. I do not wish to have my kids watch this material.
