Lexmark's argument for copyright protection is intended to prevent remanufactured from selling remanufactured toner cartridges and put small business like Radio Europe out of business. It's akin to very much the same arguments that are used by Wal-Mart. Small business fail when Wal-Mart enters into a new marketplace that is supported by small business.

Lexmark's should not be allowed to use a HANGMANS ROPE TO PUT TO DEATH SMALL BUSINESS LIKE STATIC CONTROL, AND BUSINESS LIKE RADIO EUROPE ELECTONICS, and THAT DEPENDS ON REMANUFACTURING TONER CARTRIDGES.

RESPECTFULLY

MR. ARMOND CANNELLA
MANAGER, RADIO EUROPE ELECTONICS, SYRACUSE,
