Applicants' Representations

1. The Advisor, a Delaware corporation, intends to serve as investment adviser to BTOP50 CTA Index Fund (the "Fund"), a newly formed investment company that has registered as a closed-end management investment company under the Act and has not yet commenced operations. The Advisor is registered as an investment adviser under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 ("Advisers Act") and is registered with the U. S. Commodity Futures Trading Commission and the National Futures Association as a commodity pool operator and a commodity-trading adviser. AIP is a Delaware limited liability company registered as an investment adviser under the Advisers Act. TA, a Delaware limited liability company, is registered as an investment adviser under the Advisers Act and serves as a research consultant to AIP and to Alpha Fund pursuant to an advisory contract. AAC wholly owns Asset Alliance Holding Corporation, which wholly owns the Advisor, owns 75% of AIP, and owns 50% of TA. AAC also indirectly owns a 50% equity interest in BHAM.

2. On October 28, 2004, the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York entered an order of injunction and other relief against BHAM ("Permanent Injunction") in a matter brought by the Commission (the "Action").² The transactions that are the subject of the Action involved the alleged improper valuations of certain unregistered investment funds managed by BHAM, resulting in BHAM's alleged violation of the Federal securities laws. The Permanent Injunction enjoined BHAM, directly or through its agents, servants, employees, and attorneys from violating sections 17(a)(1), (2) and (3) of the Securities Act of 1933, section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and rule 10b-5 thereunder, and sections 206(1), (2) and (3) of the Advisers Act.

Applicants' Legal Analysis

1. Section 9(a)(2) of the Act, in relevant part, prohibits a person who has been enjoined from engaging in or continuing any conduct or practice in connection with the purchase or sale of a security from acting, among other things, as an investment adviser or depositor of any registered investment company or a principal underwriter for any registered open-end investment company, registered unit investment trust, or registered face-amount certificate company. Section 9(a)(3) of the Act makes the prohibition in section 9(a)(2) applicable to a company any affiliated person of which has been disqualified under the provisions of section 9(a)(2). Section 2(a)(3) of the Act defines "affiliated person" to include any person directly or indirectly controlling, controlled by, or under common control, with the other person. Applicants state that, taken together, sections 9(a)(2) and 9(a)(3) have the effect of precluding them and any other company of which BHAM is an affiliated person, including any other subsidiary of AAC, from serving as investment adviser for any registered investment company or as principal underwriter for any registered open-end investment company.

2. Section 9(c) of the Act provides that the Commission shall grant an application for an exemption from the disqualification provisions of section 9(a) if it is established that these provisions, as applied to the applicants, are unduly or disproportionately severe or that the applicants' conduct has been such as not to make it against the public interest or the protection of investors to grant the application. Applicants have filed an application pursuant to section 9(c) of the Act requesting temporary and permanent orders exempting them from the provisions of section 9(a) of the Act with respect to the Permanent Injunction.

3. Applicants state that the prohibitions of section 9(a) as applied to them would be unduly and disproportionately severe and that the conduct of Applicants has been such as not to make it against the public interest or the protection of investors to grant the exemption from section 9(a). Applicants state that none of their current or former officers, directors, or employees participated in or had any knowledge of the conduct underlying the Action. Applicants have not been the subject of any federal or state enforcement or other administrative or judicial disciplinary proceeding, nor has any of the Applicants been named as a defendant in any other action relating to the securities laws, except that AAC has been named as a defendant in three actions brought by investors in the unregistered investment funds formerly managed by BHAM.³

4. Applicants state that the inability of AIP and TA to continue providing advisory services to the Alpha Fund would result in the Alpha Fund and its shareholders facing potentially severe hardships. Additionally, Applicants assert that if they were barred from providing investment advisory services to the Alpha Fund and other registered investment companies in the future, the effect on their businesses and employees would be severe.

5. Applicants assert that the prohibition also would have a significant effect on the Advisor's business and employees. The Advisor has identified registered investment companies as an area in which it wishes to participate and has committed resources for that purpose, including engaging a portfolio manager and a financial, accounting and regulatory officer for the Fund.

6. Applicants state that at the organizational meeting for the Fund, the Advisor discussed with the Fund's board of directors ("Board"), including the directors who are not interested persons as that term is defined in section 2(a)(19) of the Act, the BHAM situation, AAC's response to it, the Action and the requested exemptive order. Applicants state that the Board approved the investment management agreement with the Advisor, subject to the grant of the exemptive relief and requested a further update at the next Board meeting. Finally, Applicants state that the Advisor has provided and will continue to provide the Fund with all information concerning the Action and the exemptive application necessary for the Fund to fulfill its disclosure and other obligations under the federal securities laws.

7. AIP and TA will distribute written materials, including an offer to meet in person to discuss the materials, to the board of directors of the Alpha Fund regarding the Action and the reasons they believe relief pursuant to section 9(c) is appropriate. AIP and TA will provide the Alpha Fund with all information concerning the Action and the exemptive application necessary for the Alpha Fund to fulfill its disclosure and other obligations under the federal securities laws.

Applicants' Condition

Applicants agree that any order granting the requested relief will be subject to the following condition:

Any temporary exemption granted pursuant to the application shall be without prejudice to, and shall not limit the Commission's rights in any manner with respect to, any Commission investigation of, or administrative proceedings involving or against, Applicants or their affiliated persons, including without limitation, the consideration by the Commission of a permanent exemption from section 9(a) of the Act requested pursuant to the application or the revocation or removal of any temporary exemptions granted under the Act in connection with the application.

Temporary Order

The Commission has considered the matter and finds that Applicants have made the necessary showing to justify granting a temporary exemption.

Accordingly,

It is hereby ordered, pursuant to section 9(c) of the Act, that AIP and TA are granted a temporary exemption from the provisions of section 9(a), effective forthwith, solely with respect to the Permanent Injunction, subject to the condition in the application, until the date the Commission takes final action on the application for a permanent order.

By the Commission.

J. Lynn Taylor,

Assistant Secretary.
