On June 15, 2004, the Media Bureau ("Bureau") released a Public Notice seeking comment on constitutionally permissible ways to further the mandates of section 257 of the Telecommunications Act of 1996, 47 U.S.C. 257, which directs the Commission to identify and eliminate market entry barriers for small telecommunications businesses, and section 309(j) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 47 U.S.C. 309(j), which requires the Commission to further opportunities in the allocation of spectrum-based services for small businesses and businesses owned by women and minorities.¹ The deadlines to file comments and reply comments were originally set as July 22, 2004, and August 6, 2004, respectively.² At the request of the Minority Media and Telecommunications Council ("MMTC"), the Bureau extended the comment deadline to September 10, 2004, and the reply comment deadline to October 8, 2004.³

MMTC now requests that these deadlines be further extended to October 10, 2004, for comments and to November 8, 2004, for reply comments.⁴ MMTC states that the three consultants it has engaged to assist with MMTC's comments need more time to complete their research and analyses, as the task has proved more complex than originally believed. Given the complexity of the legal issues involved, the heightened constitutional standards that apply, and our consequent interest in obtaining a rigorous and comprehensive analysis, we believe that granting MMTC's request for more time will serve the public interest. The new deadline to file comments will be October 12, 2004, and the new deadline to file reply comments will be November 8, 2004.⁵

² Comment and Reply Comment Dates Set for Comments on Ways to Further Section 257 Mandate and to Build on Earlier Studies, Public Notice, MB Docket No. 04-228, DA 04-1758 (MB June 22, 2004).

³ 69 FR 42996, July 19, 2004.

⁴ MMTC Motion for Further Extension of Time (Sept. 7, 2004).

⁵ We are extending the comment deadline to October 12, 2004, because the date requested by MMTC, October 10, 2004, is a Sunday, and October 11, 2004, is a Federal holiday.
